IT'S NOT "SOUTHERN CAL"

Note to the media: In references to athletic teams of the University of Southern California, the following are preferred: USC, Southern California, So. California, Troy and Trojans for men's or women's teams, and Women of Troy for women's teams. PLEASE do not use Southern Cal (it's like calling San Francisco "Frisco" or North Carolina "North Car.").

1997 OUTLOOK

1997 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Summoning his best "L.A. Law" vernacular, USC head coach John Robinson is challenging his 1997 Trojan football team to provide the burden of proof.

"This is a 'Prove It' year," said Robinson, in his 12th season at USC (and the fifth year of his second head coaching tenure at Troy). "This team has potential. But we must prove it by our play. We have a number of players who simply have to prove that they can up their level of play. If they do, we can be successful in 1997."

Indeed, these Trojans have a lot to prove after going 6-6 in 1996 (the first time a USC squad under Robinson hasn't won at least 8 games) and finishing tied for fifth in the Pac-10 at 3-5.

As disappointing as that 1996 record was, remember that 2 of the losses were in double overtime (to Pac-10 champion Arizona State and crosstown rival UCLA) and 2 others were by a touchdown or less (to the bowl-bound duo of California and Stanford). And the Trojans did finish the season on a high note that could provide a springboard of momentum into the 1997 campaign: a thrilling 27-20 overtime victory versus Notre Dame, Troy's first win over the Irish in 14 games.

Consider, too, that the 1996 Trojan squad was a young group. Just 6 seniors started (there were only 13 scholarship seniors on the roster). Ten first-year freshmen played, including 2 who started most of the year (and 3 others who started at least once). In 1997, that inexperience should yield to experience...and Trojan tradition.

Based on previous performances, last year was an aberration for a Robinson-coached USC team. After all, during the past 4 years (1993-96) since Robinson returned to Troy, the Trojans have won more overall games (31) than any other league team while capturing 2 Pac-10 co-championships (USC also finished second once), ranking in the final Top 25 poll 3 times, and winning 3 post-season bowls. They did all this while playing schedules that were ranked among the nation's Top 5 most difficult in 3 of those years.

In fact, a .500-or-below season is a rare occasion at Troy, one not likely to be repeated in 1997. USC has had back-to-back non-winning seasons just 11 times in its 104-year gridiron history, most recently more than 35 years ago (1960 and 1961).

"The inexperience of last year now gives way to players who are more mature, bigger and stronger, more competitive and more experienced in 1997," said Robinson, Division I-A's seventh winningest active coach (minimum 5 years experience) at 75.8%, with an 11-year record of 98-30-4 (he's 2 victories shy of joining the century club). "We must rely on those players to be efficient this season. We have to win with efficiency.

"Going into 1997, this team doesn't have any obvious strength or any obvious weakness. It also doesn't have any obvious star. This team has more players who are competitive with each other and fewer who are well known and who will make the covers of magazines. There is no 'go-to' guy. We'll have to win through team success. So leadership and cohesive team play are the ingredients that will drive this team."

USC returns 75 players from 1996 (21 are seniors). Starters return at 14 positions (8 on offense and 6 on defense), plus last year's punter and placekicker are back. All but 12 players on the 2-deep from the season-ending Notre Dame game return. And add to that a Top 10-ranked recruiting class of 18 high schoolers and 2 junior college transfers (including 16 All-Americans).

Troy might have the best pair of cornerbacks in the country in Daylon McCutcheon and Brian Kelly, both candidates for All-American acclaim. Combined, they have 10 interceptions and 210 tackles in their careers. McCutcheon, who was an All-Pac-10 first teamer in 1996 as a sophomore, has already been named a 1997 pre-season All-American (he might also be used as a slotback on offense and as a kick returner in 1997). Joining them on defense as returning starters are linebackers Chris Claiborne (a 1996 Freshman All-American who was second on the Trojans in tackles last fall with 116) and Mark Cusano (USC's No. 3 tackler in 1996 with 74), and defensive end George Perry (second on Troy last season in tackles for losses at 13 and sacks at 5). Linebackers Grant Pearsall, who started at strong safety in 1996, and Taso Papadakis, a 3-game 1996 starter, likely will miss the 1997 season after tearing knee ligaments in 1997 spring practice. Defensive tackle Cedric Jefferson also returns after starting 5 games on the line last fall. Claiborne and Perry could garner All-Pac-10 honors in 1997.

But the defense will have to plug big holes at linebacker and up front. Starters gone are All-Pac-10 first team linebacker Sammy Knight, who led Troy in tackles the past 2 years (121 in 1996 and 89 in 1995) and in interceptions (5) and fumble recoveries (3) last fall, defensive tackles Darrell Russell (56 tackles in 1996, including team bests of 19 for losses and 9 sacks), an All-Pac-10 first teamer who as a junior was the second pick in the 1997 NFL draft, and 2-time Academic All-American first teamer Matt Keneley (66 stops in 1996), a seventh round pick in the NFL draft, defensive end Willie Lowery (a 3-year starter), and cornerback Ken Haslip, who likely will be academically ineligible.

USC's offense welcomes back starting tailback Delon Washington (20th on USC's career rushing list with 1,649 yards), co-starting fullbacks LaVale Woods (a team-best 601 rushing yards in 1996) and Rodney Sermons (Troy's No. 2 receiver and No. 3 rusher last year), and co-starting wide receivers Mike Bastianelli (24 catches in 1996) and Billy Miller (17 catches in 1996). And last year's entire offensive line--guards Travis Claridge (a 1996 Freshman All-American) and Chris Brymer, center Jonathan Himebauch, and tackles Ken Bowen and Rome Douglas--returns, as does 1995 starting guard-now-tackle Phalen Pounds (a shoulder injury sidelined him all of last fall). That's quite a turnaround from last season, when no starters from 1995 returned up front. Claridge and Brymer are All-Pac-10 candidates in 1997.

Three key offensive starters from 1996 are gone: quarterback Brad Otton (196-of-370, 53.0%, 2,649 yards, 20 TDs and 10 interceptions in 1996), who is fourth on USC's career passing (410 completions) and total offense (5,123 yards) charts, wide receiver Chris Miller (a team-best 43 catches and 5 TDs in 1996), who was a seventh round NFL draft selection, and tight end John Allred (27 receptions in 1996), a second round NFL draft pick.

Jim Wren, whose 45.6 punting average last year ranked seventh nationally and established a new USC season record, is back and will contend for All-American honors in 1997 (he has already garnered pre-season All-American honors). Also returning is placekicker Adam Abrams (13-of-21 field goals and 33-of-36 PATs in 1996).

Several dangerous return specialists are back, too. R. Jay Soward, who returned a pair of kickoffs for touchdowns last fall (he also caught a school-record 97-yard scoring pass as a wide receiver), is one of college's most exciting players. Wide receiver Larry Parker is 18th on Troy's career punt return list, while safety Chad Morton topped the Trojans in punt returns in 1996.

USC again is faced with a daunting schedule, opening against powerful Florida State, which played in the national championship game last season, and closing with UCLA, which has beaten Troy 6 games in a row. In between, the Trojans must travel to Notre Dame, Washington, Arizona State, California, and Oregon State, and host Stanford, Oregon, Washington State and UNLV (besides welcoming the Seminoles and Bruins). Five of USC's 1997 foes were in bowl games last year.

"The motivation for what we're doing this year comes from the 6 losses in 1996," said Robinson. "We're angry about that and disappointed. We're trying to correct things that we didn't do right. We're starting with a real aggressive nature. We're doing things harder than last year because with more experienced players, you can ask them to do more. And we're asking them to play all year with a sustained intensity."

OFFENSE

Starters return at 8 offensive positions in 1997: tailback Washington, co-starting fullbacks Sermons and Woods, guards Brymer and Claridge, tackles Bowen and Douglas, center Himebauch, and co-starting wide receivers Bastianelli and Miller. Troy's leading rusher from both 1995 and 1996 are back (plus the top 4 ground gainers from last fall), as are players who caught 62% of USC's passes in 1996. Last season's entire offensive line returns (plus a 1995 starter). But the quarterback and tight end will be playing regularly for the first time. The Trojans will look to be more potent and balanced offensively than in 1996, when they averaged 362.7 total yards (just 114.0 rushing to go with a 24th-best-in-the-nation 248.7 passing) and 27.1 points per game. Directing the offense will be new offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Hue Jackson.

"Overall, our offense has more depth and experience than we had in 1996," said Robinson. "But we can't put the burden of success on any one player. Our offensive leadership has to come from every position.

"We must be balanced, we must be able to run the ball and we must be efficient offensively. Any offensive explosiveness has to develop as the season goes on. We must concentrate on being solid throughout the offensive unit and proceed from there. Any offensive changes this year will come in the passing game. The running game will be the same style. We'll work on varying the offensive formations."

QUARTERBACK--Who will be USC's quarterback in 1997? The answer began to play itself out in 1997 spring practice and will continue into fall drills as 3 untested youngsters--sophomores Quincy Woods (1-of-3, 33.3%, 24 yards, 0 TDs, 0 interceptions in 1996) and John Fox (0-of-2 with 1 interception in 1996) and redshirt freshman Mike Van Raaphorst--battle for the job. For the first time since 1991, Troy will enter a season with no experienced signalcallers on the roster. The trio has a total of just 22 career snaps and 5 pass attempts (with 1 completion) under their belts. So, whoever is chosen to replace Otton, a 2-year starter who ranks fourth on the school's all-time passing and total offense ladders, will be baptized under fire.

"The most asked question I get is, 'Who's going to be your quarterback?'," said Robinson. "We won't make a decision until a decision is called for. There has been and will continue to be a spirited competition between 3 fine young players. There is no favorite. The most important thing for us to do is to allow them to compete and show their skills. Each of them performed well at times in spring practice and each of them performed like rookies at times, too. Each player has some very strong qualities. Remember, we've had some recent success using 2 quarterbacks, so we might not play just 1 guy. So, with a new offensive coordinator in Hue Jackson and an untested quarterback, 'new and exciting' is the best way to describe our quarterback situation.

"Woods is a young, athletic player who brings a lot to the quarterback position. He is quick and elusive. He is an effective passer on the run and has improved significantly from the pocket. Plus, he's a great leader. He is relatively inexperienced, but he is ready to play and has a great future.

"Fox has a lot of gifts for the quarterback position, but he too is young and untested. He is almost the perfect physical size for a quarterback. He has outstanding skills, he has a natural passer's arm, and he is quite fast.

"Van Raaphorst is a good-looking young quarterback prospect. He's inexperienced, but he will be right in there competing for the starting job. He's a good passer, is very bright, loves football and has a good sense about the game."

RUNNING BACK--There's a nice mix of experience and youth at the tailback and fullback spots in 1997. Considering USC's lack of seasoning at quarterback, Robinson is hoping for increased production from his running backs.

"For the first time since I've been back at USC, we have good, talented depth at the running back spots," said Robinson. "We have a chance to really do some things with our ground attack in 1997."

At tailback, Washington (112 carries, 370 yards, 3.3 average, 2 TDs in 1996) is back for his third season as a starter and is looking to move up USC's career rushing list, where the wily senior enters 1997 in 20th place with 1,649 yards. A repeat of his 1,109-yard sophomore performance in 1995 could bolt him up into the eighth spot. He has eclipsed the 100-yard rushing barrier 6 times in his career.

"Washington is focusing on having a great senior year," said Robinson. "He could be the biggest surprise on our team. He has improved himself physically and is in the best shape of his life. He has excellent vision and balance, among the best I've seen. He's just one of those natural backs who constantly does things on the field that you can't explain."

Look for Sermons (54 carries, 256 yards, 4.7 average, 1 TD in 1996, plus 39 catches, 8.1 average, 5 TDs receiving) and LaVale Woods (119 carries, 601 yards, 5.1 average, 7 TDs in 1996, plus 11 catches, 7.0 average, 1 TD receiving), both seniors, to again share time at fullback in 1997. The multi-purpose Sermons, who was the squad's No. 2 receiver (he's the top returning pass catcher) and No. 3 runner in 1997, will long be remembered for scoring the game-winning TD against Notre Dame on a 5-yard catch in overtime last season to break the Irish's 13-game unbeaten streak over USC. Small but tough and quick Woods was Troy's leading runner in 1996. He might also be used at tailback.

"Sermons is experienced and intelligent and is our most physically improved player," said Robinson. "He has dedicated himself to having a great senior season. He is the most versatile running back we have. He has excellent speed, outstanding competitiveness, great intensity and vision, and can take a beating. He's an acceleration runner. He can see a hole and, zoom, go through it. Woods gives us outstanding ability, experience and intelligence. He's powerful and quick, is very good at making a tackler miss him, and is a great blocker. He is as competitive as any of our backs. And not only is he a good running back, he's a leader by example."

Two new faces are in the mix as backups at tailback: junior college transfer Jabari Jackson, who was a J.C. All-American (City College of San Francisco) in 1996 when he led the California state J.C. ranks in rushing (162.2 avg.) and scoring (13.2 avg.), and Petros Papadakis, the brother of Trojan linebacker Taso Papadakis. Jackson, who enrolled at USC this past spring, will compete as a junior, while Papadakis is a sophomore with 3 years of eligibility (he originally signed with California, but left and enrolled at Troy in 1995).

"Jackson comes to us with great credentials," said Robinson. "He got it done at the junior college level and he's working hard to see that continues here. In the spring, he proved beyond our expectations that he was ready to play. He's a big, smooth runner with good vision. We're looking forward to seeing him in action. Papadakis has been very impressive in the short time he's been here. He's quite fast and tough as a runner. He had an outstanding spring. He could figure in the tailback rotation in 1997."

Other returnees at fullback are redshirt freshmen Ted Iacenda (3 carries, 6 yards, 2.0 average in 1996), who showed promise in 1996 before injuring his shoulder early in the season, and one-time walk-on Brennan Ochs, who received a scholarship this season.

"Iacenda is continuing to improve," said Robinson. "He can be an outstanding and effective fullback. He's tough and competitive. We need to get him on the field in 1997. Ochs looked good in pre-season drills in 1996 before getting hurt. He's a good young player. He'll find a way to be a contributor."

Adding talent this fall as freshmen are a pair of prep All-American tailbacks in Malaefou MacKenzie (Capistrano Valley HS in Mission Viejo, Calif.) and Eric Reese (St. Anthony HS in Long Beach, Calif.), plus fullbacks Charlie Landrigan (Capistrano Valley HS in Mission Viejo, Calif.) and Henry Wallace (Bishop Montgomery HS in Torrance, Calif.).

WIDE RECEIVER--Although Chris Miller, who led the Trojans in receptions (43) and TD catches (5) last fall, is gone, Troy is well-stocked at the wide receiver spots.

"This is going to be a very competitive area because we have so many experienced players returning," said Robinson. "It's a position with great depth, but overall we need to improve the level of play from last year. I think we can. We want to use multiple sets at this position. We had some difficulties here last year because our expectations were too high."

in 1997. Bastianelli is a possession receiver known for his good hands, while Miller has huge potential but is looking to rebound from an inconsistent 1996 outing.

"Bastianelli is a good athlete and a winner who played very well last year," said Robinson. "We can count on him to make the big catch. Miller is a big, physical player who can develop into an outstanding receiver. He struggled at times last year, partly because of injury. He just needs to regain his consistency and confidence. He did very well in spring practice. He has the experience and ability to be an impact player in 1997."

Senior Parker (10 catches, 12.9 average in 1996), who started all of 1995, is another wideout looking to bounce back after a so-so 1996. He is USC's most experienced receiver, with 49 career grabs. He is also available to returns punts, as he is 18th on USC's career punt return chart.

"Parker struggled last year because of nagging injuries and had a disappointing season, but we expect him to come back strong in 1997," said Robinson. "He was one of our most improved players in spring practice. He has the athletic ability to step up."

One way or another, look for soph Soward (18 catches, 28.2 average, 5 TDs in 1996) to be on the field often in 1997 (he'll likely share time with Parker) and USC to give him the ball frequently. One of the most explosive and exciting players in college football, he was USC's big-play threat as a wide receiver and return specialist as just a freshman last year. He averaged a touchdown every 4.7 times he touched the ball in 1996. He was on the receiving end of a school-record 97-yard TD pass at Illinois, had 260 yards (a NCAA freshman record and a USC school mark) and 3 TDs on just 6 catches at UCLA, and returned kickoffs for scores at Arizona State and Washington State (the first time a Trojan had a pair of scoring runbacks since 1974). He led USC in kickoff returns (31.4 average).

"Good things happen whenever Soward gets the ball in his hands," said Robinson. "He's one of the great big-play performers in college football. He's talented and fun to watch. He's the type of player that defenses must key on. He has settled down now and is working on his efficiency. Whether he starts or not, he'll be on the field a lot in 1997."

Also in the hunt for playing time are redshirt freshmen Troy Garner, Stanley Guyness and one-time walk-on Kevin McLaughlin, who won a scholarship this season.

"Garner is young, but has shown promise," said Robinson. "Guyness is a young, untested wide receiver with lots of potential. He has a lot of skills, but needs to get stronger. McLaughlin is a good young player who can be a contributor to our team."

And don't be surprised if cornerback McCutcheon is used on occasion as a slotback receiver. He's that dangerous with the ball.

This fall, prep All-American Rod Perry (Mater Dei HS in Santa Ana, Calif.)--the son of ex-NFL Pro Bowler Rod Perry--comes aboard as a freshman.

TIGHT END--Tight end, a strength for the Trojans in recent years, is a question mark in 1997.

"This is our most critical area," said Robinson. "The last few years, we've been 3-deep at tight end. But we return only one scholarship tight end from last year and he has little experience. Depth here is comprised of a player who changed positions, a former walk-on and some freshmen."

Junior Rickman, a little-used one-time defensive player who has been injured often during his USC career, is the leading tight end candidate to replace Allred (an NFL second round choice) and his 27 receptions of 1996. He has yet to catch a pass at USC and has played mainly on special teams. He will be given the chance to cram his Trojan career into his senior campaign.

"Rickman is putting his entire career into this season," said Robinson. "He doesn't have a lot of experience, but he has a lot of talent and is impressive physically. He has improved dramatically and is capable of doing a good job. He has good quickness and strength. We need for him to stay healthy."

This past spring, junior Marvin Powell III (2 catches, 9.5 average, 1 TD in 1996) switched from fullback, where he started USC's first 4 games last fall, to tight end to bolster the position. He could even serve as an H-back (tight-end-in-motion) in 1997.

"Powell is a very physical and athletic player," said Robinson. "He's now bigger and more experienced. He can fill a number of roles for our offense. "

Also available at tight end is ex-walk-on senior Jeff Daley, who earned a scholarship this season.

"Daley has really come on as a player and earned a scholarship," said Robinson. "He had a good spring and fills a need for us at tight end. He's also a key special teams player."

Adding much-needed depth this fall as freshmen are prep All-Americans Lonnie Ford (Morse HS in San Diego, Calif.) and Antoine Harris (Loyola HS in Los Angeles, Calif.), as well as junior college transfer Pat Swanson (Fullerton JC in Fullerton, Calif.), a sophomore who likely will serve as USC's long snapper.

OFFENSIVE LINE--What a difference a year makes! Last year, USC entered the season with no returning starters on the offensive line. This season, all 5 offensive line starters--who average 6-5 1/2 and 307 pounds--are back, as is a 1995 starter.

"Last year's offensive line was the most inexperienced that I've ever had and we suffered because of that," said Robinson. "That entire group is back, but has matured a great deal. Now, we're an experienced, deep line and a team strength. Besides the returning starters, we have a number of other players who are in a position to compete for time. This unit will have the most depth of any on our team and will have more players competing to play than any other area."

Both guards return and both are All-Pac-10 candidates: senior Brymer (6-3, 310) on the left side and sophomore Claridge (6-6, 300) on the right. The aggressive Brymer will start for his third season. The big, strong and tough Claridge, a Freshman All-American in 1996, was the first true freshman to start a season opener on the offensive line for USC since 1979 Lombardi Award winner Brad Budde did so in 1976.

"Brymer is a tough, tested player who is a major factor on our line," said Robinson. "He's a very good player. Claridge is headed for greatness. His performance as a freshman was one of the most impressive ones I've seen. He's a fundamentally-sound and intelligent lineman with outstanding ability. He's strong, willing and has a mean streak in him."

The returning tackles--juniors Bowen (6-8, 330) on the right and Douglas (6-7, 300) on the left--are solid.

"Bowen is one of the better tackles around," said Robinson. "He has the size, commitment and intelligence needed to develop into an outstanding player. He has increased his speed and strength. He's very efficient and knows what he's doing. He's a giant of a man. Douglas gained a lot of experience last year and we're looking for him to continue improving in 1997. He is very athletic and has good speed."

OG TRAVIS CLARIDGE

OG CHRIS BRYMER

As an added bonus, Pounds (6-7, 325)--a 1995 starter at right guard--is back for his senior year after missing last season because of a shoulder injury. He has been moved to tackle, where he likely will start on the left side over Douglas.

"It's good to get Pounds back," said Robinson. "He is a solid, veteran player and has the ability to be an outstanding lineman. We felt like he fit the tackle spot better than he did at guard and he took to the change well in spring practice. His presence gives our line great experience and depth."

The steady, dependable Himebauch (6-3, 295), a senior, is back as the center. He's the only returning starter under 300 pounds...and by just 5 pounds!

"Himebauch did an outstanding job for us last year," said Robinson. "He's a good, smart player who provides stability and leadership to our offensive line. We expect more of the same in 1997. He's an all-star in our minds."

Battling for backup roles at tackle are senior Grant Boelter and redshirt frosh Brent McCaffrey, Joel Sugg and Mike Whitcanack. The backup guards include junior David Pratchard, who started once last fall and could see key action in 1997, sophomore Jason Grain and redshirt freshman Trevor Roberts. The backup centers will be sophomores Matt McShane (a converted guard) and Eric Denmon. USC will be without sophomore tackle-guard Faaesea Mailo (a 3-game starter in 1996), who is on a 2-year Mormon mission.

"We need for these backup players to develop and provide our line with some quality depth," said Robinson. "Boelter has good size and is a well-schooled run blocker. McCaffrey played well in the spring and really came on. As he improves, he has a chance to get into the offensive line's playing mix. Sugg is a young offensive lineman with good potential. Whitcanack is a young, maturing player with good size.

"Pratchard is a big, tough, efficient, improved player with experience. His time has come. He's stronger, more confident and more aggressive. He's good enough to contend for key playing time. Grain is a young, developing player who, as he matures, has a chance to be a factor. He made a huge jump in spring practice and should end up as a solid college player. Roberts is another developing young offensive lineman with good potential. He had a nice showing in spring practice.

"McShane is a young, developing offensive lineman who has shown continued improvement during his time at USC. He really jumped up in spring practice. He has the personality of a center, who toils in anonymity, and really took to the position switch. Denmon is a player with a good future here. He's good enough to almost start in 1997 and could own the job in future years. He's quick, intelligent and works hard."

DEFENSE

Six starters--cornerbacks McCutcheon and Kelly, linebackers Claiborne, Cusano and Pearsall, and end Perry--return on defense in 1997 (although Pearsall likely will miss the season with a knee injury). But three-fourths of the defensive line will be new. The Trojans were second in the Pac-10 in total defense in 1996, surrendering just 363.9 total yards (173.2 on the ground and 190.8 through the air), as well as second in pass efficiency defense (106.81) and fourth in scoring defense (22.3). USC--under defensive coordinator and secondary coach Keith Burns --allowed only 11 TD passes in 1996 after giving up just 6 in 1995. Expect the Trojans to use multiple defensive formations in 1997.

"We'll be faster on defense this year, but I'm concerned about the overall depth of our defense in 1997, particularly on the line," said Robinson. "We'll miss Knight, Russell and Keneley, 3 outstanding players who made a lot of plays last year. We have players capable of stepping up and filling those voids, but our defensive success will depend on their improvement. Our strength defensively should be at cornerback and linebacker. This year, we'll use the defensive line to occupy the passer and ask the linebackers to be more aggressive."

DEFENSIVE LINE--Here's another area that goes from a strong point in 1996 to a concern in 1997. Only 1 defensive line starter comes back from last fall. Gone are some impressive players: tackles Russell, an All-Pac-10 first teamer and the Pac-10 Morris Trophy winner who topped the Trojans in tackles for losses (19) and sacks (9) in 1996 (he was the No. 2 pick in the 1997 NFL draft after his junior season), and Keneley, a 2-time Academic All-American first teamer who had 66 tackles last fall (and 217 in his career), and 3-year starting end Lowery (94 career stops, including 29 in 1996).

Only Perry (41 tackles, 13 for losses, 5 sacks, 1 interception in 1996), a pugnacious senior end, returns as a starter...but he's a good one and now is a candidate for All-Pac-10 notice. Last fall, he was second on Troy in tackles for losses and sacks.

"Perry is a potential all-star," said Robinson. "He's big, strong and quick and he keeps improving. He's much more physical and intense. This could be a breakout year for him."

Sharing time at the vacant end spot will be Aaron Williams (19 tackles, 5 for losses, 4 sacks, 1 fumble recovery in 1996), a quick sophomore who started once in 1996, and junior Lawrence Larry (6 tackles in 1996).

DE GEORGE PERRY

DT CEDRIC JEFFERSON

"Williams had some outstanding performances last year and has a fine future at USC," said Robinson. "He has good strength and quickness. Larry is experienced and capable of being a high-quality player in 1997."

Redshirt frosh Shamsud-Din Shaheed, a converted linebacker, and Sultan Abdul-Malik will be the backup ends in 1997.

"Shaheed is a young player who gives us depth at a position where we need it," said Robinson. "The move to defensive end will allow him to take advantage of his best skills. He is impressive physically and has made rapid improvement. Abdul-Malik is another young player with good potential. We're counting on him to come through for us and provide needed depth on the outside of our defensive front."

The probable starting tackles will be veteran senior Jefferson (29 tackles, 5 for losses, 1 fumble recovery in 1996), who started 5 early-season games at end and tackle in 1996, and strong junior Marc Matock (7 tackles in 1996).

"Jefferson excelled more than expected in spring practice," said Robinson. "If he can stay healthy, he will be an important part of our defensive line in 1997. He was a very good player last year when he was healthy. He is an excellent run defender and has improved as a pass rusher. Matock could come into his own in 1997. He's a good, blue-collar type player, but relatively inexperienced. We're looking for him to step up and have a solid season."

The backup tackles figure to be redshirt freshman Ennis Davis and senior Dennis Tolbert (1 tackle in 1996).

"Davis is inexperienced, but has the talent and size needed to play in 1997," said Robinson. "We're looking for him to step up and have a solid season. He is continuing to mature. Tolbert is a physical, mature player who will add depth to our defensive front."

Help arrives this fall with the enrollment of 3 freshmen ends who were prep All-Americans--Bobby DeMars (Westlake HS in Westlake Village, Calif.), Kori Dickerson (Washington HS in Los Angeles, Calif.), and Ryan Nielsen (Royal HS in Simi Valley, Calif.)--and tackle Tommie Townsend (Bonanza HS in Las Vegas, Nev.).

"Although the defensive end spots could be strong, we lack depth in our defensive line and, therefore, this group will be a key question mark of our team in 1997," said Robinson. "We're counting on a lot of younger, inexperienced players to come through for us. We could have a problem here if we lose anybody to injury."

LINEBACKER--Here's another unit that lost a stellar player to graduation--All-Pac-10 first teamer Knight, a 3-year starter who led Troy in tackles the past 2 years (121 in 1996 and 89 in 1995) and in interceptions (5) and fumble recoveries (3) last fall --and then suffered some crucial injuries in 1997 spring practice, but has enough top-notch returning linebackers to compensate.

The best of the bunch is just a sophomore and a budding star: the always-around-the-ball Claiborne (116 tackles, 4 for losses, 7 deflections, 2 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery in 1996). A 1996 Freshman All-American who is vying for All-Pac-10 honors in 1997, he was second on the Trojans in tackles last fall with 116 (the most ever by a Trojan frosh)--81 of which were solo stops--from his starting middle linebacker spot.

"Claiborne is quite a player," said Robinson. "He had an unbelievable freshman season and should pick right up from there in 1997. He's always around the ball, he has great instincts, he makes big plays, and he's rough and tough. He has the ability to dominate a game. In time, he could develop into one of the top players in college."

Also back as a starter is Cusano (74 tackles, 3 for losses, 6 deflections, 1 interception, 1 fumble recovery in 1996), a solid junior. He was USC's No. 3 tackler in 1996 (with 74) and will long be remembered for his game-ending pass deflection on fourth down in overtime that gave the Trojans their first win over Notre Dame in 14 years.

"Cusano is a quick, instinctive, talented linebacker and a team leader," said Robinson. "One day, he'll be an all-star."

Sophomore David Gibson (9 tackles in 1996), a backup strong safety in 1996, will play the rover spot (a combination linebacker and strong safety) and likely will start there in 1997. The job opened up when hard-hitting senior Pearsall (66 tackles, 1 interception in 1996), who started at strong safety in 1996 and was set to be starting rover linebacker this year, tore knee ligaments in 1997 spring practice. Pearsall could be sidelined for the entire 1997 campaign.

"Gibson is right there with our more experienced players," said Robinson. "He's a solid, very impressive player. He's fast, big and tough, but he's young. It's a blow to lose Pearsall, a talented, solid and experienced player and team leader. He was one of our most improved players in 1996."

In addition to Pearsall's loss, the linebacking corps suffered another blow when physical but often-injured Taso Papadakis (17 tackles, 3 for losses in 1996), who started USC's first 3 games last season in the middle last, also tore knee ligaments in 1997 spring drills. He, too, could be out for the 1997 season (it's the third season-ending injury in his Trojan career).

"It's just a shame about Papadakis' latest injury," said Robinson. "He's a veteran and a leader, and he was going to be a factor in our linebacking corps. He is a solid player who thrives in the physical, tough style of play. He is battle tested and gives us a high level of performance and leadership."

That leaves 4 players to angle for backup duty: seniors Ryan Tyiska (20 tackles in 1996), who was the backup to Knight at the rover linebacker position the past 2 years and even started there once in 1996, and one-time walk-on Jonathan Mosley, who earned a scholarship in 1997, junior Bob Aubrey (7 tackles in 1996) and redshirt freshman Jason Steen, who can also play defensive end. Tyiska is listed as Gibson's backup, Aubrey is behind Claiborne, and Steen and Mosley back up Cusano.

"Tyiska is a fast, explosive, instinctive player," said Robinson. "If he can provide us with a high level of play and leadership, he'll be a big factor in our linebacking corps. Mosley is a hard-working, unrecognized player who has earned his scholarship. He'll give us depth at a position where we need it. Aubrey is a solid, veteran player who also gives us depth. He has become a key special teams performer, too. Steen is young and has good potential. We need him to come through and provide needed depth on the outside of our defense."

LB CHRIS CLAIBORNE

LB MARK CUSANO

Joining the linebacking corps this fall as freshmen are a pair of prep All-Americans: Zeke Moreno (Castle Park HS in Chula Vista, Calif.) and Michael Pollard (Poly HS in Long Beach, Calif.).

"We've lost a great leader and player in Knight, but we have some talented linebackers who can give us a high level of performance and leadership," said Robinson. "This could be a strong area for our team in 1997."

SECONDARY--The secondary could be USC's most talented unit. You won't find a better pair of cornerbacks in the country than McCutcheon (48 tackles, 3 for losses, 14 deflections, 3 interceptions in 1996), a junior, and Kelly (43 tackles, 2 for losses, 11 deflections, 1 interception, 1 fumble recovery in 1996), a senior. Both are All-American candidates (McCutcheon has already been accorded pre-season All-American acclaim). Combined, they have 10 interceptions and 210 tackles in their careers. Kelly will be starting for his fourth season and moves back to cornerback in 1997 (his position as a freshman and sophomore) after playing free safety last fall. McCutcheon, an All-Pac-10 first teamer in 1996, will start for his third year. He might also be used to return kickoffs and, perhaps, even see some time as a slotback on offense.

"McCutcheon is a special player," said Robinson. "He can develop into one of the great USC football players ever. He has all the skills of an outstanding cornerback: speed, instinct, toughness and great cover ability. He also could return kickoffs in 1997 and even could see some action on offense as we try to make our wide receiver position more multiple. We've moved Kelly back to cornerback, his natural position, and I believe he'll have a great senior year. He should compete for All-American honors and could be a high NFL draft choice. He has great cover skills. And he's an outstanding leader."

Backing that pair at cornerback are 2 speedy players: senior Anthony Volsan (6 tackles, 1 fumble recovery in 1996) and junior Prentice Hill (12 tackles, 2 for losses, 2 fumble recoveries in 1996). Both also are special teams standouts (Hill blocked a punt and also scooped up another blocked punt to score a TD in 1996). They will be called upon to help make up for the loss of Haslip, an 8-game starter at cornerback in 1996 but likely academically ineligible in 1997.

"Volsan has great speed," said Robinson. "He is a solid at cornerback and on special teams. Hill has great quickness and stars on special teams, where he makes good things happen. He also is capable of solid play in the secondary."

Junior Rashard Cook (42 tackles, 3 for losses in 1996), who started once in 1996, will assume the strong safety job held by Pearsall last fall.

"Cook can really play," said Robinson. "He's experienced and packs a lot of punch."

Fleet sophomore Morton (23 tackles, 2 for losses, 1 fumble recovery in 1996) has been moved from cornerback to Kelly's free safety spot and should start there in 1997 (he might also see some action at cornerback). He started 3 late-season games last year at corner (he also played tailback early in the season, but will stick to defense in 1997). And he could return punts again (he topped the Trojans in 1996, with a 9.3 average).

"Morton is one of the fastest players I've been around," said Robinson. "He's a very solid defensive back. He runs with a purpose and gets to the right spot with his brilliant speed. He's very bright and is a quick learner. We expect him to make a number of big plays there and on special teams."

Soph Darnell Lacy (17 tackles in 1996), who started a game last season, will back up Morton at free safety.

"Lacy showed great promise last year and has a nice future at USC," said Robinson. "He's big, mature and possesses good skills."

Four prep All-Americans look to make their marks this fall as freshmen: cornerbacks Kris Richard (Serra HS in Gardena, Calif.) and Antuan Simmons (Valley HS in Sacramento, Calif.) and safeties Darryl Knight (Rubidoux HS in Rubidoux, Calif.) and Ifeanyi Ohalete (Los Alamitos HS in Los Alamitos, Calif.). Knight is the brother of former Trojans Ryan and Sammy Knight.

"The secondary should be strong once again," said Robinson. "McCutcheon and Kelly should be two of the best in college football in 1997. We expect them to have great seasons. At times, we'll play with 3 safeties on the field, so depth could be a concern. We're looking for immediate help from some talented freshman defensive backs."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Special teams could be a strength for the 1997 Trojans, as almost everyone--the punter (Wren), kicker (Abrams), holder (Wren) and kick/punt returners (Soward, Morton and Parker) --returns from last fall. Only a new snapper must be found.

"Most of the same group of specialists from 1996 are back, but our play in this area must improve," said Robinson. "Last year, we had some outstanding performances on special teams and we had some awful performances. We must level that out. Our placekicking, in particular, was a mixed bag last year. We have good potential there, but we just need to realize it. I feel real good about our punting and our returners, though. They're some of the best in the game."

Indeed, the Trojans had 7 kicks and 1 punt blocked and allowed 1 scoring kickoff return in 1996. On the other hand, USC blocked 1 kick and 3 punts (1 blocked punt went for a TD) and ran back 2 kickoffs for touchdowns last fall.

PUNTER--Wren (45.6 average in 1996), a strong-legged and poised senior All-American candidate, might be the best punter in the nation in 1997 (he already has been named a preseason All-American). Last year, in his first season at Troy after transferring from a junior college, he ranked seventh nationally in punting and established a new USC season punting average record (breaking the old mark by a yard). He had 22 punts travel at least 50 yards and another 21 pin opponents inside the 20-yard line. He'll also hold on all placekicks.

"In my mind, Wren is the best punter in the country," said Robinson. "He's a real weapon for us. He had a great showing last year and should be even better in 1997. He has an impressive leg, plus he's cool and tough back there."

SPECIAL TEAMS
ADAM ABRAMS, Jr., PK	18 field goals, 54 PATs in career
David Bell, So., PK	Handled kickoffs in '96
Mike MacGillivray, PK-P	'96 prep All-American
Adam Rendon, Jr., PK	4 field goals, 20 PATs in career
JIM WREN, Sr., P	'97 All-American candidate

Backing him will be junior wide receiver Bastianelli and incoming frosh Mike MacGillivray (Loyola HS in Los Angeles, Calif.), both who can double as a placekicker.

PLACEKICKER--Abrams (13-of-21 field goals, 33-of-36 PATs in 1996) returns for his third season as the placekicker. However, he grappled through some inconsistency last season, as 7 of his kicks were blocked.

"Abrams has shown in the past that he can be an outstanding kicker who can make big kicks," said Robinson. "But he struggled with his consistency and confidence last year. If he can smooth that out, I predict he will make some of the bigger kicks in USC history."

If Abrams falters, USC can turn to junior Adam Rendon (1-of-1 PAT in 1996), who has kicked 4 field goals and 20 PATs in his career (mainly when filling in for an injured Abrams in 1995), sophomore David Bell, or even junior wide receiver Bastianelli. Bell and Rendon will contend for the kickoff duty, as both have effectively filled that role in the past.

"Rendon is a competitor and has come through in clutch situations in the past," said Robinson. "Bell has a strong leg and did a nice job kicking off for us last year."

Incoming frosh Mike MacGillivray (Loyola HS in Los Angeles, Calif.), a prep All-American, will make the kicking competition even more interesting this fall. Primarily a punter who can also kick off impressively, he is a capable placekicker, too.

SNAPPER--Sophomore tight end Pat Swanson, a junior college transfer who arrives this fall, senior center Himebauch and redshirt freshman offensive tackle McCaffrey will compete for the job of long snapper on all placekicks and punts, filling in for the loss of 1996 snapper Pat Smith.

HOLDER--Senior punter Wren figures to again be the holder on all placekicks, as he did in 1996. Soph quarterback Fox will be the backup.

RETURNERS--USC features some dangerous return men. Sophomore wide receiver Soward, who returned a pair of kickoffs (98 and 78 yards) for touchdowns last season, would have ranked second nationally in kickoff returns (31.4 average on 14 runbacks in 1996) but was a fraction of a return shy of qualifying for consideration. It was the first time since 1974 that a Trojan had more than 1 scoring return in a season. He'll likely be joined returning kicks by junior cornerback McCutcheon, who averaged 23.7 yards on 3 kickoff returns in 1996, or soph safety Morton. On punt returns, look for either Morton, who topped the Trojans in that category last fall (9.3 average on 16 returns in 1996), senior wide receiver Parker (5.3 average on 6 punt returns in 1996), who is 18th on the Trojans' career punt return list (8.4 average on 36 returns), or even Soward.

After 4 years of his second stint as USC's head football coach (and 11 years overall), John Robinson--known not only for his success and coaching ability, but for the passion he exudes for the game and the way he is able to motivate his players--has brought back a renewed optimism and enthusiasm among Trojan fans and players. And, by the way, he's turned out some pretty good teams.

During the past 4 years (1993-96) since he returned to USC, Troy has won more overall games (31) than any other league team (its 21 Pac-10 wins is 1 behind Washington in that span) while capturing 2 Pac-10 co-championships (USC also finished second once), ranking in the final Top 25 poll 3 times, and winning 3 post-season bowls. The Trojans did all this while playing schedules that were ranked among the nation's Top 5 most difficult in 3 of those years.

In May of 1996, USC extended his original 4-year contract for an additional 5 years through the 2001 season.

Robinson, 62, is Division I-A's seventh winningest active coach (minimum 5 years experience) at 75.8%, with an 11-year record of 98-30-4. His 98 career victories are the seventh most ever by a coach after his 11th year at the Division I-A level. His 74.7% winning mark versus Pac-10 teams is the fifth best percentage in league history (he's 59-19-3, seventh on the Pac-10 win ladder). Robinson's first 10 Trojan teams won at least 8 games. He owns a 7-1 post-season record, including 4-0 in the Rose Bowl, and a 7-3-1 mark against Notre Dame. Only John McKay (175 games in 16 years) and Howard Jones (170 games in 16 years) have coached more contests at USC than Robinson (132).

Overall as USC's head coach, he has tutored 24 Trojan All-American first teamers, 22 NFL first round selections (and 85 NFL draft picks), 2 Heisman Trophy winners and a Lombardi Award recipient.

Robinson could post his 100th career victory in 1997 (he needs 2 more wins). If USC starts off 2-0, he'll get his 100th win faster (the second game of his 12th season) than all but 6 coaches in history and in fewer games (134) than all but 22 coaches.

The 1996 season saw USC snap its 13-game non-winning streak to Notre Dame with a season-ending 27-20 overtime victory. But 1996 was the first time that a Robinson-led Trojan squad didn't finish with a winning record, as USC went 6-6 overall (3-5 in the Pac-10 for a fifth place tie). Troy played the nation's third toughest schedule, according to USA Today, losing twice in 2 overtimes (to Pac-10 champion Arizona State and crosstown foe UCLA) and twice more by 7 points or less.

In 1995, USC beat No. 3 Northwestern in the Rose Bowl after winning the Pacific-10 co-championship with a 6-1-1 record (Troy clinched the Rose Bowl berth with a week still to go in league play). USC went 9-2-1 overall to rank 11th by USA Today/CNN and UPI and 12th by AP. The 1995 schedule featured 5 bowl-bound teams. Wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson, who set the Pac-10 season reception record, was a unanimous All-American and NFL first round draft pick.

Robinson's 1994 Trojans, who played what USA Today called the nation's fifth toughest schedule (with 6 1993 bowl teams and 7 which appeared in the 1994 post-season), were 8-3-1 overall. USC was ranked in the Top 15 (13th by AP and UPI, and 15th by USA Today/CNN), finished tied for second in the Pac-10 at 6-2 (for the second year in a row, Troy went into the league finale against UCLA with a shot at the Rose Bowl), and posted a convincing Cotton Bowl victory. Offensive tackle Tony Boselli was a consensus All-American and the second pick of the NFL's draft, while quarterback Rob Johnson became USC's career passing leader.

After a 10-year absence, Robinson returned to USC on Jan. 3, 1993 (he replaced Larry Smith, who resigned Jan. 1 after 6 seasons at Troy). And what a homecoming it was for Robinson. Despite a schedule ranked by USA Today as the fourth toughest in the nation--featuring 9 bowl teams from 1992, 7 teams which played in 1993 bowls, 6 opponents which were ranked in the final Top 25, and only 5 home games--Robinson guided USC to a share of the 1993 Pac-10 championship and, save for 2 more yards at the end of the UCLA game, a near trip to the Rose Bowl. His Trojans were 8-5 overall (all the losses were to Top 20 teams) and 6-2 in the Pac-10 to rank 25th in the final USA Today/CNN and UPI polls. His team won the Freedom Bowl. The 1993 Trojans set 5 USC season passing records, including most yards (3,829), most TDs (31) and lowest interception rate (1.26%). Wide receiver Johnnie Morton, a consensus All-American and NFL first rounder, and Rob Johnson set 22 Pac-10 and USC records between them.

Robinson won 81.9% of his games (67-14-2) in his original 7 seasons (1976-82) at USC, averaging nearly 10 wins a year. He won the national championship in 1978 with a 12-1 mark (USC was ranked No. 2 in 1976 and 1979), led USC to 3 Pac-10 titles (along with 2 second-place and 2 third-place finishes), and guided Troy to 5 post-season bowls (going 4-1, with wins in his 3 Rose Bowl trips). He was 6-1 against Notre Dame and 5-2 against UCLA. From 1978 through 1980, USC posted a school-record 28-game unbeaten streak. He coached 2 Heisman Trophy winners (Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981), a Lombardi Award winner (Brad Budde in 1979) and 21 first team All-Americans. He was National Coach of the Year in 1979 with his 11-0-1 team and Pac-10 Coach of the Year in 1976 and 1978. His first team in 1976 went 11-1, winning its final 11 contests, and Robinson became the league's first rookie head coach in 25 years to take his team to the Rose Bowl. That tied an NCAA record for most victories by a first-year head coach.

His Trojan teams were noted as offensive powerhouses with dominant defenses. USC finished third (in 1976) and fourth twice (1977 and 1979) nationally in total offense. The 1979 squad gained more yards (5,655) than any team in Trojan history. Defensively, the Trojans finished first in the conference in total defense 4 times (1976-77-80-81) and the 1980 team led the Pac-10 in every team defensive category.

This is actually Robinson's third go-around at Troy. He was USC's offensive coordinator for 3 years (1972-74) under McKay when the Trojans captured the national title twice (1972 and 1974) and played in 3 Rose Bowls (winning 2).

Robinson coached the NFL's Los Angeles Rams to a 79-74 mark--the most wins of any Rams head coach--in his 9 years there (1983-91). He reached the playoffs in 6 of those seasons, twice advancing to the NFC championship game (1985 and 1989). He coached more games (153) for more years (9) than any other Rams coach.

Considered an expert on the running game, Robinson has produced 4 NFL rushing champions and 2 NCAA rushing leaders. He also has the unique distinction of turning out the single season rushing record setters in college (Allen in 1981 with 2,427 yards, a record that has since been broken) and pro football (Eric Dickerson in 1984 with 2,105 yards).

He spent 1992 as a television analyst with CBS-TV (handling NFL games), USA Network (doing World League games) and Prime Ticket (handling 3 USC football telecasts).

Now with 36 years of coaching experience, Robinson began his coaching career as an assistant at Oregon for 12 seasons (1960-71). He also was the backfield coach with the Oakland Raiders in 1975, working under childhood friend John Madden. He spent 4 months (November of 1982 to February of 1983) as USC's senior vice president for university relations before taking the Rams job.

Born on July 25, 1935, Robinson grew up in Daly City, Calif. He starred in football (earning Catholic All-American and All-Northern California honors as an end) and baseball at Serra High in San Mateo. He then lettered at end at Oregon when the Ducks won the 1957 Pacific Coast Conference title and played in the Rose Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in education from Oregon in 1958.

In the fall of 1995, Robinson co-authored his second book, "Coach to Coach, Business Lessons from the Locker Room." Published by Pfeiffer & Company (and co-written with Ann Coyle), it is geared to business executives and football fans. The book shows how business managers can increase productivity and efficiency by taking coaching principles and applying them to the business environment. In 1981, Robinson joined with Los Angeles-area sportswriter Joe Jares on "Conquest," a coffee table-style book about USC's football heritage.

Robinson has 4 grown children, daughters Teresa and Lynn and sons David (an assistant coach at USC) and Christopher, and 2 step-daughters, Karilyn and Elizabeth. His wife, Linda, who owned her own modeling agency for 10 years, now spends her time watercoloring and designing greeting cards, besides being at her husband's side at every USC event possible.

--Richard Hoffer, Sports Illustrated

"Robinson...has been there and done that for nearly every coaching achievement that matters, college or pro...Coaching is what he enjoys doing...(And) he enjoys recruiting and being around college kids."
--Herb Gould, Chicago Sun-Times

"The message of USC in the (1996) Rose Bowl is that it is possible again. That Robinson was right. That somewhere out there may be another Trojan dynasty."
--Tim Brown, Los Angeles Daily News

"I don't think I would have come here if not for Robinson. He treats players like men. He gives you your space."
--Delon Washington, USC running back

"Our goal at USC is to go undefeated and win the national championship."

ASSISTANT COACHES

MIKE BARRY

Assistant Head Coach
Offensive Line

Known as an outstanding offensive line coach, Mike Barry is in his fifth season at USC. He came to Troy in January of 1993. He was given the additional duty of assistant head coach in March of 1997.

He is in charge of one of the traditionally preeminent units in college football (there have been 26 first team All-American offensive linemen at USC since 1964 and 18 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968).

In 1995, USC offensive tackle John Michels made the All-Pac-10 first team and was a first round NFL draft choice.

In 1994, Trojan offensive tackle Tony Boselli was a consensus All-American and a first round NFL draft choice (the No. 2 pick).

In 1993, Barry had the unique opportunity of being a coach on a team that included his son, Joe, who was an inside linebacker. Joe then was USC's video coordinator in 1994 and a defensive assistant in 1995 (he now is an assistant at Northern Arizona and his wife, Chris, is the daughter of ex-USC assistant Rod Marinelli).

Barry, 50, has 25 years of coaching experience. He came to USC after serving as the interior offensive line coach at Colorado for 6 seasons (1987-92). He tutored the entire line in 1991. Colorado won the national championship in 1990.

He began his coaching career as an assistant for 5 years (1972-76) at his prep alma mater, Fenwick High in Oak Park, Ill.

His first collegiate coaching experience was at his college alma mater, Southern Illinois, as the offensive line coach for 3 seasons (1977-79). He then was the offensive line coach at Arizona for 4 years (1980-83) under former USC coach Larry Smith.

Barry then worked in pro football for 2 years, first as the offensive line coach and offensive coordinator for the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers (1984), then as the line coach with the New Orleans/Portland Breakers (1985).

He returned to the college ranks in 1986 as the offensive line coach at Iowa State.

Barry was a 2-year starting center at Southern Illinois (he spent his first 2 years of college at Nebraska). He earned 2 degrees from SIU: a bachelor's in physical education in 1969 and a master's in recreation and special education in 1972.

Born Oct. 18, 1946, he starred in 3 sports at Fenwick High.

Besides son Joe, 27, Mike has a daughter, Courtney, 21.

KEITH BURNS

Defensive Coordinator
Secondary

Keith Burns, a bright and energetic young coach, is in his fifth season on the Trojan staff after coming aboard in February of 1993. Prior to the 1995 Cotton Bowl, he was appointed as the defensive coordinator. He also continues to coach the secondary, primarily the safeties.

The 1996 Trojans were second in the Pac-10 in total defense and pass efficiency defense, while the 1995 squad topped the Pac-10 in scoring defense (11th in the U.S.).

Burns, 36, was an assistant at Rice for 4 years (1989-92), in charge of the defensive backs in 1992 and before that handling the special teams, strong safeties and outside linebackers.

He was an assistant at Pacific for 4 seasons (1985-88), working with the defensive backs, running backs and special teams during his tenure (he was also the offensive coordinator in 1988). He worked there under coach Bob Cope, a former USC assistant.

Burns began his coaching career at his collegiate alma mater, Arkansas, as a graduate assistant for 2 years (1983-84). Former Trojan defensive coordinator Don Lindsey, who Burns succeeded at USC, was the defensive coordinator at Arkansas during Burns' first season there as a coach.

He was a 4-year (1979-82) letterman defensive back at Arkansas, starting for 3 seasons. Lindsey was the defensive coordinator there for Burns' last 2 seasons. Burns earned a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1983.

Born Sept. 26, 1960, he was an all-state footballer at L.D. Bell High in Hurst, Tex.

He and his wife, Yvonne, have 2 sons, K.C., 10, and Tanner, 8.

HUE JACKSON

Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks

A master of the West Coast offense, Hue Jackson is in his first year at USC after being named offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in December of 1996.

He led California's high-powered offense in 1996 as their offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Under Jackson, the 1996 Golden Bears averaged 457.6 yards of total offense (No. 2 in the Pac-10) and led the league in passing offense (321.5). Cal quarterback Pat Barnes (a fourth round NFL draft pick by the Kansas City Chiefs) led the Pac-10 in total offense and passing efficiency.

Jackson, 31, has 10 years of coaching experience. Before his season at California, he spent 4 years (1992-95) at Arizona State. He was ASU's running backs coach for the first 3 years (1992-94), where he coached future NFL second rounder Mario Bates, then he handled the Sun Devil quarterbacks in 1995 as Jake Plummer--a future NFL second round draft selection by the Arizona Cardinals--was an All-Pac-10 first teamer.

Jackson began his coaching career in 1987 at Pacific, his alma mater. He spent 3 years (1987-89) there, the first 2 working for future USC assistant Bob Cope. After serving as a Tiger graduate assistant working with the tight ends in 1987, he became the wide receivers coach in 1988 and the running backs coach in 1989. He also worked with the special teams while at Pacific.

For the next 2 years (1990-91), he was the running backs coach and special teams coach at Cal State Fullerton. Between those 2 seasons, in the spring of 1991, he coached the running backs, receivers and special teams for the World League's inaugural year champion London Monarchs.

Jackson also held 3 NFL summer coaching internships, in 1990 with the Los Angeles Rams (working with current USC coach John Robinson), 1992 with the Phoenix Cardinals and 1995 with the Washington Redskins.

Jackson was a standout quarterback at Pacific under Cope in 1985 and 1986, throwing for 2,544 yards and 19 TDs in his career. As a senior, he passed for 1,455 yards and rushed for 417 yards. As a junior, he threw for 1,089 yards (52.3% completions) and ran for another 502 yards. He also lettered in basketball at Pacific in 1986. He received his bachelor's degree in education from Pacific in 1987.

He starred in football at Glendale (Calif.) Community College in 1983 and 1984, where he earned his associate's degree in 1984. He prepped at Dorsey High in Los Angeles.

Born Oct. 22, 1965, he and his wife, Michelle, have 2 daughters, Jordyn, 2, and Bailey, 1.

JEFF McINERNEY

Defensive Line

Jeff McInerney, who has been a coach with 3 national championship squads, is in his second season as USC's defensive line coach. He came to Troy in February of 1996.

Last year, USC defensive tackle Darrell Russell was the second pick of the NFL draft (taken by the Oakland Raiders) and an All-Pac-10 first team selection, while fellow tackle Matt Keneley--a seventh round NFL draft choice by the New York Giants--was an Academic All-American first teamer.

The enthusiastic McInerney, 37, spent the previous 2 seasons (1994-95) at Duke. He handled the defensive ends in 1994, then was the linebackers coach and defensive coordinator in 1995.

He began his coaching career at his alma mater, Slippery Rock, as a student coach in 1981 after injuring his knee playing football the previous year. He then was a graduate assistant coach in charge of linebackers there in 1982.

His first full-time position was with the appropriately-named Troy State Trojans, where he was an assistant for 5 seasons (1983-87) handling the linebackers. Troy State won the NCAA Division II national championship in 1984 and 1987.

After a season (1988) coaching the linebackers at Southern Illinois, he was the inside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Texas-El Paso in 1989.

He then was the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Georgia Southern for 2 years (1990-91). The Eagles won the NCAA Division I-AA national title in 1990. He then spent 2 seasons (1992-93) at Rice coaching the defensive ends before moving to Duke.

He earned his bachelor's degree in 1982 in physical education from Slippery Rock, where he was a 3-year (1978-80) letterman linebacker on the football team. He received a master's degree in secondary education from Troy State in 1984.

He starred in football and baseball at South Windsor (Ct.) High.

Born June 22, 1960, he and his wife, Leslie, have a son, Ryan, 11, and a daughter, Amy, 7.

DAVID ROBINSON

Linebackers

John Robinson knows a lot about his linebackers coach. That's because it's his oldest son, David, now in his fifth year at USC and a fine coach in his own right.

David, 34, who joined the Trojan staff in January of 1993, was Troy's tight ends coach his first 3 seasons (1993-95), then was put in charge of the linebackers in 1996.

Last year, USC linebacker Sammy Knight won All-Pac-10 first team honors. Three of his tight ends were high NFL draft choices: Bradford Banta to the Indianapolis Colts in the fourth round in 1994, Johnny McWilliams to the Arizona Cardinals in the third round in 1996, and John Allred to the Chicago Bears in the second round in 1997.

Robinson has coached with 6 other teams in his career: as the offensive line coach at College of the Desert in Palm Desert, Calif., in 1992, a volunteer assistant at California in 1991 (working with the defensive line), a graduate assistant at Michigan in 1990, the outside linebackers coach at UC Davis for 2 seasons (1988-89), a general assistant with the Los Angeles Rams in 1987 (when his father was the coach there), and an assistant coach at St. Anthony's High in Long Beach, Calif., in 1986.

Robinson was a 2-year starting tight end for Fullerton (Calif.) Junior College, which won the 1983 national JC title, and then played at Long Beach State (1984-85). He earned a bachelor's degree from Long Beach State in 1986.

He prepped at Sonora High in La Habra, Calif.

Born July 19, 1963, he is single.

DOUG SMITH

Offensive Line

Doug Smith knows a thing or two about the offensive line, as he spent his entire playing career as a talented offensive lineman.

He's now in his fifth year at USC, his third working with the offensive line. He spent his first 2 years on the other side of the ball, serving as Troy's defensive line coach. He coached Willie McGinest at USC in 1993 and McGinest was the fourth pick in the 1994 NFL draft.

Smith, 40, was reunited with his pro coach when John Robinson hired him at USC in January of 1993.

He was a volunteer coach with the Los Angeles Rams in 1992, working with the offensive line.

He spent his entire 14-year (1978-1991), 188-game NFL playing career with the Rams as a center (he also played some at guard and tackle early in his career). He was named to the Pro Bowl 6 times (1984-89). He played in Super Bowl XIV. He was named All-NFL in 1986 and All-NFC in 1989, both by Football News. From 1986 to 1991, he started 76 consecutive games. Signed as a free agent, he was active throughout his NFL career in charity and community functions as well as speaking for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

He was a 4-year letterman at Bowling Green (1974-77), winning All-Mid-American Conference honors at guard as a senior. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Bowling Green in 1978 and a master's degree in exercise physiology from Cal State Fullerton in 1987.

Born Nov. 25, 1956, Smith was a 3-sport star at Northland High in Columbus, Ohio.

He and his wife, Debbie, have 2 daughters, Jessica, 12, and Jenna, 9, and a son, Cole, 1.

DENNIS THURMAN

Secondary

Dennis Thurman, one of USC's and the NFL's outstanding defensive backs, returned to his alma mater in January of 1993 to share his playing and coaching knowledge. He's in his fifth season handling the Trojan secondary, primarily the cornerbacks.

Last season, Trojan cornerback Daylon McCutcheon was an All-Pac-10 first teamer.

Thurman, 41, was a 2-time All-American (1976-77) safety and 4-year letterman (1974-77) at USC, playing for John McKay and then John Robinson. He was a member of the 1974 Trojan national champions and played on Trojan teams that won 4 bowl games. In his Trojan career, he had 13 interceptions (tied for sixth on Troy's all-time list) and returned 2 for TDs. He added 169 career tackles, 11 deflections and 4 fumble recoveries, plus 28 punt returns and 2 kickoff returns. He led the conference in interceptions in 1976 with 8. During his first 2 years at USC, he played both safety and flanker (overall, he started 5 games at flanker, catching 3 passes and running 7 reverses).

Thurman then spent 9 years as a cornerback and safety in the NFL, his first 8 seasons (1978-85) with the Dallas Cowboys (he was an 11th round draft pick) and then 1986 with the St. Louis Cardinals. He had 36 career NFL interceptions and played in the 1981 Pro Bowl. He never missed a game during his 137-game career.

After his playing career, Thurman became an assistant coach. He was the secondary coach for the Phoenix Cardinals under Gene Stallings for 2 years (1988-89), then was the defensive coordinator of the World League's Ohio Glory in 1992 (he was out of coaching in 1990 and 1991).

His brother, Junior, was a Trojan defensive back in 1985-86. Dennis earned a bachelor's degree in journalism from USC in 1978.

Born April 13, 1956, Thurman was a 3-sport star at Santa Monica (Calif.) High.

Thurman is the father of 2 daughters: Chelsea, 13, and Jade, 8.

CHARLES WHITE

Running Backs

"Somehow, I always feel better with Charlie White standing next to me," said USC coach John Robinson when he named White as USC's running backs coach in January of 1993. "He was the toughest, most intense running back I've ever coached."

The pair have a long association. White, 39 and in the fifth year of his first-ever coaching job (Trojan running back Delon Washington broke the 1,000-yard rushing barrier in 1995), was USC's 1979 Heisman Trophy winner at tailback and a 2-time unanimous All-American (1978-79). He finished his 4-year USC career (1976-79, all under Robinson) as the school's all-time rushing leader with 6,245 yards (second best in NCAA history) and 49 TDs. As a senior, he led the nation in rushing with 2,050 yards and set or equalled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He was the nation's leading all-purpose runner in 1978 and 1979. USC captured the national championship in 1978 (it finished second in 1976 and 1979) and won 4 bowl games during his career. The 1979 and 1980 Rose Bowl Player of the Game, White was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1990. In 1995, he was inducted into USC's Athletic Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1996.

A first round 1980 draft pick of the Cleveland Browns, he played in the NFL for 9 years. He was with the Browns from 1980 through 1984, then was with Robinson's Los Angeles Rams from 1985 until retiring after the 1988 season. He led the NFL in rushing in 1987 with 1,374 yards and was named to the Pro Bowl.

He spent 3 years (1990-92) as a special assistant to former USC athletic director Mike McGee, involved in the Former Athlete Degree Achievement Program (for ex-Trojans who return to USC to finish their degree requirements), as well as in the athletic department's summer sports camp for local youths, community relations and facilities management. White himself was a participant in the FADAP program and received his bachelor's degree in communications from USC in 1993.

White has 3 times been a winner on a special football players' segment of the "American Gladiators" television show.

Born Jan. 22, 1958, he was a football and track star at San Fernando (Calif.) High.

He and his wife, Judi, have 5 children: daughters Nicole, 16, Tara, 11, and Sophia, 10, and sons Julian, 15, and Ashton, 12.

MIKE WILSON

Wide Receivers

It's safe to say that Mike Wilson knows a thing or 2 about the wide receiver position. Named USC's wide receivers coach in March of 1997, he played the position on 4 Super Bowl championship teams with the San Francisco 49ers and then coached it collegiately and professionaly.

Wilson, 38, has 5 years of coaching experience. The past 2 seasons (1995-96), he was the wide receivers coach for the Oakland Raiders. Wide receiver Tim Brown was named an All-Pro both of those seasons.

Before that, he spent 3 years (1992-94) at Stanford coaching the wide receivers and tight ends. The 1992 Cardinal squad went 10-3 (including a 23-9 victory over USC), was the Pacific-10 co-champion, finished ranked No. 9 in the nation and beat Penn State in the Blockbuster Bowl. In 1994, Stanford wide receiver Justin Armour won All-Pac-10 first team honors and set the school career receiving yardage record. Armour and tight end Tony Cline both were fourth round picks of the Buffalo Bills in the 1995 NFL draft, while tight end Ryan Wetnight was a free agent signee of the Chicago Bears. The 1993 and 1994 Stanford squads topped the Pac-10 in passing offense.

Wilson spent his entire 10-year (1981-90) NFL playing career as a wide receiver with the 49ers. He was on 4 of San Francisco's Super Bowl winners (1981-84-88-89) and is 1 of only 3 wide receivers in NFL history who have 4 Super Bowl rings (the others are ex-Trojan Lynn Swann and John Stallworth of the Pittsburgh Steelers). In his 49ers career, Wilson caught 182 passes for 2,470 yards (13.6 avg.) and 17 touchdowns. His best season was 1988, when he had 33 receptions for 406 yards (12.3 avg.) and 3 TDs while starting 11 games. In 1987, he started 8 times and had 29 catches for a career-best 450 yards (15.5 avg.) and 5 scores.

Wilson was a 3-year (1978-80) letterman at Washington State, where he caught 47 passes for 716 yards (15.2 avg.) and 6 touchdowns in his career. He earned his bachelor's degree in communications at Washington State in 1981.

He attended Carson (Calif.) High, where he was a prep All-American in both football and basketball. Carson won the L.A. City basketball title in his senior season.

He was born Dec. 19, 1958. He and his wife, Tona (she earned bachelor's and master's degrees from USC), have 2 daughters: Samantha, 8, and Emma, 6. His brother, Dr. Keith Wilson, is a USC graduate.

DelVAUGHN ALEXANDER

Offensive Assistant

Alexander, who was on USC's football and track teams as an undergraduate, is in his second year as an assistant offensive coach (he works with the wide receivers and tight ends) after joining the Trojan coaching staff in 1996.

He spent the 1995 season as an assistant video coordinator with the USC football program.

Alexander, 26, lettered as a reserve wide receiver and special teams player for Troy in 1993 and 1994 (he saw action in 14 games). He caught just 1 pass in his career, but he made it count: a 13-yard TD grab against Oregon State in 1993.

He was a triple jumper and high jumper on the Trojan track team in 1993 and 1994. He competed in 3 meets as a 1994 senior, winning the high jump at the USC 4-Way meet at 6-6 3/4 and finishing third in the triple jump at 46-10 1/4, both season bests. As a 1993 junior, he competed in 7 meets. He posted a season-best 47-11 to finish fourth in the triple jump at the Cal State Northridge triangular meet. He won the high jump with a leap of 6-8 at the USC quadrangular meet. He had a season-best 6-9 3/4 high jump at the UCLA tri-meet to finish second. He qualified for the Pac-10 Championships in the high jump, but did not record a height. He also high jumped over 6-6 in 2 other meets and triple jumped over 45-8 in 3 other meets.

He transferred to USC from West Los Angeles (Calif.) College in the spring of 1993. In his only season (1992) of football at West Los Angeles, Alexander earned All-Western State Conference first team honors as he caught 22 passes for 430 yards (a league-leading 19.5 avg.) and 3 TDs. He competed in 1 season (1991) of track at West Los Angeles, finishing third in the Southern California J.C. meet in the high jump and sixth at the state meet. He recorded a career-best 48-7 in the triple jump and a personal-best 6-11 in the high jump at the 1991 Mt. SAC Relays. He was the Western State Conference champ in the triple jump and high jump. Also a fine student, he made the Dean's Honor List both years there.

At University High in Los Angeles, Alexander competed in football (earning All-L.A. City honors) and basketball, but was best known as a trackster. He won the 1989 L.A. City title in the triple jump and high jump. He also won league titles in those events, as well as in the 110-meter high hurdles. He was named Coastal Conference Athlete of the Year in 1989.

He received his bachelor's degree in history from USC in 1995. He is working currently on his master's degree in education at USC.

Born July 16, 1971, Alexander is the father of a son, J.D., 1.

CRAIG GIBSON

Defensive Assistant

Craig Gibson, a 4-year starter at center for USC, returned to the Trojans as an assistant defensive coach (he works with the defensive line) in January of 1997.

A 4-year letterman (1990-93), he was Troy's first 4-year starting offensive lineman since All-American guard Mark Tucker in 1987-90. USC's team co-captain in 1993, Gibson twice (1992-93) won All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice. In 1992, he shared USC's "Gloomy Gus" Henderson Award for most minutes played. He played for current Trojan head coach John Robinson in 1993, Robinson's first year back at USC. In his career, Gibson played in 3 bowl games (the 1990 John Hancock Bowl and the 1992 and 1993 Freedom Bowls). He redshirted at USC on the 1989 squad which won the Rose Bowl.

He then played 2 seasons in the Canadian Football League, in 1994 with the Las Vegas Posse and in 1995 with the Birmingham Barracudas. A shoulder injury in 1995 ended his career.

Gibson won All-CIF Division III first team honors in 1988 as a 2-way tackle at El Modena High in Orange, Calif., where he started for 3 years.

Gibson, 26, comes from a football-playing family. One older brother, Don, was a defensive guard at USC from 1987 to 1990 (he was All-Pac-10 first team in 1990 while serving as Troy's team captain) and was a ninth round draft pick by the Denver Broncos in the 1991 NFL draft (Don played briefly with the Broncos and New England Patriots). Another older brother, Boomer, started at outside linebacker at Arizona in 1986 and 1987. Gibson's father, Frank, was a 3-year letterman at Army (playing tight end and defensive end) and was Army's captain in 1961 (he later served as an assistant coach at West Point).

Craig received his bachelor's degree in public administration and planning from USC in 1994. He is working currently on his master's degree in educational policy and administration at USC.

Born May 28, 1971, Gibson is single.

Mark Preto came to USC in June of 1995 as the video coordinator after handling similar duties at Oregon for 4 years (1991-94).

He was the Ducks' head video coordinator for 2 seasons (1993-94) after serving as a graduate assistant in 1991 and an assistant in 1992. In the summer of 1992, he also worked in the video department of the Cleveland Browns.

Preto, 30, was an assistant video and recruiting coordinator for 2 years (1989-90) at his alma mater, Akron.

He played outside linebacker for 3 seasons (1986-88) at Akron. In 1986, he was named the team's top scholar-athlete. He received his bachelor's degree in accounting and finance from Akron in 1990.

He starred in football and wrestling at Benedictine High in Cleveland (Ohio).

Fr.*/So.

1997: Abdul-Malik will serve as a backup to Aaron Williams and Lawrence Larry at defensive end as a redshirt freshman in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Abdul-Malik is a young player with good potential. We're counting on him to come through for us and provide needed depth on the outside of our defensive front."

1996: Abdul-Malik redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 1996, his first year at USC.

ADAM ABRAMS

Placekicker
Jr.*/Sr.

1997: Abrams, a tested junior, returns for his third season as USC's placekicker in 1997. He's hoping to regain the consistency of his heralded high school and collegiate freshman campaigns.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Abrams has shown in the past that he can be an outstanding kicker who can make big kicks. But he struggled with his consistency and confidence last year. If he can smooth that out, I predict he will make some of the bigger kicks in USC history."

1996: As a sophomore in 1996, Abrams handled the placekicking chores for his second season. He hit 13-of-21 field goals (with a best of 39 yards), including a pair of 3-pointers in 5 different games (Illinois, Houston, Stanford, UCLA and Notre Dame), and 33-of-36 PATs. However, he had 7 kicks (5 field goals, 2 PATs) blocked. He was fifth in the Pac-10 in field goals (1.1).

1995: Abrams inherited the placekicking job vacated by Cole Ford as a redshirt freshman in 1995. But a strained right thigh suffered prior to the Houston game limited him to just 6 contests (San Jose State, Arizona, Arizona State, Oregon State, UCLA and Northwestern in the Rose Bowl). Overall in 1995, he hit 5-of-6 field goals: a long of 46 yards in the fourth quarter against Northwestern which proved to be USC's decisive points (it was the longest field goal by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez hit a 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 John Hancock Bowl) to go along with a 30-yarder earlier in the game, plus a 41-yarder at Arizona, a 39-yarder versus Arizona State, and a 33-yarder against San Jose State on his first-ever 3-point attempt as a collegian. He also made 21-of-22 PATs. He handled some early-season kickoffs until getting hurt.

1994: Abrams redshirted as a placekicker in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Abrams was on the 1993 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American and Football News All-American first teams, plus USA Today All-USA second team, Tom Lemming's Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team (the first placekicker selected in the 18 years of the poll), Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, National Football Foundation/San Diego Chapter Offensive Player of the Year and All-CIF San Diego Section first team at The Bishop's School in La Jolla (Calif.). He hit 9-of-13 field goals (including 52- and 50-yarders) and 30-of-30 PATs as a 1993 senior.

He made the San Diego Union-Tribune All-San Diego County second team in 1992 as a junior while hitting 8-of-11 field goals and 30-of-30 PATs. He was 13-of-17 on PATs in 1991 as a sophomore. In his career, 116 of his 126 kickoffs went for touchbacks, including one that he kicked from the 20-yard line following a safety. He raised more than $7,000 for the Make-A-Wish Foundation by raising pledges for each point he scored as a junior and senior, an effort that was acknowledged by California governor Pete Wilson, who nominated Adam for a Young American Medal for Service.

He also was All-League in soccer and baseball as a prep. He won an Advanced Placement Scholar Award at Bishop's.

PERSONAL: Adam is a business administration major at USC with a B+ average (3.32 GPA). He was a 1996 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention pick. In 1997, he was selected as a member of USC's Mortar Board, an academic honorary society. His brother, Eric, was a placekicker at Stanford (1992-95). They kicked against each other in high school, as Eric went to Country Day School in La Jolla. Adam played keyboards in a band when he was younger. He says the funniest thing that happened to him in a game was when "I once downed my own punt when I was kicking into an extremely strong wind which took the ball backwards behind the line of scrimmage." His sports hero is ex-USC All-American linebacker Junior Seau.

ADAM ABRAMS ON: Redshirting as a freshman: "That was fine with me, because I was able to get settled in with the whole program. I started to get the routine down with football and managing my time. And I learned a lot from Cole Ford, watching him in the games and in practice...I think I was a lot more prepared for 1995."

Adjustments from high school to college kicking: "I'm still working on my elevation, because when I watched Cole kick, compared to me, he got so much elevation. I've got to work on my hip strength...(Kicking without a tee,) I've lost a little bit of distance and elevation, but I've gotten a lot better at it than when I started. The redshirt year helped with that...The Coliseum is sort of a tough place to kick, because the grass is real soft and the ball sinks in. You've got to really work on getting the ball up."

BOB AUBREY

Linebacker
Jr.*/Sr.

1997: A junior who will back up Chris Claiborne at linebacker in 1997, look for Aubrey also to again make his mark as an outstanding special teams performer.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Aubrey is a solid, veteran player who gives us depth in the linebacking corps. He has become a key special teams performer."

1996: Aubrey served as a reserve linebacker and key special teams player as a sophomore in 1996. Overall while appearing in all 12 games, he made 7 tackles (including 2 each against Oregon State and UCLA). After the 1996 season, he had surgery to repair a torn ligament in his right shoulder. He missed part of 1996 spring practice while covering from 1995 post-season arthroscopic surgery to remove bone spurs in his left ankle.

1995: As a redshirt freshman reserve linebacker, Aubrey saw his only action of 1995 on special teams against San Jose State. He did not make a tackle.

1994: Aubrey redshirted as an outside linebacker in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Aubrey was named 1993 Blue Chip All-Western Region, Pasadena Star-News All-Area first team, Glendale News Press All-Area second team, All-Mission League first team, and team MVP as a senior at St. Francis High in La Canada (Calif.). He led his team in tackles in 1993 with 118 (7 for losses), plus 5 sacks, 4 forced fumbles, 2 interceptions and 2 blocked kicks. He played outside linebacker, safety, tight end and halfback in 1993.

As a 1992 junior, he was All-Area second team and All-Mission League first team while posting 78 tackles, 7 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 2 interceptions. He made the 1991 All-San Fernando League second team as a sophomore and scored a 65-yard TD the first time he ever touched the ball. He also was on the track team at St. Francis. Fellow Trojan Rome Douglas attended St. Francis before moving to another high school.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. His parents (his father, Truman, lettered on the 1961 Trojan national championship baseball team) and older brother also attended USC.

BOB AUBREY ON: Being lightly-recruited: "When you have a goal, it makes it a lot easier. My dad and my high school coach did a lot of the work, sending out films. And I'd run into people who'd say, 'I put in a good word for you.' But most of all, I'd now tell people in my situation, 'Don't give up. Be relentless.' I was almost a fanatic about the way I worked out...USC liked my determination and the way I pursue. I always worked hard."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC linebackers coach David Robinson: "He has a great attitude. He's a great kid who works hard during the off-season. Bob does everything you'd want a guy to do."

MIKE BASTIANELLI

Wide Receiver
Jr./Jr.

1997: One of USC's top athletes, Bastianelli returns as a co-starter with Billy Miller at a wide receiver spot as a junior in 1997. Known for having good hands and running smart routes, he should see a lot of action in 1997. He's also available as a reserve placekicker and punter.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Bastianelli is a good athlete and a winner who played very well last year. We can count on him to make the big catch."

1996: Bastianelli started the last 4 games (Washington, Stanford, UCLA and Notre Dame) at wide receiver as a sophomore in 1996 and proved to be USC's most reliable pass catcher. Overall while appearing in all 12 games in 1996, he had 24 receptions (16.3 avg.) with 1 TD. He had a career-high 5 catches for 53 yards at Stanford, plus 4 grabs for 59 yards versus California and 3 for 53 yards (with a 29-yard TD) at Washington State. Against Notre Dame, he had 3 catches for 68 yards. He also was on special teams and made 2 tackles and blocked a punt at Washington State. He even tried an end-around pass at Arizona State, but it was incomplete. He was moved to safety in 1996 spring drills, but was shifted back to wide receiver at the start of 1996 fall drills.

1995: As a first-year freshman, Bastianelli played a variety of roles for USC in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games. As a reserve wide receiver, he made 1 catch for 15 yards (a key reception on third-and-12 to keep a USC scoring drive alive against Washington State). He also played on numerous special teams, where he recorded 7 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 9 yards (he tackled the Stanford punter before he could get the ball off), and even scored a touchdown when he fell on the ball in the end zone when USC's Larry Parker fumbled at the end of a 63-yard punt return versus Washington State. Bastianelli also handled the kickoff duties admirably the last 10 games when placekickers Adam Abrams and Adam Rendon were slowed with leg injuries.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1994 honors included Blue Chip All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Blue Chip All-Western, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State first team and San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro MVP as an option quarterback, wide receiver, strong safety, placekicker and punter for De La Salle High in Concord (Calif.). He completed 54% of his passes for 876 yards and 13 TDs in 1994 as a senior, plus ran for 938 yards (9.6 avg.) with 20 TDs. He averaged 40 yards per punt. He set a state record with 162 career PAT kicks. De La Salle went 13-0 in 1994, was the state champ and was picked by ESPN as the nation's No. 1 team.

As a 1993 junior, he passed for 1,135 yards and 14 TDs, ran for 861 yards and 17 scores, and even kicked a 48-yard field goal. He was named to the 1993 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass and San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro first teams. De La Salle never lost (39-0) in his 3-year career, winning 3 North Coast Section 3A titles. He also played soccer as a prep.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. He has a tattoo of a panther on his right shoulder and "Turbo 23" (in memory of a high school teammate who drowned) on his left shoulder.

MIKE BASTIANELLI ON: Losing: "I didn't lose a game in high school and I actually came here thinking the same thing was going to happen. I don't think there's anybody who hates losing more than me, and if there is, I'd like to meet him. All my life I've been a winner. As far back as I can remember, I've been playing in championships, whether it was football, soccer, baseball, T-Ball or basketball."

Playing wide receiver: "For me, it's natural. No matter where the ball is, I'll go up and get it, I'll go down and get it, I'll stretch out, I'll dive, whatever I have to do to catch it. I'm aggressive like that. I like to make plays. Like I did in high school, I like to make things happen...There's no doubt in my mind that when I line up across from a DB, no matter who it is, I'm going to win. That's just how I feel. Of course, I'm not going to win every single time, but I feel like I should win every time. No matter where the ball is, I feel like I should catch it."

Playing different positions: "Whatever Coach (John) Robinson wants me to do, I'll do. If he wants me to play defensive back, I'll play defensive back. If he wants me to play receiver, I'll play receiver. If he wants me to kick, I'll kick...I didn't plan on kicking at all. But the more I can do, the more I help the team out. Not a lot of freshmen get this opportunity and I'm lucky I did."

DAVID BELL

Placekicker
So./So.

1997: Bell, a strong-legged sophomore placekicker, figures to handle USC's kickoff duties again in 1997. He could even push Adam Abrams for the placekicking job.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Bell has a strong leg and did a nice job kicking off for us last year. He is also available to handle placekicks, which should make the competition at that position interesting."

1996: Bell, the last signee in the 1996 recruiting class, handled USC's kickoff duty in the last 10 games of 1996 as a first-year freshman and proved effective. He also made 1 tackle (at Houston).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 2-time (1994 and 1995) All-CIF Division I placekicker at Western High in Anaheim (Calif.). As a 1995 senior, he also made Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-Orange League while hitting 34-of-39 PATs, 8-of-15 field goals (including 5 of 40-plus yards, with bests of 53 and 51 yards), putting 78% (42-of-54) of his kickoffs into the end zone as touchbacks, averaging 40.0 on punts and also playing running back and linebacker.

In 1994 as a junior, he made Los Angeles Times All-Orange County second team, Orange County Register All-Orange County second team and All-Orange League.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. His sports hero is Walter Payton.

GRANT BOELTER

Offensive Tackle
Sr./Sr.

1997: Boelter, a senior, will join with Brent McCaffrey to serve as the backup to Ken Bowen at right offensive tackle in 1997 and will also participate on special teams.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Boelter has good size and helps bolster our offensive line corps. He is a well-schooled run blocker."

1996: Boelter transferred to USC in the spring of 1996 from City College of San Francisco and served as a reserve offensive tackle as a junior in 1996. He appeared in 10 games in 1996 (all but the Penn State and Arizona State contests), mostly on special teams (he saw limited action on the line late in the Oregon State game).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Boelter made the 1995 Super Prep JUCO 100 and All-Coast Conference as a sophomore offensive tackle at City College of San Francisco (Calif.), which was 9-2 and ranked 13th in the U.S. (seventh in California). He also won All-Coast Conference honors as a freshman in 1994 as his team went 11-0 and was named national champion. Current Trojan Jabari Jackson also attended CCSF.

HIGH SCHOOL: Boelter prepped at Judson High in Converse (Tex.), earning All-State, All-District, All-Area and All-City honors as a 1993 senior. He was an All-District, All-Area and All-City pick as a 1992 junior. Judson won the state 5A Division I title in 1992 and 1993. He was coached at Judson by his father, Melvin, who played linebacker at Texas A&I. He also threw the shot put (with a best of 54-0) for Judson's track team.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. In the summers, he mans a roadside stand in his hometown of Seguin, Tex., that sells peaches from his family's 25,000-tree peach farm.

KEN BOWEN

Offensive Tackle
6-8, 330
Jr.*/Sr.

1997: Bowen, one of USC's biggest players, returns as the starting right offensive tackle as a senior in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Bowen is one of the better tackles around. He has the size, commitment and intelligence needed to develop into an outstanding player. He has increased his speed and strength. He's very efficient and knows what he's doing. He's a giant of a man."

1996: Bowen started at right offensive tackle all of 1996 as a sophomore and did a commendable job.

1995: As a 1995 redshirt freshman, Bowen was the backup right offensive tackle behind Garrido and also played on special teams. He appeared in all 12 games in 1995, including 6 (San Jose State, Houston, Arizona, Arizona State, Oregon State, and Northwestern in the Rose Bowl) briefly on the line.

1994: Bowen redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Bowen earned 1993 Super Prep All-Florida, All-Central Florida and All-Metro notice as a senior at Dr. Phillips High in Orlando (Fla.). He made All-Metro third team as a 1992 junior. He also was on the wrestling and track teams, throwing the javelin, discus (166-7 best) and shot put (50-3 best).

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. He was born in San Antonio, Tex. In his spare time, he likes going to the movies. His father, Kenneth, played football at Missouri.

KEN BOWEN ON: His demeanor: "I've become more aggressive, which is what everyone has been looking for. People are always telling me not to be such a nice guy, that it's okay to run guys over on the field. I'm starting to realize that I can do that...I'm going to try to step up the aggressiveness. They keep telling me to be nasty, be nasty. It's what I have to do so I'm going to do it."

His ability: "I've improved in my quickness, my pass blocking, my concentration, and knowing myself. My confidence is a lot better. I'm not thinking so much with what I should be doing."

His dream of being a professional wrestler: "People think I'm joking but I'm not. I'm serious. It looks like fun. You get to travel around the country and you get paid for it. It's something that I've wanted to do for a while...I've got my special move down. You've seen guys pick their opponents up by the throat and throw them down on the back of their neck. What I'm going to do is grab them by the throat and throw them backwards, onto their face...My nickname will be 'Swamp Monster,' unless I come up with something better."

Serving as Muhammad Ali's bodyguard at a sports memorabilia show in the summer of 1996: "I was basically just doing general security for the day. I was told that they needed someone downstairs at the autograph booths, so I followed the boss down there and he sat me down next to Muhammad Ali. He saw me coming up and stopped signing autographs, looked at me that way that he does with his eyes, stood up and picked up his fists. He was funny. He's a joker. Even when I was told that I could go on a lunch break, I said, 'No, I'll stay right here.' I was awestruck. There was just one word to describe it and that's 'Wow.' He couldn't really speak, but he was all there. You knew exactly what he meant. It was amazing and something I'll never forget."

Movies: "I love going to the movies. It's a way to escape from everything, if only for a couple hours. If I could, I'd go every night...I love action-adventure movies and anthing with Arnold Schwarzenegger. Even if it's terrible acting. I don't want to put down any Jean-Claude Van Damme fans, he's no Oscar winner, but I love his movies and would go see them by myself if no one would go with me."

His favorite food, half-pound Cajun-style cheeseburgers: "I love them. I'll eat them any time of the day. I'll eat them for breakfast, lunch, dinner. I like making them myself because you can play with stuff in the kitchen--seasonings and whatnot. When you go to a restaurant, you've got to have it their way."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive guard Travis Claridge: "He's a big mountain of a man. When I first met him, he wasn't a very aggressive guy. Now he really steps that up a notch."

Paul Goldberg, USC Report: "There's a gentle giant on USC's offensive line, but he's learning to be mean...It's fitting that Bowen is the heir to Norberto Garrido. Both can block out the sun with the best of 'em and both have had to be prodded in their careers to be aggressive."

CHRIS BRYMER

Offensive Guard
Sr.*/Sr.

1997: One of the leaders on USC's offensive line, the experienced and aggressive Brymer returns to start for his third season at left guard as a senior in 1997. He could contend for All-Pac-10 honors. He did not participate in 1997 spring practice while concentrating on his academics.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Brymer is a tough, tested player who is a major factor on our line. He's a very good player."

1996: Brymer returned to action in 1996 as a junior after being ineligible in 1995 and proved to be USC's top offensive lineman as a starting left offensive guard. It was his second season as a starter (he also started in 1994). He broke a bone in his left foot early in the Oregon State game and was sidelined (he missed the next 3 games, versus Houston, California and Arizona). He was a 1996 All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick.

1995: Brymer, who was in line to start at left offensive guard as a sophomore in 1995, sat out the season while academically ineligible.

1993: Brymer redshirted as an offensive guard in 1993, his first year at USC. A right ankle sprain sidelined him during the final 3 weeks of the regular season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, All-San Bernardino County, All-Citrus Belt League first team and team MVP at Apple Valley (Calif.) High.

In 1991, he was All-San Bernardino County and All-San Andreas League first team (both offense and defense). He made All-San Andreas League in 1990.

Chris was also was a shot putter (57-9 best) who placed fourth in the 1991 CIF meet and discus thrower (161-1 best).

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He likes to play pool.

CHRIS BRYMER ON: Sitting out 1995 while academically ineligible: "I was an outcast. It was really depressing...It was a nightmare. It was supposed to be my time. I just wanted to disappear...No players ever said anything to me, but the hardest part was guys didn't want to hang out with me anymore. They weren't quite as social with me. It was a little bit of the silent treatment. I'm sure a lot of guys felt I let them down, but I felt that way too. No one felt worse about what happened than I did...I was embarrassed, I was ashamed to face the coaches and my teammates. It was the most depressing time in my life, letting all those people down...It's a bad feeling standing on the sideline at a game knowing you're healthy, knowing you could help the team and not being able to because you screwed up...I had the wrong attitude about school. I thought now that I'm starting I don't have to go to class. I don't have to do the things academically other students do. Then reality came up and slapped me upside the head...When it was all over, I'd have to say it was a positive thing, although it sure hurt a lot. I had no one else to blame but myself...I shot myself in the foot...Now I have an attitude where in 1995 I screwed up and I'm not going to let it happen again...Having football taken away was my wake-up call. I learned the hard way, but now I'm taking care of business on and off the field...It was rewarding to hear that I had finally made it back, but at the same time it also made me feel bad, because it made me realize that this was all I had to do to be able to play. When I thought about it, it wasn't that hard, going to classes and studying. This made me take school more seriously. I've learned to take care of my responsibilities. My main goal has always been making it to the NFL, but now getting a degree from USC has become another major goal."

Playing offensive line: "I don't take anything from other people on the field. I beat up people as much as I can. I'm a mean guy on the field. When I get a chance to do something, no mercy. You get hit, you want to go get them back. I flip the switch and I'm ready to go get people. You've got to be mean to play. You can't be going out here hugging people. It's like a fight. A legal fight...I'll do whatever it takes to block you. I'll punch you in the face, spit on you, whatever it takes to get the job done."

Former offensive line teammate Tony Boselli: "I really admired the way that he played. He was a dominant player, he was aggressive and he wasn't going to let people beat him. He hust had this mentality like, 'I'm going to beat you because I'm the best.' I kind of learned that from him. I don't know that I'm to the point where I'm the best, but I try my hardest and I won't let people beat me."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive line coach Mike Barry: "When he's at his best, he's an All-Pac-10 guard. He's 300-plus pounds, has great feet and speed, and has a nasty streak. And he knows how to finish a block...Every day he comes out and leads by example. He's not a rah-rah guy, he just plays hard. He wants to be the one that when we stop the camera, we point to him and say, 'Look what Brymer did to this guy.'"

USC offensive guard Phalen Pounds: "Chris is the backbone of this team."

Former USC 2-time All-American offensive tackle and 1995 NFL first round pick Tony Boselli: "Chris is so strong, he gets away with a lot of things other guys wouldn't. He goes after guys and he's tough. I like playing with guys like that."

CHRIS CLAIBORNE

Linebacker
So./So.

1997: Claiborne, just a sophomore, is on the verge of becoming a defensive star. He returns as a starting linebacker in 1997 and could win All-Pac-10 honors. USC's top returning tackler, watch for him to be all over the field again in 1997. He missed the last half of 1997 spring practice with a sprained knee.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Claiborne is quite a player. He had an unbelievable freshman season and should pick right up from there in 1997. He's always around the ball, he has great instincts, he makes big plays, and he's rough and tough. He has the ability to dominate a game. In time, he could develop into one of the top players in college."

1996: Claiborne was one of America's top freshmen as a middle linebacker in 1996. He was named a 1996 Freshman All-American first teamer by The Sporting News and was a 1996 All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick. In midseason, Sports Illustrated named him 1 of the "Top 3 True Freshmen in the Nation." Overall in 1996 while starting 9 of the 12 games in which he appeared, he proved to be a dominant defensive force as he had 116 tackles (second on USC), including 4 for a loss, plus 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble, 7 deflections, and 2 interceptions. Of his 116 stops, a team-best 81 were unassisted. His 116 total tackles was the most ever by a Trojan freshman. He tied for fourth in the Pac-10 in tackles (9.7). He also served as the protection man on punts (he even took a short snap and ran 3 yards against Notre Dame, but was just short of a first down).

After serving as an often-used backup in USC's first 3 contests (he had 4 tackles versus Penn State, 3 at Illinois and 2 against Oregon State), he started the last 8 games. He provided USC with its only points against Penn State when he recovered a fumble in the end zone with 29 seconds to play. He then started at Houston, getting 8 tackles with a fourth-quarter interception. Versus California, he notched a game-best 19 tackles (the most by a Trojan since All-American safety and Thorpe Award winner Mark Carrier had 20 at Notre Dame in 1987), including an incredible 17 solo stops, with 1 deflection (in the first half alone, he had 13 tackles, including 11 solo). He added 9 stops (1 for a loss) and a deflection against Arizona. He was everywhere at Arizona State, getting a game-best 20 tackles (again the most since Carrier's 20 at Notre Dame in 1987) and also intercepted a pass on the Sun Devils' first series (leading to a Trojan TD). He had 8 tackles (1 for a loss) at Washington State, a game-tying-high 12 versus Washington and 8 (2 for losses) at Stanford. At UCLA, he had a game-topping 13 stops with 2 deflections, then added 10 tackles with a forced fumble against Notre Dame.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1995 honors included Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Bluechip All-American (and Elite 22), Schutt Sports All-American, USA Today All-USA second team (and California MVP), Student Sports Hot 100, Bluechip Best of the West, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip

All-Western, Student Sports All-West Coast, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports California MVP, Cal-Hi Sports All-State, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division IV MVP, Los Angeles Times Glenn Davis Award (as the top Southern California prep football player), Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team (on offense and defense, and Back of the Year), and Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County MVP as a senior linebacker, tailback and punter at J.W. North High in Riverside (Calif.). He made 100-plus tackles, 2 sacks, 2 interceptions, 2 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries (including 1 for a 57-yard TD) in 1995. He also ran for 2,199 yards on 235 carries (9.4 avg.) with 38 TDs, caught 17 passes for 239 yards (14.1 avg.) with 3 TDs, and averaged 35.0 yards on punts. He ranked in the state's Top 10 in rushing and scoring. He appeared in Sports Illustrated's "Faces in the Crowd." North won the CIF Division IV title in 1995 with a 14-0 record and was ranked No. 1 in the state Division II.

As a 1994 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior, All-CIF Division IV and Riverside Press Enterprise All-Riverside County. He caught 11 passes for 201 yards (18.3 avg.) with 3 TDs in 1994.

He also played basketball at North, averaging 14.9 points (18.1 in the playoffs) and 11.8 rebounds as a senior center (North was the CIF Division 2AA runnerup) and 13.0 points and 9.0 rebounds as a junior. He earned 1996 Student Sports Grid-Hoops All-American first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, and Riverside Press Enterprise All-Riverside County first team honors. He was the 1995-96 Cal-Hi Sports State Athlete of the Year.

PERSONAL: He's a planning and development major at USC. His brother, Adrian, was a wide receiver at Fresno State (1993-96). His sports hero is Marshall Faulk.

CHRIS CLAIBORNE ON: His playing style: "Teams see that I'm an aggressive player. You attack players like that. But that's all right. I'm not going to change my style. I need to get stronger and I need to understand the game more. Sure, I make mistakes. But I try to fix them...I play hard. I'm competitive. I've tried to prove I belong at this level."

Making lots of tackles in a game: "I just try to make plays. If I end up with 19 tackles, I end up with 19 tackles. But the main thing is to go out and try to make plays."

His first career start (at Houston): "It was about the most scared I've been and the most fun I've ever had at one time."

His father's advice: "My father always told me that you can't use excuses. You play the game. You get a result. There aren't any excuses...He also taught me that you've got to be prepared, to never be satisfied and to keep trying to improve yourself...I always want to get better."

Spending a month in the summer of 1996 working out in Okinawa with his father, Emmitt, a master gunnery sergeant in the Marines: "We ran the beach, the hills, jumped rope, lifted weights. It was like boot camp. He told me never to stop growing...It was good weather for me to get in shape in over there. It was really humid, which made it good to run in. They have some real nice beatches to run on over there."

Wearing jersey No. 55, previously worn by Junior Seau and Willie McGinest: "The coaches said, 'You need to wear 55.' They said it was the tradition. They've added expectations I want to get to and surpass if I can. I want to be better than those guys...I want to live up to that number and add on to it if I can, but those guys haven't left much room for improvment. If I can make enough tackles here, maybe people will remember me for that number, too...I know everything Junior Seau does, I know all his stats. It's a competition to me. I want to be just like Junior. The thing I like about him is his intensity. He makes mistakes sometimes, but in the crunch he makes a lot of big plays. One day, I'd like people to think of me like that...I want to dominate the game. I want to take my game to another level."

Not playing running back any longer: "I'm not a running back any more. I have to put that out of my mind. I can only control the ball on one side of the field now. I deal with that every day...I miss running back, but my mentality is defensive now and that's where I'm staying...I'm a defensive player. I like that. I like the physical part. Offense is more finesse. Defense, you're taking it to them every play. You've got to play hard every play."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "I think we're looking at a guy who could be one of the best linebackers ever to play the game before he's finished...Chris has incredible big-play ability, an incredible ability to just make things happen."

USC linebackers coach David Robinson: "He's on his way to being a great player. He's got size, strength, speed and the athletic ability. Plus, the mental part is there. He very badly wants to be a great player...If you play as a freshman, you have to be mature mentally and physically--and Chris is very mentally mature. He understands the game of football, which enables him to play with the pressure and know all the assignments."

Former USC linebacker Sammy Knight: "Chris has a great attitude on and off the field. He comes out and works hard every day. He plays hard, he hits hard, he runs around and makes plays, and he helps make the other linebackers better."

Lyle Spencer, Riverside Press-Enterprise: "He's not only the best high school athlete I've seen over almost four decades of watching preps, he's also a bright, aware young man who was raised beautifully...Those who coached him in high school talked about his leadership, the positive imprint he left on teammates."

Kevin Modesti, Los Angeles Daily News: "Fifty-five knows no speed limit."

TRAVIS CLARIDGE

Offensive Guard
6-6, 300
So./So.

1997: Just a sophomore, Claridge could be USC's next great offensive lineman. Big, strong, tough and aggressive, he returns as the starting right guard in 1997 and will contend for All-Pac-10 notice. In time, he could join the list of outstanding Trojan offensive linemen: 26 have been first team All-Americans since 1964 and 19 have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968).

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Claridge is headed for greatness. His performance as a freshman was one of the most impressive ones I've seen. He's a fundamentally-sound and intelligent lineman with outstanding ability. He's strong, willing and has a mean streak in him."

1996: Claridge, who started all of 1996 at right offensive guard as a first-year freshman, proved as good as advertised. He was named a 1996 Freshman All-American first teamer by The Sporting News. He became the first true freshman to start a season opener on the offensive line for USC since 1979 Lombardi Award winner Brad Budde did so at guard against Missouri in 1976. (Clay Hattabaugh was the last Trojan first-year freshman to start any game on the offensive line when he did so at Arizona in 1991 in the season's 10th contest. The last Trojan true freshman to start a season opener at any position was outside linebacker Willie McGinest versus Syracuse in the 1990 Kickoff Classic against Syracuse.) He also made 1 tackle. After the 1996 season, he had arthroscopic surgery to repair torn cartilage in his left shoulder.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 1995 Parade All-American, USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Bluechip All-American (and Elite 22), Schutt Sports All-American, Student Sports Hot 100, Bluechip Best of the West, Super Prep All-Farwest, Bluechip All-Western, Student Sports All-West Coast, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Tacoma News Tribune Northwest Nuggets, Gatorade Washington MVP, Prep Illustrated Washington MVP, All-State AAA, Columbian News Dream Team and All-Greater St. Helen League Offensive Lineman MVP as a senior two-way tackle at Fort Vancouver High in Vancouver (Wash.). Parade, USA Today and Bluechip picked him as the nation's No. 1-rated prep offensive lineman. He had 125 knockdown blocks on offense and 97 solo tackles with 23 sacks on defense in 1995.

As a 1994 junior, he averaged 15 knockdown blocks a game and made All-State AAA and Columbian News Dream Team.

As a sophomore in 1993, he made the Columbian News Dream Team and All-Greater St. Helen League. In his career, he posted 405 knockdown blocks, 142 solo tackles and 36 sacks.

PERSONAL: He's an education major at USC. His nickname is "Trapper." He was born in Detroit, Mich., and also lived in El Toro, Calif. As a youngster, he worked out with some athletic trainers, including former Trojan and NFL lineman Marv Marinovich, the father of ex-USC and NFL quarterback Todd Marinovich.

TRAVIS CLARIDGE ON: Starting as a freshman: "That was my goal, to come in and start. I didn't want to redshirt. Why should you accept second when first is available? Once you do that, you tend to do it for the rest of your life...This is what I've worked for."

His goal: "I want to be the best lineman out there. I want to be the best of the best. That's my goal. Will I reach that goal? Well, if you shoot for the moon and miss, at least you're with the stars...I want to be the best lineman in the nation and I want to win at least one national championship."

Protecting the quarterback: "I take it personally when our quarterback gets hit. It's like somebody was slapping my mother in the face."

His playing style: "I just play hard. I don't ever quit...Every day, I just try to get better."

His demeanor: "Really, I'm a quiet guy. I don't talk very much. When I came in to USC, a lot of the team thought I was a cocky guy with a big ego."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC quarterback Brad Otton: "People worried about the right side of our line at first (in 1996) with him there. But that became the strength of our line. He took a lot of pride in putting people on their backs. He got very offended when people hit me and were on top of me. He took it personally."

USC offensive guard Chris Brymer: "Travis is going to be a great player. He's already impressive."

Earl Gustkey, Los Angeles Times: "Is Travis Claridge too good to be true? Has there ever been an 18-year-old offensive lineman this good? What's he going to be like in 1999, when he's a senior?...At a time in football when some players have more earrings than battle scars, Claridge's is the profile of the old-fashioned football player. He looks as if he has jumped off a page in Street & Smith's 1956 college football preview."

Thom Simmons, USC Report: "When you see him up close and in living color, you have to ask yourself how anything besides a redwood tree could be that big at 18...He is 6-6, 300 pounds of pure determination."

Steve Guiremand, Long Beach Press-Telegram: "Claridge is 6-foot-6, 300 well-chistled pounds and has a face that brings back memories of late pro wrestling star Dick the Bruiser."

RASHARD COOK

Safety
Jr./Jr.

1997: The hard-hitting Cook likely will start at strong safety as a junior in 1997 (filling in for the injured Grant Pearsall, the starter in 1996). He also figures to play a vital role on special teams.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Cook can really play. He's experienced and packs a lot of punch. We could use him in a variety of roles in 1997."

1996: As a sophomore in 1996, Cook served as the backup strong safety behind Pearsall and a key special teams player. Overall in 1996 while appearing in 11 games, he had 42 tackles (3 for losses), 1 deflection and 2 forced fumbles (against Penn State and Illinois). He even started the California game at free safety for Brian Kelly, who was sidelined, and made a 11 tackles. He had a career-best and game-high 12 tackles at Illinois to earn Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week honors and also had 7 stops against Penn State. He sprained his right ankle prior to the Stanford game and missed that contest.

Overall in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 8 tackles (including 3 at Oregon State while seeing extensive action as a fifth defensive back when regular nickel back Jesse Davis got hurt). Cook also returned 4 kickoffs for 48 yards (12.0 avg.) as an up man on the kickoff return team, including 2 for 26 yards at Notre Dame and a 22-yarder against Houston.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 1994 Blue Chip All-American, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, Student Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF San Diego Section second team and All-Eastern League pick as a senior safety and quarterback at Morse High in San Diego (Calif.). His junior season honors included 1993 All-CIF San Diego Section and All-Eastern League. He added 45 tackles, 6 picks, 10 deflections, 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery as a 1992 sophomore while earning 1992 All-CIF San Diego Section second team and All-Eastern League honors on a 14-0 Morse team. He was a 3-year starter at safety and had 16 interceptions. Morse won the CIF San Diego Section Division I title in 1992 and 1994. Current Trojan Lonnie Ford also prepped at Morse.

Also a fine student, he was a 1994 National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame San Diego Scholar-Athlete and was on the 1993 and 1994 San Diego Union-Tribune All-Academic team. He also was on Morse's basketball (he averaged 10 points) and track (with bests of 10.9 in the 100 meters, 23 feet in the long jump, 48 feet in the triple jump and 6-4 in the high jump) teams.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His sports hero is Jackie Robinson.

RASHARD COOK ON: Hitting: "I just want to hit a person before he hits me. Whoever is coming with the most force is less likely to get hurt. And I like to make sure that they're down."

MARK CUSANO

Linebacker
Jr./Jr.

1997: The solid, experienced Cusano returns as a starting linebacker as a junior in 1997. He'll be counted on to provide a high level of performance and leadership in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Cusano is a quick, instinctive, talented linebacker and a team leader. One day, he'll be an all-star."

1996: Cusano started all of 1996 at the strongside linebacker spot as a sophomore. Overall in 1996, he had 74 tackles (third on the team), including 3 for losses (with 1 sack), with 6 deflections, 1 interception (at Houston, which led to a USC TD) and 1 fumble recovery (against Oregon State, he picked up a Beaver fumble and went 8 yards for a TD). He'll long be remembered for his game-ending pass deflection on fourth down from the 29-yard line in overtime that gave USC its first win over Notre Dame in 14 years. He had 11 tackles against Notre Dame, 10 versus California and Arizona State, 9 against Oregon State and 7 versus Penn State.

1995: Cusano played often as a backup at linebacker to Errick Herrin (he came in often during passing situations) and on special teams as a first-year freshman in 1995. He even started against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl in the 4-4-3 defense that USC employed. Overall in 1995, he had 50 tackles (tied for fourth on USC), including 1 for a loss of 2 yards, plus 4 deflections. He notched at least 2 tackles in every game, including 7 at Oregon State, 6 against Washington State (with 2 deflections), and 5 versus California, UCLA and Northwestern.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1994 honors included Blue Chip All-American, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Southwest, Blue Chip All-Southwest, All-State Class 5A first team, Dallas Morning News All-State, and Dallas Morning News All-Area as a linebacker at The Colony (Tex.) High. As a 1994 senior, he made 140 tackles, 6 sacks, 8 fumble recoveries and an interception for a TD.

He added 126 tackles (16 for losses, with 3 sacks) and 4 fumble recoveries as a 1993 junior. In his career as a 3-year starter, he had 9 sacks, blocked 2 punts and scored 3 TDs.

PERSONAL: He's an economics major at USC. He was born in San Clemente, Calif. His sports hero is Walter Payton.

MARK CUSANO ON: Texas: "Back home is a different lifestyle. I miss home a little bit. People talk about Texas pride, and it's true. Talking about the state brings a smile to my face. It's home and who I am...I'm really a cowboy. I try to hide my accent when I'm out here. I'm really a country person back home and all of my friends are country people. We go to country dances and concerts. I have my tight jeans, ugly shirts and boots. I don't think I'd ever wear that stuff here. It's just not the thing to do...Football is everything to small towns in Texas. It's very electrifying."

Why he left his home state of Texas and came to USC: "I went to a football camp at Texas when I was in high school. I was standing there on the field and the bottom of my shoes had melted from the hot turf. I was like, 'I don't think so, this isn't the place for me.' It would be like 110 degrees and 100 percent humidity in August, and you're out on the field and it's like a pressure cooker on your head. So I came out here and it was nice. The coaches took me to the beach and showed me a real California time."

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Davis is inexperienced, but has the talent and size needed to play in 1997. He is continuing to mature. We're looking for him to step up and have a solid season."

1996: Davis redshirted as a freshman defensive tackle in 1996, his first year at USC. WHAT OTHERS SAY: Reseda High coach Joel Schaeffer: "He is a gut-level, emotional-type football player. He has good lateral movement, good pursuit, and good speed for a big kid. He can chase down people and make a lot of tackles on the wide side of the field."

ERIC DENMON

Center
So./So.

1997: A high-potential sophomore, Denmon again will be a backup center behind Jonathan Himebauch in 1997. He missed 1997 spring practice while recuperating from 1996 post-season arthroscopic knee surgery.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Denmon is a player with a good future here. He's good enough to almost start in 1997 and could own the job in future years. He's quick, intelligent and works hard."

1996: Denmon served as the backup center behind Himebauch as a first-year freshman in 1996. He played briefly in 4 games (Illinois, Oregon State, Houston and Washington). After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery to remove cartilage from his right knee.

ROME DOUGLAS

Jr.*/Sr.

1997: After starting at left offensive tackle in 1996, Douglas is listed as the backup to Phalen Pounds at the position as a junior in 1997. But Douglas figures to see lots of action in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Douglas gained a lot of experience last year, although he was inconsistent at times. We're looking for him to continue improving in 1997. He is very athletic and has good speed."

1996: Douglas benefitted from a 1995 late-season position switch from tight end to offensive tackle and started 10 games (he did not start against Stanford and Notre Dame, but he did play) at left tackle as a sophomore in 1996.

1995: Douglas began his 1995 redshirt freshman season as a reserve tight end (he played against San Jose State and Houston in 1995, but did not catch a pass), but was moved to a reserve offensive tackle late in the season (he played briefly against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl).

1994: Douglas redshirted as a tight end in 1994, his first year at USC.

BASKETBALL: Douglas did double duty as a freshman, as he was a reserve forward on the USC men's basketball team in 1995. He appeared briefly in 5 games, scoring 1 point (0.2 avg.). On days when the basketball and football teams practiced, he attended both workouts.

HIGH SCHOOL: He earned 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western Region and Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 honors as a senior at Claremont (Calif.) High. He had 7 catches for 188 yards (16.9 avg.) in 1993, along with 69 tackles and 11 deflections.

He was an All-League pick as a 1992 junior at St. Francis High in La Canada, where he caught 18 passes for 313 yards (17.4 avg.) and 5 TDs. That was his first year of playing football. Fellow Trojan Bob Aubrey also prepped at St. Francis.

He also played basketball (averaging 20.0 points, once getting 36 points and 22 rebounds in a game, and making the 1993 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Grid-Hoop second team), baseball and track.

PERSONAL: His father, James Douglas, played basketball at Memphis State in 1968-71 and then professionally. He was named Rome because his parents were married in the Italian capital. He's a social science/history major at USC.

ROME DOUGLAS ON: His move to offensive tackle in late 1995: "It was natural. When I first started talking to Coach Robinson about moving to tackle, I was kind of scared. But he knew better than I did and, after the first week, everything I did came so naturally. In about 3 weeks, I was pulling and pass blocking and run blocking like I played tackle all my life...He was probably going to ask me to play because I was getting so big, but I asked him to play first."

His style of play: "I love contact. I just want to take it to you. You may be faster than me or whatever, but when it comes down to it, defense wins games. You've got to be a fighter."

Deciding to play football in high school: "Tight end. I liked the way that sounded when I first heard it. I didn't know anything about football and I still don't know much about it. I'm still trying to learn the game. I didn't even know all the positions. All I knew was quarterback and defensive end. But when our high school coach came to me and asked me to play tight end, I kind of liked that."

Basketball: "Basketball was my first love and it still is. I was always a basketball player. I've always wanted to be like my dad. He's my idol. I watch clips of him and read about him all the time."

JOHN FOX

Quarterback
So.*/Jr.

1997: Fox, an untested sophomore with good potential, will battle with Quincy Woods and Mike Van Raaphorst for the starting quarterback spot (vacated by Brad Otton) in 1997. He also is available as a holder on placekicks.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Fox has a lot of gifts for the quarterback position. He's young and untested, but will compete for the starting job. He is almost the perfect physical size for a quarterback. He has outstanding skills, he has a natural passer's arm, and he is quite fast."

1996: As a redshirt freshman reserve quarterback in 1996, Fox appeared briefly in 1 game (playing most of the fourth quarter against Oregon State, where he was 0-of-2 passing, with an interception).

1995: Fox redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 1995, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was selected to the 1994 Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State first team, Student Sports All-State second team, Riverside Press-Enterprise All-Riverside County first team and All-CIF Division IV first team as a senior at Centennial High in Corona (Calif.) He hit 128-of-220 passes (58.2%) for 1,754 yards, 17 TDs and just 3 interceptions in 1994 (he also ran 60 times for 305 yards, a 5.1 avg., and 3 scores).

As a 1993 junior, he threw for 1,425 yards with 5 TDs and ran for 312 yards and 7 scores. A 3-year starter, he threw for 3,446 yards and 24 TDs in his career.

PERSONAL: He's an education major at USC. He enjoys water and snow skiing. His sports hero is Joe Montana.

JOHN FOX ON: His chances in 1997: "I have no pressure. Nobody expects me to play. I do believe, above everything else, in this past spring's practice that I finally showed the coaches I love to play. They never really saw me play. The one thing they saw this spring was the fire I have to play."

Asking to be the scout team quarterback in 1996: "I wasn't seeing any reps in practice. I was just sitting there watching Brad Otton all day. I had to swallow my pride, which was hard as heck to do, and volunteer to be the scout team QB. I wasn't punishing myself. I just wanted to do anything to get better."

His relationship with fellow quarterback Quincy Woods: "Quincy and I are good friends. There's always been that rivalry, but we've never let it cause a conflict between us. The rivalry has made us both better."

Spending the summer of 1996 working at a construction job instead of working out for football: "When I came back to USC in the fall, I hadn't thrown a ball in three months. I was horrible. I was definitely worse than when I first came to USC. I was slow, out of shape, didn't know the calls. The coaches were mad at me and I was mad at myself. I vowed never to do that again."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Hue Jackson: "John is a great character kid, very bright and physically strong with a strong arm, and he obviously runs very well for a big man. He has all the intangibles."

1996: Garner redshirted as a freshman wide receiver in 1996, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 1995 Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest Offensive MVP, Bluechip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-Valley, Los Angeles Daily News All-Valley first team and All-Mission League Co-MVP as a senior at Notre Dame High in Sherman Oaks (Calif.). 1997: Grain, a sophomore, will provide depth at left offensive guard in 1997.

STANLEY GUYNESS

Wide Receiver
Fr.*/So.

1997: Guyness will figure into the mix for playing time at wide receiver as a redshirt freshman in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Guyness is a young, untested wide receiver with lots of potential. We're looking for him to work his way into the playing rotation in 1997. He has a lot of skills, but he needs to get stronger."

1996: Guyness redshirted as a freshman wide receiver in 1996, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1995 honors included Parade All-American (he was listed as the No. 1-ranked wide receiver), Super Prep All-American, Bluechip All-American, Schutt Sports All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Student Sports Hot 100, Bluechip Best of the West, Super Prep All-Farwest, Bluechip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County second team, Orange County Register All-Orange County second team, and Long Beach Press-Telegram Dream Team as a senior at Los Alamitos (Calif.) PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. His sports heroes are Jerry Rice and Jim Brown.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC wide receivers coach Mike Sanford: "Stanley's a real smooth, Johnnie Morton-type of wide receiver. He's very smooth and runs good patterns. He just needs to get more physical for the college game, but that will come as he matures."

PRENTICE HILL

Cornerback
Jr.*/Sr.

1997: Hill, a quick junior who will serve as a backup cornerback to Brian Kelly in 1997, figures to also again make himself noticed on special teams, where he has a knack for making big plays. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove bone spurs from his left ankle after 1997 spring practice.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Hill has great quickness and stars on special teams, where he makes good things happen for us. He also is capable of solid play in the secondary."

1996: Hill saw action in all 12 games in 1996 as a sophomore backup cornerback to Ken Haslip and Chad Morton, as well as a big-impact special teams performer. Overall in 1996, he made 12 tackles (2 for losses), forced 2 fumbles (against Oregon State, which he recovered to set up a USC TD, and Arizona State), recovered 2 fumbles (versus Notre Dame besides the Oregon State recovery) and blocked a punt (against Washington, in which he was credited with a 9-yard punt return). At Illinois, he scooped up an Illini punt blocked by Chris Miller and raced 19 yards for a TD (it was USC's first blocked punt for a score since the 1992 UCLA game). He had 3 tackles against both Illinois and UCLA. He had a 9-yard tackle for a loss against Oregon State.

1995: As a redshirt freshman reserve cornerback, Hill saw all of his action in 1995 in 5 games on special teams (versus Houston, Arizona, California, Washington State, Washington). 1997: Himebauch, a steady and dependable senior, returns as the starting center in 1997. He is also available as a long snapper.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Himebauch did an outstanding job for us last year. He's a good, smart player who provides stability and leadership to our offensive line. We expect more of the same in 1997. He's an all-star in our minds."

1996: Himebauch started all of 1996 at center as a junior and did a laudable job. He won USC's Bob Chandler Award (top junior athlete/student/leader).

1995: Himebauch, a reserve center as a sophomore in 1995, saw action in all 12 games on special teams (his only appearances at center came briefly against San Jose State, Arizona State and Northwestern in the Rose Bowl). At Notre Dame, he returned a short kickoff 14 yards as an up man on the kickoff return team.

1994: As a redshirt freshman reserve who was available to play any offensive line position, Himebauch saw action in 8 games in 1994. He appeared briefly at left offensive guard against California and Texas Tech and at right offensive tackle versus Arizona, and played on special teams in the Oregon, Stanford, Washington State, UCLA and Notre Dame contests. He was moved to center from nose tackle midway through 1994 spring drills.

1993: Himebauch redshirted as a nose tackle in 1993, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Division IV first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team (as an offensive lineman), All-Inland Valley, All-Baseline League first team (offense and defense) and team MVP at Damien High in La Verne (Calif.). In 1992, he played inside linebacker (posting 63 unassisted tackles and 3 sacks), offensive guard and long snapper.

In 1991, he made All-Inland Valley (as an offensive guard) and All-Baseline League. He also played basketball and track.

PERSONAL: He's an English and creative writing major at USC, with an interest in short stories and poetry. He was born in Greenwich, Conn., and spent much of his youth in Chapel Hill, N.C. His father, Jack, was USC's athletic recruiting coordinator from 1987 to 1994 (he now works in USC's Financial Services department) and before that was an assistant football coach at North Carolina, Miami (Ohio) and Fordham. Jonathan's brother, Curt, was a walk-on defensive back at USC, while another brother, Chris, captained North Carolina's swim team for 2 years (1988-89) and received a master's degree in business administration at USC.

JONATHAN HIMEBAUCH ON: Wearing No. 56: "I'm wearing No. 56 because of everything that (ex-USC Academic All-American center) Jeremy Hogue has helped me with for the past few years. He and Coach Doug Smith have really made me the center I am today. Jeremy really took me under his wing. He taught me about technique and how to handle the game mentally...I spent two years behind him, watched him play week in and week out. He definitely has shaped the way I play. I owe a lot to him."

Finally getting a chance to start: "Being a third-team center before, it was kind of hard to get some time and get comfortable with a position while worrying about only getting a few plays in. Now with this leeway of running the show, it's really a good feeling to have. Everybody kept saying, 'Wait until your turn. Your spot will come.' It couldn't come fast enough for me. After all of this, it was definitely worth the wait and the time spent."

Switching from defense to offense in the spring of 1994: "I had no idea I was going to be a center, but I was a little undersized for a defensive lineman and they were bringing in guys like Darrell Russell. There wasn't a lot of playing time in my future. It was the best move I made...I was open-minded, but reluctant. It was a letdown, but it was good to know they were thinking about me and wanted me to move to a position where I would play. It took me that whole spring and probably the whole next fall before I was comfortable to be in the middle, making the calls and knowing what I was doing. That spring was just a blur. I had no clue what I was doing. But the next fall I was more comfortable."

Keeping a journal: "I wrote in a journal every other night during the 1996 season. I just took it out and started writing down about how I felt, how the day went or how the week went. I found myself getting kind of high-strung at times, so it was kind of a therapeutic method I used to relax and get my mind right...It's a type of psychological treatment I do on myself. It helps calm me down. Writing helps me find my goals and direct what I'm doing. Some days I'm ticked off after a game or practice, but after I write down my feelings, I'm at perfect ease...There are so many things that go on in a college atmosphere that outside people don't know about. I think people would like to know what an athlete goes through every day. I think with my first-hand experience and my insights, I could help people understand what it's all about...Some people see us on the field on Saturday and think that we don't go to class or do the things that other students are responsible for. That's the wrong idea about student-athletes. They put in a lot of time in the classroom and also have to take care of their sports...It's not an easy life. You can't screw around at all, like a lot of regular students do, because you don't have any free time. Football pretty much is your free time."

Majoring in English and creative writing: "You get a lot of double takes when you walk in the class. Most of the guys in there spend most of their hours indoors. It's really fun, though. I enjoy it. You can get away from football. And I'd rather sit there and type than highlight (books while studying)...I enjoy writing. It's helped me to define my goals, relax, and understand what's going on...I might even like to go into sports journalism one day."

His father's influence on selecting USC: "I did kind of have an inside look at USC, but in the beginning I just saw it as college football. When I got to that age, dad left me alone about it. One thing he did was help me make connections with other schools. If I decided USC wasn't the best thing for me, he said he would be fine with it. He always treated me like any recruit. He tried not to give me any special treatment...He opened my eyes to see what recruiting is all about. I think a lot of kids coming out of high school don't know what to look for in a school. And being around recruiting, I knew what to look for, positives and negatives. I wouldn't be impressed with the little things, but knew what would be important...He was great. He said that when it came to recruiting, he would be the recruiting coordinator for USC, but as a father he wanted me to make the decision that was best for me...He said, 'Hey, it's your decision.' I decided USC was the best place for me and it just so happened that he worked here, too."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive line coach Mike Barry: "He has made some excellent second-effort blocks. He brings a lot of maturity and a level of toughness to the line."

Jack Himebauch, Jonathan's father: "The thing that's been so nice over the years is to see his development, how each year he's gotten bigger and stronger. He's done the things he needed to do to develop as a player. He works out religiously. Being around collegiate programs all his life, he saw that good players work hard."

Fullback
Fr.*/So.

1997: Iacenda, who showed lots of promise in 1996 before getting injured, will be in the mix for playing time at fullback as a redshirt freshman in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Iacenda is continuting to improve. He can be an outstanding and effective fullback for us. He's tough and competitive. We need to get him on the field in 1997."

1996: Iacenda appeared briefly in 1 game (the end of the Illinois contest) at fullback as a first-year freshman in 1996, then suffered a bruised shoulder prior to the next game against Oregon State and was sidelined the rest of the year. Because of that early-season injury, he was allowed to redshirt. At Illinois, he ran 3 times for 6 yards (2.0 avg.) and took a pass another 24 yards.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 1995 Super Prep All-American, Bluechip All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Bluechip Best of the West, Super Prep All-Farwest, Bluechip All-Western, Student Sports All-West Coast, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division II Co-MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Valley, Los Angeles Daily News All-Valley first team, All-Foothill League MVP and Student Sports All-Academic as a senior fullback at Hart High in Newhall (Calif.). He gained 1,869 yards rushing on 240 carries (7.8 avg.), caught 30 passes for 497 yards (16.6 avg.) and had 2,400-plus all-purpose yards with 39 TDs in 1995. Hart went 12-2 and won the 1995 CIF Division II title (in that championship game, Iacenda rushed for 169 yards and 3 TDs and made 10 tackles).

As a 1994 junior, he made Cal-Hi All-State Junior, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division II MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Valley MVP, Los Angeles Daily News All-Valley first team and All-Foothill League MVP. In 1994, he had 1,538 rushing yards on 214 carries (7.2 avg.) with 30 TDs and also grabbed 48 passes for 892 yards (18.6 avg.) with 11 TDs. Hart was 13-1 and was the CIF Division II runnerup.

He ran for 684 yards on 116 carries (5.9 avg.) with 13 TDs and caught 31 passes for 442 yards (14.3 avg.) with 6 TDs as a 1993 sophomore while earning All-Foothill League first team.

In his 3-year career (Hart went 35-5), he scored a CIF Southern Section record 99 TDs (and a record 604 points, second most in California history).

He also was on Hart's track (200 meters, 400- and 1600-meter relays, long jump and shot put, winning the Foothill League shot put title in 1994 and 1995), baseball and ice hockey (MVP of the California state championships) teams. He was Hart's student body president. Current Trojan Kevin McLaughlin also prepped at Hart.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. His older brother, Andy, played football at Vanderbilt.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Hart High head coach Mike Herrington: "Ted can do everything you need a running back to do. He can run with the football, he can block and he is a good pass receiver. He's a huge weapon."

JABARI JACKSON

Tailback
Jr./Jr.

1997: Jackson transferred to USC in the spring of 1997 from City College of San Francisco, where he was the state's top rusher and scorer, and is listed as the backup at tailback behind Delon Washington as a junior in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Jackson comes to us with great credentials. He got it done at the junior college level and he's working hard to see that continues here. In the spring, he proved beyond our expectations that he was ready to play. He's a big, smooth runner with good vision. We're looking forward to seeing him in action."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Jackson won 1996 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American first team, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-American first team, Super Prep JUCO 100, and J.C. Athletic Bureau All-State Region II Offensive MVP honors as a sophomore running back at City College of San Francisco (Calif.). In 1996, he ran for 1,622 yards and 17 TDs on 254 carries (6.4 avg.), and also caught 26 passes for 358 yards (13.8 avg.) with 5 TDs. He led the state junior college ranks in rushing (162.2) and scoring (13.2), and was fourth in all-purpose running (198.0). His team went 10-1 and was ranked third in the state.

As a 1995 freshman, he had 866 rushing yards and 14 TDs on 161 carries (5.4 avg.), averaging 108.3 yards per game on the ground. He was tied for second in the state in scoring (12.0, with 16 TDs). Current Trojan Grant Boelter also attended CCSF.

HIGH SCHOOL: Jackson prepped at Riordan High in San Francisco, where he earned San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro Area honorable mention notice as a 1994 senior. He also was on the basketball and track teams at Riordan.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC. His real first name is Kamau, which is an African word meaning "silent warrior." Jabari (actually his middle name) means "brave warrior." His sports hero is NFL star Jerry Rice.

JABARI JACKSON ON: His role at USC: "I don't know how I'm going to fit in. I'm going to just try and work as hard as I can and try to get some playing time, but I will do anything I can to help the team."

Comparisons to O.J. Simpson, who also attended City College of San Francisco: "I don't really react to those stories. I mean, just because I went to the same school, I don't really compare myself to him. He was a great running back, but I still have a lot of work to do to get up there."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC running backs coach Charles White: "The thing that he does well is he knows how to run the football. He's a gamer. I can't wait to see him in a football game."

CEDRIC JEFFERSON

Defensive Tackle
Sr./Sr.

1997: The play of Jefferson, an experienced senior who figures to start at the defensive tackle spot vacated by NFL first rounder Darrell Russell in 1997, could go a long way in determining the success of USC's defense.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Jefferson excelled more than expected in spring practice. If he can stay healthy, he will be an important part of our defensive line in 1997. He was a very good player last year when he was healthy. He is an excellent run defender and has improved as a pass rusher."

1996: Jefferson alternated starts with George Perry at a defensive end spot for the first half of 1996 as a junior. He notched 4 starts there (Illinois, Houston, Arizona and Arizona State) and also started once (the California game) at defensive tackle for a sidelined Russell. He sprained his left knee at Arizona State and missed the next 3 games (Washington State, Washington and Stanford), then returned as Perry's backup for the final 2 contests. Overall in 1996 while appearing in 9 games, he had 29 tackles, including 5 for losses of 16 yards (with 1 sack for minus 6 yards), 4 deflections and 1 fumble recovery (at the USC 6-yard line versus Arizona). He had 6 stops against both Oregon State and California.

1995: Jefferson backed up Matt Keneley at defensive tackle as a sophomore in 1995 and appeared in 7 games. He missed the San Jose State and Houston games with a neck sprain and the Washington State game with a sprained left ankle (although he suited up for the Notre Dame and Washington contests, he didn't appear in those contests). Overall in 1995, he made 4 tackles.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Jefferson saw frequent action in 10 contests in 1994 as the backup nose tackle behind Keneley and recorded 12 tackles (including 1 sack). He made 5 tackles at Oregon State. He missed the Washington and Penn State games while recovering from a sprained right knee suffered in pre-season practice. Torn right knee cartilage against Notre Dame slowed him against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl (he had arthroscopic surgery to remove the cartilage after the season).

HIGH SCHOOL: Jefferson was a 1993 Blue Chip All-American first team, Tom Lemming's Top 100, Super Prep All-Texas, All-State honorable mention, All-Tarrant County and All-District pick as a 2-way senior lineman at Western Hills High in Fort Worth (Tex.). He had 31 tackles, 9 sacks, 1 fumble recovery, 1 forced fumble and 1 deflection in 1993. In 1992 as a junior, he made All-State and All-District in his second year playing football. He also played basketball (earning All-District honors) and baseball at Western Hills.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He was born in Atlanta, Ga. He likes to write poetry in his spare time. His sports hero is Michael Jordan.

BRIAN KELLY

Sr./Sr.

1997: Kelly, USC's veteran on defense, returns for his fourth year as a starter and the senior should thrive from his move in 1997 spring practice from free safety back to cornerback, where he started as a freshman and sophomore. Teamed with Daylon McCutcheon, that gives USC perhaps the nation's top pair of cornerbacks. Look for Kelly to contend for All-American honors in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "We've moved Kelly back to cornerback, his natural position, and I believe he'll have a great senior year. He should compete for All-American honors and could be a high NFL draft choice. He has great cover skills. And he's an outstanding leader."

1996: Kelly started for his third season, at free safety in 1996 as a junior after starting the previous 2 seasons at cornerback. Overall in 1996, he made 43 tackles, including 2 for a loss, 1 interception, 11 deflections, 1 fumble recovery and 1 forced fumble.

He had 8 tackles at Stanford, 7 at Illinois and 6 at Houston and UCLA. He made 2 big plays against Penn State in the opener, first intercepting a pass and returning it 22 yards on the Nittany Lions' first possession, and then recovering a Penn State fumble on the USC 6-yard line early in the second half and running it back 18 yards (he also made 5 tackles in the game). Versus Washington, he had 3 tackles (1 for a loss) and stripped a Husky receiver of the ball which USC recovered (leading to a USC field goal). He started at cornerback (for an injured Chad Morton) against Notre Dame and posted 3 deflections and a tackle. He was suspended from the California game for violating an NCAA "extra benefit" rule. He was moved to free safety in 1996 spring practice. After the 1996 season, he had surgery to remove bone chips in his right knee and right ankle.

1995: Kelly started at cornerback for his second season as just a sophomore in 1995. Although he missed 3 games (Arizona, Arizona State and California) because of a sprained left ankle, he recorded 35 tackles, 11 deflections and 3 interceptions, which he returned for 19 yards (6.3 avg.), overall in 1995. His thefts came against San Jose State, Houston and Washington State (which he returned 23 yards). He had a game-high 11 tackles against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl, 7 at Notre Dame and 5 against both Houston and Stanford. He was a 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention selection.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Kelly started--and played well in--USC's last 8 games of 1994 at cornerback after spending the first 4 contests as Jerald Henry's backup. Overall in 1994, Kelly made 34 tackles (3 for losses), deflected 5 passes, intercepted another (at Washington State, which he returned 22 yards), and forced 2 fumbles (both against Baylor). He had 6 tackles versus Arizona.

HIGH SCHOOL: Kelly earned 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Midlands, Blue Chip All-Big 8 Region honorable mention, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Denver Post Colorado Defensive MVP, Colorado 6A Player of the Year and All-Centennial League notice as a senior at Overland High in Aurora (Colo.). In 13 games in 1993, he made 78 tackles, 4 sacks, 6 interceptions (4 for TDs), 17 deflections, and 3 fumble recoveries (1 for a TD) and also scored 4 TDs on offense (he rushed for 44 yards) and kick returns. Overland went 10-3 and won the state Class 6A championship in 1993.

He was All-6A Conference and All-Centennial League as a 1992 junior, getting 96 tackles, 2 sacks, 2 interceptions (both were returned for 80-yard scores), and 6 fumble recoveries (3 for TDs). He had 3 picks in a game once and 22 tackles in another. He also ran track at Overland, finishing second in the state 800 meters and running on the state champion 800-meter relay team as a junior. He posted a best of 21.36 in the 200 meters and 48.25 in the 400 meters.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. He was born in Las Vegas, Nev., and lived in Germany for 3 years. He likes to play the drums. His sports hero is Deion Sanders.

BRIAN KELLY ON: His ability: "It doesn't matter how much physical talent you have, you have to be mentally smart to play at this level...I'm pretty hard on myself. I want to do better."

High expectations placed on him: "It doesn't intimidate me, because I expect a lot of myself. I say, 'Fine, that matches my own expectations.' It's nice to hear those things from people who know, because it reflects the level I want to be at."

Wearing No. 42, the jersey number of former USC All-American and NFL All-Pro safety Ronnie Lott: "I'm very much aware of what that number means. I started hearing comparisons as soon as I got here. I'm honored to wear that number. I know Lott's a guy who always got it on on the field...It's nice to be mentioned with someone like Lott. The game's changed a lot now, but he did a lot of great things and probably still is the greatest secondary man. But I don't compare my style to his. We're 2 different types of players. Lott's a hitter; I'm more finesse and emotion."

His idol, Deion Sanders: "He plays a mental game and uses his physical skills, which is the type of player I'd like to be. The game now is more of a speed thing. But Deion still carries an intimidating factor, and in that I like to compare myself to him. Maybe I wouldn't like to be as flashy as he is, but I like a lot of the things he does."

His philosophy of playing cornerback: "Corner is a very demanding position. You have to take the field in the mindset that you're physically and mentally stronger than any receiver...At cornerback, you have to have a short memory, I guess you could say. You've got to come back on the next play, because they're going to come back at you."

Why he chose USC: "Without question, the Pac-10's style is what attracted me to USC. I had a chance to go to schools in other conferences, but I didn't want to be in a situation where I'd be coming up to cover the run on every play."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "Brian has the ability to close on the ball and make the big hit. He can strike and make a lot of things happen."

USC secondary coach Dennis Thurman: "I look at Brian and I see the explosive hitting of Ronnie Lott. Then I see the excitement and maybe even the showboating of Deion Sanders. And the ability to cover people all over the field like Darrell Green. That's a lot of things, but Brian is extremely special."

Former USC All-American wide reciever and NFL No. 1 draft pick Keyshawn Johnson: "Brian is so hard to get open on. He's the best I've played against in college football."

DARNELL LACY

Safety
So./So.

1997: Just a sophomore, Lacy is listed as the backup free safety behind Chad Morton in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Lacy showed great promise last year and has a nice future at USC. He's big, mature and possesses good skills."

1996: Lacy appeared in all 12 games of 1996 as a backup free safety to Brian Kelly and on special teams as a first-year freshman. He even started the Notre Dame contest when Kelly moved to cornerback. Overall in 1996, he made 17 tackles, including 5 against Notre Dame and 3 against California and Stanford.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 1995 Super Prep All-Farwest, Bluechip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay/Westside second team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, and All-Mission League first team as a senior strong safety and quarterback at Gardena (Calif.) High. He made 120 tackles, 4 sacks, 6 forced fumbles, 4 fumble recoveries, and 3 interceptions (2 for TDs) in 1995, plus passed for 1,200-plus yards with 10 TDs (he had 1,300-plus yards and 11 TDs of total offense).

He also played basketball and ran track (200 meters and the relays) at Gardena. Current Trojans Jason Steen and Kris Richard also prepped at Gardena.

LAWRENCE LARRY

Defensive End
Jr./Jr.

1997: Larry, a junior in 1997, is listed as a co-starter with Aaron Williams at the defensive end spot vacated by Willie Lowery.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Larry is experienced and capable of being a high-quality player in 1997. We're counting on him to come through for us on the outside of our defensive front."

1996: As a sophomore, Larry served as a backup strongside linebacker behind Mark Cusano and appeared in 10 games (all but the California and UCLA contests) in 1996. Overall in 1996, he made 6 tackles (1 for a loss) and forced a fumble. He was moved from defensive end to linebacker in 1996 spring practice. His forced fumble was a big one: with Washington State on the USC 11-yard-line and 39 seconds to play, Larry caused Cougar quarterback Ryan Leaf to fumble and Troy recovered to seal the win. He had 3 stops at Illinois.

1995: Larry appeared in 10 games (all but the Stanford and Northwestern contests) as a first-year freshman reserve defensive end and special teams performer in 1995. Overall, he made 4 tackles, including 1 sack for minus 1 yard, in 1995.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 1994 Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West honorable mention, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State first team, All-CIF Division II first team, and Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team as a senior at Littlerock (Calif.) High. In 1994, he notched 86 tackles (22 for losses, with 9 sacks), 10 deflections, 5 fumble recoveries and 3 fumbles caused. He was the first student from Littlerock to earn a college football scholarship.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC.

LAWRENCE LARRY ON: His name: "My last name is Larry and my parents named me after one of my dad's best friends. It just happened that way. They didn't purposely do it."

The transition from high school to college football: "The biggest thing I had to adapt to was the strength. They're so strong here. In high school, I didn't have to use strength. My speed got me around people. Speed hasn't been that hard to adapt to, but the strength has been tougher. Like when tight ends come off the ball and grab you."

FAAESEA MAILO

Offensive Tackle-Offensive Guard
So./So.

1997: Mailo, a well-tested sophomore offensive lineman, will not be with the Trojans in 1997 and 1998. After the 1996 season, he left USC to go on a 2-year Mormon mission.

1996: As just a first-year freshman, Mailo started 3 times in 1996 (at left offensive guard at Houston and at left offensive tackle versus Stanford and Notre Dame). He also appeared in 5 other games (Illinois, Oregon State, Washington State, Washington and UCLA) as a reserve and on special teams. He missed the California and Arizona games (he suited up for the Arizona State contest, but didn't play) after being sidelined in the Houston game with a hairline fracture in his right shoulder.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 1995 Super Prep All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Bluechip Best of the West, Super Prep All-Farwest, Bluechip All-Western and Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 as a senior at Kahuku (Hi.) High.

He spent his 1994 junior season at Banning High in Wilmington (Calif.), earning Los Angeles Times All-South Bay second team honors.

He was at Kahuku for his 1992 freshman and 1993 sophomore seasons. Although he was born in Torrance (Calif.), he moved to Hawaii when he was 1-year-old and lived there for all but the 1 year he spent at Banning living with his aunt.

At Kahuku, he also participated on the sumo club, where he won the Hawaii state sumo championship. In June of 1996, he went to Japan to train with pro sumo wrestlers and then competed against high school and collegiate wrestlers.

PERSONAL: In Samoan, Faaesea's name means, "Someone who does things differently." His sports hero is ex-Trojan star and former NFL All-Pro offensive tackle Anthony Munoz.

FAAESEA MAILO ON: His ability: "I think I run pretty well and my quickness is an advantage. My leg drive is what gets me going. That's where I get my strength from...I am a very aggressive player and I won't take anything from anybody on the field. I enjoy running people over."

Sumo wrestling: "Basically, sumo is the same thing as playing offensive tackle. In sumo, you're trying to push or shove a guy out of a 15-foot circle, and you can use your hands. It teaches you balance, too. When we're run-blocking in football, it's basically the same as a charge at a sumo opponent. It's a leg strength sport...The top sumo guys in Japan make Michael Jordan money. People in Japan told me I could do well over there, with training. They said I had good quickness, power, enthusiasm and the fighting spirit of sumo."

Going on his Mormon mission: "I cherish my religion. It is a very big part of my life. I have talked to many football players about leaving college to go on a mission and they all said they have no regrets. They all have said it was very good for them...I'll just have to pick up where I left off."

The difficulty when taking his USC team portrait: "The team dress jacket they had just wouldn't fit. My arms were too big and every time I tried to put the jacket on, the arms would start to rip. If you look at the team photos, you'll see I'm the only one with a windbreaker on."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: John Jacques, Kahuku High's sumo wrestling coach: "This is a young kid with a lot of great natural athletic ability and strength, and good discipline. All the sumo people in Japan were really impressed with his strength and focus."

MARC MATOCK

Defensive Tackle
Jr.*/Sr.

1997: The big and strong Matock will start as a junior in 1997 at the defensive tackle spot vacated by Matt Keneley.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Matock could come into his own in 1997. He's a good, blue-collar type player, but relatively inexperienced. We're looking for him to step up and have a solid season."

1996: As a sophomore, Matock was a backup defensive tackle behind Darrell Russell and Matt Keneley in 1996. Overall in 1996 while appearing in 11 games (all but the Houston contest), he made 7 tackles. He had 3 stops at Illinois.

1995: Matock was a redshirt freshman reserve defensive tackle in 1995, but he did not see any action.

1994: Matock redshirted as a defensive end in 1994, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: Matock's honors in 1993 included Blue Chip All-American first team, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, All-Valley and All-League as a senior 2-way lineman at Palma High in Salinas (Calif.). He had 3 interceptions (1 for a TD). Palma was 11-1 in 1993.

He made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro first team, All-Valley and All-League as a 1992 junior. In 1991 as a sophomore, he was All-League second team. He was a 3-year starter in football. He also played basketball and track at Palma.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. His sports hero is Howie Long.

BRENT McCAFFREY

Offensive Tackle
6-5, 265
Fr.*/So.

1997: McCaffrey, whose father played at USC in the early 1970s, will join with Grant Boelter to serve as the backup to Ken Bowen at right offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 1997. He is also available as a long snapper.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "McCaffrey played well in the spring and really came on. He is a developing player with fine bloodlines. As he improves, he has a chance to get into the offensive line's playing mix."

JUNIOR COLLEGE: McCaffrey attended Fresno (Calif.) City College as a part-time student in the fall of 1995, but did not play football.

HIGH SCHOOL: McCaffrey earned 1994 All-Fresno and All-Northwest Yosemite League honors as a senior 2-way lineman at Bullard High in Fresno. He also played in the Fresno City/County All-Star Game. He also played volleyball at Bullard.

As a 1993 junior, he played offensive and defensive line at San Joaquin Memorial High in Fresno, where he also played basketball.

PERSONAL: He's a planning and development major at USC. His father, Bob, starred at center for USC in 1972 through 1974 and was honored as USC's Lineman of the Year in 1974 and junior varsity MVP in 1971 (Troy played in 3 Rose Bowls during his career and won the national championship in 1972 and 1974). Bob played in the 1975 College All-Star Game and then spent 1975 with the Green Bay Packers. Brent's uncle, Mike McCaffrey, was a 3-year (1966-68) letterman defensive end at California who co-captained the 1968 Golden Bear team and was a 2-time (1967-68) All-Pac-8 selection (he played with the Buffalo Bills in 1970).

DAYLON McCUTCHEON

Cornerback
Jr./Jr.

1997: Simply put, McCutcheon is one of the best cornerbacks in college football. This All-American candidate with a famous bloodline is an exciting player who makes things happen. He was named a 1997 pre-season All-American first teamer by Playboy. A junior, he'll start for his third season in 1997 and, teamed with Brian Kelly, gives USC perhaps the top pair of corners in the nation. He's also talented enough to make an impact as a return specialist and, if needed, on offense as a slotback/wide receiver.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "McCutcheon is a special player. He can develop into one of the great USC football players ever. He has all the skills of an outstanding cornerback: speed, instinct, toughness and great cover ability. He also could return kickoffs in 1997 and even could see some action on offense as we try to make our wide receiver position more multiple."

1996: Although only a sophomore, McCutcheon appeared headed for greatness while starting for his second season at cornerback in 1996. Overall in 1996, he had 48 tackles, including 3 for losses, 3 interceptions which he returned 34 yards (11.3 avg.), a team-best 14 deflections and 2 forced fumbles. He earned 1996 Football News All-American honorable mention, All-Pac-10 first team and Football News All-Pac-10 first team honors. He tied for sixth in the Pac-10 in interceptions (0.3). At Washington State, he had a pair of interceptions (the second set up a USC TD), plus 4 tackles and 3 deflections. At Arizona State, he had 4 stops, 3 breakups and an endzone interception. He added 7 tackles at Stanford, and 5 each against Penn State, UCLA (with a forced fumble) and Notre Dame (with a forced fumble which led to a USC FG). He was used a bit early in the season returning kickoffs (he averaged 23.7 on 3 kickoff returns in 1996).

1995: As just a first-year freshman in 1995, McCutcheon came to USC with high expectations from coaches and fans...and he did not disappoint, earning 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice while making a number of big plays. He started 6 games at cornerback--filling in for an injured Brian Kelly against Arizona, Arizona State and California and then beating out Quincy Harrison for the last 3 contests (Oregon State, UCLA and Northwestern in the Rose Bowl)--and played often as the backup in the other 6 games. He also played on special teams. Overall in 1995, he made 50 tackles (tied for fourth on USC) and deflected 10 passes. He intercepted 2 passes which he returned 91 yards (45.5 avg.): a 35-yarder which he returned for a touchdown against San Jose State in his first game as a Trojan (it was the first scoring pick by a true freshman at USC since Jason Oliver did it twice in 1990) and a 56-yarder against UCLA which led to a USC TD. He also recovered a fumble against Northwestern and returned it 53 yards for a TD. He had 8 tackles against Washington State, 7 versus UCLA and 6 at Arizona in his first-ever start. He broke up 3 passes against Arizona State.

HIGH SCHOOL: McCutcheon's 1994 honors included USA Today All-USA (and California MVP), Parade All-Ameri- can, Super Prep All-American National MVP, Blue Chip All-American (and Elite 22), College Sports All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, National Prep Poll All-American, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State MVP, Coaches Poll All-State MVP, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division I MVP, and Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team as a senior running back and safety at Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif.). In 1994, he ran for a school-record 2,456 yards on 269 carries (9.1 avg.) with 33 TDs (including 10 scores of 50-plus yards). He ran for 100 yards in all 14 games in 1994, including 4 of 200-plus yards. He also caught 21 passes, returned a punt for a TD and was a kickoff returner. On defense, he made 8 interceptions, returning 2 for scores, and recorded 56 tackles. Bishop Amat went 13-1 in 1994 and was the CIF Division I runnerup.

As a 1993 junior, he played wide receiver and safety. He was named to the 1993 Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division I, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley and All-Del Rey League first teams. He caught 35 passes for 780 yards (22.3 avg.) and 11 TDs in 1993, plus had 88 yards on 10 carries (8.8 avg.), returned 6 punts for 161 yards (26.8 avg.) and 1 TD, and had 60 tackles and 5 picks (2 for TDs).

A starting wide receiver and safety as a sophomore on a 15-0 Bishop Amat team which won the CIF Division I crown, he was named to the 1992 All-CIF Division I first team as he caught 29 passes for 690 yards (23.8 avg.) with 5 TDs and intercepted 2 aerials. In his 3 years as a starter (Bishop Amat went 49-2), he had a school-record 15 interceptions (6 of which he ran back for TDs).

He also was a sprinter on Bishop Amat's track team. Current Trojan Rodney Sermons also prepped at Bishop Amat.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His father, Lawrence, was an All-Pro running back with the Los Angeles Rams (1972-79), Denver Broncos (1980) and Buffalo Bills (1981) who set the since-broken Rams career rushing record (6,186 yards), led the Rams in rushing 5 times and played in Super Bowl XIV (he has been a scout with the Rams since 1982). His sports hero is Deion Sanders.

DAYLON McCUTCHEON ON: His football goal: "I want to establish myself as one of the best cornerbacks in college football, and once I feel that I've done that, then I know that I'm going to have to look for an even bigger challenge. And that would be to become one of the best cornerbacks in the NFL...I feel I'm headed for greatness, but I know the little things make a difference between being a good player and a great player. I have a lot to learn but I'm headed in the right direction."

His attitude as a cornerback: "I just love the challenge of being out there one-on-one with the receiver...I want them to throw at me. It's a challenge...I can play any phase of the game. If the receiver is going to run routes, then I'm going to cover him. If he wants to talk, we can talk. If he wants to play dirty, I'll play dirty. I'm going to do whatever I have to do, but I'm going to do it better than him."

Hitting: "It suprises some people when I say it, but I love to hit. I don't look forward to hitting those big guys, like the tight ends, but I like coming up on the run and hitting the running backs. I love that."

Playing defense versus offense: "I feel real comfortable on both sides of the ball. I just want to win football games and I'm going to do whatever is asked of me...I'm just as capable of making great plays on defense as I am on offense...I see myself in the future playing defense...But if they ask me to play offense, I'll go over there and play...Playing corner has been a big challenge. So many things in my career have come naturally, but some of the things you really have to work at. Running back is primarily instinct. Cornerback is some instinct, but a lot of it is read and react. It's a learning process and I like the challenge...I know I need to get stronger, but I know I'll never be as big as my dad. So cornerback was a more logical position for me than running back. People think I chose defense to avoid having to be compared to my father, but that's not so...In the beginning, I missed playing offense a little, getting the ball. But after a while, I didn't miss it at all. People love to see the long run, the deep ball. I love to see interceptions. I love to see fumble recoveries."

His sports hero, Deion Sanders: "I love watching him because he's such a great athlete. Whenever he's on the field, he's able to come up with big plays. That's the type of player I am...I love the way he entertains on the field. Football is intense, but you should be able to have fun."

Starting as a freshman: "I didn't expect a starting spot. I thought I'd get some limited playing time. But there were some injuries, and I got in the games early in the season and things just worked out. I just had to work real hard to prove that I could play...(Getting that interception for a touchdown against San Jose State) was real exciting for me to start out my career like that. It gave me a lot of confidence, it made me feel really good about myself and also my teammates. The veterans made me feel real comfortable so I could just go out there, play ball and not worry about making mistakes...I felt real comfortable and the main reason I did was that I knew the other players believed in me."

Confidence: "I'm very confident. If I line up against a receiver, I feel he can't beat me. The cockiness and maybe all of the trash talking is not really me...When I lined up in high school, I knew there wasn't a receiver out there who could beat me. That's the same kind of attitude I came out with when I lined up at USC."

His first football game: "It was a Pop Warner game when I was 9. On my first carry, I ran through the line, and all of a sudden everyone was behind me. It was a long run, and my first touchdown. I decided I like it."

His mother, Deborah Sterling: "I love football, but I think she loves football more than me. She understands the pressures that go with it. She listens. And she gives good information. She understands the Xs and Os, too. I'd come out of the game and she'd go, 'Daylon, what were you doing on that play?' Oh, man. After I got chewed out by the coaches, I'd get chewed out by the coach at home."

His father, Lawrence, who left when Daylon was 2 years old and didn't see Daylon again until he was 10: "I didn't feel like I was missing out on anything (not having his father around), so I didn't ask about it. Everything I needed, I got from my mom (Deborah Sterling). I just didn't worry about it...For most of the time I was growing up, she was my male and my female role model...One day in 1987 when I was 10, my mom took me to a Rams practice. I ran into this man and asked him to sign my pennant. He signed it and I just took it around, getting more autographs. My mom asked me, 'Do you know whose autograph you've got?' I told her it was my dad. Then my mom and he talked. He pretty much said, 'Hi," and that was about it...But when he was signing it, he looked at me. He took a good look. I think he knew...Then, when I was 15 and a junior in high school, he called and said he wanted us to talk...I think he was scared I was going to reject him. Besides, I'm real stubborn and he's real stubborn...Now, we're trying to make something of the time that we missed. He's become a great friend and someone I can talk to about anything. He's always there for me and we're trying to move on and to make it a father-son relationship...I think he's a good person. Some people make a mistake and never try to correct it. He did come back. It was brave of him...He's helped me with my choice of schools and with my choice of position...We talk more often now. I love my dad and we're getting closer...I don't have any hard feelings...I don't see very many similarities between us on the field. He was more of a straight-up, power runner, where I'd rather put a move on you and try to outrun you. But he's accomplished something (playing in the NFL) that I hope to accomplish one day."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: His mother, Deborah Sterling: "I discussed his father openly with Daylon. Anything he wanted to know, I would tell him. It was no big secret or anything...We both went on with our lives and he provided for Daylon financially...It was never like there was any bad blood between us. We just went our separate ways. I never painted his dad out to be a villain or anything...When they met at that Rams practice when Daylon was 10, I think both of them handled it well. I'm sure it was awkward for the both of them...Daylon kind of looked up to him as he signed the autograph, then walked over to me, and I asked him if he knew who he was. He said, 'Yeah, kinda.' Lawrence stood there and just kind of watched the whole thing. I asked Daylon if he wanted to go over and talk to him. He did. Daylon handled the whole thing pretty well. He's a scrappy, confident kid...When they got back together for lunch when Daylon was in high school, I think it was hard for them, at first, to see what they expected out of it. It's not like you can make up all of those years. I don't think it was Lawrence's intention, and Daylon was a wise enough young man that he realized that you couldn't do that over such a short period of time. They were both open and willing to work on the relationship they have now. What I think is more important is that there's nothing we can do about the past...Daylon and Lawrence are very much alike, the way they walk, their movement, their sense of humor, their temperament, they way they laugh, everything. Genes are definitely remarkable things. They're so much alike, it's scary...My son and I worry about each other an awful lot. We're very close."

His father, Lawrence: "It was strange (seeing him at that Rams practice in 1987), because he looked so much like me. It was like I was looking at myself as a young kid...(The next time they met 5 years later), I just decided it was time. I didn't know what would come of it, but I called him up...I think the relationship was kind of guarded at first, but I think he feels he can confide in me. We talk about football, his team, his studies, just normal talk. Our relationship has really grown in the last year or so. I'm concerned a lot more with that than what happened in the past...My main concern is building a strong relationship with Daylon, getting to know him better. There's no time frame on it...He's developed his own style. He has great athletic ability, great speed and loves the game...He has great leg strength and has good jumping ability, which equalizes the height advantage a receiver has. He has great ability to play the ball in the air."

USC secondary coach Dennis Thurman: "Daylon is as natural a football player as I've ever been around...He has something we refer to around here as 'stuff'...He makes a lot of plays that you can't coach. And he makes a lot of great little plays...Not only does he have great athletic gifts, but he also has great instincts for how to play and he has an understanding of the game...His athletic ability is very important because he's in position to do the job on almost every play. He knows the game and plays the game that way. And he listens. He's coachable...He has the physical tools and the mental makeup to play at the next level."

USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "It's not just the athleticism he shows--the ability to do things that you can't coach--but he doesn't get the credit he deserves for being a great competitor."

Former USC linebacker and safety Sammy Knight: "He's a great player and he's a great leader. He's always making a big play."

Former USC cornerback Ken Haslip: "No team wants to mess with Daylon. They're stupid if they do."

Penn State offensive coordinator Fran Ganter: "We looked at a lot of film on him and we decided everything about him scared us, particularly his leaping ability."

Northwestern head coach Gary Barnett: "We knew he was a terrific athlete. Having played as a true freshman at a school the caliber of USC says it all."

Brian Patterson, South Bay Daily Breeze: "McCutcheon, who has 'Future All-American' stamped all over him, is just too good, too smart and too doggone dangerous for any opposing team to want to purposely cross paths with him."

KEVIN McLAUGHLIN

Wide Receiver
Fr.*/So.

1997: McLaughlin, who came to USC as a walk-on but earned a scholarship in 1997, will serve as a reserve wide receiver as a redshirt freshman in 1997. He missed 1997 spring practice because of a hamstring pull. He had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right shoulder after 1997 spring drills.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "McLaughlin is a good young player who is deserving of a scholarship. He's at a position with lots of talent, so he'll have to work hard to break into the mix. But he can be a contributor to our team."

1996: McLaughlin redshirted as a walk-on freshman wide receiver in 1996, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: McLaughlin was a wide receiver at Hart High in Newhall, where he caught 27 passes for 595 yards (22.0 avg.) and 5 TDs as a 1995 senior. Hart was the 1995 CIF Division II champion. Current Trojan Ted Iacenda also prepped at Hart.

PERSONAL: His brother, John, is a senior defensive end at California who played at Notre Dame before transferring.

MATT McSHANE

Center
So.*/Jr.

1997: McShane, a sophomore, was moved from offensive guard to center in 1997 spring practice and will serve as the backup to Jonathan Himebauch there in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "McShane is a young, developing offensive lineman who has shown continued improvement during his time at USC. He really jumped up in spring practice. He has the personality of a center, who toils in anonymity, and really took to the position switch."

1996: As a redshirt freshman reserve offensive guard, McShane appeared briefly in 1 game (Oregon State) in 1996.

1995: McShane redshirted in 1995 as a freshman offensive guard. He enrolled at USC in the spring of 1995 after sitting out the sport in 1994 following a fine prep career.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: McShane attended Merritt Community College in Oakland (Calif.) as a part-time student in the fall of 1994, but did not play football.

HIGH SCHOOL: McShane was named to the 1993 Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team and San Francisco Examiner All-San Francisco-Metro first team as a senior at St. Mary's High in Berkeley (Calif.).

As a 1992 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-Metro and All-League. He also played basketball and track at St. Mary's. He was the school's student body president.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC with a B- average (2.85 GPA). He likes to play the saxophone.

BILLY MILLER

Wide Receiver
Jr./Jr.

1997: Miller, a junior with outstanding size and speed, returns as a co-starter with Mike Bastianelli at wide receiver in 1997. Loaded with potential, he's looking to become a more consistent pass-catching threat in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Miller is a big, physical player who can develop into an outstanding receiver. He struggled at times last year, partly because of an injury. He just needs to regain his consistency and confidence. He did very well in spring practice. He has the experience and ability to be an impact player in 1997."

1996: Miller started 6 of USC's first 7 games (all but the Oregon State contest) as a sophomore in 1996 at the wide receiver position vacated by All-American and top NFL draft selection Keyshawn Johnson (he even wore Johnson's No. 3 jersey). He played in all the other games but 1 (at Stanford) as either a backup wide receiver or on special teams. Overall in 1996 while appearing in 11 contests, he had 17 catches for 273 yards (16.1 avg.) with 2 TDs. He had 3 grabs for 67 yards at Illinois and 4 for 65 yards against Oregon State. Despite dropping 3 balls versus the Beavers, he came back big at Houston, as he caught 3 passes for a career-best 69 yards, including 2 TDs (35 yards in the first quarter and 32 yards in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach). He had 1 leaping grab for 12 yards in the first quarter versus California, but partially separated his shoulder on the catch and was sidelined the rest of that contest (the injury hampered him the rest of the year). He returned to start the next game against Arizona and caught 3 passes for 41 yards. He had 2 grabs for 16 yards at Arizona State and 1 for 3 yards at Washington State. He didn't have a catch versus Washington, UCLA or Notre Dame.

1995: As a first-year freshman, Miller served as the backup to unanimous All-American and NFL No. 1 pick Johnson at wide receiver. Miller also performed on special teams. Overall in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 3 catches for 27 yards (9.0 avg.), including 2 for 18 yards against San Jose State in his first game as a Trojan, plus notched 1 tackle and forced a fumble (against Stanford).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 1994 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, College Sports All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State first team, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division III first team Co-MVP, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura first team MVP, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Marmonte League MVP as a senior at Westlake High in Westlake Village (Calif.). He caught 69 passes for 1,087 yards (15.8 avg.) and 14 TDs. Westlake went 10-2.

As a 1993 junior, he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-Ventura, Los Angeles Daily News All-Valley and All-Marmonte League (where he was Offensive MVP) first teams. He had 85 receptions for 1,465 yards (17.2 avg.) with 13 TDs in 1993.

As a 1992 sophomore, he made the All-Marmonte League first team with 33 catches for 465 yards (14.1 avg.) with 7 TDs. He also played cornerback. In his career, he had 187 catches for 3,017 yards (16.1 avg.) with 34 TDs (the yardage and TDs rank third on the CIF career charts). Current Trojan Bobby DeMars also prepped at Westlake.

He also was a 3-year starter for Westlake's basketball team (he averaged 15 points in 1995), earning 1995 Los Angeles Times All-Ventura and All-Marmonte League first team and 1994 Student Sports All-Grid-Hoop third team honors.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His sports hero is Jerry Rice.

BILLY MILLER ON: His ambition: "I'd like to be the go-to guy, definitely. That's part of being a competitor. You work hard to try to become that...I want to be the receiver who makes big plays."

Being compared to former USC All-American wide receiver and No. 1 NFL draft pick Keyshawn Johnson: "I think the comparison that everyone makes between Keyshawn and me is because of similar size and body type. But we're two different styles of receivers. Keyshawn was big and a finesse kind of guy. I like to use my body more. I'll try and be a more physical receiver than Keyshawn was...I'm not going out there with the idea of trying to replace Keyshawn. I'm just going to go out there and try to be myself and do my best to help this team win...I liked Keyshawn's style. I like guys who will talk about how they're going to beat you, then go out and do it. But no, that's not me. It's not in me to talk down an opponent and then go out and have to play him...I think it's great people are putting me at such a high level with such great USC receivers as Keyshawn and (ex-All-Americans and first round NFL draft picks) Johnnie Morton and Curtis Conway. Right now, I'm young, but it feels great that people are responding to me like this, saying, 'He's going to be the next.' But I've got a lot of work before that comes."

Wearing No. 3, Keyshawn Johnson's USC number: "I just wanted to wear 3 whenever I came to college. But Keyshawn was wearing it in 1995. It's not like I'm trying to be like Keyshawn. Other people think it's added pressure. I don't. I don't think they labeled Keyshawn as Curtis Conway (who also wore No. 3) when he wore the number...I'm not worried. If anything, it'll just make me work that much harder to try and uphold the tradition of the great wide receivers like Curtis and Keyshawn who wore it here before me."

Playing behind All-American Keyshawn Johnson in 1995: "I'd get maybe 20 to 30 balls thrown to me on Tuesday practices (when Johnson was given the day off to rest). When Keyshawn would come back, it dropped to 2 to 5. But that was my learning year and I took advantage of it. I learned a lot just listening to (ex-USC wide receivers) Coach (Mike) Sanford and Keyshawn talking."

Working out with track coach Danny Daniels in the summer of 1996 to improve his speed: "The first day I got sick, he ran us into the dirt. I woke up the next morning and thought, 'Maybe I'll run on my own.' But I stayed with it and it worked. My speed and form improved."

Improving: "I've been working on everything--my speed, catching the ball, running patterns, and using my body to my advantage to get in front of the defensive back."

USC's recent tradition of producing wide receivers who were high NFL draft picks: "It gives me incentive to work hard. I see them making all that money after working hard in college. It makes me want to work hard, as hard as they did or even harder, to be the best receiver at USC...I watch a lot of film on each of those guys. I think they each had something that I would love to learn and to be able to go out and do. Whenever they come around, I try to ask questions. I try to get an idea of what they do now in the NFL, what helps them out now and what helped them out in college. I try to get little things, like breaking down routes, how they catch the ball, how to get a defender off of you."

The transition from high school to college football: "In high school, college sounds easy. But it's not...Nothing can really get you ready. There's just so much volume when you come in. I was in shape physically, but I don't think I was in shape mentally. You can't prepare for it all. Everything is a lot faster...Plus, the competition is so great. Here, everyone is a superstar and everyone knows what they're doing and it's at full speed...And we're meeting all the time."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC wide receivers coach Mike Sanford: "The thing that's exciting to me is he's just scratching the surface of his ability. He can improve his speed and his physical strength...He's not only a good possession guy, but he has the speed to go deep and make the big play. He's a Dennis Rodman-type of receiver. When the ball is in his area, he's physical enough to go and get it like Rodman does in basketball. Thankfully, he doesn't have the pink or green hair yet, though...He has very similar speed to (ex-USC All-American and first round NFL draft pick) Johnnie Morton when he came to USC...He has the ability and attitude to be one of the greats at USC. He was around Keyshawn. He's seen the level of play you have to be at. There is a standard to live up to."

CHAD MORTON

Safety-Cornerback
So.*/Jr.

1997: One of USC's most exciting and versatile players, the speedy Morton--whose older brother was one of the Trojans' all-time great receivers--was moved to free safety (from cornerback) in 1997 spring practice and will start there in 1997 (the position became open when Brian Kelly moved back to cornerback). Look for the sophomore also to be used as a returner on special teams (he was USC's top punt returner in 1996). He could also jump back to play some cornerback.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Morton is one of the fastest players I've been around. And he plays fast. He's a very solid defensive back. He runs with a purpose and gets to the right spot with his brilliant speed. He's very bright and is a quick learner. We expect him to make a number of big plays there and on special teams."

1996: Morton was the Trojans' jack-of-all-trades as a redshirt freshman in 1996. He started at cornerback in 3 late-season games (Washington State, Stanford and UCLA) and was a backup to Ken Haslip there the rest of the season, as well as being a key special teams performer. He had 6 tackles at Washington State and 4 versus Washington.

But, to make up for the temporary loss of running backs Delon Washington and Shawn Walters in the early going, Morton was a 3-way player in 3 of USC's first 4 contests. At Illinois, he made 3 tackles as a backup cornerback, he rushed for 28 yards (with a 2-yard TD) on 9 carries as the third-string tailback, and he played on various special teams (he recovered an Illini fumble on a kickoff which led to a USC TD and he returned a punt 11 yards). Against Oregon State, he played exclusively on offense as he ran for a game-high 143 yards on 13 carries (both career bests), including a 73-yard zigzagging TD dash that broke the game open. At Houston, Morton had 4 carries for 0 yards, 2 catches for 24 yards and a 7-yard punt return. He didn't play offense against California, Arizona, Arizona State, Washington State, Washington, Stanford or UCLA. He sprained his back at UCLA and missed the Notre Dame game.

Overall in 1996, he made 23 tackles (2 for losses), 1 deflection and 1 fumble recovery on defense, plus had 26 carries for 171 yards (6.6 avg.) and 2 TDs rushing, and 2 catches for 24 yards (12.0 avg.) receiving, and a team-high 16 punt returns for a team-best 149 yards (9.3 avg.). He was fifth in the Pac-10 in punt returns (9.3).

He was moved to running back (from cornerback) prior to 1996 spring practice, but was shifted back to cornerback at the start of 1996 fall practice. He was slowed in 1996 spring drills because of a sprained knee.

1995: Morton redshirted as a freshman cornerback in 1995, his first year at USC.

TRACK: He sprinted for the USC track team in the spring of 1996, winning the 100-meter dash in 11.06 in a heat of USC's Five-Way meet (he also ran the third leg on USC's victorious 400-meter relay squad in that meet), before a knee sprain ended his season.

HIGH SCHOOL: He played football for 3 years at South Torrance (Calif.) High, although he missed all but the first quarter of the season opener as a 1994 senior running back after breaking his collarbone. He started at wide receiver as a 1993 junior and was a part-time starting running back as a sophomore in 1992.

He also sprinted for 3 years for South Torrance's track team, with career bests of 10.48 in the 100 meters (he finished seventh in the 1995 state 100) and 21.3 in the 200.

PERSONAL: A fine student with a B+ average (3.37 GPA) as a sociology major, he earned 1996 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention notice. He is the younger brother of ex-USC All-American and current Detroit Lion wide receiver Johnnie Morton (an NFL first rounder). Another older brother, Eric, was a wide receiver at Dartmouth. Two older half-brothers also starred as athletes: Michael was a running back at UNLV and then with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1982-84) and Stanley played pro baseball.

CHAD MORTON ON: His family: "My family has had a big impact on my football. My parents go to all my games and are very active in my academics. You could say football is a family tradition."

Playing tailback versus defensive back: "Playing running back was the greatest thing, but I knew it wouldn't be permanent. I knew as soon as the other guys came back, I would go back to defense...I'll play anywhere the coaches think I have a chance to play...It's a coaches decision. Now, I kind of like playing defensive back anyway...When I was first came to USC and they made me a defensive back, it was something I'd never done before. I was getting beat in practice a lot. Sometimes I'd look at the running backs and get jealous...If they want me to play offense, fine. But I think of myself as a defensive back. I think that's my long-term position...My brother, Johnnie, told me to concentrate on defensive back, that they tend to last longer in the NFL. And (USC secondary coach) Dennis Thurman told me he saw a lot of small running backs come into the NFL who soon wound up as setbacks or kick returners, and the next step was defensive back."

Coming to USC: "Because of my size and the fact I was injured in my senior year in high school, I didn't know if I was going to be able to play college football. Nobody wanted to recruit me. In fact, for a while, I thought that I might have to go to a J.C. USC was pretty much the only school that recruited me."

His parents, Johnnie Sr. and Katsuko, who are frequent visitors to USC practices: "I have great parents and I love it that they come to practice. And I love it that they care so much about me...They've hardly missed anything I've ever done.

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC secondary coach Dennis Thurman: "He's small and he's scrappy. He's real competitive. But he has to play that way. At his size, he has to play smart and play aggressive, and he understands that."

Former USC running back Shawn Walters: "On offense, he makes runs like you only see on 'John Madden Football.'"

Former Oregon State head coach Jerry Pettibone: "He's one of the most exciting runners I've seen in a long time."

JONATHAN MOSLEY

6-0, 225

1997: Mosley, a walk-on in the past, earned a scholarship in 1997 and will serve as a reserve linebacker as a senior.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Mosley is a hard-working, unrecognized player who has earned his scholarship. He'll give us depth at a position where we need it. He has overcome more in his life than any of us will ever have to. He backs away from no one. Our team has embraced him."

1996: As a junior reserve walk-on linebacker in 1996, Mosley played on special teams but did not make a tackle.

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Mosley lettered as a backup defensive tackle at Pasadena City College in 1994, after transferring there from USC. Current Trojan Gerard Khorozian also attended Pasadena CC.

1993: In his only action in 1993 as a walk-on freshman, Mosley played briefly against Oregon State as a reserve defensive end, but he did not make a tackle.

HIGH SCHOOL: Mosley earned 1992 All-CIF Division II, All-San Gabriel Valley, All-Pasadena and All-Pacific League Defensive MVP honors as a senior defensive tackle at Muir High in Pasadena (Calif.). He led his team in tackles in 1992. He was an All-CIF Division II, All-San Gabriel Valley, All-Pasadena and All-Pacific League choice as a 1991 junior defensive tackle.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. He has Tourette's syndrome, a neurological disorder characterized in his case by involuntary tics and at times violent upper body spasms and twitches. He goes by the nickname, "Shakes," a moniker he doesn't mind at all.

JONATHAN MOSLEY ON: Dealing with his Tourette's syndrome: "Basically, I have a tic in my body when I get nervous or stressed out. It also happens when I get excited. And playing football is when I get most excited...It used to bother me when people stared at me in restaurants, but not any more. People just don't think things through sometimes. I have Tourette's, and that's just the way it is. To me, it isn't a big deal...You have to shrug that stuff off...It's still tough, though, just always having to explain it and just dealing with kids and fellow classmates."

His relationship with Willie McGinest, the ex-USC star and current NFL first rounder who befriended Mosley and gave him the "Shakes" nickname: "I owe a lot to McGinest. He kind of took me under his wing when I came in as a freshman. He started calling me Shakes. Everyone does now. He thought I was too shy and nervous, so he started taking me to parties. He'd introduce me to girls. He's yell at me: 'Shakes! Stop being nervous!' So I'd try to stop being nervous. Then he'd say, 'Stop being shy.'

His other nicknames: "On the playgrounds when I was younger, they'd call me 'Richter Scale.' If I'd have a big tic, someone would yell: 'Wow, that's a 6.2!' Or they'd call me 'Fault Line.' Or 'Earthquake.'"

Playing on USC's scout team: "They want us to simulate the opposition for the first team, but every time we knock down a first-stringer, everyone gets excited and yells at us. But no one gets excited when someone knocks me down. It's a double standard. But that's the way it is."

Why he attended USC as a walk-on instead of a smaller school: "I went to some of those small college games. My high school games drew more people. I could have gone to a small school, had a great career, and no one would ever know. At USC, I even like going into the locker room every day and putting on the equipment. I love the team meetings, learning all this stuff from the coaches. I like being a little part in a big-time program."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Earl Gustkey, Los Angeles Times: "You can experience pain on a football field by breaking a leg. Eventually the pain goes away. But Mosley's pain lingers...For most of his life, unthinking and at times heartless people have done their best to take bites out of Jonathan Mosley. No one ever has. His attitude, his self-esteem, in spite of it all, are unconquerable."

Devin Henderson, Mosley's longtime friend: "Jonathan's attitude is that Tourette's is more of a problem for other people than it is for him."

Willie McGinest: "He plays hard and he's just one of the fellas. He gets along with everybody and he's a character. Everybody likes him and he's a good guy to be around...We gave him the nickname, 'Shakes,' to make him feel more comfortable with us. Anybody who's new to a program feels a little uncomfortable, so that's what we did to make him feel a little more at home."

BRENNAN OCHS

Fullback
Fr.*/So.

1997: Ochs, who came to USC as a walk-on but earned a scholarship in 1997, will serve as a reserve fullback as a redshirt freshman in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Ochs looked good in pre-season drills in 1996 before getting hurt. He's a good young player and deserves the scholarship. He'll find a way to be a contributor to our team."

1996: Ochs redshirted as a walk-on freshman running back in 1996, his first year at USC. He was sidelined all season with a sprained left ankle suffered in pre-season drills.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named to the 1995 Max Emfinger All-Northeast, All-State, All-Montgomery County and All-Conference teams as a senior fullback and middle linebacker at Georgetown Prep in Rockville (Md.). He ran for 637 yards (11.0 avg.) and 7 TDs on 58 carries in 1995. His 11.0 rushing average topped all Maryland preps. He also caught 19 passes for 272 yards (14.3 avg.) with 4 TDs. His blocking helped spring his team's running back to a 1,400-yard-plus season. On defense, he led Georgetown Prep in tackles with 78, including 9 for losses (with 4 sacks), plus 1 interception, 3 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries in 1995. Georgetown Prep went 10-0 in 1995, winning its league championship and ranking in Maryland's Top 5.

As a 1994 junior, he played fullback and outside linebacker at St. Albans High in Washington, D.C. His team won the Interstate Athletic Conference title. He had a 91-yard scoring run, the team's longest play in 1994.

As a prep, he also was on the track team, competing in the sprints, shot put and discus.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC with a B+ average (3.61 GPA).

PETROS PAPADAKIS

Tailback
So.*/Jr.

1997: Papadakis, who came to USC as a walk-on after transferring from California but earned a scholarship in 1997, will serve as a reserve tailback as a sophomore in 1997. He missed the last half of 1997 spring practice because of a sprained left ankle.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Papadakis has been very impressive in the short time he's been here. He's quite fast and tough as a runner. He had an outstanding spring. He could figure in the tailback rotation in 1997."

1996: He redshirted as a running back at USC in 1996.

1995: Papadakis originally signed with California and actually participated in practice for 1 week with the Bears in the fall of 1995, then left there and enrolled at USC. He had to sit out the 1995 season at Troy because of transfer rules.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 1994 Student Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay Co-MVP and All-Bay League Offensive MVP as a senior running back at Peninsula High in Rolling Hills (Calif.). He rushed for 2,026 yards on 217 carries (9.3 avg.) with 22 TDs in 1994. Ten of his TD runs were at least 40 yards and he scored at least 2 TDs in 7 different games. He ran for 288 yards in 1 game. Peninsula went 11-2 and advanced to the CIF Division II semifinals.

PERSONAL: He is majoring in English/American literature. He has worked many years at his family's renowned Greek restaurant in San Pedro, Papadakis Taverna. His father, John, lettered 2 years (1970-71) as a linebacker at USC (he was Troy's most inspirational player in 1971). Petros is a third generation Trojan. His brother, Taso, is a senior linebacker with the Trojans who also prepped at Peninsula.

PETROS PAPADAKIS ON: Originally going to California before coming to USC: "I left for Berkeley the day I graduated from high school. I liked it there, but I got very homesick and nostalgic...USC is the best place to be for me. I was born going to USC games. The Trojans were my heroes."

His family's athletic background: "Everyone in my family, we all play the same. We're not the most athletically gifted family, but we play with heart. It's good to bring heart to everything you do, or there is no point to it."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: His brother and teammate, Taso: "Petros is a funny guy. He's a good storyteller and he's a ham. He likes to be in the spotlight."

TASO PAPADAKIS

1997: It's been a hard-luck story for Papadakis in his USC career. A physical linebacker with starting experience but who has had an injury-plagued career, he was expected to battle for playing time as a senior in 1997, but tore ligaments in his left knee in 1997 spring practice and had surgery. He likely will miss will the 1997 season while recuperating. If he chooses, he could play again in 1998 and become a rare sixth-year college player since he was allowed to redshirt twice (1993 and 1995) because of injuries.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "It is just a shame about Papadakis' latest injury. He's a veteran and a leader, and he was going to be a factor in our linebacking corps in 1997. He is a solid player who thrives in the physical, tough style of play. He is battle tested and provides us with a high level of performance and leadership."

1996: Papadakis, who returned to action in 1996 after missing 1995 with a knee injury, started USC's first 3 games at middle linebacker as a junior. He sprained his left ankle in that third contest (against Oregon State) and missed the next 5 games. When he returned, he played in the final 3 games (he didn't play against Washington) as the backup to Chris Claiborne at middle linebacker and as a key special teamer. Overall in 1996 while appearing in 6 games, he had 17 tackles (3 for losses) and a deflection. He made 6 stops against Penn State. He missed part of 1996 spring practice while recovering from 1995 right knee ligament surgery.

1995: As a sophomore, Papadakis was expected to be an often-used backup linebacker and a key special teams player in 1995, but he tore ligaments in his right knee in pre-season practice, had surgery, and missed the entire season. Because this was his second early-season injury as a collegian, he was eligible to again redshirt the season.

1994: As a redshirt freshman reserve inside linebacker, Papadakis appeared in all 12 USC games in 1994, mainly on special teams. He made 4 tackles. Early in the season, he also was available as a blocking fullback in short yardage situations, but never played there. He missed 1994 spring practice while recuperating from post-season surgery to remove torn cartilage in his right shoulder.

1993: One of just 2 first-year freshmen to play for USC in 1993, Papadakis played on special teams in the North Carolina and Houston games. But he dislocated his left wrist against Houston and missed the rest of the season. Because of the early-season injury, 1993 served as his redshirt year.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 1992 Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, All-CIF Division III first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team, and All-Bay League Defensive MVP (all as a linebacker) at Peninsula High in Rolling Hills (Calif.). He had 277 yards on 42 carries (6.6 avg.) with 2 TDs as a fullback in 1992, plus 3 fumble recoveries and 2 interceptions as a linebacker. His team went 9-3 and was Bay League co-champions in 1992.

He was hampered by a pulled hamstring in 1991, but still posted 77 tackles and 2 interceptions while winning All-League second team honors. Peninsula was 8-3 in 1991. As a 1990 sophomore, he had 97 tackles and an interception to get All-League second team mention. He also was a shot putter on the track team.

PERSONAL: His real first name is Anastasios. He has played the piano most of his life. He has worked many years at his family's renowned Greek restaurant in San Pedro, Papadakis Taverna. His father, John, lettered 2 years (1970-71) as a linebacker at USC (he was Troy's most inspirational player in 1971). Taso is a third generation Trojan. He's a religious studies major at USC with a B average (2.98 GPA). His brother, Petros, is a sophomore tailback with the Trojans who also prepped at Peninsula.

TASO PAPADAKIS ON: Hitting: "I love to hit. I love to put my head in there. I'm not afraid of anybody...As long as I can remember, I've always just enjoyed contact. I just liked getting hit. I've always played positions with the most contact. I was the goalie, the catcher or I played low post in basketball. I just always had to bang and be where the action is. Linebacker is a great position for that."

Playing on special teams: "You really have to focus your energy because it's all for one play. It's definitely the hardest thing I've done on the football field."

His 1995 knee injury: "It was devastating for me. I remember when I unbuckled my helmet, I thought that would be the last time I would ever wear it. But a few weeks after it happened, I became more determined that ever to play football. I worked as hard as humanly possible to come back. I probably worked too hard...I did everything the physical therapist told me to do, but doubled. I drove myself relentlessly...I'd even go to the L.A. Boxing Club and fight a few rounds...I had trouble stopping my workouts, not knowing when to say when...I was doing too much. I was overdoing it. Four weeks after my surgery, I was out mountain climbing, which probably wasn't a good idea, but that's how I am. I don't know how to set limits on myself...Finally, (USC strength coach) James Strom got me to slow down...They say you learn a lot about yourself when you go through something like this. For me, it was learning that just hard work alone won't fix all your problems. Sometimes you have to be smart inhow you go about it."

His father: "My dad always has been there for me, giving me encouragement and advice. But he never forced me to do anything that I didn't want to do. It wasn't like, 'Son, I want you to play football.' But once I decided to play, he was there helping teach me the game...He coached me on weekends. We were always in the living room on weekends, going through the plays and knocking furniture out of the way. He taught me how to read plays...I got made at him once when I was in high school, so I tore across the room and tried to tackle him. He's a big boy. I just crumbled and wrenched my neck. It wasn't a good thing to do. I haven't tried it since...Throughout my life, my dad has been has been my boss, my coach, my mentor, and most of all, my friend...I'm just going to do my best at USC and, if it's better than my dad, then so be it."

Being Greek: "I'm proud to be Greek. I go to Greece all the time and I appreciate the Greek culture. I'd be a fool not to embrace it...All Greeks are just like me. We're thick-headed, but we know how to have fun. We only know a couple of things, but we do them well and we work our tails off."

Vacationing in Greece in the summer of 1996: "Greece was the best. We had a great time. I stayed in shape by running through the ancient ruins above Athens and earing a lot of food. I felt like I was on top of the world...I felt like I was some kind of Greek warrior running among some of the ruins. It was an unbelievable feeling. I left there feeling like the place had touched me spiritually."

Entertaining customers in traditional Greek fashion as his family's restaurant: "We break plates. We jump off tables. We kiss old ladies. It's a pretty high velocity place. It's like a circus. I have fun. It's just a great place full of energy...It has taught me how to interact and relate to people...When I first started working there, I stood on a wine box to reach the sink and wash dishes. It's a great place to work."

Playing the piano: "I started playing in the third grade and I didn't like it. But I went on a date in high school and the girl's family had a piano. I began to realize that it was a pretty good tool for getting girls!"

Why he chose USC: "I grew up with USC. I was always on the sidelines and playing here was more or less my childhood dream. It's exciting to be here."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Mike Ventre, Los Angeles Daily News: "He's an amiable young man with a neon smile. If there is such a thing as a Greek beach movie, he'd be the lifeguard. He's too friendly, too outgoing, too good to go around using his forehead as a calling card. Yet the manners and the personality somehow run for cover when Taso senses movement by the enemy...Papadakis has the build (let's just say he makes Michelangelo's David look like a couch potato) and the attitude."

Thom Simmons, USC Report: "Papadakis looks more Hollywood than Heritage Hall. But he finds flattening running backs much more enjoyable than flashing bulbs."

His brother and USC teammate, Petros: "Taso needs to cut his hair. He looks like Fabio. He's trying to become a real Greek. You can go to any Greek festival in Los Angeles and see him dancing and singing, impressing everybody--with his shirt off."

Joe Hamelin, Riverside Press-Enterprise: "If the rest of Papadakis seems chiseled from marble, his knees are of modeler's clay."

LARRY PARKER

CAREER: Parker is 18th on USC's career punt return chart, with 36 returns for 304 yards (8.4 avg.).

1997: Parker, USC's most experienced wide receiver, is listed as a co-starter (with R. Jay Soward) at the wide receiver spot vacated by Chris Miller as a senior in 1997. He might also return punts.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Parker struggled last year because of nagging injuries and had a disappointing season, but we expect him to come back strong in 1997. He was one of our most improved players in spring practice. He has the athletic ability to step up."

1996: As a junior in 1996, Parker served as a backup wide receiver. He appeared in 10 games (all but the Penn State and California contests) and even started at Houston. Overall in 1996, he had 10 receptions for 129 yards (12.9 avg.). He made his first catches of the season against Oregon State (5 for a career-high 83 yards). He had 2 catches each versus Arizona (24 yards) and Washington (17 yards). He also returned 6 punts for 32 yards (5.3 avg.). He had a 64-yard scoring punt return against Oregon State called back because of a clipping penalty, the second time that has happened in his career. He also had 1 tackle. He missed the Penn State opener because of a hamstring pull. He was suspended from the California game because he violated an NCAA "extra benefit" rule. After the 1996 season, he had surgery to remove bone spurs in his left ankle. He missed part of 1996 spring practice because of a sprained right ankle. After 1996 spring drills, he had arthroscopic surgery to remove cartilage from his left knee.

1995: As just a sophomore, Parker started all 12 of USC's games of 1995 at wide receiver and he also returned punts. Overall in 1995, he had 25 catches (third on USC) for 270 yards (10.8 avg.), plus had a team-topping 29 punt returns for 266 yards (9.2 avg. to rank second in the Pac-10) and 1 kickoff return for 6 yards. He had a catch in all but 1 game (Houston), including a career-high 6 grabs for 41 yards versus Washington State and 3 for 68 yards against Stanford. He returned a Washington State punt 63 yards before fumbling inside the Cougar 5-yard line (but USC's Mike Bastianelli recovered it in the end zone for a TD) and won Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors for that performance. A 59-yard scoring punt return at Notre Dame was called back because of a penalty.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Parker appeared in 11 games in 1994 (all but the Washington opener) as a backup wide receiver behind Keyshawn Johnson. He made 14 catches for 137 yards (9.8 avg.). He had 5 catches for 40 yards at Penn State. Parker also returned kickoffs, running back 4 for 83 yards (20.8 avg.), and punts, returning 1 for 6 yards, in 1994.

HIGH SCHOOL: Parker was on the 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma

Morning News Tribune Western 100, and All-South Yosemite League as a senior at Bakersfield (Calif.) High. He had 12 receptions and 5 TDs on offense, made 75 tackles with 1 interception on defense, and returned a kickoff 93 yards for a TD in 1993. Bakersfield was 13-1 in 1993.

As a 1992 junior, he made All-Area and All-League while catching 11 passes for 160 yards (14.5 avg.) and 4 TDs, getting 80 tackles and 7 interceptions, and averaging 30.0 yards on kickoff returns. He also was on the track team, competing in the high jump and high hurdles. He had among the state's best times in 1994 in both the 110-meter high hurdles (14.49; he also posted a 14.20 wind-aided mark) and 300-meter intermediate hurdles (38.26). He was the 1994 Central Section champion in both events and participated in the state meet. He was a national age group champion in the high hurdles.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. His sports hero is Jerry Rice.

LARRY PARKER ON: His ability: "I think it's instinct, getting the ball and wanting to run. I think that's one of my biggest assets, that I have good field vision so I can really run with the ball...My thinking is, 'If I get open, I'm going to score.' Every time, I'm thinking it's my ball and I'm going to score."

Sharing the same name with a noted local attorney whose advertisements are often on TV: "Everyday, somebody says it, 'Larry Parker got me $2.1 million.' I hate it. I've been hearing it since fourth grade. Every time I hear it now, I don't even listen."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC receivers coach Mike Sanford: "The thing he does well is get the ball and cut upfield real quick."

GRANT PEARSALL

1997: Pearsall, a heady, hard-hitting senior, was expected to start at the rover linebacker spot (a combination linebacker and strong safety) in 1997 (after starting at strong safety in 1996), but he tore ligaments in his left knee in 1997 spring practice and had surgery. He likely will redshirt the 1997 season while recuperating.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "It's a blow to lose Pearsall, who is a talented, solid and experienced player and team leader. He was one of our most improved players in 1996."

1996: In just his first year as a starter, Pearsall made a number of key plays and big hits as a junior strong safety in 1996. Overall in 1996, he had 66 tackles (tied for fourth on USC), including 1 for a loss, 2 forced fumbles, 3 deflections, 1 interception and a blocked extra point. He had 5 stops each against Penn State, Illinois and Houston (with a 40-yard interception return at Illinois and a forced fumble which USC recovered at Houston, both which set up field goals). He added 8 stops versus California, then had 5 tackles and forced a fourth-quarter fumble (he and Sammy Knight sandwiched Wildcat Brady Batten) which USC recovered against Arizona. He had 10 stops (1 for a loss) at Arizona State and 5 each against Washington State and Washington (he also blocked a Husky PAT kick). He added 6 stops at Stanford, 8 at UCLA and 3 versus Notre Dame. He won USC's Jack Oakie "Rise and Shine" Award (biggest hit) with his take-your-breath-away leveling of Houston's Ketric Sanford.

1995: Pearsall served as the backup strong safety behind Knight as a sophomore in 1995 and also played on special teams. Overall while appearing in all 12 games in 1995, he made 12 tackles, including 1 for a loss of 3 yards, and forced 1 fumble (against Houston). He had 6 stops versus Houston. He was moved to the strong side from free safety in 1995 spring practice.

1994: As just a first-year freshman reserve safety, Pearsall appeared in all 12 games in 1994, mainly on special teams. He appeared briefly at free safety against Washington, California, Arizona and Texas Tech. He made 2 tackles in 1994.

HIGH SCHOOL: Pearsall's 1993 honors included Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division IV first team, Los Angeles Times All-Orange County first team, Orange County Register All-Orange County Co-MVP, and All-Century League MVP as a senior at Villa Park (Calif.) High. He rushed for 1,606 yards (6.2 avg.) with 17 TDs (he had 9 100-yard games, including a 248-yarder), plus caught 19 passes for 206 yards (10.8 avg.) with 7 TDs in 1993. He made 85 tackles, 4 sacks, 3 forced fumbles and 4 interceptions (including a 52-yarder for a TD) on defense in 1993 and returned 14 kickoffs for 599 yards (42.8 avg.) and scored 5 times on kickoff and punt returns. Villa Park was 8-4 in 1993.

As a 1992 junior nagged by an injured ankle, he made All-Century League first team and had 1,100 rushing yards with 16 TDs, 75 tackles, and scoring kickoff returns of 99 and 98 yards. He was All-Century League first team as a 1991 sophomore. A 3-year starter, Villa Park was 21-12-1 during that span. He also was on the track (best of 10.9 in the 100 meters and 22.0 in the 200 meters) and basketball teams at Villa Park.

PERSONAL: He's an economics major at USC. He was born in Seattle, Wash. His nickname is "Enforcer." His father, Jim Pearsall, played at Idaho and then briefly with the Minnesota Vikings as a fullback in the late 1960s. His brother, Brian, was an offensive lineman at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo and now is an assistant coach there. He enjoys camping and fly fishing. His sports hero is Chuck Cecil.

GRANT PEARSALL ON: Hitting: "That's always been my favorite part of the game. That's what I'm always looking for. It's a great opportunity when it's there. I just love to hit."

His mild-mannered, youthful appearance: "When I walk around campus, people will say, 'Baseball is over there,' or, 'Swimming is over there.' It's kind of funny. People just always assume I'm a baseball player or a swimmer. I say, 'No, I play football.' And they go, 'No way.'"

His father: "My dad never really pressured me or my brothers to play football. He just wanted us to do what we wanted to do. Later when he saw we wanted to play, he gave us pointers. He was a big supporter."

The T-shirt he wears under his uniform: "It's from Orofino High in Idaho, my dad's high school. My brother, Brian, wore it in high school and I always followed my brother with whatever he did, so I started wearing it at my games. The school's nickname is the Orofino Maniacs, and that's always been kind of a family joke, to go out there and play like a maniac."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC defensive tackle Matt Keneley: "When Grant made his big hit in the Houston game, it was like standing next to a train wreck."

GEORGE PERRY

1997: The veteran of USC's defensive line, the aggressive Perry returns as a starting defensive end as a senior in 1997 and could be in line for All-Pac-10 honors.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Perry is a potential all-star. He's big, strong and quick and he keeps improving. He's now much more physical and intense. This could be a breakout year for him."

1996: As a junior in 1996, Perry started 10 games (all but the Illinois and Houston contests) at a defensive end spot (he backed up Cedric Jefferson in the other 2) and proved to be a commanding force. He was a 1996 All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick. Overall in 1996, he had 41 tackles, including 13 for losses of 47 yards (second on the team) with 5 sacks for minus 29 yards (tied for second on USC), plus 2 deflections, 1 interception and 1 forced fumble (against Washington). At Arizona State, he had 7 tackles and intercepted a point-blank pass in the first quarter and returned it 18 yards to set up a USC TD. He added 5 stops against Arizona, Washington State and Stanford, and he had 3 tackles for losses versus Penn State. He was moved from defensive tackle to defensive end prior to 1996 spring drills.

1995: As a sophomore in 1995, Perry started the first 4 games (San Jose State, Houston, Arizona and Arizona State) at the middle defensive tackle (nose tackle) spot, then served as the backup there behind Stuart Gage the rest of the season. Overall in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games, Perry 13 tackles (including 2 sacks for minus 6 yards). He had 3 stops against both Houston and Oregon State.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Perry appeared in 9 games in 1994 (all but the Washington, Oregon State and Notre Dame contests) as a backup defensive end (first behind Willie Lowery and then behind Darrell Russell). He made 8 tackles, including 4 for losses of 10 yards (with a sack), and had a deflection.

HIGH SCHOOL: Perry made the 1993 Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100 and All-League Defensive MVP as a senior at San Bernardino (Calif.) High. He played 6 positions, including defensive line, wide receiver, tailback and placekicker. As a 1992 junior, he had 20 sacks, 15 tackles for losses, 20 deflections and 4 fumble recoveries. He was a 4-year starter in football. He also played basketball and track at San Bernardino.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His nickname is "The Undertaker."

GEORGE PERRY ON: Moving to defensive end in 1996 from defensive tackle: "I am more comfortable at end. I like playing it. I wasn't too familiar with defensive tackle and it was kind of hard to get adjusted to it. End, I feel, is just the right position for me to play. It has allowed me more freedom. You get to rush a little more and you are just more free to play...There's a lot less pressure. I'm more relaxed there."

The 1995 suicide death of his father, George Jr.: "It was a shock and hard to believe the suicide really happened. I don't think it really hit me until we spread his ashes. As I look back,

I tried not to let it affect me, but that was the wrong thing to do. It did affect me. It was hard to think about because I didn't have a father anymore...It was especially hard because my father and I were beginning to work on our relationship, becoming close again, after my parents separated. Instead, it ended in tragedy...I still think about it, sure. But I have to go on. It's tough, but my father's death has no effect on me once I hit the field...After the suicide, my mother and brother moved to Maryland to be closer to her family and I don't blame her for wanting to move. That left me out here by myself...I let it build up for a while. It came out hard every now and then, and it still does after home games. After games, I'm by myself. But I'm dealing with it and moving on...The guys on this team have made the last couple of years a lot easier to handle than they would have been otherwise. The time with them helps me to keep my mind off of missing my family."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC defensive coordinator Keith Burns: "He's got the body type that's exactly what you look for in a defensive end--tall, long arms, strong and fast. One of his great assets is his attitude. He comes to practice every day with the idea of getting better."

USC defensive line coach Jeff McInerney: "I am so proud of George. To overcome the adversity he had to face and to continue to excel is phenomenal. He's big time in my book."

PHALEN POUNDS

1997: Pounds, a huge senior who started at offensive guard in 1995, returns after a year's layoff because of an injury. He was switched in 1997 spring practice to left offensive tackle, where he is expected to start in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "It's good to get Pounds back. He is a solid, veteran player and has the ability to be an outstanding lineman. We felt like he fit the tackle spot better than at guard and he took to the change well in spring practice. His presence gives our line great experience and depth."

1996: As a junior offensive guard, Pounds missed all of the 1996 season after having surgery to repair torn ligaments in his right shoulder following 1996 spring practice.

1995: Pounds started at right offensive guard for USC's first 11 games of 1995 as a sophomore and won 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention acclaim. He did not play against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl because of a violation of team policy.

1993: Pounds redshirted as an offensive tackle in 1993, his first year at USC. He was sidelined with a left ankle sprain for the Oregon and Oregon State games.

HIGH SCHOOL: Pounds made 1992 Super Prep All-Far West, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley second team, and All-Pacific League at Pasadena (Calif.) High. He graded out blocking at 80-90% in 1992 games. He had 61 tackles, 4 sacks and 3 caused fumbles on defense in 1992. He also played basketball and track. Current Trojan Gerard Khorozian also prepped at Pasadena.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. His uncle, Larry Pounds, lettered in basketball at Washington in 1974 and 1975.

PHALEN POUNDS ON: His size advantage: "In high school, everybody was smaller than me. I just walked onto the field and the other guy would say, 'Wow, he's big,' and he wouldn't come after me...In college, the man you're facing is just as fast and just as strong as you are. You can't just rely on your size. And a lot of it is mental. It might be easy to dominate a guy if you get your hands inside, but it's easy to think about other things. I'm practicing staying focused."

His early eating habits: "I would eat after practice and then I'd be sitting around home later in the day and I'd find something else to eat. I had to cut out the junk food and start eating 3 solid meals...I'd buy a 5-pound tub of ice cream to make root beer floats and the ice cream might last almost a week or it might last a couple of days. I just loved to eat and root beer floats were my favorite...I'm in much better shape now (down from 365 pounds as a freshman) and I'm stronger. It's a combination of staying away from the refrigerator, eating a healthier diet, working out more and weight training."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC offensive line coach Mike Barry: "Phalen is an athlete. For a big guy, he has very easy body movement. And he takes great pride in his work...If he can't play, we can always use him for shade."

Former USC running back Shawn Walters: "I'll run behind him anytime. He's like a big ol' eclipse. I just have to stand there and he opens it up. All he has to do is make somebody think he's coming and there's going to be a hole."

Former USC offensive tackle Norberto Garrido: "He's got good feet and he's fast. The coaches didn't think he was fast enough to pull, but he's doing great."

MARVIN POWELL III

Tight End
Jr./Jr.

1997: Powell, whose father starred at USC and in the NFL, was moved to tight end (from fullback) in 1997 spring practice and will serve as a reserve there and as an H-back (tight-end-in-motion) as a junior in 1997. He missed 1997 spring practice because of a sprained left ankle.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Powell is a very physical and athletic player. He's now bigger and more experienced. He can fill a number of roles for our offense."

1996: Powell started Troy's first 4 games (Penn State, Illinois, Oregon State and Houston) of 1996 at fullback as a sophomore, then was a backup there the rest of the season. He also was a key special teams performer. Overall in 1996 while playing in 11 games (he did not play at UCLA), he caught 2 passes for 19 yards (9.5 avg.) with a TD (a 13-yarder at Illinois), returned 2 short kickoffs for 6 yards (3.0 avg.) as an up man on the return squad, made 1 tackle and recovered a fumble (at Houston, which set up a USC field goal). Primarily a blocking fullback, he did not carry the ball in 1996.

1995: Powell appeared in all 12 games in 1995 as a first-year freshman, mainly on special teams. He began the year as a safety, was moved early on to linebacker and then late in the season was switched to running back (fullback). Overall in 1995, he made 8 tackles (including 3 against Arizona State). He did not carry the ball from fullback, but did line up there several times. Against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl, he returned a short kickoff 7 yards as an up man on the kickoff return team.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1994 honors included Blue Chip All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State honorable mention, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-L.A. City 3-A first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area second team, All-West Valley League first team and team MVP as a senior linebacker and fullback at Birmingham High in Van Nuys (Calif.). Despite missing 4 games with a neck sprain (including the L.A. City 3-A final, which Birmingham lost), he made 124 tackles (82 solo) in 1994, including 8 sacks, and forced 4 fumbles, plus ran for 363 yards and caught 17 passes for 318 yards (18.7 avg.).

As a 1993 junior, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley second team, All-West Valley League first team and team MVP as he ran for 690 yards (9.4 avg.) with 8 TDs and caught 17 passes for 325 yards (19.1 avg.) and 3 TDs.

As a 1992 sophomore, he won All-Mid Valley League first team honors, grabbing 34 passes for 511 yards (15.0 avg.) and 4 TDs. He was a 1991 All-Mid Valley League second team pick as a freshman, leading Birmingham in sacks with 10.

He also was a hurdler on Birmingham's track team, winning the 1994 conference titles in the 110-meter high hurdles (14.6) and 330-meter intermediate hurdles (38.0). He was sixth in the L.A. City high hurdles in 1995. He has run the 100 meters in 10.9.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. His father, Marvin, was a 2-time (1975-76) All-American first team and 3-time (1974-76) All-Pac-8 first team offensive tackle at USC who played on Troy's 1974 national champs, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame (in 1994), was the fourth pick of the 1977 NFL draft and was an All-Pro during his 11-year NFL career (1977-85 with the New York Jets and 1986-87 with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers). His uncle, Charles Johnson, currently plays in the NFL.

DAVID PRATCHARD

Jr.*/Sr.

1997: Pratchard, a proven junior, will push starter Chris Brymer for playing time at left offensive guard as a junior in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Pratchard is a big, tough, efficient, improved player with experience. He gives our our offensive line fine depth. His time has come. He's stronger, more confident and more aggressive. He's good enough to contend for key playing time."

1996: As a sophomore in 1996, Pratchard appeared in 9 games (all but the Washington State, Washington and Notre Dame games) as a backup offensive guard. He even started the Arizona contest at left guard for an injured Brymer.

1995: Pratchard served as the backup at left offensive guard behind Kyle Ramsay in 1995 as a redshirt freshman, but saw only brief action there late in the Rose Bowl against Northwestern. He missed USC's first 3 games because of an ankle sprain suffered in 1995 pre-season drills.

1994: Pratchard redshirted as an offensive guard in 1994, his first year at USC. After the season, he had arthroscopic surgery on his right knee to remove torn cartilage.

HIGH SCHOOL: Pratchard's 1993 honors included Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area first team and All-Foothill League first team as a senior at Canyon High in Canyon Country (Calif.). As a 1992 junior, he made Los Angeles Times All-Valley first team, Los Angeles Daily News All-Area second team, All-Santa Clarita first team and All-Golden League first team. He also played basketball and track (discus and shot put) at Canyon.

PERSONAL: He's a business major at USC.

ADAM RENDON

Placekicker
Jr./Jr.

1997: Rendon, a junior who has shown his value in the past, adds depth to the placekicking corps in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Rendon is a competitor and has come through in clutch situations in the past. He will make the kicking position very competitive."

1996: As a sophomore placekicker in 1996, Rendon handled some of the kickoffs in 4 games (Penn State, Illinois, Oregon State and Stanford). He also connected on his only PAT try (at Illinois) of 1996. He earned a scholarship in 1996 after he proved his ability as a replacement for Adam Abrams in 1995.

1995: Rendon played an unexpectedly important role for USC as a first-year freshman walk-on placekicker in 1995. When regular kicker Abrams was sidelined with a leg injury for 6 contests, Rendon filled in and did well kicking field goals and PATs (he even handled a few kickoffs against San Jose State and Houston) despite being hampered himself all season with a pulled groin muscle. While appearing in 8 contests (all but the Arizona, Arizona State, UCLA and Northwestern games) in 1995, he made 19-of-20 PATs and 4-of-7 field goals. He was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week when he hit a 26-yard field goal and made good on all 6 PAT kicks against Houston while handling placement kicks for his first time as a Trojan. His pressure-packed PAT after USC scored with 33 seconds to play gave the Trojans a 21-21 tie at Washington (Troy trailed 21-0 in the fourth quarter). His other field goals were 36-yarders against both Washington State and Stanford and a 25-yarder at Notre Dame.

HIGH SCHOOL: As a 1994 senior placekicker at San Dieguito High in Encinitas (Calif.), he hit 7-of-8 field goals, including a 46-yarder, and 34-of-35 PATs. Most of his kickoffs sailed into the end zone. He also served as the backup punter. In practice, he kicked some 65-yard field goals.

He missed most of his 1993 junior campaign--his first time kicking a football--with a torn thigh muscle, but did connect on all 8 PATs when he returned late in the season.

He also played 1 year of soccer at San Dieguito. In 1992, he was a defender on the La Jolla Nomads club soccer team which was ranked No. 1 in the nation in the Under-16 division.

JUNIOR RICKMAN

1997: The oft-injured ex-defender Rickman, who is expected to start at tight end in 1997 (at the position vacated by John Allred), is hoping to cram his entire career into his senior year. He missed 1997 spring practice after having arthroscopic surgery to remove bone chips in his left knee.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Rickman is putting his entire career into this season. He doesn't have a lot of experience, but he has a lot of talent and is impressive physically. He has improved dramatically and is capable of doing a good job. He has good quickness and strength. We need for him to stay healthy."

1996: Rickman was a reserve tight end and played on special teams as a junior in 1996. Overall in 1996 while appearing in all 12 games, he did not catch a pass but did record 1 tackle. He was moved to tight end from defensive end during 1996 spring practice.

1995: As a sophomore reserve defensive end in 1995, Rickman didn't see any action. He pulled his left hamstring prior to the Arizona State game and missed the rest of the season. He was slowed for most of 1995 spring practice while recovering from 1994 knee surgery (he also had his appendix removed).

1994: As a redshirt freshman outside linebacker, Rickman appeared in USC's first 6 games of 1994 before tearing ligaments in his left knee at Stanford and having season-ending surgery. He started at Penn State and spent the rest of the time backing up Brian Williams. Rickman played solely on special teams against Baylor, Oregon, Oregon State and Stanford. Overall, he had 2 tackles and 1 deflection in 1994. He was converted in 1994 spring practice from safety to outside linebacker, but missed most of those drills because of an ankle sprain.

HIGH SCHOOL: Rickman made the 1992 Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Far West, Max Emfinger All-West Coast, All-Arizona first team, Arizona Daily Star Class 5A All-Southern Arizona first team, Tucson Citizen All-Tucson first team, and All-City first team at Canyon Del Oro High in Tucson (Ariz.). He caught a school-record 47 passes for 667 yards (14.2 avg.) and 3 TDs (including a 90-yarder) as a wide receiver, plus made 35 tackles and 4 interceptions as a defensive back in 1992. He also kicked a school-record 7-of-10 field goals (3 in one game for a school record) in 1992, with a school-record 48-yarder, and was 30-of-39 on PAT kicks. He set the school record for receptions in a career (78). In all, he set 8 school marks.

In 1991, he was All-City 5A second team. He had 25 catches for 378 yards (15.1 avg.) and 2 TDs in 1991, plus 33 tackles. His team was 8-3 in 1991.

He averaged 13.3 yards on 6 catches in 1990. He also played basketball (he was an All-League first team pick) and baseball.

TREVOR ROBERTS

Offensive Guard
Fr.*/So.

1997: Roberts is listed as the backup right offensive guard behind Travis Claridge as a redshirt freshman in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Roberts is a developing young offensive lineman with good potential. He gives our line some quality depth. He had a nice showing in spring practice."

1996: Roberts redshirted as a freshman offensive guard in 1996, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 1995 Super Prep All-Farwest, Bluechip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division IV, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team, Riverside Press Enterprise All-Riverside County first team, All-Mountain View League and Cal-Hi Sports All-Academic as a senior at Norco (Calif.) High. Norco went 12-1 in 1995.

As a 1994 junior, he was selected to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior, All-CIF Division IV, Riverside Press Enterprise All-Riverside County and All-Mountain View squads (Norco was the CIF Division IV runnerup).

A 3-year starter, he was a member of the All-Mountain View squad as a 1993 sophomore when Norco was the CIF Division IV champion (with a 14-0 record).

He also played basketball and baseball at Norco.

PERSONAL: He's a gerontology major at USC. His sports hero is Walter Payton.

RODNEY SERMONS

1997: Sermons, who is equally adept at running, catching (he is USC's top returning receiver) and blocking, is expected to start at fullback as a senior in 1997 as serving as a co-starter there in 1996. He is an integral part of USC's offense.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Sermons is experienced and intelligent and is the most physically improved player on our team. He has dedicated himself to having a great senior season. He is the most versatile running back we have. He has excellent speed, outstanding competitiveness, great intensity and vision, and can take a beating. He's an acceleration runner. He can see a hole and, zoom, go through it."

1996: Sermons proved to be an effective weapon as a junior running back in 1996. Primarily a fullback, he was versatile enough to also play tailback (he played mainly at tailback in USC's first 3 games of 1996 when Delon Washington and Shawn Walters were sidelined). He started 5 games (California, Arizona State, Washington, UCLA and Notre Dame) at fullback and once (Penn State) at tailback, and served as LaVale Woods' backup the rest of the time. He played often in passing situations.

Overall in 1996 while appearing in all 12 games, he ran for 263 yards (third on USC) on 54 carries (4.9 avg.) with 1 TD, and had 39 receptions for 315 yards (8.1 avg.) with 5 TDs. He was the only Trojan to have a catch in every game in 1996. He also made 1 tackle on special teams.

He'll long be remembered for scoring the game-winning TD in overtime against Notre Dame on a 5-yard catch (he had 3 catches for 23 yards overall, plus 3 carries for another 10 yards) to break the Irish's 13-game unbeaten streak over USC. At Arizona State, he caught 3 passes for 23 yards, including an 11-yard TD in overtime. He grabbed a career-high 6 passes against both Arizona (for 44 yards) and Washington State (a team high, for 33 yards). He grabbed a game-high 5 passes for 55 yards and a TD against Washington and 4 catches for 32 yards, with a 7-yard TD, against California. On the ground, he had 61 yards on 15 tries against Penn State, 53 yards on 9 rushes at Illinois, and 59 yards on 7 tries against Oregon State, including a 40-yard TD run (he also caught a 16-yard TD pass).

1995: Sermons served as the backup to both Washington at tailback and Terry Barnum at fullback, and saw lots of action as a 1995 sophomore. Overall in 1995 while appearing in all 12 games, he ran for 244 yards (second on USC) and 3 TDs on 60 carries (4.1 avg.), plus had 12 receptions for 86 yards (7.2 avg.) with 1 TD (an 8-yard score at Arizona). Sermons began 1995 as a fullback, but played mainly at tailback against Washington State (14 yards on 4 carries), Notre Dame (28 yards on 4 carries), Washington (a team-high 29 yards, including a 1-yard TD, on 9 tries), Stanford (63 yards with 2 shorts TDs on 13 carries), Oregon State (24 yards on 10 carries), and UCLA (35 yards on 9 tries). He returned to a fullback role for the Rose Bowl against Northwestern, but only played briefly in that contest because of a hamstring pull (he didn't touch the ball). He also had 26 yards on 4 rushes against San Jose State, 6 yards on 2 carries versus Houston, 18 yards on 4 tries versus Arizona State and 1 yard on 1 carry at California. He had 3 catches at both Notre Dame (18 yards) and Washington (21 yards). He missed part of 1995 spring practice because of a strained right hamstring and because he had the chicken pox.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Sermons served as a backup tailback behind Walters and was USC's third-leading rusher in 1994 with 259 yards and 3 TDs on 78 carries (3.2 avg.). He also caught 2 passes for 39 yards (19.5 avg.) with 1 TD. He appeared in 8 games (all but the Washington, Oregon, UCLA and Notre Dame contests). Sermons led USC in rushing at Oregon State with 74 yards (and a 1-yard TD) on 23 carries, along with a 31-yard TD reception. He also had 39 yards on 12 tries at Washington State, 34 yards on 11 carries against Arizona, and 32 yards on 12 carries against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. His other rushing TDs came against California (2 yards) and Arizona (1 yard).

HIGH SCHOOL: Sermons' 1993 honors included Super Prep All-American first team, Blue Chip All-American first team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Division I first team, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Area first team, and All-Del Rey League Co-Offensive MVP as a senior at Bishop Amat High in La Puente (Calif.). In 9 games in 1993, he rushed for 1,050 yards and 19 TDs on 145 carries (7.2 avg.), caught 21 passes for 272 yards (13.0 avg.) and 2 TDs, returned 2 kickoffs for 55 yards (27.5 avg.). Besides playing running back, he started 5 games on defense and had 26 tackles, 2 interceptions and 1 fumble recovery. He was slowed late in the year with a shoulder injury. Bishop Amat went 11-1 in 1993 and at one point was ranked No. 1 in California (and No. 6 in the nation).

As a junior in 1992, Sermons made USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Cal-Hi Sports State Junior MVP, Los Angeles Times All-San Gabriel Valley first team, San Gabriel Valley Tribune All-Area first team, and All-Del Rey League Offensive MVP. His 1992 stats were 226 carries for 1,475 yards (6.5 avg.) and 24 TDs, plus 25 receptions for 400 yards (16.0 avg.) and 4 scores. Bishop Amat was 15-0 in 1992 and won the CIF Division I title. He was All-Angelus League second team as a 1991 sophomore and had 435 yards on 71 carries (6.4 avg.) along with 29 catches for 447 yards (15.4 avg.) and 5 TDs. Bishop Amat went 9-2 in 1991. He also was on the track (with bests of 10.61 in the 100 meters and 21.70 in the 200 meters) and basketball teams at Bishop Amat. Current Trojan Daylon McCutcheon also prepped at Bishop Amat.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC.

RODNEY SERMONS ON: His versatility: "I want people to say after I leave here, 'He was the best at doing everything."

The Bishop Amat connection to USC (15 players from his alma mater have played at USC): "We talked about it a lot in high school. There is a tradition to it. To athletes at Bishop Amat, USC seems like home."

SHAMSUD-DIN SHAHEED

Defensive End
Fr.*/So.

1997: Shaheed, who was moved from linebacker to defensive end in 1997 spring practice, will serve as the backup to George Perry at the position as a redshirt freshman in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Shaheed is a young player who gives us depth at a position where we need it. The move to defensive end will allow him to take advantage of his best skills. He is impressive physically and has made rapid improvement."

1996: Shaheed redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 1996, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1995 honors included Super Prep All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Bluechip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF Division IX, Los Angeles Times All-Central City first team and All-Camino Real League MVP as a senior at Verbum Dei High in Los Angeles (Calif.). He recorded 135 tackles (95 solo), 16 sacks, 6 fumble recoveries and 3 interceptions on defense in 1995 and posted a 91% blocking grade as an offensive lineman.

As a 1994 junior, he earned Los Angeles Times All-Central City second team and All-Camino Real League first team honors as he had 120 tackles, 12 tackles for losses, 7 sacks, 3 fumble recoveries and 3 interceptions.

He added 79 tackles, 6 sacks, 3 fumble recoveries and 3 interceptions (including a 70-yard TD return) as a 1993 sophomore while being named to the All-Camino Real League second team.

He also was on Verbum Dei's track team (shot put and discus, with a best of 49-7 in the shot and 162-0 in the discus). Current Trojan Jason Steen also prepped at Verbum Dei before moving to another high school.

PERSONAL: He's a political science major at USC. His nickname is "Havoc."

R. JAY SOWARD

Wide Receiver
So./So.

CAREER: Soward is tied for 16th on USC's career kickoff return chart, with 14 runbacks for 440 yards (31.4 avg.).

1997: The hyperactive and talkative Soward, one of the most explosive and exciting players in college football, should again make an impact as a wide receiver and return specialist as a sophomore in 1997. He is listed as a co-starting wide receiver with Larry Parker at the position vacated by Chris Miller. He missed the last half of 1997 spring practice because of a dislocated finger on his left hand.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Good things happen whenever Soward gets the ball in his hands. He's one of the great big-play performers in college football. He's talented and fun to watch. He's the type of player that defenses must key on. He has settled down now and is working on his efficiency. Whether he starts or not, he'll be on the field a lot in 1997."

1996: As a wide receiver and kickoff returner, Soward turned out to be USC's big-play threat in 1996 as just a first-year freshman. He averaged a TD every 4.7 times he touched the ball in 1996. He was a 1996 All-Pac-10 honorable mention pick.

As an often-used backup wide receiver (he even started at Washington State) who appeared in all 12 games, he made 18 receptions for 507 yards (team-best 28.2 avg.) with 5 TDs in 1996. He entered the USC and Pac-10 record books on the receiving end of the longest offensive play (pass or run) in Trojan history and the longest pass completion in Pac-10 history when he caught a 97-yard TD bomb from Matt Koffler at Illinois. He had a then-personal-best 4 catches at Stanford for a game-high 77 yards, including a near-unbelievable 33-yard TD where he reached behind him to snag the ball and then zigzagged through the Cardinal defense. At UCLA the next game, he had a huge day as he caught 6 passes for 260 yards and 3 TDs (78, 60 and 19 yards). The yardage at UCLA was NCAA freshman, USC and UCLA opponent single game records, while the TDs tied the USC game mark. He was named USC's Player of the Game versus UCLA. He added 3 catches for 25 yards against Notre Dame.

He was also a dangerous kickoff returner, averaging 31.4 yards with 2 TDs on 14 runbacks (for 440 yards)--all team highs--in 1996 (his 31.4 average would have ranked second in the U.S. and tops in the Pac-10, but at 1.1 returns per game, he was just shy of the necessary 1.2 needed to qualify). He came up big at Arizona State, returning a fourth-quarter kickoff 98 yards for a TD (USC's first scoring kickoff return since Curtis Conway went 95 yards at ASU in 1992 and its longest since Anthony Davis went 102 yards versus Notre Dame in 1974). In the next game, at Washington State, he ran another kickoff back for a 78-yard TD (the first scoring kickoff return versus WSU in 4 years and the first time that a Trojan had more than 1 kickoff return for a TD in a season since Davis had 3 in 1974). That WSU outing helped him win Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He also had a 56-yard non-scoring runback at Houston and a 49-yarder versus Notre Dame. He also had 1 punt return for minus 1 yard.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 1995 Super Prep All-American, Bluechip All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Bluechip All-Western, Student Sports All-West Coast, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State, All-CIF Southern Section, All-CIF Division I, Los Angeles Times All-Inland Empire first team (as a wide receiver) and second team (as a defensive back), Daily Bulletin All-Inland Valley, San Bernardino Sun All-San Bernardino County and All-Citrus Belt League as a senior at Fontana (Calif.) High. He had 32 receptions for 712 yards (22.3 avg.) with 10 TDs in 1995, plus 28 carries for 277 yards (9.9 avg.) with 2 TDs. On defense, he made 35 tackles, 8 deflections, 4 interceptions and 1 fumble recovery in 1995. Fontana was 11-1 in 1995.

As a junior in 1994 at Eisenhower High in Rialto (Calif.), he was named to the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior, All-CIF Division I, Daily Bulletin All-Inland Valley, San Bernardino Sun All-San Bernardino County and All-Citrus Belt League squads while grabbing 20 passes (10 for TDs).

He made won All-Citrus Belt League honors as a 1993 sophomore at Eisenhower, which went 14-0, won the CIF Division I title (Soward scored 2 TDs in the game) and was ranked No. 2 nationally (No. 1 in California).

He also played basketball (winning All-Citrus Belt League notice) and was a sprinter on the track team as a prepster (he was a finalist in the state 100 and 400 meters, with bests of 10.34 in the 100 meters, 21.7 in the 200 meters, and 49.5 in the 400 meters).

PERSONAL: His brother, Marcus, was a defensive back at Arizona State (1992-95). His father, Rodney Sr., played high school football with ex-USC All-American and NFL All-Pro safety Ronnie Lott. His real first name is Rodney. His sports hero is ex-USC All-American and NFL No. 1 draft pick wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson.

R. JAY SOWARD ON: His hyper personality: "For a young guy like myself to add some spirit to the team, I love it. I'm probably the most excited guy before the game. When the other team sees you jumping around and acting crazy, they don't know what to think."

Being compared to Keyshawn Johnson: "I don't know what to say about that. You have to be real good when you run your mouth like that. Yeah, I run my mouth, but I don't think like Keyshawn does. That's a big step. I'm not there yet...I first met Keyshawn at the Shrine All-Star Game after my senior year of high school. I had just scored a touchdown, but I had also dropped a pass. I had this big grin on my face and he said, 'You're still not good yet. Man, you can't be dropping passes.' I figured he'd say, 'Congratulations, good job,' or something. But I kind of liked it, 'You're not good yet.' That's the way it's supposed to be."

Teams kicking off away from him: "If they don't kick to me, I feel like they're challenging me. I just might runto the other side of the field and catch it."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: UCLA head coach Bob Toledo: "I know he's still young, but I hope that guy turns pro. He's that good."

Former Notre Dame head coach Lou Holtz: "He's one of the great receivers I've seen. Throw him a 4-yard hitch and he can turn it into a 70-yard gain. He reminds me so much of Raghib Ismail, the way he does things with his quickness, abilities and talent."

Earl Gustkey, Los Angeles Times: "At USC, R. Jay Soward is the preferred new spelling for E-X-P-L-O-S-I-V-E."

Lyle Spencer, Riverside Press-Enterprise: "He's a burner blessed with the explosiveness and fearlessness of Keyshawn Johnson."

Scott Wolf, Los Angeles Daily News: "Soward is a high-energy combination, a player who can move his tongue and legs just as fast as the loquacious Johnson."

Former USC wide receivers coach Mike Sanford: "He's a play-maker. He has the hands to go with his great speed and cutting ability. I kind of compare him to (ex-USC All-American wide receiver and NFL first round pick) Curtis Conway. He'll make a lot of big plays here before he's done."

Former USC defensive tackle and NFL first round pick Darrell Russell: "R. Jay's a talkative person, but he's a hungry person. He has the attitude everyone needs. He's always hyper and ready to play. I think he's going to be a serious leader on this team."

MIKE VAN RAAPHORST

Quarterback
Fr.*/So.

1997: Van Raaphorst, a redshirt freshman with a promising future, will battle with John Fox and Quincy Woods for the starting quarterback spot (vacated by Brad Otton) in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Van Raaphorst is a good-looking young quarterback prospect. He's inexperienced, but he will be right in there competing for the starting job. He's a good passer, is very bright, loves football and has a good sense about the game."

1996: Van Raaphorst redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 1996, his first year at USC. He was bothered by tendinitis in his right shoulder prior to the Illinois game and was sidelined the rest of the season (he had surgery prior to the California contest).

HIGH SCHOOL: He was named a 1995 Super Prep All-American, Bluechip All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Bluechip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, All-CIF San Diego second team, All-CIF San Diego Division II first team, All-East County first team, All-Grossmont South League first team, and Student Sports All-Academic as a senior quarterback at Helix High in La Mesa (Calif.). He completed 52.0% of his passes (128-of-246) for 2,207 yards and 19 TDs (with just 5 interceptions) in 1995. Helix was 10-3 in 1995.

As a 1994 junior at Grossmont High in La Mesa, he threw for 978 yards while hitting 92-of-166 aerials (55.4%) and 9 TDs with just 2 picks despite missing 5 games with a broken thumb.

He passed for 1,087 yards and 6 TDs as a 1993 sophomore at Grossmont while earning All-League honorable mention notice. In his career, he hit 55.0% of his passes for 4,272 yards and 34 TDs.

He transferred back to Grossmont in the spring of 1996. At Grossmont, he also played volleyball (making All-East County second team and All-League second team as a junior) and basketball (earning All-East County second team and All-Grossmont League first team honors as a senior while averaging 16 points and All-East County first team and All-League first team notice as a junior while averaging 17 points; he also was a member of Grossmont's 1993 CIF championship team as a soph).

He starred in the classroom, too, posting a 4.38 prep GPA.

PERSONAL: He's a journalism major at USC with an A-average (3.75 GPA). His father, Dick, was a kicker with the San Diego Chargers in 1966 and 1967 after starring at Ohio State (his 44-yard field goal provided the Buckeyes' only points in a 32-3 loss to USC in 1963 and was the second longest against the Trojans at the time). Mike's brother, Jeff, lettered 4 years (1983-86) as a record-setting quarterback at Arizona State (he was MVP of the 1987 Rose Bowl) and his 95-yard TD pass to Aaron Cox in 1985 still ranks as the longest pass against USC. Another brother, Bill, is a junior offensive lineman at San Diego State.

MIKE VAN RAAPHORST ON: Watching older brother Jeff in the 1987 Rose Bowl: "I decided right then I wanted to play in Pasadena some day."

ANTHONY VOLSAN

Sr.*/Sr.

1997: Volsan, a speedy senior and one-time sprinter on the USC track team, will serve as a backup cornerback to Daylon McCutcheon and a key special teams performer in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Volsan has great speed. He is a solid player in the secondary and on special teams."

1996: Volsan was a reserve cornerback and key special teams player as a junior in 1996. Overall in 1996 while appearing in all 12 games, he made 6 tackles (1 for a loss) and recovered a fumble (against Notre Dame, which set up a USC TD). He had 4 stops at Arizona State. He was switched to cornerback (from wide receiver) prior to 1996 spring practice.

1995: Volsan, who was a reserve wide receiver as a 1995 sophomore, made his biggest contribution as a return specialist. He returned 12 kickoffs (tied for the team lead) for 224 yards (18.7 avg.), with a long of 39 yards versus Houston, and 2 punts for 0 yards while appearing in all 12 games in 1995. He also caught 1 pass for 11 yards (against Arizona State) and made 1 tackle (versus San Jose State) in 1995. He dislocated a finger on his left hand in 1995 fall drills. He spent most of 1995 spring practice sprinting for the USC track team.

1994: As a redshirt freshman, Volsan was a reserve wide receiver in 1994. He caught 3 passes for 26 yards (8.7 avg.) in 1994. He also was a backup returner on kickoffs and punts, as he ran back 3 kickoffs for 48 yards (16.0 avg.) and 2 punts for 16 yards (8.0 avg.). He appeared in 6 games (Baylor, California, Washington State, Arizona, UCLA and Texas Tech) in 1994.

TRACK: Volsan sprinted for the USC track team in the springs of 1994, 1995 and 1996. In 1996, he competed in 6 meets and posted bests of 10.64 in the 100 meters (while placing sixth in the Pac-10 meet) and 22.20 in the 200 meters. He finished second in the 100 meters in the USC Five-Way meet (10.96). He also ran on USC's 400-meter relay squad (usually the third leg) which never finished lower than third place until placing sixth in a heat at the NCAA meet. The quartet recorded a season best of 39.69 at the USC-UCLA dual and placed second at the Pac-10 meet in 39.80.

In 1995, he had USC's best time in the 100 meters (10.56 while finishing fourth at the Pac-10 meet). He also ran a wind-aided 10.48 while winning a heat in the USC-UCLA dual. He placed in the top 4 of all 8 of his 100 meter races in 1995 (including a first in the UNLV Invitational and a second at the Mt. SAC Relays in 10.60). He also ran the 200 meters 3 times in 1995 (finishing in the top 4 each time), including winning a heat in the USC-UCLA dual in his season-best of 21.53. Volsan also ran on USC's 400-meter relay team (primarily as the leadoff runner). The quartet won 6 of 9 races, including at the Pac-10 meet in 39.23 and the USC-UCLA dual in 39.55, and placed fourth at the NCAA meet in a season-best 39.10.

In 1994, he posted season bests of 10.54 in the 100 meters and 21.27 in the 200 meters. He was second in the Pac-10 100 meters final in 10.70 (he ran his season-best 10.54 in the Pac-10 100 heats). He finished in the top 3 in 8 of his 10 100 meter races and 2 of his 3 200s. He ran under 10.70 7 times in the 100 and was under 21.60 in all 3 200 races. He also ran on USC's 400-meter relay team.

HIGH SCHOOL: Volsan was named to the 1992 Tacoma Morning News Tribune Western 100, Cal-Hi Sports All-State honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West, All-District, Central California Conference Player of the Year, and team MVP at Merced (Calif.) High. He had 1,506 yards on 167 carries (9.0 avg.) with 18 TDs rushing in 1992, plus 25 catches for 442 yards (17.7 avg.) and 2 TDs receiving. He also returned 2 punts for TDs. He had 2,630 total yards in 1992. On defense, he had an interception. In 2 games in 1992 against archrival Atwater High, he scored on Merced's first play from scrimmage (on a 57-yard pass and a 76-yard run). Against Vallejo High, he had 212 yards and 3 TDs, then added 199 yards and 2 scores against Lincoln High. Set school career records with 3,370 rushing yards and 42 rushing TDs.

In 1991, he was All-District and All-Central California Conference first team. He was the Sac-Joaquin Section Sophomore of the Year in 1990. His team was 30-11 in his 3 years (winning the league title each season), including 14-0 in 1990 (winning the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section Division I title and being ranked No. 1 in the state) and 10-4 in 1992 (advancing to the CIF Sac-Joaquin Section Division I championship game).

He also was a highly-regarded sprinter on the track team, with a best of 10.42 in the 100 meters and 20.8 in the 200 meters. He was named to the 1993 USA Today All-USA Boys Track and Field Team. He was third in the California state 100 and 200 in both 1992 (10.5, 21.16) and 1993 (10.52, 21.55). Merced's track team was the state co-champ in 1993.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC.

DELON WASHINGTON

Sr./Sr.

CAREER: Washington has 1,649 career yards on 373 carries (4.4 avg) with 9 TDs to rank 20th on USC's prestigious all-time rushing ladder. He has 6 100-yard rushing games in his career.

1997: Washington, a wily and accomplished senior, returns to start for his third season at tailback in 1997. His performance could be vital as USC's looks to improve its ground attack in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Washington is focusing on having a great senior year. He could be the biggest surprise on our team. He has improved himself physically and is in the best shape of his life. He has excellent vision and balance, among the best I've seen. He's just one of those natural backs who constantly does things on the field that you can't explain."

1996: After missing USC's first 3 games of 1996 when he was ruled ineligible by the NCAA because of a non-football related "ethical" violation, Washington started 8 of USC's final 9 games (all but the Arizona State contest) of 1996 at running back (tailback) as a junior. It was his second season as a starter.

Overall in 1996 while appearing in 9 games, he gained 370 yards (second on USC) on 112 carries (3.3 avg.) with 2 TDs, plus caught 5 passes for 25 yards (5.0 avg.). He also made 1 tackle.

He had a team-topping 67 yards on 15 carries against Notre Dame (he also had 2 catches for 18 yards) and had a 15-yard TD run and the ensuing 2-point conversion run with 1:50 to play to send the game into overtime. At Washington State, he ran for a game-best 99 yards (his most in 1996) on 21 carries, including the decisive 17-yard TD run with 2:05 to play. He led Troy in rushing at UCLA with 56 yards on 15 tries. He saw his first action of 1996 at Houston and ran for 29 yards on 14 carries, then had 54 yards on 13 carries against California, 27 yards on 10 carries versus Arizona and 21 yards on 5 carries at Arizona State. He caught 3 passes for 7 yards versus Washington.

He missed part of 1996 spring practice while recovering from 1995 post-season surgery on a dislocating left shoulder. After 1996 spring practice, he had arthroscopic surgery to remove torn cartilage from his right knee.

1995: Washington was USC's leading rusher as a sophomore in 1995 (1,109 yards and 6 TDs on 236 attempts, a 4.7 avg.) while averaging 92.4 yards per game (second in the Pac-10). He was USC's first 1,000-yard rusher in a season since Mazio Royster had 1,168 in 1990 (it was the 20th time a Trojan broke the 1,000-yard barrier) and the most yards by a Trojan soph since Royster's 1,168 in 1990. Washington's 1,109 yards in 1995 ranked tied for 19th on USC's single season rushing list. He also caught 7 passes for 99 yards (14.1 avg.) in 1995. He won 1995 All-Pac-10 honorable mention notice.

He had 5 100-yard games in 1995 (including 3 in a row, versus Stanford, Oregon State and UCLA). He started the last 8 regular-season games: against Arizona State (he collected 118 yards on 25 carries, then-career highs and USC season bests), at California (upping his numbers to 135 yards on 29 tries), versus Washington State (a game-best 81 yards on 25 rushes), at Notre Dame (69 yards on 19 tries), at Washington (19 yards on 9 carries, plus 2 catches for 34 yards), versus Stanford (a new career-best 144 yards with an 8-yard TD on 22 carries), at Oregon State on his 20th birthday (another career-best 158 yards with 2 scores on 28 carries), and versus UCLA (a game-best 152 yards on a career-high 30 carries with 1 TD to win USC's Player of the Game versus UCLA Award). Although he didn't start against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl because the Trojans opened up in a no-huddle offense, he played a lot and had a team-high 51 yards on 16 carries, with a 2-yard TD late in the game to seal USC's victory. In USC's first 3 games (as a non-starter), he had a game-high 55 rushing yards on 7 carries against San Jose State, then added 64 yards on 14 tries against Houston and 63 yards (with an 18-yard TD scamper) on 12 rushes at Arizona.

1994: As just a first-year freshman, Washington had an impressive start to his Trojan career. In the Washington opener (his first game at USC), the elusive tailback had a team-best 109 yards on 10 carries, including runs of 34 and 33 yards. He became the first USC true freshman ever to run for 100-plus yards in a season opener and only the fourth Trojan true frosh to eclipse 100 rushing yards in a game (Ryan Knight did it twice in 1984, Michael Harper once in 1979 and Charles White 4 times in 1976). Washington also was USC's leading rusher at Penn State, getting 44 yards and a 5-yard TD on 9 carries. Prior to the Baylor game, USC decided to withhold him from competition while questions regarding his eligibility, which was certified by the NCAA Clearinghouse, were being resolved (they were cleared up prior to the Notre Dame game, but he didn't play against the Irish). He played against Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl in his Dallas hometown, getting 6 carries for 17 yards and 3 receptions for no yards before spraining his elbow. Overall in 1994, Washington had 170 yards on 25 carries (a team-best 6.8 avg.) with 1 TD, plus those 3 catches for no yardage.

HIGH SCHOOL: Washington was a member of the 1993 USA Today All-USA, Super Prep All-American and Blue Chip All-American first teams, plus Super Prep All-Texas as a senior at Kimball High in Dallas (Tex.). In 11 games in 1993, he rushed for 1,579 yards and 15 TDs on 230 carries (6.9 avg.) and caught 11 passes for 278 yards (25.3 avg.) and 3 scores.

As a junior in 1992, he was All-State honorable mention, All-District and All-Metro while running for 1,876 yards (10.5 avg.) and 29 TDs. He had 1,886 rushing yards and 17 TDs as a 1991 sophomore. He also ran track at Kimball, with bests of 10.33 in the 100 meters and 21.82 in the 200 meters.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. Football stars Jessie Armstead (ex-Miami) and Mercury Hayes (ex-Michigan) are his cousins. Delon had promised his older brother, Benny, that he would go to USC and, in fact, verbally committed to Troy 15 minutes after learning of his brother's death in a drive-by shooting on Jan. 27, 1994 (Delon has tattooed "Benny" on his left bicep in his memory).

DELON WASHINGTON ON: His 1996 ineligibility: "I did my time. I suffered the consequences. I learned from it...I have no bitterness. I just look at it as things happen for a reason. I'm trying to put it behind me."

His 1995 season: "It was like I was a freshman again. I had to work my way back up because of the season I missed out on...I started having some doubts. I'd ask myself every day, 'Have I lost my ability to see the field, to make cuts and stuff? Could I still get around the corner?'...I was too caught up with not getting the ball into the end zone. I had to tell myself to forget about it. What happened happened, go on to the next week. I was letting the mistakes get in the way...I lost the kind of back I was. I used to be an inside-outside runner. But when I got to college, I wasn't in shape for this. I wasn't used to getting pounded on. There's no question I've lost some speed, and now I don't know whether I'm an inside runner or an outside runner. I'm sort of an off-tackle guy--just run and find a hole...Everybody would come up to me during the games (in 1995) and say, 'There's a hole here, there's a hole there.' I lost my instinct. I wasn't just going out there, listening to Coach White and playing. I started having second thoughts. Sometimes I'd see a hole and hesitate, thinking maybe I should go inside or outside instead...In high school, I used to be able to run away from defenders. Here, I had to learn how to run inside more, how to follow my blocking. I started thinking about it too much...It took me a while to bounce back from taking a hit and getting the ball again."

His deceased brother, Benny: "Benny's death has been very hard, but it really committed me. He was my main motivator...When Benny died, it was like a piece of me died, too...I thought it was the end of the world. It felt like a dream. And I just had to sit there and accept the fact he was gone...I still haven't gotten over it. I'm still sobbing...I can't understand his death. I get real mad when I think about it. How could someone do that? I'll never understand how someone could do something like that...You couldn't ask for a better brother. He was like an angel down here on earth...I think about him each and every day. It was his dream for me to play football, so he's inside of me...It was like I was his image or something. He was only 5-5, so he didn't have the size to get a college scholarship. I have more size than he did and I think he saw himself in me at times...Everything I do in a game, I do for him. Each carry, I picture him in the crowd. I hear him talking to me all day...I'd hear him yelling, 'You have to be faster than that. Faster.' He told me that I could go to college and go to the NFL. But I had to give everything I had...Everything I do great or good or better, my brother's up there saying, 'He's doing it! He's doing it!'...I haven't forgotten anything he taught me. He's with me every day, every step I take. Every day I woke up, he was there for me. I don't have him now, but I picture him walking with me to school, walking with me to class. I can hear him in my heart and right now he's as happy as he can be...Benny had lots of dreams for me and made predictions that came true. He also said I'd win the Heisman, get a degree, play in the NFL. It's up to me to accomplish those things."

His setbacks in 1994: "My mom (Delores) has always told me, 'God puts obstacles in front of you to see if you can overcome them.' So that's what I kept telling myself. I knew I was strong. I could deal with whatever He gave me...I've been through a lot in my life. A lot of people might have given up in the same situation. But when I talk to my mother, she tells me to just hang in there...I feel stronger, but I feel tired."

His abbreviated 1994 football season: "The biggest question, perhaps, was, 'Why me?' I just had to let it go and keep on living. I know there are going to be better times...I felt like I let a lot of people down because I only played in those 3 games. I think I would have had a good season. I'm just thankful that it's over with...I've got a lot to make up for, for the season I missed."

Why he chose USC: "I know this was the school my brother wanted me to go to. He thought it would be the best place for me. He didn't push me. He wanted me to make my own choice. When he got shot, I guess I just knew what to do...Benny really liked John Robinson. And he liked all those Heismans they have here."

Being coached by Charles White: "He's been through it and knows firsthand what it takes to win a Heisman. I think it's a privilege to have someone like that coach you."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: USC running backs coach Charles White: "Delon has an ability to glide. When he runs, it looks as if everyone else is cautiously picking his way across ice and he's the only one on skates."

Former USC running back Shawn Walters: "He has the best feet of anyone in college football. Give him any kind of a hole and he's out the gate. He's gone."

MIKE WHITCANACK

Offensive Tackle
Fr.*/So.

1997: Whitcanack will add depth at offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Whitcanack is a young, maturing player with good size. We need for him to develop and provide our line with some quality depth."

1996: Whitcanack redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 1996, his first year at USC. He sprained his foot in pre-season practice and was not available for USC's first 4 games (Penn State, Illinois, Oregon State and Houston).

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 1995 Super Prep All-Far West, Bluechip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best of the Rest and Tacoma News Tribune Western 100 teams as a senior at Saratoga (Calif.) High, despite missing half of the 1995 season with mononucleosis. He was an offensive tackle as a senior after 2 years at defensive tackle.

He also was on Saratoga's track team (shot put and discus).

PERSONAL: His sports hero is ex-USC All-American and NFL first round draft pick offensive tackle Tony Boselli.

AARON WILLIAMS

So.*/Jr.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Williams had some outstanding performances last year and has a fine future at USC. He has good strength and quickness."

1996: As a redshirt freshman in 1996, Williams was effective as an often-used backup defensive end. He even started at Washington State for an injured Cedric Jefferson. He missed USC's first 2 games (Penn State and Illinois) after spraining his left ankle in pre-season practice and he did not play at Houston. Overall in 1996 while appearing in 9 games, he had 19 tackles, including 5 for losses of minus 23 yards (with 4 sacks for minus 22 yards), and recovered a fumble (against Washington). He had 6 stops (2 for losses) at Arizona State and 4 versus Oregon State. He was moved to defensive end (from linebacker) prior to the start of 1996 spring practice.

1995: Williams redshirted as a freshman linebacker in 1995, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 1994 honors included Super Prep All-American, College Sports All-American, Super Prep All-Farwest, Blue Chip All-Western, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Student Sports All-State second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram All-State, All-CIF Southern Section first team, All-CIF Division II first team, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area first team, and All-Bay League Defensive MVP as a senior at Leuzinger High in Lawndale (Calif.). He averaged 10 tackles a game on defense in 1994 (he had 8 sacks) and ran for 1,029 yards with 16 TDs as a fullback. Leuzinger went 9-2-1 in 1994.

As a 1993 junior, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass, All-CIF Division III, Los Angeles Times All-South Bay, and South Bay Daily Breeze All-Area first teams, and was the All-Bay League Defensive MVP while making 88 tackles (8 stops per game) and 1 interception on defense and catching 14 passes for 380 yards (27.1 avg.) and 3 TDs as a tight end.

He averaged 4 tackles and had 15 catches as a 1992 sophomore while earning 1992 All-Bay League second team honors. He was a 3-year starter. He also played on the basketball and track (with a best of 171-2 in the discus throw and 55-0 in the shot put) teams at Leuzinger.

PERSONAL: He's a business administration major at USC with a B- average (2.78 GPA). In the spring of 1997, he was selected to participate in the NCAA Foundation Leadership Conference in Florida, where 300-plus student-athletes gathered to discuss solutions to critical issues facing the nation's student-athletes. He likes to write poetry. His sports hero is Junior Seau.

LaVALE WOODS

1997: Woods, small but tough and quick, is USC's swing back, equally valuable as a fullback or tailback. Expect him to see lots of playing time primarily as the backup to Rodney Sermons (they shared time in 1996) at fullback as a senior in 1997. He was Troy's rushing leader in 1996 and hopes to repeat that feat in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Woods gives us outstanding ability, experience and intelligence. He's powerful and quick, is very good at making a tackler miss him, and is a great blocker. He is as competitive as any of our backs. And not only is he a good running back, he's a leader by example."

1996: Woods led USC in rushing as a junior in 1996. Able to play both tailback and fullback, he started 6 games--3 at tailback (Illinois, Oregon State and Arizona State) and 3 at fullback (Arizona, Washington State and Stanford)--and was Sermons' backup the rest of the time. He played both spots during the first half of the season when Delon Washington and Shawn Walters were not available, then was used mainly at fullback after midseason. After the 1996 season, he had arthroscopic surgery to remove bone spurs from both shoulders.

Overall in 1996 while appearing in all 12 games, he ran for a team-high 601 yards on 119 carries (5.1 avg.) with 7 TDs. He also caught 11 passes for 77 yards (7.0 avg.) with 1 TD. And, as an up man on the kickoff return team, he fielded 2 short kickoffs (both at Stanford) and returned them 47 yards (23.5 avg.).

Woods entered the USC record book against Oregon State when he ran for a career-best 122 yards on 12 carries, including a 96-yard TD that was the longest run in USC history (and the longest in the Pac-10 in 1996). He led USC in rushing in 7 games: a then-career-high 85 rushing yards on 17 carries against Penn State; 76 yards and a pair of 1-yard TDs on 19 carries against Arizona; 71 yards on 7 rushes versus California (he also caught 2 passes for 13 yards, including a 9-yard TD); a game-best 67 yards with 2 short TDs on a career-high 20 carries at Illinois; 56 yards (with a 13-yard TD) on 15 carries at Arizona State; 54 yards and a 2-yard TD on 9 carries at Houston; and 48 rushing yards on 13 carries at Stanford (he also had 2 catches for 32 yards).

1995: Woods proved to be quite effective while seeing action as a sophomore in 7 games in 1995, including USC's first 6 games (San Jose State, Houston, Arizona, Arizona State, California and Washington State) as a backup running back and on special teams. He then suffered a strained right hamstring against Washington State and was sidelined the rest of the regular season. He appeared ready to go for the UCLA game, but reinjured his hamstring in that week's practice. He returned to action against Northwestern in the Rose Bowl, even starting that game at tailback in USC's no-huddle offense (he grabbed 2 passes for 21 yards and rushed 5 times for minus 2 yards, but scored the game's first TD on a 1-yard run on Troy's opening possession) before giving way to Washington. Overall in 1995, Woods rushed for 146 yards (fourth on USC) on 28 carries (5.2 avg.) with 5 TDs and caught 5 passes for 31 yards (6.2 avg.). Because of the absence of Leonard Green (injury) and Walters (ineligible) against Arizona State, California and Washington State, Woods saw action at tailback behind Washington (Woods previously had been used mainly at fullback in 1995). He responded with 62 yards and 2 short TDs (his first Trojan scores) on 7 carries versus Arizona State (he also ran in a 2-point conversion) and another 62 yards and 2 TDs (including a 19-yarder) on 9 rushes at California (he also caught 2 passes for 15 yards). He had 8 yards on 2 tries against Washington State before getting injured. His other rushing yards came against San Jose State (14 yards on 4 carries) and Houston (2 yards on 1 rush). He also made 1 tackle at Arizona.

1994: As a redshirt freshman, Woods was a reserve tailback in 1994 who spent the last part of the season as a fullback. He appeared in 8 games in 1994 (all but the Washington, Penn State, Baylor and Oregon contests) and gained 85 yards on 15 carries (5.7 avg.) overall, plus had 1 catch for 7 yards. He had 71 yards on 8 carries against California. He also played on special teams, getting 2 tackles. He missed 1994 spring practice while recovering from arthroscopic surgery to remove a bone chip in his right knee which occurred while he was practicing long jumping for the Trojan track team (the injury even slowed him during the early part of the 1994 football season).

1993: Woods redshirted as a tailback in 1993, his first year at USC. He was looking good in 1993 pre-season fall practice, but then suffered a deep sprain of his left ankle which sidelined him all year.

HIGH SCHOOL: Woods made 1992 USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Scholastic Coach All-American honorable mention, Super Prep All-Far West and Mesa Tribune East Valley Offensive Player of the Year at Dobson High in Mesa (Ariz.). He rushed for 1,300 yards and had 400 receiving yards in 1992, along with scoring 20 TDs.

He was named to the 1991 All-State honorable mention, All-East Valley first team, and All-Conference first team. In 1991, he rushed for 800-plus yards in 7 games (he missed 3 games with bronchitis). He also ran track.

PERSONAL: He's a history major at USC. His nicknames are "Midget" and "Hobbit." He played the tuba as a youngster.

LaVALE WOODS ON: Being 5-7: "I'm actually 5-7 3/4."

Playing fullback: "I want to help the team any way I can. I think any running back wants to carry the ball, and I do. But I think now that I've grown up a little bit, I understand it can be a great feeling opening a hole for a teammate or catching a pass on a big third-down play."

His goal of being an educator: "There are so many things that I want to do. I want to do everything, like make movies or be an FBI agent. I'm still like a little kid, because I want to do everything. But the main thing I want to do is work in education. I want to be a school superintendent or the Secretary of Education. I'm majoring in history because I want to teach. I always wanted to teach because I had great teachers. But then I saw a lot of things wrong with what I'd be teaching. So I'd like to change those things. If that leads to making changes for the rest of my life, then so be it. It's just about making things better, for the good of everyone. This is the greatest country in the world and we need to take advantage of it. It's called public education, but we need to make it public for everybody and let everybody get the best education. Everyone should have the same education as anyone else."

His injuries: "It has been frustrating because of the injuries. A lot of times I just wanted to quit. Lots of people told me to keep my spirits up, to hang in there and my time will come...The track injury was a fluke and it was stupid on my part. I went out for track to do some running and get faster, but I'm so competitive that I didn't want to come in last in the 100. So, I figured in the long jump, at least I'd have a chance to do something...The injuries were tough to deal with. I kept costing the school money, that's how I looked at it. I've already used up my whole scholarship with all they've spent on me in rehab. After I got hurt the second time, I wanted to go home. I just tried to keep my head up and stay positive. I did my rehab before and after practice so I'd be out there on the field, learning from the others while watching. A lot of guys talked to me and helped me keep my head in it."

His video game-playing skill: "My thing is school, music and video games. I'm the best. I prove it all the time. I'm like the Carl Lewis of video games. Some people can come onto the scene and be hot and have their moments. The important thing is the duration and how long can they do it. Carl has done it forever. That's me. I've been playing video games for 17 years and I've been at the top for 17 years. When you look up at the video game Hall of Fame, everybody's going to know that's me up there at the top. Everyone at home knows it and everyone here knows it. That's why everyone comes up to challenge me, because they want to beat the master. I can jump on anthing and be competitive. The first 3 games, I'm competitive. If it's your game and I've never played it, you might win the first 3. But it'll be close, you won't blow me out. After that third game, it's over. I own the game."

His love of music: "There's nothing like a good song. I just love all music. I try to make up my own little songs. It's just something fun to do."

Why he chose USC: "I think it was the song! My first memories are of watching USC games on TV and loving that fight song. I used to whistle it all the time. I even played it on the tuba."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC quarterback Brad Otton: "LaVale's a special player. There's a lot of talent in that little body."

QUINCY WOODS

Quarterback
So.*/Jr.

1997: The elusive Woods, a sophomore quarterback equally adept at passing and running, will compete with John Fox and Mike Van Raaphorst for the starting job (vacated by Brad Otton) in 1997.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "Woods is a young, athletic player who brings a lot of things to the quarterback position. His is quick and elusive. He is an effective passer on the run and has improved significantly from the pocket. Plus, he's a great leader. He is relatively inexperienced, but he is ready to play and has a good future."

1996: Woods appeared in 2 games as a redshirt freshman reserve in 1996. He was in for a series at the end of the Illinois game and led USC to a TD (he completed his only pass attempt, a 24-yarder) and for a series in the second quarter against Notre Dame when Otton was injured (he was 0-of-2 passing).

1995: Woods redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 1995, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a 1994 Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Blue Chip All-American, College Sports All-American, Schutt Scholastic Coach All-American, USA Today All-USA honorable mention, Dallas Morning News National Top 100, Super Prep All-Midwest, Blue Chip All-Midwest, Detroit Free Press Best of the Midwest, Gatorade Circle of Champions Illinois MVP, Chicago Tribune All-State first team, and Chicago Area MVP as a senior at Rich East High in Park Forest (Ill.). He passed for 2,240 yards and 22 TDs with just 8 interceptions in 1994 while rushing for 700-plus yards and 7 scores.

As a 1993 junior, he threw for 2,395 yards and ran for 788 yards while scoring 13 TDs. He was a 3-year starter.

PERSONAL: He's a sociology major at USC. His brother, Pee Wee, plays football at Oklahoma. His sports hero is Deion Sanders.

QUINCY WOODS ON: Comparisons to Rodney Peete and Charlie Ward: "Right now, I just want to prove I can play the game at this level. I don't even worry about those comparisons right now, but it is nice."

Passing versus running: "I'd rather pass for 20 yards. I just run when I have to. It's fun to run and the crowd likes it. I was a passing quarterback in high school. My senior year, all we did was pass...I'm just trying to prove I'm a quarterback and that I can pass the ball."

WHAT OTHERS SAY: Former USC offensive coordinator Mike Riley: "He's very, very talented athletically...He handles his body so well. He is a quarterback who can make something happen because of his athletic ability. He has a quick release and he wants to be good...He is improving in the passing game. He's a very exciting athlete and is very football-aware."

JIM WREN

Sr./Sr.

1997: There might not be a better punter in the nation in 1997 than Wren, an All-American candidate (he was named a 1997 pre-season All-American by Playboy and The Sporting News). The strong-legged, poised, clutch senior is looking to improve upon his 1996 performance when he established a USC season average record. Also, he'll hold again for all placekicks.

JOHN ROBINSON SAYS: "In my mind, Wren is the best punter in the country. He's a real weapon for us. He had a great showing last year and should be even better in 1997. He has an impressive leg, plus he's cool and tough back there."

1996: Wren enrolled at USC in the spring of 1996 as a junior college transfer to replace record-holding punter John Stonehouse and entered the USC record book himself in 1996. What was especially impressive about his performance was that he sat out the sport in 1995. He ranked seventh nationally (first in the Pac-10) in punting with a 45.6 average (3,006 yards on 66 punts), a new USC season record (breaking by 1 yard Des Koch's 43-year-old USC season record of 44.6 set in 1953) and fourth best in Pac-10 history. Twenty-two of Wren's 66 punts have travelled 50-plus yards (with a trio of 60-yarders and a 70-yarder) and 21 have pinned opponents inside the 20-yard line. He was named a 1996 Football News All-American honorable mention, Football News All-Pac-10 first team, and All-Pac-10 honorable mention selection. He also was the holder on all placekicks.

He averaged 46.9 yards on 7 punts, including 66-, 56- and 53-yarders, against Penn State (4 of his boots pinned the Nittany Lions inside their 20-yard line). At Illinois, he averaged 53.5 yards on his 2 punts, while he averaged 45.0 both on 2 punts against Oregon State and 3 boots at Houston. Versus California, he averaged 48.8 yards on 4 punts, with a 54-yarder. Under constant pressure in the Arizona game (he was roughed twice and knocked over without a penalty another time), he averaged 39.6 yards on his 7 punts (with a 50-yarder). He averaged an amazing 49.1 yards on 11 punts at Arizona State, with 6 punts going 50-plus yards (including a 71-yarder). He upped that average at Washington State, going 51.3 yards on his 4 punts (with 60- and 54-yarders). He hit 10 punts for an average of 40.5 against Washington, with 56- and 51-yarders, and his 6 boots at Stanford averaged 43.2 (with a 51-yarder). At UCLA, his 3 kicks averaged 47.3 yards (with a 61-yarder). He averaged 46.1 yards on 7 punts against Notre Dame (with 52- and 51-yarders).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Wren sat out the 1995 season while serving as an assistant football coach at Servite High in Anaheim (Calif.). He was a 1994 J.C. Grid-Wire All-American, J.C. Athletic Bureau All-Region IV first team and All-Mission Conference Central Division selection as a sophomore punter at Fullerton (Calif.) College. He averaged 42.6 per punt in 1994.

As a 1993 freshman, he won All-Mission Conference Central Division honors while averaging 41.5 yards on 42 punts (1,745 yards). His career average of 42.3 at Fullerton broke the school record held by current New York Giants punter Mike Horan.

HIGH SCHOOL: Wren prepped at Esperanza High in Anaheim (Calif.), but was limited to punting duties after dislocating his right shoulder in 1989 as a quarterback and cornerback (he had corrective surgery following his 1992 senior season). He averaged 40.0 yards per punt as a 1992 senior (Esperanza was the CIF Division II champion) and also punted as a 1991 junior. He also played baseball at Esperanza. Current Trojan Pat Swanson also attended Fullerton JC and Esperanza.

PERSONAL: He's a public policy and management major at USC. He was a 1996 Pac-10 All-Academic honorable mention pick. He says his most thrilling moment in sports was "beating my brother for the first time in Wiffle Ball!" His sports hero is ex-USC All-American and former NFL All-Pro safety Ronnie Lott.

JIM WREN ON: His goal as a punter: "It's like a personal battle to win the war. I want to be the guy that puts the opponent on the one-yard line. I want to be the guy that gives my punt coverage team the best possible chance to make the tackle."

His toughness: "I'm not some soccer guy out there who can't take a hit. I'm a football player...I know the stereotype of the space cadet kicker. I felt that way about kickers in high school. So, if I get the chance to hit someone, I'm going to do it. I want to be considered a football player, not just a kicker. I want the respect of guys on the team. I want to show that I can take a hit."

His pre-game routine honoring his late mother, Joan: "I get dressed quickly and usually I'm the first one on the field. I take a knee at midfield and have a private conversation with my mom. Sometimes I talk to her about the game or about school. Sometimes I get a little emotional. Usually, though, I just talk about stuff that's going on in my life. Every time I step on the field, the first thing I want to do is thank her. There's no way I'd be here if she hadn't encouraged me and kept me in line...I just tell her thanks, thanks for pointing me in the right direction. She was always there for me, you know. I guess she still is...Her death in 1993 was tough, not only because I lost my mom, but because I felt like I had lost one of my best friends as well. She was the one who kept me headed in the right direction and then she was gone...She was a big part of my life. Once she died, I kind of lost it. I went through a period where I was really, really messed up. I was about to become one of those kids you see on 'Oprah' spilling their guts on TV...After a while, I just picked myself up and decided to get to work. I got tired of feeling sorry for myself and chose to be the kind of person that I knew she would want me to be...When I was growing up, I was a goof. I really had a confidence problem. I didn't think I was good enough, didn't think I could succeed. She always believed in me and got me believing in myself. She's the first one to crack the surface and get it rolling. The way I look at it, I owed it to her to keep it going."

Sitting out the 1995 season: "I wasn't too crazy about the idea at first, but now I'm glad I did it. It gave me a year to work on some things and to really go hard in the weight room."

Growing up a Notre Dame fan: "We're an Irish-Catholic family. Growing up, I was this total Notre Dame fan. We had this shrine to Notre Dame football in our garage. Gold helmets. Notre Dame pennants. You know, the whole deal...I still catch my dad (Jim Sr.) rooting for Notre Dame now and then."

TIEBREAKER PROCEDURE

Here is the NCAA tiebreaker system, which first was put in effect for all post-season games in the 1995 season:

1. At the conclusion of a tie game, the team captains will meet at the center of the field for a coin toss. The winning captain has 2 options: a.) offense/defense or b.) choose the end of the field the first overtime period will be played. The choice may not be deferred.

2. Each overtime period consists of an offensive series by each team. A team continues on offense until it scores, loses the ball on downs, or loses possession of the ball (fumble, intercepted pass, etc.). All series begin on a 25-yard line.

3. If a team loses the ball due to a fumble, etc., the ball continues in play until the end of that down. Team B may score (the game is over) or if Team A gets the ball back during the down, it may score. If there is no score, that series is concluded. Once a series is concluded, the defensive team begins its series, or if that series was the second of that overtime period, the period is over.

4. If the teams remain tied at the end of the first overtime period, a second period is played. The loser of the overtime coin toss has first choice as outlined in No. 1 above. Thereafter, the teams alternate first choice for as many periods as needed to determine a winner.

5. Each team is allowed 1 timeout for each extra period. No unused timeout from the regular game may be carried over to an extra period, nor may an unused timeout from an extra period be carried over to a succeeding extra period.

6. Although the 25-second clock operates during overtime, the game clock does not run.

GAME 7 -- October 19, Tempe, Arizona
Arizona State 48, USC 35 (2 Overtimes)
Att: 74,947

USC	14	0	0	14	7	0	--	35
Arizona State	0	14	0	14	7	13	--	48

In USC's first experience with the new overtime rule, the Trojans lost a heartbreaking 4-hour thriller at undefeated Arizona State (ranked fourth by AP and No. 5 by USA Today/CNN), 48-35 in double overtime, before an ASU-record crowd of 74,947 fans in noisy, hot Sun Devil Stadium and a live ABC-TV Regional audience.

The loss effectively deprived Troy of defending its Rose Bowl title.

Statistically, ASU had a decided advantage in first downs (29-13), total yards (543-295), plays (99-64) and time of possession (37:58-22:02). It was the most first downs USC allowed since Stanford had 29 in 1987 and the most yards USC surrendered since California had 601 in 1991. USC, which was penalized 12 times for 92 yards, had the ball just 4:50 of the second quarter and 2:35 of the fourth.

USC intercepted ASU QB Jake Plummer on the Sun Devils' first 2 drives of the game (by LB Chris Claiborne and then DE George Perry) and converted them into quick TDs, the first on a 15-yard pass from QB Brad Otton to TE John Allred and then on a 13-yard run by RB LaVale Woods.

But USC's offense was stymied the rest of the half, getting just 93 total yards and 4 first downs in the first 30 minutes. ASU scored twice midway through the second quarter on 32- and 18-yard runs by TB Terry Battle. The Sun Devils had 260 total yards and 14 first downs in the half.

After a scoreless third quarter that turned into a classic defensive struggle (USC's only opportunity in that period, a 37-yard field goal try by PK Adam Abrams, was blocked), the Trojans jumped ahead on a 29-yard Otton TD pass to WR Chris Miller early in the fourth quarter (TV replays showed he dropped the ball). ASU then drove 98 yards to tie the score, capped by a 21-yard Plummer TD toss to TE Steve Bush. But USC answered, as WR R. Jay Soward (whose brother, Marcus, was on the ASU squad) ran the ensuing kickoff 98 yards for a TD (USC's first scoring kickoff return since Curtis Conway went 95 yards at ASU in 1992 and its longest since 1974 when Anthony Davis went 102 yards against Notre Dame) to regain the lead.

ASU came right back to tie the score at 28-28, going 78 yards, the last 7 with 1:30 to play on another run by Battle.

In the first overtime period, USC took the ball first on the 25-yard line and, 3 plays later, Otton threw an 11-yard TD pass to RB Rodney Sermons. ASU countered with a 6-yard TD pass from Plummer to WR Keith Poole. ASU had the ball first in the second overtime and Battle blasted 25 yards for a TD on the first play. On third-and-7 on the 22 on USC's series, Otton was ruled to have fumbled (TV replays showed he threw a shovel pass) and ASU CB Courtney Jackson raced 85 yards with it for the score.

Battle had a career-high 184 yards and 4 TDs on 30 carries. Plummer was 26-of-44 for 277 yards with 2 TDs (but had 3 interceptions and 4 sacks) and Poole caught 7 passes for 103 yards and 1 TD. Otton was 16-of-39 for 205 yards and 3 TDs and Woods ran 56 yards with a TD on 15 carries. P Jim Wren averaged 49.1 yards on 11 punts, with 6 going 50-plus yards (including a 71-yarder). Claiborne had a game-best 20 tackles (the most since Mark Carrier's 20 at Notre Dame in 1987), LB Mark Cusano and S Grant Pearsall each had 10, DT Darrell Russell and LB Sammy Knight had 9 (Russell had 5 for losses, with 3 sacks), and DT Matt Keneley had 8.

GAME 8 -- October 27, Pullman, Washington
USC 29, Washington State 24
Att: 33,111

USC	3	0	14	12	--	29
Wash. State	7	3	7	7	--	24

USC posted a thrilling comeback victory--and rediscovered its running attack in the process--as it beat Washington State, 29-24, before 33,111 fans in cold (temperatures were in the upper 30s) Pullman and a national FOX Sports Net audience.

It was USC's ninth win in a row over the Cougars and the first time Troy played a night game in Pullman.

RB Delon Washington scored on a 17-yard run with 2:05 to play to give USC the decisive points and then the Trojans had to hang on. WSU, with the help of a twice-deflected pass completion on third-and-39 from its 5-yard line, marched to the Trojan 11 with 39 seconds to go, only to have DT Matt Keneley wrap up QB Ryan Leaf and DE Lawrence Larry strip him of the ball, which LB Sammy Knight recovered to seal the win.

USC ran for 148 yards, including 115 in the second half, on 45 attempts. Washington had 99 rushing yards on 21 carries, his most yards since getting 152 versus UCLA in 1995, while RB Shawn Walters added 53 yards on 13 tries, his most yards since getting 66 in the 1995 Arizona contest. RB Rodney Sermons had 6 catches for 33 yards. USC's 278 yards of total offense was its fewest since getting 274 against Notre Dame in 1994.

USC trailed 10-3 at the half (and had only 96 total yards, including just 33 rushing). The Cougars scored off of the game's opening drive as Leaf, who overall was 27-of-44 for 314 yards (but with 3 interceptions), hit SE Nian Taylor on a 15-yard TD pass. USC PK Adam Abrams hit a 37-yard field goal late in the first quarter, but WSU PK Tony Truant answered with a 39-yarder early in the second quarter.

1996 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 -- August 25, East Rutherford, New Jersey
Kickoff Classic
Penn State 24, USC 7
Att: 77,716

USC	0	0	0	7	--	7
Penn State	0	10	0	14	--	24

USC (ranked sixth by USA Today/CNN and 7th by AP)--playing its earliest season opener in the modern era (Aug. 25) and only the second Sunday game in its history (the other was the 1993 opener versus North Carolina)--saw its 1996 campaign get off to a disappointing start as Penn State (eighth by USA Today/CNN and 11th by AP) was thoroughly dominant, 24-7, in winning Kickoff Classic XIV before sold-out Giants Stadium (a game-record crowd of 77,716) and a national ABC-TV audience.

The Nittany Lions posted large margins in total offense (462-282), plays (76-62), first downs (23-12), third down conversions (53%-33%) and time of possession (34:08-25:52).

Penn State did most of its offensive damage on the ground, collecting 313 rushing yards (the most Troy allowed since Notre Dame had 330 in 1992). TB Curtis Enis, the game's MVP, set a USC opponent rushing record by running for 241 yards (on 27 carries), breaking the mark of 229 yards by California's Russell White in 1991. He scored 3 times on runs of 24, 9 and 4 yards (the last 2 came in a span of 1:40 early in the fourth quarter). The yardage, carries and rushing TDs were Kickoff Classic records.

Penn State's other points came on a 28-yard second-quarter field goal by PK Brett Conway.

The Lions, who led 10-0 at halftime, were up 24-0 before USC averted a shutout when LB Chris Claiborne recovered a fumble in the end zone with 29 seconds to play.

RB LaVale Woods led Troy with a career-high 85 rushing yards on 17 carries, while RB Rodney Sermons added 61 yards on 15 tries. The Trojans were without RBs Delon Washington (suspended for the game because of a non-football related matter) and Shawn Walters (ineligible for the first 3 games of 1996 because of a 1995 infraction for taking money from an agent).

QB Brad Otton--the only Trojan offensive starter who started in the 1996 Rose Bowl--had an off day, hitting just 11-of-28 passes for 144 yards and 1 interception. USC's 144 passing yards was its fewest since getting 129 in the 1994 opener versus Washington. Chris Miller had 4 catches for a game-best 83 yards, both career highs. P Jim Wren was impressive in his Trojan debut, averaging 46.9 yards on 7 punts, including 66- and 56-yarders.

USC was plagued by inefficient play, including 8 penalties, a missed field goal, 2 turnovers, 2 potential TD passes just out of the reach of receivers, and a fourth down run that came up just short of a TD.

Troy's defense, which came up with 4 turnovers, was led by LB Sammy Knight (13 tackles, 1 interception) and DT Matt Keneley (11 tackles, 3 for losses). S Brian Kelly had a pick and fumble recovery along with his 5 stops.

OG Travis Claridge became USC's first true freshman to start a season opener on the offensive line since 1979 Lombardi Award winner Brad Budde did so versus Missouri in 1976.

GAME 2 -- Sept. 7, Champaign, Illinois
USC 55, Illinois 3
Att: 56,504

USC	14	10	17	14	--	55
Illinois	3	0	0	0	--	3

USC (ranked 19th by AP and 21st by USA Today/CNN) bounced back from its opening loss in a big way by crushing Illinois, 55-3, before 56,504 fans in Champaign and a regional ABC-TV audience.

It was USC's biggest victory margin on the road since a 53-0 win at Oregon in 1976 and Illinois' worst losing margin since a 56-point defeat to Michigan in 1986. It was also the most points scored against the Illini at home since Nebraska had 59 in 1986.

USC, which was coming off a bye but playing its third straight road game and third in a row against a Big Ten opponent (dating to the 1996 Rose Bowl), had an offensive explosion full of big plays. Troy had 582 total yards (its most since getting 583 against Baylor in 1994), including 428 through the air (third most in school history), and averaged 9.2 yards per play. Four of USC's scoring drives went at least 95 yards.

After falling behind 3-0 late in the first quarter (the game's first 10 minutes were played in a steady rainstorm), USC scored 55 unanswered points. QB Brad Otton, who was 12-of-18 for 301 yards while playing the first 3 quarters, connected with WR Chris Miller on an 84-yard TD bomb (then the third longest pass completion in USC history). On the day, Miller caught 3 balls for a career-high 155 yards.

On Illinois' subsequent possession, Miller raced in to block Jason Higgins' punt. CB Prentice Hill picked it up and raced 19 yards for a TD near the end of the first quarter (it was USC's first blocked punt for a score since the 1992 UCLA game).

The Trojans drove 94 yards on their next series, culminating in a 13-yard TD pass from Otton to RB Marvin Powell. PK Adam Abrams hit a 39-yard field goal late in the half to give Troy a 24-3 lead at intermission.

CB-RB Chad Morton recovered an Illinois fumble on the second half kickoff and USC turned it into a score 5 plays later as RB LaVale Woods scored on a 1-yard plunge. Woods, who had a game-best 67 rushing yards on a career-high 20 carries, scored on another 1-yard run as the Trojans drove 98 yards on their next possession. With USC playing its reserves, Abrams added a 21-yard field goal to close out the third quarter.

QB Matt Koffler and WR R. Jay Soward connected on a 97-yard TD pass--the longest offensive play (pass or run) in USC history, the longest by an opponent against Illinois and the longest pass completion in Pac-10 history--late in the fourth quarter. It earned AT&T national Long Distance Pass Play of the Week. Then Morton, who played on offense, defense and special teams during the game, finished the scoring with a 2-yard run.

USC's defense--which had 2 goal line stands--gave up just 286 total yards (just 88 rushing) and got 4 turnovers (besides Morton's fumble recovery, S Grant Pearsall, CB Ken Haslip and LB Mark Farlin had interceptions) which led to Trojan points. S Rashard Cook had a game-topping and career-best 12 tackles to earn Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week honors, while DT Darrell Russell had 5 stops (including 2 for losses, with a sack). P Jim Wren averaged 53.5 yards on his 2 punts.

GAME 3 -- September 14, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 46, Oregon State 17
Att: 48,069

Oregon State	3	0	7	7	--	17
USC	6	7	26	7	--	46

For the second week in a row, USC (ranked 16th by AP, 18th by USA Today/CNN) used an offensive explosion and a stingy defense to post a victory, this time 46-17 over Oregon State in the Trojans' home opener and the the Pac-10 opener for both teams before 48,069 fans in the Coliseum and a national FOX Sports Net audience.

It was USC's 23rd straight win over the Beavers and OSU's 12th consecutive loss. It was also USC coach John Robinson's 50th collegiate win in the Coliseum.

USC's offense accounted for 621 total yards, its most since getting 654 against Utah State in 1989. Some 314 yards came on the ground, Troy's best rushing total since gaining 331 yards at Ohio State in 1990.

Two Trojan runners eclipsed the 100-yard mark--RBs LaVale Woods (12 carries for a career-best 122 yards) and Chad Morton (13 carries for a game-high 143 yards, both personal bests). It was the first time a pair of Trojans ran for 100-plus yards in a game since Deon Strother and Mazio Royster did so at Washington State in 1991. And both players broke off long runs, as Woods opened the game's scoring with a 96-yard TD midway through the first quarter (it was the longest run in USC history and earned him the AT&T national Long Distance Run Play of the Week) and Morton had a 73-yard zigzagging TD dash early in the third quarter. Not to be outdone, RB Rodney Sermons scored twice, first on a 16-yard pass from QB Brad Otton and then on a 40-yard run early in the fourth quarter.

Otton had a solid outing in 3 quarters of work, going 17-of-29 for 254 yards and 2 TDs (the other was a 1-yarder to TE Travis Hall). WR Chris Miller had another big game, catching a career-high 7 passes for 116 yards, while WRs Larry Parker (5 catches for 83 yards) and Billy Miller (4 catches for 65 yards) also contributed. PK Adam Abrams hit a 22-yard field goal.

Even Troy's defense, which limited OSU to only 216 total yards (just 97 passing), 11 first downs and 4-of-14 third down conversions, got into the scoring act. LB Mark Cusano picked up a third quarter Beaver fumble and went 8 yards for a TD. On OSU's next series, a heavy pass rush forced QB Tim Alexander to intentionally ground the ball from his endzone for a safety. Troy also posted an impressive goal line stand in the game's opening series (Woods had his long scoring run 2 plays later) and recovered a fumbled snap on a Beaver punt try at the OSU 1-yard line that led to Hall's TD. S Sammy Knight led USC with 10 tackles, Cusano added 9 and DTs Darrell Russell and Cedric Jefferson had 6 each (Russell had 3 for losses and Jefferson had a sack).

USC, which led just 13-3 at the half, struggled early because of inopportune penalties (Parker's 64-yard scoring punt return was nullified because of clipping), dropped passes, 2 turnovers and 3 blocked kicks (a PAT, field goal and punt). Oregon State closed to 13-10 early in the second half before USC ran off the next 33 points, including 26 in the third quarter (Troy's most points in a quarter since getting 28 in the first frame of the 1995 Cotton Bowl against Texas Tech), starting with Morton's long run.

GAME 4 -- September 21, Houston, Texas
USC 26, Houston 9
Att: 21,035

USC	10	7	0	9	--	26
Houston	0	9	0	0	--	9

For the second time in 1996, USC (ranked 15th by AP and 18th by USA Today/CNN) kept an opponent out of the end zone, this time while beating Houston, 26-9, in the Astrodome before 21,035 fans and a national Fox Sports Network audience.

It was USC's third game ever indoors (all wins) and it came in front of the smallest crowd to see Troy plays since 18,795 were at Oregon State in 1990.

A pair of Trojan receivers who had been overshadowed in the past had big games: TE John Allred caught 10 passes for 103 yards (both career highs), a USC record for most catches by a tight end in a game, and WR Billy Miller, who had dropped 3 passes in the previous game, caught 3 balls for a career-best 69 yards, including 2 TDs (35 yards in the first quarter and 32 yards in the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach).

The Trojan defense held Houston, which was averaging 39.7 points per outing, in check (it was the first time in 15 games UH was held without a TD). The Cougars were averaging 430.7 yards of total offense (including 221.0 rushing), but they got just 281 total yards (131 on the ground). Houston, which was off to its best start since 1990, converted just 3-of-13 third downs and gave up its first 2 sacks of the season.

USC led just 17-9 at the half behind Miller's first score, plus a 31-yard field goal by PK Adam Abrams to open the game's scoring in the first quarter (he also had a 35-yarder late in the fourth quarter) and a 2-yard TD run by RB LaVale Woods. The Cougars threatened midway through the third quarter while trailing just 17-9 after an Abrams field goal try was blocked, but Troy held them on fourth-and-2 at the USC 21. After intercepting a Trojan pass on the ensuing series, Houston threatened again, but Sebastian Villarreal missed a 23-yard fourth quarter field goal (he had made his first 3 tries, all in the second quarter) and USC capitalized with TDs on its next 2 possessions.

USC QB Brad Otton was 24-of-37 for 290 yards with the 2 TDs (he was 11-of-15 in the second half). Woods led USC with 54 yards (and the TD) on 9 carries, while RB Delon Washington--in his first action of the season after serving a 3-game NCAA suspension because of an "ethical" violation--had 29 yards on 14 carries.

LB Sammy Knight had a game-high 11 stops, while LB Chris Claiborne added 8 stops with an interception and LB Mark Cusano and S Brian Kelly each had 6 tackles (Cusano also had an interception).

USC started 3 true freshmen: Claiborne, plus OGs Travis Claridge and Faaesea Mailo.

GAME 5 -- October 5, Los Angeles Coliseum
California 22, USC 15
Att: 51,511

California	7	9	3	3	--	22
USC	0	0	0	15	--	15

For the first time since 1970, California--undefeated, but a 16-point underdog--beat USC in Los Angeles, this time 22-15 over the Trojans (ranked 16th by USA Today/CNN and 17th by AP) in front of 51,511 fans and an ABC-TV regional audience.

Cal--whose offense ranked in the Top 25 nationally in all 4 categories --dominated the statistics, getting more total yards (415-336) while keeping its offense on the field often (the Golden Bears led 80-62 in total plays and 38:23 to 21:37 in time of possession). Cal also had 6 sacks on defense (USC had allowed only 3 all year).

The Bears, who led 19-0 after 3 quarters, were up 16-0 at halftime (the first time in 12 games that USC was shutout at the half in the Coliseum) while clearly outgaining the Trojans in the opening half (247-98 yards), getting more first downs (12-3) and holding the ball for 10 more minutes.

USC--coming off a bye--twice failed to score inside the Cal 5, first failing on a fourth down run at the 5 in the first quarter and then fumbling from the 1 (which Cal recovered in the end zone) in the third quarter.

Cal scored on its opening possession on a 6-yard pass to WR Dameane Douglas from QB Pat Barnes, who was 19-of-31 for 229 yards overall. It was the first TD pass against USC's first string defense in 1996 and the first TD in the first quarter against USC in 1996. Barnes hit TE Tony Gonzalez for a 12-yard score in the second quarter, then PK Ryan Longwell hit field goals of 27, 39 and 22 yards.

USC got on the board on the first play of the fourth quarter on a 9-yard TD pass from QB Brad Otton (who was 19-of-34 for 234 yards) to RB LaVale Woods (Woods led USC in rushing with 71 yards on 7 carries). Otton then hit RB Rodney Sermons for a 7-yard TD late in the quarter. USC had 1 final possession with 1:46 to play but couldn't move the ball.

Cal TB Brandon Willis had his third straight 100-yard outing (getting a career-high 150 yards on 33 carries) and he also caught 5 passes for 79 yards.

USC LB Chris Claiborne had a game-best 19 tackles (17 unassisted) --the most by a Trojan since All-American safety and Thorpe Award winner Mark Carrier had 20 at Notre Dame in 1987--(including 17 solo) with 1 deflection (in the first half alone, he had 13 tackles, including 11 solo), while S Rashard Cook added 11, LB Mark Cusano 10 and DT Matt Keneley 9.

USC played without 4 starters--DT Darrell Russell, LB Sammy Knight, S Brian Kelly and WR Larry Parker--who were suspended for the game for an NCAA "extra benefit" rule violation. Another Trojan starter, WR Billy Miller, left early in the contest with a shoulder injury, while 2 others (LB Taso Papadakis and OG Faaesea Mailo) didn't suit up because of injuries.

USC 14, Arizona 7

Arizona	0	0	7	0	--	7
USC	7	0	7	0	--	14

Behind a pair of 1-yard TD runs by RB LaVale Woods and a stingy defense, USC posted a hard-fought 14-7 victory over Arizona in the Coliseum before 51,088 fans and a FOX Sports Net and fX national audience.

It was USC's fewest points in a winning effort since defeating the Wildcats by the same score in 1992.

The Trojans scored following long drives on their opening possessions of both halves and then relied on their defense, which was bolstered by the return of 3 starters (DT Darrell Russell, LB Sammy Knight and S Brian Kelly) who were suspended for the previous week's loss to California. USC limited UA to 247 total yards (112 rushing), 13 first downs, 59 plays, 24:04 possession time and 3-of-12 third down conversions. Knight had a team-topping 10 tackles and LB Chris Claiborne added 9.

Although Troy had a decided edge in plays (87), time of possession (35:56) and first downs (25), its offense struggled for the second week in a row as it could muster only 297 total yards, including just 77 on the ground (none in the first half and its fewest since getting just 29 against Northwestern in the 1996 Rose Bowl). Woods had a team-best 76 rushing yards on 19 carries, QB Brad Otton was 23-of-41 for 220 yards but was sacked 7 times, and TE John Allred (a game-best 59 yards) and RB Rodney Sermons (44 yards) had a game-high 6 catches each (a career-best for Sermons). RB Shawn Walters, in his first action after missing the previous 14 games, ran for 24 yards on 9 carries.

Arizona QB Keith Smith had a game-high 97 rushing yards on 14 carries and completed 7-of-16 passes for 57 yards before leaving the game with a shoulder injury late in the third quarter. His replacement, QB Brady Batten, hit 5-of-9 passes for 55 yards, including a 2-yard TD pass to WR Richard Dice 3 plays after entering the game.

The Wildcats were hurt by 10 penalties and a trio of fumbles, once at the USC 6 in the second quarter which Trojan DT Cedric Jefferson recovered, once in the third quarter at the USC 24 as Troy took over on a failed fourth-and-1, and once in the fourth quarter when Knight and S Grant Pearsall sandwiched Batten and DT Matt Keneley recovered at midfield.

GAME 7 -- October 19, Tempe, Arizona
Arizona State 48, USC 35 (2 Overtimes)
Att: 74,947

USC	14	0	0	14	7	0	--	35
Arizona State	0	14	0	14	7	13	--	48

In USC's first experience with the new overtime rule, the Trojans lost a heartbreaking 4-hour thriller at undefeated Arizona State (ranked fourth by AP and No. 5 by USA Today/CNN), 48-35 in double overtime, before an ASU-record crowd of 74,947 fans in noisy, hot Sun Devil Stadium and a live ABC-TV Regional audience.

The loss effectively deprived Troy of defending its Rose Bowl title.

Statistically, ASU had a decided advantage in first downs (29-13), total yards (543-295), plays (99-64) and time of possession (37:58-22:02). It was the most first downs USC allowed since Stanford had 29 in 1987 and the most yards USC surrendered since California had 601 in 1991. USC, which was penalized 12 times for 92 yards, had the ball just 4:50 of the second quarter and 2:35 of the fourth.

USC intercepted ASU QB Jake Plummer on the Sun Devils' first 2 drives of the game (by LB Chris Claiborne and then DE George Perry) and converted them into quick TDs, the first on a 15-yard pass from QB Brad Otton to TE John Allred and then on a 13-yard run by RB LaVale Woods.

But USC's offense was stymied the rest of the half, getting just 93 total yards and 4 first downs in the first 30 minutes. ASU scored twice midway through the second quarter on 32- and 18-yard runs by TB Terry Battle. The Sun Devils had 260 total yards and 14 first downs in the half.

After a scoreless third quarter that turned into a classic defensive struggle (USC's only opportunity in that period, a 37-yard field goal try by PK Adam Abrams, was blocked), the Trojans jumped ahead on a 29-yard Otton TD pass to WR Chris Miller early in the fourth quarter (TV replays showed he dropped the ball). ASU then drove 98 yards to tie the score, capped by a 21-yard Plummer TD toss to TE Steve Bush. But USC answered, as WR R. Jay Soward (whose brother, Marcus, was on the ASU squad) ran the ensuing kickoff 98 yards for a TD (USC's first scoring kickoff return since Curtis Conway went 95 yards at ASU in 1992 and its longest since 1974 when Anthony Davis went 102 yards against Notre Dame) to regain the lead.

ASU came right back to tie the score at 28-28, going 78 yards, the last 7 with 1:30 to play on another run by Battle.

In the first overtime period, USC took the ball first on the 25-yard line and, 3 plays later, Otton threw an 11-yard TD pass to RB Rodney Sermons. ASU countered with a 6-yard TD pass from Plummer to WR Keith Poole. ASU had the ball first in the second overtime and Battle blasted 25 yards for a TD on the first play. On third-and-7 on the 22 on USC's series, Otton was ruled to have fumbled (TV replays showed he threw a shovel pass) and ASU CB Courtney Jackson raced 85 yards with it for the score.

Battle had a career-high 184 yards and 4 TDs on 30 carries. Plummer was 26-of-44 for 277 yards with 2 TDs (but had 3 interceptions and 4 sacks) and Poole caught 7 passes for 103 yards and 1 TD. Otton was 16-of-39 for 205 yards and 3 TDs and Woods ran 56 yards with a TD on 15 carries. P Jim Wren averaged 49.1 yards on 11 punts, with 6 going 50-plus yards (including a 71-yarder). Claiborne had a game-best 20 tackles (the most since Mark Carrier's 20 at Notre Dame in 1987), LB Mark Cusano and S Grant Pearsall each had 10, DT Darrell Russell and LB Sammy Knight had 9 (Russell had 5 for losses, with 3 sacks), and DT Matt Keneley had 8.

GAME 8 -- October 27, Pullman, Washington
USC 29, Washington State 24
Att: 33,111

USC	3	0	14	12	--	29
Wash. State	7	3	7	7	--	24

USC posted a thrilling comeback victory--and rediscovered its running attack in the process--as it beat Washington State, 29-24, before 33,111 fans in cold (temperatures were in the upper 30s) Pullman and a national FOX Sports Net audience.

It was USC's ninth win in a row over the Cougars and the first time Troy played a night game in Pullman.

RB Delon Washington scored on a 17-yard run with 2:05 to play to give USC the decisive points and then the Trojans had to hang on. WSU, with the help of a twice-deflected pass completion on third-and-39 from its 5-yard line, marched to the Trojan 11 with 39 seconds to go, only to have DT Matt Keneley wrap up QB Ryan Leaf and DE Lawrence Larry strip him of the ball, which LB Sammy Knight recovered to seal the win.

USC ran for 148 yards, including 115 in the second half, on 45 attempts. Washington had 99 rushing yards on 21 carries, his most yards since getting 152 versus UCLA in 1995, while RB Shawn Walters added 53 yards on 13 tries, his most yards since getting 66 in the 1995 Arizona contest. RB Rodney Sermons had 6 catches for 33 yards. USC's 278 yards of total offense was its fewest since getting 274 against Notre Dame in 1994.

USC trailed 10-3 at the half (and had only 96 total yards, including just 33 rushing). The Cougars scored off of the game's opening drive as Leaf, who overall was 27-of-44 for 314 yards (but with 3 interceptions), hit SE Nian Taylor on a 15-yard TD pass. USC PK Adam Abrams hit a 37-yard field goal late in the first quarter, but WSU PK Tony Truant answered with a 39-yarder early in the second quarter.

USC tied the score at 10-10 as WR R. Jay Soward ran the second half kickoff back 78 yards for a TD, the first against WSU in 4 years. It was the second week in a row that Soward had a scoring kickoff return and the first season since 1974 (when Anthony Davis had 3) that a Trojan had more than 1 kickoff return for a touchdown. Soward was named Pac-10 Special Teams Player of the Week. WSU regained the lead with a scoring drive on its first possession of the half, capped by a 4-yard run by RB Michael Black, who gained 60 yards on 14 rushes in the game. USC then scored 3 plays after CB Daylon McCutcheon's second interception of the day as QB Brad Otton, who was 13-of-21 for 130 yards overall, hit WR Mike Bastianelli for a 29-yard score (it was Bastianelli's first career TD catch).

USC took its first lead of the day early in the fourth quarter on a 12-play, 74-yard drive (all the yardage came on the ground), culminating with a 1-yard run by Walters (Abrams' PAT kick was blocked). WSU went ahead 24-23 on its ensuing possession, going 70 yards, the last 2 on a pass from Leaf to TE David Knuff. But USC took the ball and drove 83 yards in 13 plays, ending in Washington's winning TD.

Knight led USC in tackles with 11 and he had an interception along with his fumble recovery (he was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week). LB Chris Claiborne added 8 stops. The Trojans limited WSU to 55 rushing yards, the fewest Troy allowed since the Cougars had just 43 in 1995.

GAME 9 -- November 2, Los Angeles Coliseum
Washington 21, USC 10
Att: 60,039

Washington	3	0	12	6	--	21
USC	0	10	0	0	--	10

USC's hopes for playing in a top post-season bowl were dashed as Washington (ranked 21st by AP and 23rd by USA Today/CNN) used a strong running attack and a stingy defense to defeat the Trojans, 21-10, before 60,039 Homecoming fans in the Coliseum and a regional ABC-TV audience.

USC's offense was almost non-existent, managing just 124 total yards (the fewest since getting 123 in a 7-0 win at Iowa in 1962), including -14 on the ground, the least in Trojan history. Troy had only 11 first downs, 59 plays, 24:19 possession time and 2-of-15 third down conversions. The second half was particularly unfruitful, as USC had just 6 yards of total offense (including -48 rushing), while holding the ball for only 10:38, getting just 3 first downs and converting none of its 7 third down tries.

USC held a 10-3 halftime lead behind a 15-yard TD pass from QB Brad Otton to RB Rodney Sermons and a 27-yard field goal by PK Adam Abrams, both in the second quarter. Both scores came following Husky turnovers, the touchdown after an interception by LB Sammy Knight and the field goal following a fumble recovery by DE Aaron Williams which was caused by S Brian Kelly.

It was all Washington in the second half, as the Huskies scored 18 unanswered points with TDs on a 17-yard pass from QB Brock Huard to SE Jerome Pathon and a pair of short runs by TB Corey Dillon. Dillon's first score, which put UW ahead to stay, came 4 plays after a fake punt by the Huskies picked up 20 yards and a first down.

Dillon ran for 128 yards overall on a school-record 37 carries to break the 1000-yard season rushing barrier. Huard was 12-of-29 for 133 yards passing. Washington gained 294 total yards on 77 plays in the game and had the ball 35:41.

For USC, Otton was 13-of-29 for 138 yards, but was sacked 6 times for -51 yards (Washington had 7 sacks overall). Sermons had a game-best 5 catches for 55 yards. Knight and LB Chris Claiborne each had a game-high 12 tackles, while DTs Matt Keneley and Darrell Russell added 8 and 7 stops, respectively.

USC blocked 3 Washington kicks: a punt in the first quarter by CB Prentice Hill, a field goal in the second quarter by DE Willie Lowery and a PAT in the third quarter by S Grant Pearsall.

GAME 10 -- November 9, Palo Alto, California
Stanford 24, USC 20
Att: 41,980

USC	10	10	0	0	--	20
Stanford	7	0	14	3	--	24

For just the seventh time in history (and only the third time since 1957), USC lost to Stanford in Palo Alto, this time 24-20 to the touchdown-underdog Cardinal before 41,980 fans (the smallest crowd in the series since 1962) and a national FOX Sports Net audience (it was USC's 100th consecutive game on some form of live television).

It was the first time Troy lost 2 games in a row in a season since 1992, and the first time it lost 2 straight Pac-10 games and 2 consecutive road games since 1991. It was also the first time USC had played a night contest at Stanford.

USC jumped out to a 20-7 halftime lead behind a pair of TD passes from QB Brad Otton, the first a 33-yarder to WR R. Jay Soward (he zigzagged through the Cardinal defense) in the first quarter and the second a 4-yarder to WR Chris Miller in the second quarter, and a pair of 27-yard field goals by PK Adam Abrams. Stanford's only first half score came on a 93-yard kickoff return in the first quarter by WR Damon Dunn (it was the first time USC allowed a scoring kickoff runback since 1994), a school-record third of his career.

But, for the second game in a row, the Trojans were shutout in the second half. After intermission, USC managed just 108 total yards (19 rushing) and 7 first downs while holding the ball only 10:54 and converting just 1-of-6 third downs.

Stanford scored 17 unanswered points on a pair of short TD runs (by RB Mike Mitchell on the Cardinal's opening possession of the second half and FB Greg Comella near the end of the third quarter), then a 32-yard field goal by PK Kevin Miller near the game's end (the final 2 scores followed interceptions). It was the first points that Stanford's offense scored in the third quarter in 1996. Mitchell had a game-high 147 yards on 22 carries, while QB Chad Hutchinson was 20-of-35 for 166 passing yards.

Otton hit 23-of-47 passes for 277 yards, but threw 3 picks (all in the second half; the final one was snatched in the end zone on a Hail Mary aerial from the Stanford 34-yard line at the gun). The attempts and interceptions were career highs for Otton. Miller had a game-best 7 catches for 71 yards. USC had 345 yards of total offense, but just 68 came on the ground.

LB Sammy Knight had a game-high 14 tackles (2 for losses) with an interception.

GAME 11 -- November 23, Pasadena, California
UCLA 48, USC 41 (2 Overtimes)
Att: 80,644

USC	10	14	7	7	3	0	--	41
UCLA	0	7	14	17	3	7	--	48

For the sixth year in a row, USC lost to UCLA and--in typical dramatic fashion in this crosstown rivalry--this will go down as a classic, as the Bruins unbelievably won 48-41 in 2 overtimes before 80,644 fans in the Rose Bowl and a regional ABC-TV audience.

It was the most points UCLA has scored in the series and the highest losing score in Trojan history.

The loss--which came despite a record-setting performance by USC WR R. Jay Soward--eliminated Troy from post-season consideration and was USC's third straight in 1996 (the first time the Trojans dropped 3 in a row since 1992 and the first time ever in coach John Robinson's USC career).

USC--coming off a bye--held a 17-point lead (38-21) with less than 7 minutes to play, but the Bruins scored quickly on their next 3 possessions --a 47-yard field goal by PK Bjorn Merten, a 1-yard run by TB Keith Brown and then, following a recovery of a LaVale Woods fumble with 1:27 to go, an 11-yard run by TB Skip Hicks with 39-seconds to play--to knot the score. USC had a chance to win at the end, but PK Adam Abrams' 41-yard field goal try was blocked.

The teams exchanged field goals in the first overtime (a 25-yarder by Abrams followed by a 40-yarder by Merten), then Hicks ran 25 yards for a TD on the first play of the second overtime. USC couldn't score on its possession.

For the third game in a row in 1996, the Trojans held a halftime lead but couldn't hold on to it, this time 24-7 (its most halftime points and biggest halftime margin against UCLA since a 35-0 edge in 1979).

Abrams opened the day's scoring with a 27-yard field goal on the game's opening series and the Trojans scored on their next drive as QB Brad Otton threw a 19-yard pass TD pass to Soward. It was the start of a huge day for Soward, who caught a career-high 6 passes for 260 yards and 3 TDs. The yardage was NCAA freshman, USC and UCLA opponent single game records, while the TDs tied the USC game mark.

Early in the second quarter, LB Sammy Knight made a brilliant 1-handed interception (his fourth game in a row with a pick) of a Cade McNown pass and raced 74 yards for a TD to give Troy a 17-10 lead. UCLA answered by going 80 yards on the ensuing drive, as McNown scrambled 3 yards for a score. Three plays later, Soward took an Otton pass in the flat and went untouched 60 yards for a TD.

The Bruins struck quickly to open the second half, as McNown threw a 52-yard TD bomb to SE Danny Farmer 4 plays after intermission. But USC then drove 80 yards on its next possession, capped by a 12-yard Otton TD pass to WR Chris Miller. UCLA came right back on another 80-yard drive, with McNown scrambling again for a TD (this time for 10 yards).

Early in the fourth quarter, after Otton left the game with bruised ribs, backup QB Matt Koffler came in and hit Soward on a 78-yard scoring bomb to put Troy up by 17 points before the Bruins began their charge.

On the day, Otton was 12-of-22 for 273 yards, Koffler was 4-of-11 for 128 yards, Miller had 6 grabs for 97 yards and RB Delon Washington had 56 yards on 15 carries. USC gained 401 of its 508 total yards through the air.

For UCLA--which had more first downs (31-17), plays (88-68) and possession time (34:34-25-26)--McNown was 29-of 47 (both career bests) for 356 yards, Hicks ran for a game-high 116 yards on 20 tries, and FL Jim McElroy had a game-high 8 catches for 149 yards.

USC LB Chris Claiborne led all players with 13 tackles and Knight added 11 stops (3 for losses) with 3 deflections.

GAME 12 -- November 30, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 27, Notre Dame 20 (1 Overtime)
Att: 90,296

Notre Dame	0	7	7	6	0	--	20
USC	6	0	0	14	7	--	27

Another legendary chapter was added to the most famous intersectional rivalry in college football and it took overtime to do it, as USC broke a 13-game non-winning streak to Notre Dame with a thrilling 27-20 upset over the 13-point Irish (ranked 10th by AP and 13th by USA Today/CNN) before a sellout crowd of 90,296 in the Coliseum and a national ABC-TV audience.

It was USC's third overtime contest of 1996 (and second in a row), but the first time Troy came away victorious. It also was the final regular season game for ND coach Lou Holtz, who had announced his resignation 2 weeks before (USC has won the last 4 against coaches in the final regular season game of their Irish career). The win also solidified the status of USC coach John Robinson--who was the coach in 1982 when Troy last beat ND (USC had gone 12-0-1 since)--after several weeks of speculation about his job security. This season finale snapped the Trojans' 3-game 1996 losing streak and kept them from finishing below .500.

USC rallied twice in the second half from 8-point deficits behind the heroics of QB Brad Otton. Otton, who was recovering from painful bruised ribs that knocked him out in the fourth quarter of the previous week's double overtime loss at UCLA, reaggravated that injury 6 plays into this game when tackled while throwing an incompletion and was sidelined. He courageously returned to play the entire second half against the Irish and was 13-of-25 for 183 yards with 2 TDs.

Troy jumped out to a 6-0 first quarter lead on a pair of field goals by PK Adam Abrams (30 and 38 yards), the second coming after LB Sammy Knight recovered an Irish fumble (it was Knight's fifth straight game getting a turnover). But Notre Dame went into the half leading 7-6 when FB Jamie Spencer ran for a 1-yard TD early in the second quarter. USC threatened late in the half, advancing to the ND 4 before backup QB Matt Koffler's pass was intercepted in the end zone. Koffler was 1 of 3 USC quarterbacks to play in the first half (the other was Quincy Woods).

Notre Dame appeared to take control in the third quarter, as the Irish limited USC to 0 yards and 0 first downs on 7 scrimmage plays in that quarter while building a 14-6 lead on a 25-yard fourth down scoring pass from QB Ron Powlus--who was 8-of-19 for 108 yards overall--to SE Cikai Champion late in that period.

But Troy rallied back in the fourth quarter, first on a 5-yard Otton fourth down pass to WR Chris Miller (he had 4 catches for 69 yards in the game) 4 plays after CB Anthony Volsan recovered a fumbled Irish punt return (it was ND's fourth lost fumble of the day; earlier in the quarter, the Trojans averted disaster when Knight first stripped an Irish receiver on the USC 1-yard line following a 33-yard pickup and then recovered the ball himself). However, Otton's 2-point conversion pass fell incomplete.

Notre Dame answered, though, with a TD on its ensuing possession as TB Autry Denson--who rushed for 160 yards on 33 carries overall--scored on a 9-yard run with 3:52 to play. However, PK Jim Sanson's PAT kick was wide, keeping Trojan hopes alive.

Otton guided the Trojans quickly down the field, culminating in a 15-yard TD run by RB Delon Washington (who had 67 yards on 15 carries in the game) with 1:50 remaining. On the 2-point try, Washington barely edged the ball over the goal line on a run up the middle to tie the game at 20-20. Both teams regained possession in regulation, but couldn't score (USC got close, advancing to the ND 39 at the gun), sending the contest into overtime.

Troy had the first possession and took 4 plays to get into the endzone as Otton hit RB Rodney Sermons out of the backfield for a 5-yard TD. ND couldn't advance, as Powlus' fourth down pass from the 29 was knocked away by LB Mark Cusano, setting off a crowded on-field celebration.

ND piled up 368 total yards (260 rushing) and had 79 plays while holding the ball for 36:00. USC managed 302 total yards (just 92 on the ground) with 67 plays in 24:00 minutes of possession time.

Knight had a game-best 14 tackles (3 for losses) to go along with his 2 fumble recoveries and 1 forced fumble, while Cusano added 11 stops and LB Chris Claiborne had 10 tackles and a caused fumble. USC started 4 true freshmen (Claiborne, FS Darnell Lacy, OG Travis Claridge and OT Faaesea Mailo).

ALL-TIME USC RECORD

The following is believed to be an accurate record of the outcome of all games of American football played by the USC varsity team. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

The information in this history is set forth in as brief a fashion as possible. To illustrate this, review the entries under 1989. Reading from left to right, the following information is given on the first line under the coach and captain data: (1) Date (Sept. 4); (2) Result (L-USC loss); (3) USC's Associated Press ranking going into the game (5); (4) USC's opponent (Illinois); (5) An indication that the game began after 5:00 p.m., local time (N); (6) An indication that the winning score occurred with 2:19 left in the game (2:19); (7) USC's opponent's Associated Press ranking going into the game (22); (8) Game score, with USC's point total given first (13-14); (9) An indication that the game was played at USC's home field (H); (10) Game attendance (54,622).

Other information may be noted on the line concerning the UCLA game. The "c" before the attendance figure indicates a capacity crowd. "(UCLA-13:43)" indicates that UCLA made the tying score with 13:43 left in the fourth quarter.

The line beneath the UCLA game record presents USC's regular season record, conference record, and conference finish, in that order. Next come the points scored and points given up.

Beneath this is USC's bowl game result, followed on the next line by USC's final overall record, USC's overall points scored and given up, and the season attendance total.

Other symbols: N1, N2, etc., indicate games played at a neutral site; (HC) indicates USC's Homecoming game; (U) indicates that the game result was a significant upset; (R) indicates that a major portion of the game was played in the rain; (Sn) indicates the game was played in snow conditions; and "Th" indicates a game played on Thanksgiving Day.

Records include games played by USC at site when USC was not the designated home team.

USC totals include all games played on campus, including games played at Bovard Field.

Rose Bowl totals include games played against UCLA.

Athletic Park took its name from its builder, the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Located on the northeast corner of Seventh and Alameda, it opened on Thanksgiving Day, 1891. The first major college football game played there was on Dec. 29, 1894, when Stanford defeated the University of Chicago, 28-0. Athletic Park gained national recognition when Los Angeles and Stockton of the California League played a night baseball game there on July 2, 1893. Los Angeles won, 5-2, before a crowd of 9,000. Twenty kerosene lamps and one swiveled search light were used.

Fiesta Park, located on the northwest corner of Grand and Pico, also dates from the 1890s. It was the site of what was apparently the first night college football game on Nov. 18, 1905. St. Vincent's College (now Loyola Marymount University) shut out the University of Arizona, 54-0. In 1916, a rebuilt Fiesta Park served as USC's home grounds. The following year, however, its bleachers were transported to USC to revamp Bovard Field.

At the turn of the century, Washington Park, at the corner of Washington and Grand, was primarily a baseball field. It was sometimes referred to as Chutes Park, after the adjacent amusement park. St. Vincent's College was located across the street. Washington Park was the early home of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League.

A larger ball park for the Angels was built in 1911. Also known as Washington Park, this structure was located at Washington and Hill.

Prager Park served as USC's home in 1903. It was located near Chutes Park.

Tournament Park, located at the southeast corner of California and Wilson in Pasadena, served as the initial home of the "East-West" game, as the Rose Bowl was originally known. The Tournament of Roses Association acquired the property in 1901, and Michigan and Stanford played there in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1902. After a series of other sporting activities, football returned to the New Year's Day celebration in 1915, and continued at Tournament Park through 1922.

Sportsman's Park, located at North Los Robles and Colorado, was the site of USC's first Pasadena appearance, its first Thanksgiving game, and its first varsity football game outside of Los Angeles--all in 1889 against Pasadena. The game occurred just a month before Sportsman's Park hosted the initial Tournament of Roses.

Prior to 1893, USC's campus games were played on a field adjoining Jefferson. This field might have been the site of USC's first official football game in 1888.

In early 1893, the University's then-existing athletic grounds were developed, apparently for neighborhood housing. According to the Rostrum, USC's earliest student newspaper, the students petitioned for a replacement athletic field. Eventually they were granted space on the "northwest portion of campus."

These grounds, while appropriate for practice and practice games, were not suitable for major games. As a result, most of USC's important "home" games up until 1904 were played in rented space: Athletic Park, Fiesta Park, Washington Park, and Prager Park.

In the summer of 1904, USC's football field was "upgraded." Bleachers were constructed on the south side of the field, and a small stand was placed on the north side. A "kid-proof" fence was built around the site. At the start of the season, the site was referred to as "College Campus" in a published football schedule, but by the end of the year it had become "Bovard Field."

Bovard never appears to have been a very adequate home. USC still used Fiesta Park for some of its more important games up until 1908. In 1915, USC's first Los Angeles game against California was played at the new Washington Park, which was primarily a baseball venue. The following year, USC attempted to use a revitalized Fiesta Park as its home base. In the summer of 1917, the new bleachers at Fiesta Park were transported to USC's Bovard Field. These new seats increased Bovard's capacity to about 10,000.

The "new" Bovard was quickly obsolete. Interest in USC football, under Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, outpaced the limits of even the expanded Bovard. By 1920, USC was playing its more important games in Pasadena, first at Tournament Park, and then at the Tournament of Roses' new stadium in the Arroyo Seco.

USC's last on-campus varsity football game was played on Sept. 29, 1923, against Cal Tech. The following week the Trojans played their initial game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

Over the years, USC has been involved in many games featuring dramatic finishes at the end. Here's a sampling of some of the more famous such contests.

1931--USC 16, Notre Dame 14. Johnny Baker kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining. All of USC's points came in the fourth quarter. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was USC's first-ever win in South Bend. Troy won the national championship.

1938---USC 7, Duke 3 (1939 Rose Bowl). Al Krueger, a second-team end, and fourth-string quarterback Doyle Nave came off the bench to connect on 4 straight passes, the last a 19-yard TD with about 40 seconds left to upset previously unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon Duke.

1939-- USC 0, UCLA 0. Bobby Robertson knocked down Ned Matthews' 4-yard pass in the end zone with less than 5 minutes to play to preserve the tie for USC, sending the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

1941--USC 13, Oregon State 7. Doug Essick caught a game-winning 6-yard pass from Ray Woods with 13 seconds to play.

1953--USC 23, Stanford 20. Sam Tsagalakis kicked a victorious 38-yard field goal with 13 seconds left.

1958--USC 15, UCLA 15. Luther Hayes returned a kickoff 74 yards for a TD and Tom Maudlin ran in for the 2-point conversion with 6:50 to play to get the Trojans a tie.

1964--USC 26, California 21. Behind 21-14 in the fourth quarter, USC scored twice late, the second time (while trailing 21-20) on a 22-yard pass from Craig Fertig to Rod Sherman with 50 seconds to culminate a 95-yard drive.

1964--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Rod Sherman caught a 15-yard TD pass from Craig Fertig with 1:33 to play to upset unbeaten and top-ranked Notre Dame. USC was down, 17-0, at halftime.

1967--USC 21, UCLA 20. O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for a TD with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter to give USC a Rose Bowl berth and the national championship. It is one of the most famous runs in college football history.

1969--USC 26, Stanford 24. Ron Ayala kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 0:00 on the clock.

1973--USC 27, Stanford 26. Chris Limahelu kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play.

1974--USC 18, Ohio State 17 (1975 Rose Bowl). Johnny McKay caught a 38-yard TD pass from Pat Haden with 2:03 remaining to pull USC to within a point of Ohio State. Then Shelton Diggs grabbed the subsequent 2-point conversion pass from Haden for the victory, which wrapped up a national championship for USC.

1977--USC 29, UCLA 27. Frank Jordan kicked a 38-yard field goal with 2 seconds remaining, knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1979--USC 17, LSU 12. Kevin Williams caught a game-winning 8-yard TD pass from Paul McDonald with 32 seconds to play.

1979--USC 17, Ohio State 16 (1980 Rose Bowl). Charles White scored on a 1-yard run with 1:32 remaining. USC drove 83 yards in 8 plays on the winning drive, with White carrying 6 times for 71 yards.

1981--USC 28, Oklahoma 24. Fred Cornwell caught a 7-yard TD pass from John Mazur with 2 seconds to play to give No. 1 USC the win over No. 2 Oklahoma.

1981--USC 14, Notre Dame 7. Todd Spencer ran 26 yards for the game-winning TD with 4:52 to play.

1981--USC 22, UCLA 21. George Achica broke through the line on the final play of the game to block Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal try, preserving the win and knocking UCLA out of the Rose Bowl.

1982--USC 17, Notre Dame 13. Michael Harper, fumbling as he dove over the goal line, scored on a controversial winning 1-yard run with 48 seconds to play. It was coach John Robinson's last game of his first tenure at USC.

1985--USC 17, UCLA 13. Rodney Peete scored the winning points on a 1-yard sneak at 1:13 to go.

1986--USC 17, Baylor 14. Don Shafer kicked a game-winning 32-yard field goal in a driving rainstorm with 0:00 on the clock.

1987--USC 12, Arizona 10. Quin Rodriguez kicked an 18-yard field goal with 1:11 remaining, his fourth three-pointer of the game.

1987--USC 17, UCLA 13. Erik Affholter made a juggling, corner-of-the-end zone 33-yard TD catch of a Rodney Peete pass with 7:59 to play in the game, bringing USC all the way back from a 13-0 third quarter deficit. The win put USC in the Rose Bowl.

1988--USC 24, Stanford 20. John Jackson caught a game-winning 10-yard TD pass from Rodney Peete with 1:19 remaining. USC trailed, 13-0, in the second quarter.

1989--USC 18, Washington State 17. Known as "The Drive," Todd Marinovich guided USC 91 yards in 18 plays (all through the air) with 3:31 remaining, culminating with a 2-yard TD pass to Ricky Ervins with 4 seconds to play. Marinovich then hit Gary Wellman for the winning 2-point conversion.

1989--USC 10, UCLA 10. A 54-yard field goal try by UCLA's Alfredo Velasco with 2 seconds to play hit the crossbar and bounced away, preserving the tie.

1989--USC 17, Michigan 10 (1990 Rose Bowl). Rose Bowl MVP Ricky Ervins ran 14 yards for the winning TD with 1:10 to play to cap a 75-yard drive.

1990--USC 35, Ohio State 26. The second half was played in heavy rain with thunder and lightning, getting so bad that officials suspended the game with 2:36 to play after USC recovered an onside kick.

1990--USC 31, California 31. Cal's Robbie Keen missed a 43-yard field goal try with 4 seconds remaining, ending the game in a tie.

1990--USC 45, UCLA 42. In the highest-scoring and perhaps most thrilling USC-UCLA game, Todd Marinovich threw a game-winning 23-yard TD pass to Johnnie Morton with 16 seconds left. The contest featured a 42-point fourth quarter (including 3 TD's in the final 3:09) with 4 lead changes. Morton also caught a 21-yard scoring TD from Marinovich with 3:09 to play to give USC a short-lived 38-35 lead, but Kevin Smith scored on a 1-yard run with 1:19 to go to put the Bruins up 42-38.

1992--USC 31, San Diego State 31. San Diego State's Andy Trakas missed 2 field goals (30 and 55 yards) in the last 0:54 to allow USC to hold onto the tie.

1992--USC 27, California 24. Down 24-13, Estrus Crayton scored twice in the final 5:45 on 2- and 1-yard runs, the second with 2:27 to play to give USC the win. Brian Williams' interception with 2:19 to go sealed Troy's victory.

1995--USC 21, Washington 21. Down 21-0 going into the fourth quarter, USC scored 3 touchdowns, the last a 2-yard pass from Brad Otton to Johnny McWilliams with 33 seconds to go (Adam Rendon's PAT tied it), thus allowing the Trojans to keep hold of the inside track in the Rose Bowl race.

1995--USC 31, Stanford 30. A week after the dramatic Washington tie, USC--behind 16-0 in the second quarter--scored with 39 seconds to play on an 8-yard Kyle Wachholtz pass to Keyshawn Johnson, who then came in as a safety on defense and knocked down a Hail Mary pass at the goal line at the gun.

1996--USC 29, Washington State 24. Delon Washington's 17-yard TD run with 2:05 to play proved decisive and then USC had to hold off the Cougars, who got to the Trojan 11-yard line with 39 seconds to go before fumbling the ball away.

1996--USC 27, Notre Dame 20. In its first overtime win in 3 tries in 1996, Delon Washington scored on a 15-yard run with 1:50 to go in regulation and then barely edged the ball over the goal line on the ensuing 2-point conversion run to tie the game at 20-20. After Rodney Sermons caught a 5-yard TD pass from Brad Otton in the first overtime, Troy stopped the Irish, breaking USC's 13-game non-winning streak to Notre Dame.

Of course, USC has been on the wrong end of some dramatic last-minute finishes, too. For instance, there was the 1926 Notre Dame game (Art Parisien threw a 23-yard TD pass to Butch Niemiec with 2 minutes to go for a 13-12 Irish win), the 1937 Notre Dame game (Mario Tonnelli ran 13 yards for a TD with 1:45 left in the Irish's 13-6 win), the 1944 UCLA game (Johnny Roesch scored twice in the last 2 minutes, including an 80-yard punt return with no time on the clock, and then Bob Waterfield's extra point kick hit the crossbar but rolled over, to give UCLA a 13-13 tie), the 1948 Notre Dame game (Emil Sitko ran for a 2-yard TD with 35 seconds to go and Steve Oracko hit the extra point as Notre Dame, riding a 27-game unbeaten streak, escaped with a 14-14 tie), the 1954 Notre Dame game (Jim Morse caught a 72-yard pass from Ralph Guglielmi with 5:57 to go to give Notre Dame a 23-17 victory), the 1963 Notre Dame game (Ken Ivan kicked a 33-yard field goal with 6:38 to go as Notre Dame won, 17-14), the 1965 UCLA game (Kurt Altenberg caught a 52-yard scoring bomb from Gary Beban with about 4 minutes to play as UCLA overcame a 16-6 deficit and won, 20-16), the 1967 Rose Bowl (USC's 2-point conversion pass attempt with 2:28 to play was intercepted by George Catavolos, allowing Purdue to hold onto a 14-13 win), the 1975 Stanford game (Mike Langford kicked a 37-yard field goal with no time on the clock as Stanford won, 13-10), the 1977 Alabama game (under pressure from Alabama's Wayne Hamilton,Rob Hertel's 2-point conversion pass to Mosi Tatupu with 35 seconds to play was intercepted by Barry Krauss, sealing the Tide's 21-20 victory), the 1980 UCLA game (Freeman McNeil pulled down a tipped 58-yard pass from Jay Schroeder for the game-winner at 2:07 to play for a 20-17 win), the 1982 UCLA game (Bruin Karl Morgan preserved UCLA's 20-19 win by sacking Scott Tinsley on an attempted 2-point conversion pass after USC had scored at the gun), the 1986 Notre Dame game (the Irish rallied back from a 20-9 halftime deficit, culminated by John Carney's 19-yard field goal as time expired to give Notre Dame a 38-37 win), the 1989 Illinois game (a pair of late fourth quarter Jeff George TD passes, the second to Steve Williams with 2:19 to play, gave the Illini a 14-13 win), the 1991 Stanford game (USC went ahead 21-17 with 3:37 to play only to see Steve Stenstrom hit Chris Walsh with a game-winning 12-yard TD pass with 1:11 left; USC's Cole Ford barely missed a 45-yard field goal at the gun), the 1992 UCLA game (UCLA came back from a 31-17 fourth quarter deficit to go ahead 38-31, only to see Rob Johnson score on a 1-yard sneak with 41 seconds to play, but Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Yonnie Jackson was deflected by Bruin Nkosi Littleton), the 1993 Penn State game (Rob Johnson's 2-point conversion pass to Johnny McWilliams with 37 seconds to go fell bounced incomplete, allowing the Nittany Lions to hold on to a 21-20 win), the 1993 UCLA game (a win or tie would have put USC in the Rose Bowl, but Rob Johnson's 3-yard, third-down pass with 56 seconds to play to Tyler Cashman was intercepted in the end zone by Bruin Marvin Goodwin to preserve UCLA's 27-21 victory), the 1996 Arizona State game (after ASU tied the game at 28-28 with 1:30 to play, the teams went to double overtime with Sun Devil Courtney Jackson returning a controversial Brad Otton fumble 85 yards for a TD in the second overtime to end the game in ASU's favor, 48-35), and the 1996 UCLA game (USC held a 17-point lead with less than 7 minutes to play in regulation but couldn't hold on and then, in its second double overtime game of the season, the Trojans couldn't score in the second overtime after Skip Hicks' 25-yard TD run gave the Bruins a 48-41 victory).

"THE COMEBACK"

1974: USC 55, Notre Dame 24

In what is regarded as one of the most dramatic and incredible comebacks in the history of college football, the 1974 Trojans erased a 24-point deficit to beat Notre Dame, 55-24, in the Coliseum.

USC trailed the Irish, 24-0, late in the first half, and the Trojans' chances looked bleak because Notre Dame sported the nation's top-ranked defense. But with 10 seconds remaining before halftime, Anthony Davis scored on a 7-yard pass from Pat Haden (Troy missed the 2-point conversion) to send the Trojans into the lockerroom behind 24-6...but with a glimmer of hope.

Davis took the opening kickoff of the second half and raced 102 yards for a score, opening the floodgates as USC rallied for 35 points in the third quarter. Davis scored 2 more times that quarter, both on short runs, and Haden threw TD passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay.

Then, before 2 minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter, Haden hit Shelton Diggs for a 16-yard score and Charles Phillips returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown.

In all, USC blitzed to its 55 points in under 17 minutes.

"We turned into madmen," was how Davis described the comeback.

Added receiver Johnny McKay, son of USC coach John McKay, right after the game: "I can't understand it. I'm gonna sit down tonight and have a beer and think about it. Against Notre Dame? Maybe against Kent State...but Notre Dame?"

The victory propelled USC, which then beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 18-17, to the national championship.

Interestingly, that Rose Bowl win was dramatic, too. USC trailed the Buckeyes, 17-10, with just minutes left to play. Then Haden teamed with McKay on a 38-yard TD pass with 2:03 to go, and he followed that with a 2-point conversion toss to Diggs for the victory.

USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's fourth highest bowl winning percentage (.658) among the 51 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind only Oklahoma State's .750, Georgia Tech's .680 and Penn State's .667). In the prestigious group of 9 schools that have played in 30 or more bowl games, Troy has the second highest winning percentage (behind only Penn State). USC is just 3 wins behind Alabama for most bowl victories, 28 to 25. Troy's 38 bowl appearances rank behind only Alabama (48). USC once won 9 consecutive bowl games (USC did it in the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival); only Florida State has won more in a row (11).

USC's overall post-season record is 25-13. The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Troy has appeared in an unprecedented 28 Rose Bowls, where it has a 20-8 mark. That's not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 7 of its last 9 Rose Bowls. USC has also appeared in 9 other bowls--the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, John Hancock Bowl, Freedom Bowl (twice) and Cotton Bowl.

ROSE BOWL

USC BOWL GAME SUMMARIES

1923 Rose Bowl: USC 14, Penn State 3

In the first Rose Bowl game played in the present Rose Bowl stadium, USC, a substitute Western entry for California, which had declined the invitation, defeated Penn State, 14-3. USC's first touchdown was set up by Harold Galloway, who caught a pass while flat on his back at the two-yard line. Penn State arrived at the game 45 minutes late after being caught in a traffic jam, and the game concluded in moonlight as sportswriters had to strike matches to complete their stories.

In Ted Tollner's final game as USC's head coach, his Trojan defense held down a high-powered Auburn offense (led by Brent Fullwood, the nation's top runner). But Troy's offense was ineffective and the Tigers won, 16-7, in chilly Orlando. Outside linebacker Marcus Cotton provided USC with its only score on a spectacular 24-yard scoring interception return early in the game. Two long second-quarter drives by Auburn, plus a safety late in the game, gave Auburn its only points. USC made it interesting at the end after Louis Brock blocked a Tiger punt, but the Trojans couldn't score on fourth-and-inches at the goal line. Fullwood had 152 yards rushing and one TD for Auburn, which had just 290 total yards on the day.

1988 Rose Bowl: Michigan State 20, USC 17

For just the fifth time ever, teams that had played each other earlier in the season (Michigan State had beaten USC in the 1988 season opener, 27-13) faced off in the Rose Bowl. The Spartans prevailed again, this time 20-17, breaking a six-game Big Ten losing streak in Pasadena. Despite getting more total yards (410 to 276) and first downs (21 to 11) than Michigan State, the Trojans were hurt by five turnovers, including a lost fumble on a mishandled snap on the Spartan 30 with 1:37 to play as Troy was marching downfield on an impressive drive. USC trailed 14-3 at halftime, but two touchdowns passes from quarterback Rodney Peete to split end Ken Henry eventually evened the score at 17-17 midway through the last quarter. On the next series, Michigan State moved into its winning field goal position with the help of a spectacular 36-yard jump pass from quarterback Bobby McAllister to split end Andre Rison. USC had to play Michigan State for the second time that season without star Trojan tailback Steven Webster (he sat out the opener with a sprained ankle and tore knee ligaments in the regular season finale against UCLA).

1989 Rose Bowl: Michigan 22, USC 14

In a "teacher-versus-pupil" matchup (USC coach Larry Smith served under Wolverine coach Bo Schembechler at both Miami of Ohio and Michigan), the teacher got the better of it as Michigan came back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win 22-14. It was a disappointing way for USC to conclude its 100th anniversary of football. After falling behind 3-0 on a Mike Gillette field goal, USC charged back as quarterback Rodney Peete ran for a pair of short touchdowns (1 and 4 yards) in the second quarter. But it was all Michigan in the second half, as the Wolverines amassed 230 of their 352 total yards then. They scored 3 times on long drives, the first on a 6-yard Demetrius Brown-to-Chris Calloway aerial that capped a 67-yard drive to open the third quarter. Then Rose Bowl MVP Leroy Hoard scored twice for Michigan on 1-yard runs in the final period, coming off of 92 and 70-yard drives. Hoard had 142 yards rushing (the first time anyone broke the century rushing mark against the Trojans all year), including a key 61-yard run to set up the Wolverines' final score. USC, which managed a season-low 296 total yards, didn't help its cause with 5 turnovers, 11 penalties and numerous missed tackles. The win was only Schembechler's second in 9 tries in Pasadena.

1990 Rose Bowl: USC 17, Michigan 10

After losing the previous 2 Rose Bowls, USC beat Michigan, 17-10, in a rematch of the 1989 game. The win, in Bo Schembechler's final game as Wolverine coach, ended Michigan's national title hopes. It was a bittersweet victory for USC coach Larry Smith, who served 6 years as an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. Trojan tailback Ricky Ervins, the Rose Bowl MVP, scored the game-winning TD on a 14-yard run with 1:10 to play. Ervins, who lives 5 minutes from the Rose Bowl and used to park cars there on New Year's Day, ran for 126 yards on 30 carries and caught 5 passes for 44 yards. USC, which dominated the stats, pulled off a key play early in the second quarter when defensive guard Dan Owens blocked a punt. Six plays later, quarterback Todd Marinovich, who was 22-of-31 passing for 178 yards, scored on a 1-yard run. Kickers J.D. Carlson of Michigan (19 yards) and USC's Quin Rodriguez (34 yards) then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run by tailback Allen Jefferson in the third quarter and the game looked like it would end deadlocked. But, with less than 6 minutes to go, Michigan was called for holding on a successful Wolverine fake punt and USC took over at its 25-yard line. Troy then went 75 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Michigan tailback Leroy Hoard became the first player to run for 100-plus yards against USC all season (he had 108 yards on 17 carries).

1990 John Hancock Bowl: Michigan State 17, USC 16

Playing in its eighth different bowl, USC lost to Michigan State, 17-16, in the John Hancock Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Eve day. It was the 900th game in Trojan gridiron history. USC dominated the stats, getting more total yards (336-215), plays (76-52), first downs (21-12) and possession time (35:45-24:15). Troy limited the powerful Spartan rushing attack (which averaged 253.9 yards a game to rank 10th nationally) to an MSU season-low 84 yards. Big Ten rushing champ tailback Tico Duckett got just 18 yards. But Troy had 4 costly turnovers (including 2 in MSU's end zone) and converted only 5 of 14 first downs. USC scored first when quarterback Todd Marinovich hit flanker Gary Wellman with a 7-yard TD pass late in the opening quarter. Marinovich was 18-of-30 for 174 yards, but threw 3 interceptions (including 1 in the end zone) and also fumbled the ball on fourth-and-goal at the Spartan 1-yard line in the middle of the second quarter (which MSU recovered in the end zone). Michigan State marched 80 yards to a TD after that fumble recovery, with tailback Hyland Hickson scoring on an 18-yard run to tie the score at 7-7 at halftime. After placekicker Quin Rodriguez hit a 20-yard field goal on USC's opening possession of the second half (which ended on the MSU 3-yard line), the Spartans countered with a 21-yard TD pass from quarterback Dan Enos to flanker Courtney Hawkins (the first TD reception by a MSU wide receiver all year), who was the game's MVP with 6 catches for a season-high 106 yards, and a career-long 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Rodriguez capped USC's next series with a career-long 54-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Then, down 17-13, cornerback Stephon Pace intercepted an Enos pass to give USC the ball near midfield. But the Trojans could get no closer than the MSU 17 before backup quarterback Shane Foley's errant pitch stalled the drive and USC had to settle for another Rodriguez field goal, this one 43 yards with 5:54 to play. Troy, however, could never get the ball back. Tailback Mazio Royster had a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries, only the second player to break the century rushing mark against Michigan State in 1990. USC rushed for 156 yards versus an MSU defense which was ranked 17th nationally against the run (allowing just 113.2 yards a game). Trojan outside linebacker Craig Hartsuyker, who had 2 quarterback sacks and forced a fumble, was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

1992 Freedom Bowl: Fresno State 24, USC 7

USC, making its 35th bowl appearance, was stunned by unranked, 8-point underdog Fresno State, 24-7, in the ninth Freedom Bowl in Anaheim Stadium. It was the first meeting ever between the Trojans and Bulldogs. Fresno State dominated, particularly in the second half. FSU, with the nation's No. 1 scoring offense (40.5) and No. 2 total offense (482.9), held the ball 15-plus minutes more (37:32-22:28), had 322 more total yards (405-183), 10 more first downs (24-14) and 34 more plays (84-50). USC's 183 total yards were its fewest since getting 163 at Washington in 1990 and its 95 passing yards were its fewest since getting 74 at Oregon in 1991. The Trojans had 4 turnovers (FSU had none) and converted just 1-of-9 third downs. The first half, played in a steady rain, ended in a 7-7 tie. It was the fewest points FSU had scored in a half all season (and it was the first time the Bulldogs were shut out in the first quarter in 1992). USC tailback Deon Strother opened the scoring with a 1-yard plunge early in the second quarter, but FSU answered when fullback Lorenzo Neal ran for a 1-yard TD. While attempting to catch a pass on the last play of the half, USC flanker Curtis Conway sprained his right knee and missed the second half (it was the first time in 23 games that he didn't catch a pass). After a 43-yard field goal by placekicker Derek Mahoney in the third quarter, FSU scored twice late in the game on runs by tailbacks Anthony Daigle (2 yards) and Ron Rivers (5 yards). Rivers had a game-high 104 yards on 19 carries, while Freedom Bowl MVP Neal had 75 yards on 19 tries. Bulldog quarterback Trent Dilfer was 13-of-28 for 164 yards. Tailback Estrus Crayton, USC's game MVP, led Troy with 79 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, safety Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles, while inside linebacker Brian Williams added 9 stops, cornerback Jerald Henry had 8, and cornerback Jason Oliver had 7 along with a blocked field goal.

1993 Freedom Bowl: USC 28, Utah 21

USC, exorcising the demons of Anaheim Stadium, scored 28 points in the first 17 minutes of the game and then held off a furious Utah second-half rally to win Freedom Bowl X, 28-21, before 43,150 fans and a national Raycom television audience. The Trojans, making their 36th bowl appearance, were playing in Anaheim Stadium for the third time in 14 games, but had yet to win there (losing in the 1992 Freedom Bowl to Fresno State and the 1993 season-opening Disneyland Pigskin Classic to North Carolina). It was the first USC-Utah meeting in 45 years. USC, a 17-point favorite, scored easily on its first 4 possessions. In the first quarter, quarterback Rob Johnson hit All-American wide receiver Johnnie Morton on TD throws of 31 and 9 yards, and tailback David Dotson dove over from 2 yards out. Then, Johnson connected with Ttight endJohnny McWilliams on a 5-yard scoring toss just 1:26 into the second quarter. But after that, USC's offense--hampered by an ineffective running game (the Trojans ran for just 91 yards)--stalled. Utah, playing in just its fourth bowl game, came alive after halftime, scoring on 3 of its first 5 possessions: a 59-yard TD pass from quarterback Mike McCoy to slotback Henry Lusk, a 34-yard run by fullback Jamal Anderson and a 1-yard run by tailback Keith Williams. But USC got the ball with 3:19 to play and held it until just 8 seconds remained, when McCoy's desperation pass was intercepted by cornerback John Herpin (Herpin's second pick of the game). Morton was named the game's MVP as he caught a Freedom Bowl-record 10 passes for 147 yards and the 2 scores (to tie a Freedom Bowl TD catch mark) despite playing weakened with the flu (7 of his catches for 121 yards and both TDs were in the first half). Johnson, who also had come down with a slight case of the flu, completed a Freedom Bowl-record 30 passes in 44 attempts for 345 yards and the 3 TD aerials (in the first half, he was 17-of-25 for 255 with the 3 TDs). Morton became the Pac-10's No. 2 career receiver with 201 grabs, while Johnson set USC's season pass completion percentage mark (68.6%). USC tailback Shawn Walters ran for a game-high 70 yards on 19 carries, while fullback Deon Strother added 50 rushing yards on 9 attempts and caught 6 passes for 63 yards. USC wide receiver Ken Grace, who had 4 catches for 48 yards, returned a punt 31 yards, a Freedom Bowl mark. USC generated 436 yards of total offense on 82 plays and held the ball 32:14. Utah threatened 3 times inside the USC 30-yard line in the opening half, but USC's defense held each time, including an impressive goal line stand and an interception in the end zone by cornerback Jason Sehorn. Utah came into the game averaging 484.6 total yards (fifth in the U.S.), 324.3 passing yards (seventh in the U.S.) and 30.8 points, but was limited to 350 total yards (286 through the air). McCoy, who was second nationally in total offense (330.8), was 23-of-40 for 286 yards, 1 TD and 3 interceptions (at the half, he was 10-of-20 for 81 yards with 2 picks). Lusk had 6 catches for 140 yards and the TD, while Anderson ran for 67 yards and the TD on 16 carries and caught 7 passes for 61 yards. Outside linebacker Brian Williams and safety Mike Salmon topped USC in tackles with 9 each (both had 2 for losses). USC coach John Robinson, who has led USC to at least 8 wins in each of his 8 seasons there, upped his bowl record to 5-1.

1995 Cotton Bowl: USC 55, Texas Tech 14

USC (ranked 20th by UPI, 21st by AP and 22nd by USA Today/CNN) made quite an impression in its first visit to the Mobil Cotton Bowl Classic, smashing Texas Tech, 55-14, in a record-filled performance before a sellout crowd of 70,218 and an NBC-TV national audience. It was USC's 24th bowl victory, its 37th bowl appearance (in 10 different bowls), its 17th win in the last 19 games against Southwest Conference opponents, its third win in 3 tries over Texas Tech, and coach John Robinson's sixth bowl win in 7 trips (giving Robinson at least 8 wins in each of his 9 seasons at Troy). After 59 years, it was also the last Cotton Bowl where an SWC team served as host. Texas Tech was making only its second visit to the Cotton Bowl (the first was in 1939). The game was over quickly, as it was 28-0 after the first quarter and 34-0 at halftime. USC led 48-0 before Texas Tech scored against the Trojan reserves late in the third quarter. USC set Cotton Bowl records for most points in a game, most points in a quarter (USC's most since also scoring 28 in the second quarter against California in 1978) and most touchdowns (7), while scoring its most points ever in a bowl and posting its biggest bowl victory margin (second in Cotton Bowl history). It was the most points scored against Texas Tech since Miami had 61 in 1986. Troy's first 3 scores came in a 1:16 span. After tailback Shawn Walters, 1 of 8 Texans on the Trojan roster, ran 11 yards for a TD, USC recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and, on the next play, quarterback Rob Johnson hit fullback Terry Barnum for a 19-yard score. Three plays later, cornerback John Herpin, another Texas native, intercepted a Zebbie Lethridge pass and returned it 26 yards for a TD. Herpin, who intercepted another pass in the second quarter to set up a field goal, was named the game's Outstanding Defensive Player. USC's next 3 TDs came on aerials to wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson of 12, 22 and 86 yards (the 86-yarder was 1 yard shy of the longest pass in Cotton Bowl and USC history), the first 2 from Rob Johnson and the third from quarterback Brad Otton. Keyshawn Johnson, selected as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, had 8 catches overall for a Cotton Bowl-record 222 yards (just 7 yards shy of the Trojan single game record). His 3 TD catches set a Cotton Bowl record and equalled a Trojan mark. Rob Johnson, who became USC's career passing yardage leader and the Pac-10 and USC recordholder for career completion percentage, was 16-of-21 for 289 yards (the second most yards in Cotton Bowl history). The other Trojan scores came on a late 2-yard Otton pass to tight end Jeff Diltz and second quarter field goals by placekicker Cole Ford of 39 and a career-best 42 yards. Ford's 7 PAT kicks was a Cotton Bowl record. Walters ran for a game-best 82 yards on 14 carries. Otton was 8-of-14 for 146 yards. USC thoroughly dominated the statistics, more than doubling Texas Tech in total yardage (578-260) and possession time (40:02-19:58) while also having more first downs (21-14) and plays (80-63). USC, which averaged 7.2 yards per play, set Cotton Bowl records for total yards, passing yards (a USC record 435) and completions (24). USC did this against a Texas Tech defense which entered the game third nationally in pass efficiency defense (88.6), 10th in scoring defense (17.4) and 22nd in total defense (311.0). The Red Raiders had held 5 foes to single digits in scoring and had given up just 47 points in their previous 5 games. Inside linebacker Jeff Kopp led USC in tackles with 7, while safety Sammy Knight added 6. Texas Tech, which punted 10 times, advanced into USC territory on just 4 of its 16 possessions.

1996 Rose Bowl: USC 41, Northwestern 32

Behind the stellar play of wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson and quarterback Brad Otton, USC (ranked 15th by UPI and 17th by USA Today/CNN and AP) put an end to No. 3-ranked Northwestern's Cinderella season with an exciting 41-32 Rose Bowl win before a sellout crowd of 100,102 and a national ABC-TV audience. It was the 50th anniversary of the Pac-10/Big Ten agreement in the Rose Bowl. It was USC's 20th victory in its unprecedented 28th trip to Pasadena (but its first since the 1990 game) and Troy's first win over a Top 3 team since defeating Michigan in that 1990 Rose Bowl, while Northwestern --having its first winning season since 1971 (the Wildcats came in with a 10-1 record)--was playing in only its second-ever bowl (its first since winning the 1949 Rose Bowl). It also gave USC coach John Robinson a 4-0 Rose Bowl record (and 7-1 in all bowls). The Trojans jumped off to a quick start, driving 83 yards with the opening kickoff while using a no-huddle offense as running back LaVale Woods scored on a 1-yard plunge. But Northwestern answered on its first possession, as running back Darnell Autry ran 3 yards for a TD to cap a 68-yard drive. USC then scored 17 unanswered second quarter points: a scrambling 21-yard TD pass from Otton to running back Terry Barnum, a 30-yard field goal by placekicker Adam Abrams and, on Northwestern's next possession, cornerback Daylon McCutcheon's 53-yard fumble return after safety Sammy Knight knocked the ball loose from Wildcat wide receiver Brian Musso. Northwestern got a 29-yard field goal from placekicker Brian Gowins with 2 seconds to go in the half following a Trojan fumble, but Troy led 24-10 at intermission (it was USC's most first half points since scoring 34 against Texas Tech in the 1995 Cotton Bowl). The Wildcats then scored on their first 4 possessions of the second half: another Gowins field goal (this one from 28 yards), a 9-yard Autry run (after Northwestern recovered a surprise on-side kick), a 1-yard sneak by quarterback Steve Schnur (which followed a 56-yard Trojan scoring strike from Otton to Johnson), and a 2-yard Autry run early in the fourth quarter that gave Northwestern its first lead of the day, 32-31. But USC came right back, getting a 46-yard Abrams field goal (the longest by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez hit a 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 John Hancock Bowl). Safety Jesse Davis then sealed the victory for USC with an interception which led to a 5-yard TD by running back Delon Washington. Johnson, who served as a Trojan ballboy at the 1985 Rose Bowl, was named the Rose Bowl MVP, as he grabbed 12 passes (all for first downs) for a Rose Bowl record 216 yards (his 17th 100-yard outing in his career and the eighth of 1995). Otton played the entire game for the first time in the 1995 season, hitting 29-of-44 passes for 391 yards (all career highs) with 2 TDs and no interceptions; the yardage was 1 yard shy of Rob Johnson's USC record and was the third most in Rose Bowl history. Autry had his 13th consecutive 100-yard rushing game, getting 110 yards on 32 carries with the 3 TDs, while Schnur was 23-of-39 for a career-best 336 yards (including 7 completions for 145 yards to wide receiver D'Wayne Bates). Northwestern outgained USC in total yards, 475-520, and limited Troy to just 29 rushing yards (its fewest since getting 7 yards against UCLA in 1993), but the Wildcats' uncharacteristic 2 turnovers led to 14 Trojan points, proving costly to a team which was third nationally in turnover margin (1.82). The Wildcats also had a TD pass called back because of a penalty late in the game and missed 2 field goals, including a 49-yard attempt that hit the upright with 35 seconds to go. USC, on the other hand, had 11 penalties (including 9 in the second half). Trojan cornerback Brian Kelly had a game-high 11 tackles (along with 2 deflections), while Knight and linebacker Scott Fields added 7 stops each.

1997 BOWL INFORMATION

ROSE BOWL SELECTION PROCEDURES

The Pacific-10 Rose Bowl representative shall be that member's team with the best record in the loss and tie columns (a tie being counted as one-half loss) in all Conference games. If, however, the lowest loss-tie totals of two or more members are identical, determination of the Rose Bowl representative shall be as follows:

a. Two-Team Tie. If the tied teams played one another, the winner of their game shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, if either team is ranked first or second inthe nation in the Associated Press, the USA Today/CNN American Football Coaches Association, or the UPI/Football Foundation Poll (must be first or second in 2 of the 3 polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the Conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If they tied or did not play and are not so ranked, then the following formula shall be used:

(1) Count 4 points for a Conference win.

(2) Count 3 points for a non-Conference win against a Division I-A team.

(3) Count 2 points for a non-Conference win against a non-Division I-A team.

(4) Count 2 points for a Conference tie.

(5) Count 1 1/2 points for a non-Conference tie against a Division 1-A team.

(6) Count 1 point for a non-Conference tie against a non-Division 1-A team.

The team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative.

If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

b. Multiple Ties. When three or more teams are tied in the loss-tie column in Conference play, if one has defeated all others, that team shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, and one of the teams is ranked first or second in the nation in the Associated Press, the USA Today/CNN American Football Coaches Association, or the UPI/Football Foundation Poll (must be first or second in 2 of the 3 polls) which immediately follow the final regular-season game played by the Conference's members, then it shall be the Rose Bowl representative. If that is not the case, a team defeated by all other tied teams shall be eliminated. If one team has not defeated the others, the point formula above shall be computed. Only the top two teams on the point system shall thereafter be considered. If a tie for the second position occurs upon application of the point formula, the second team shall be the winner of the game between the tied teams, or, if the teams did not play each other or played a tie game, the team which has not played in the Rose Bowl for the longest period of time shall be the second team. If the remaining two teams played one another, the winner shall be the representative. If they tied or did not play one another, the team with the highest point total for all games shall be the Rose Bowl representative as in paragraph "a" above. If a tie remains, the last team appearing in the Rose Bowl shall be eliminated.

NOTES: Teams ineligible to participate in the Rose Bowl shall not be included in the tie-breaking formula. Games in Alaska or Hawaii shall not be counted in the point system if they are "12th games" permitted under NCAA legislation. Participation in the NACDA Kickoff Classic or the Pigskin Classic shall not be counted in the point system.

PAC-10 BOWL ARRANGEMENTS

In the ever-changing world of bowl games, one matchup remains constant--the Pacific-10 champion will meet the Big Ten champ in the Rose Bowl. While much about it changes, the Rose Bowl Game, in conjunction with the world-famous Rose Parade, maintains its preeminent position as the nation's most prestigious and glamorous New Year's Day attraction.

In addition to the champion appearing in the Rose Bowl, the Pac-10 is assured of at least 3 other participants in post-season bowl competition (assuming all win the NCAA-mandated 6 games against Division I-A opponents), as agreements have been struck with the Southwestern Bell Cotton, Plymouth Holiday, Jeep Aloha and Norwest Sun Bowls. The Pac-10 also is eligible for an at-large berth in any given year in the Bowl Alliance, which encompasses the Tostitos Fiesta, Nokia Sugar and FedEx Orange Bowls. While eligible to be selected for a berth in the Bowl Alliance, a berth is not guaranteed.

After the Rose Bowl berth is filled (and the Bowl Alliance, if applicable), a second Pac-10 team (not necessarily the second-place team) will participate against a Big 12 team in either the Cotton or Holiday Bowl. Four teams will participate in the Cotton/Holiday Bowl parlay--1 from the Pac-10, the WAC champion and the Big 12's second and third teams. The Big 12's No. 2 team will anchor the Cotton Bowl and its third team will anchor the Holiday Bowl. The Cotton Bowl has first choice between a Pac-10 team and the WAC champion (the team not selected will receive a berth in the Holiday Bowl).

A third Pac-10 team will be picked by the Sun Bowl. The team shall be the highest teamremaining in the Pac-10 standings. If there is a tie, the Sun Bowl can select from the tied teams.

A fourth Pac-10 team (not necessarily the fourth-place team) will be selected by the Aloha Bowl.

USC'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following is a complete listing of all USC football players who have ever received first team All-American honors. Although there are several teams selected throughout the country, the NCAA now recognizes only six in determining whether a player is a unanimous or consensus choice--AP, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association, the Walter Camp Foundation, The Sporting News and Football News.

From 1962 to 1990, USC had at least one first team All-American every year. From 1972 to 1987, there was at least one consensus All-American Trojan every year. Also, there have been an amazing 26 first team All-American Trojan offensive linemen since 1964.

TROJAN HONOREES

HEISMAN SALUTE

MIKE GARRETT--1965

Two-time All-American Mike Garrett was the man who began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tailbacks.

He was the Trojans' first--and only the West Coast's second--Heisman winner when he whipped an outstanding field of candidates in 1965.

Mike set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his three-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards in the days when 1,000-yard-a-season rushers were almost non-existent. He later starred for the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers.

O. J. SIMPSON--1968

O. J. Simpson became USC's second Heisman Trophy winner in 1968 when he captured the award by the most one-sided margin in history.

During the regular 1968 season, O.J. established an NCAA record for yards rushing --1,709--in a single season (since bettered). A two-time unanimous All- American, he equaled or bettered 19 NCAA, conference and USC records.

Simpson also held the NFL single season rushing record of 2,003 yards set in 1973 and finished his 11- year pro career as the second leading NFL career rusher behind Jim Brown.

CHARLES WHITE--1979

Charles White, USC's third Heisman Trophy winner, finished his four-year career as the NCAA's second leading rusher ever with 5,598 regular season yards. Including bowl games, he finished with a Pac-10 record 6,245.

A two-year unanimous All-American, White set or equaled 22 NCAA, Pac-10, USC and Rose Bowl records. He gained over 100 yards 31 times in his career, including 10 times in 1979.

In that senior season, Charlie averaged 186.4 yards a game, 6.2 yards a carry, led the nation in rushing, and, for the second straight season, led it in all-purpose running.

MARCUS ALLEN--1981

Marcus Allen, USC's fourth Heisman Trophy winner, was college football's first 2,000-yard rusher.

When he captured the award in 1981, Marcus set 14 new NCAA records and tied two others, including most yards rushing in a single season (2,342), highest per-game average (212.9), most 200-yard games in a career (11), most 200-yard games in a season (8) and most 200-yard games in a row (5).

Allen also led the Trojans in receiving with 30 and 34 catches in each of his last two seasons.

PLAYBOY PRE-SEASON ALL-AMERICANS

USC has landed more players on the prestigious Playboy Magazine pre-season college All-American football team than any other university. Since Playboy first picked a team in 1957, there have been 53 Trojan players selected, as well as 1 Coach of the Year. Not including the 1997 picks, Notre Dame is next with 37 selections, followed by Oklahoma with 31 (the Sooners have also had 2 Coach of the Year honorees). During a 16-year period (1972 through 1987), at least 1 Trojan player was selected annually to the Playboy squad. On 4 different occasions (1970-76-79-80), 3 USC players made that year's Playboy team. USC'sTony Boselli, who was selected in 1992-93-94, is the first 3-time Playboy selection from any school.

ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS

Various standards have been used to determine USC letterwinners over the years, but since 1976, squad members who have played at least 30 minutes have been listed here as lettermen. There have been many exceptions to that rule, including kickers and others who contributed significantly to the team's success without playing 30 minutes.

In addition, senior squad members who have been on the team for several years have generally been awarded letters for their senior season, as long as they appeared in at least one game. This has been a long-standing policy.

The list is confined to lettermen who actually played on USC's varsity teams of American Rules Football, and does not include individuals who lettered only in rugby.

Positions, heights, and weights are generally those listed in USC publications and other sources in the player's final letterwinning year. Positions are primarily listed in the terminology of the era in which the letterwinner played. "Hometowns" by longstanding custom are usually the places from which players came to USC, and are located in California unless noted. Parenthetical notations contain a letterwinner's high school, and junior or senior college, attended before USC, where known, and are in the state of the letterman's hometown, unless noted. This list was expanded by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

A NOTE ON USC'S RECORDS

The records material on these pages has been compiled from a number of sources. Although official national individual records commenced only in 1937 (nearly 50 years after USC's first team), USC's game-by-game records generally extend back to the mid-1920s. Newspaper accounts of individual games, including some extraordinary individual performances, date back to 1889. Unfortunately, for some games in USC's first 20 years, only the final result has survived to the present.

These records have been compiled by USC's Sports Information Office (previously known as the Athletic News Service), particularly the sports information directors listed elsewhere in this guide. Special mention should be made of the efforts of Tom Lawless, Dick Nash, Harley Tinkham, Chuck Weinstock, Al Wesson, Deke Houlgate, H.D. Thoreau and Mike Glenn.

*-This was the only field goal that Decius kicked for USC; yet his record stood for 64 years. Decius also held the record for most field goals in a single game against USC. Playing for Los Angeles High School, Decius, on Oct. 10, 1908, kicked three field goals (then worth four points each), two from the 35-yard line near the sidelines and one from the 27-yard line. That record, tied several times, stood for 65 years, lasting until Nov. 10, 1973, when Rod Garcia kicked four field goals for Stanford against USC.

USC VS. HEISMAN WINNERS

John Lujack--1947
Notre Dame 38, USC 7
Irish quarterback Lujack completed 5-of-7 passes for 59 yards and no TDs, but it was his interception and 37-yard return of a Trojan pass that led to a score. Eventual national champion Notre Dame knocked off No. 3-ranked USC, 38-7, at the Coliseum.

Leon Hart--1949
Notre Dame 32, USC 0
Hart scored on a 36-yard pass for Notre Dame's first score as the top-ranked Irish rolled to a 32-0 win in South Bend over the No. 17 Trojans. It was USC's worst loss in the series at the time.

John Lattner--1953
Notre Dame 48, USC 14
Lattner set then-series records by scoring 4 touchdowns and rushing for 157 yards in No. 2 Notre Dame's 48-14 victory over No. 20 USC in the Coliseum.

Paul Hornung--1956
USC 28, Notre Dame 20
Hornung, who played quarterback during his Heisman Trophy season, switched to halfback against USC because of painful injuries to both thumbs. His 95-yard kickoff return and PAT in the third quarter drew the Irish to within a point, 21-20. Hornung accounted for 215 all-purpose yards in the Coliseum game.

John Huarte--1964
USC 20, Notre Dame 17
Huarte completed 18-of-29 passes and threw a touchdown pass in leading top-ranked Notre Dame to a 17-0 lead. But unranked USC rallied to score 20 second-half points to upset the Irish, 20-17, in Los Angeles. It was Ara Parseghian's first loss as Irish coach.

Gary Beban--1967
USC 21, UCLA 20
With the national championship and a trip to the Rose Bowl on the line, Beban threw for 301 yards and 2 touchdowns for the top-ranked Bruins. The effort wasn't enough as O.J. Simpson, USC's 1968 Heisman winner, scored on a 64-yard TD to give the No. 4-ranked Trojans a 21-20 win.

Jim Plunkett--1970
Stanford 24, USC 14
Plunkett ended No. 4-ranked USC's hopes of a fifth straight Rose Bowl trip by completing 19-of-31 passes for 274 yards and a score in No. 12-ranked Stanford's 24-14 win at Palo Alto. The loss ended USC's 25-game unbeaten string in regular season play.

Archie Griffin--1974
USC 18, Ohio State 17
In the 1975 Rose Bowl, Griffin fumbled twice and was held to 75 yards and no TDs, as USC rallied to take an 18-17 win. The victory over the No. 3-ranked Buckeyes gave USC its seventh national title.

George Rogers--1980
USC 23, South Carolina 13
Rogers broke free for a 34-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter in Los Angeles as part of a 141-yard rushing game. But it was Marcus Allen, USC's 1981 Heisman Trophy winner, who rushed for 104 yards and 2 touchdowns to give USC a 23-13 win in its home opener.

Tim Brown--1987
Notre Dame 26, USC 15
Brown was held to 4 catches for 46 yards, but it was his 5-yard run in the second quarter that put the Irish up 17-3 in South Bend. Notre Dame's seventh Heisman winner rushed 5 times for 41 yards in the Irish's 26-15 win.

USC ON TELEVISION

USC's football team--perhaps the true "America's Team" -- has appeared on live national, regional or local telecasts 237 times over the years, including 152 times on commercial network television. USC's overall record while playing on live television is 150-78-9 (the mark is 89-59-6 for commercial network telecasts only). USC set a national record in 1987 by appearing on 6 live national regular-season network telecasts. Going into the 1997 season, USC's last 102 games have been on some form of live television (the last Trojan game not on live TV was the 1988 Oregon State game).

Trojan games have always been among the top--if not the top--attractions among live televised college football games. In fact, over the 10-year period from 1972 to 1981, USC posted the highest average television rating of any school, according to figures released by the NCAA which were compiled by the A.C. Nielsen Co. rating service. During that span, USC averaged a 15.6 rating on its 24 live regular-season ABC national and regional telecasts. A rating indicates the percentage of all U.S. households that are tuned to a game. Currently, each rating point equals 1% of the nation's 97 million TV households. A 10.0 rating is considered above average.

In a December 1988 ranking by Sports Inc., the USC-Notre Dame game recorded 5 of the 12 all-time highest college football TV ratings. The 1968 USC-ND encounter was the highest rated college football telecast ever (22.9 rating). The other USC-ND clashes in the top 12 include 1970-74-72-64.

Of the 12 highest rated games ever, according to Sports Inc., USC was involved in more than any other school: 7 (besides those 5 Notre Dame games, the others were the UCLA encounters of 1973 and 1967). Incidentally, USC was 6-0-1 in those games.

As further proof of USC's television appeal, Sports Inc. listed Troy as the top drawing team from 1974 to 1983 (the 10 years prior to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling which deregulated the TV marketplace) with an average rating of 14.49 on 24 telecasts (more than a full rating point higher than No. 2 Notre Dame). After deregulation (from 1984 to 1989) and with the proliferation of telecasts, USC was still in the Top 10, ranking ninth with a 6.07 average rating on 25 appearances (less than 2 points behind the leader).

Below is a list of the USC football team's appearances on live television. Listed along with the year and the opponent are the score; the network, syndicator or station that televised the contest; whether the telecast was national, regional or local; and, if available, the Nielsen rating. An asterisk (*) indicates a home game. USC was not eligible to appear on live television in the 1983 and 1985 regular seasons because of an NCAA ban.

*-USC Record

#-Excludes first 3 games +-Excludes Pomona game

Between 1888 and 1921, an estimated 500,000-plus people attended home and away USC games.

The largest single-game crowd in USC history was the estimated 120,000 at Soldier Field in Chicago for the 1927 USC-Notre Dame game. The largest USC home crowd was 104,953 for the 1947 USC-Notre Dame game in the Coliseum. The largest USC post-season bowl game crowd was 106,869 at the 1973 Rose Bowl in Pasadena (USC versus Ohio State), which is an NCAA bowl game record. In all, USC has played before at least 44,731,972 people since it first started playing football in 1888.

In 1988, USC not only set a school record for home attendance average per game (76,063, which ranked eighth best in the nation), but Troy also registered the greatest increase in average home attendance of any school in the nation that year (up 22,416 per game over 1987). That increase was 7,996 more than the next closest school.

The Coliseum seating capacity was reduced to 92,516 in 1964 (although temporary seats were added for the 1965 UCLA and 1988 Notre Dame games, hence the larger crowds then). In 1993, stadium renovation increased the Coliseum capacity to 94,159, but that figure was reduced in 1995 to 92,000. The largest crowd for a non-UCLA/non-Notre Dame game since 1964 was 86,124 for Oklahoma in 1988.

USC: PIPELINE TO THE PROS

With its outstanding football heritage, it's no surprise that USC usually has more players in the pros than any other university.

At the start of training camp this summer, there were 41 ex-Trojans on National Football League rosters, including 8 rookies. In fact, USC players were on the rosters of 20 of the NFL's 30 teams. Most of the Trojans were either offensive linemen (7) or wide receivers (7).

In 1996, there were 32 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters; only 4 universities had more players (since records are available, USC has been No. 1 in 17 of the last 21 years).

USC has had three of the most highly drafted classes in college football history. The 1953 class (following the 1952 season) had 15 players drafted while both the 1975 and 1977 classes had 14 players selected. USC has had more first round NFL draft picks (58) than any school (Notre Dame is next with 56). USC had the most picks of any school in the 1990 NFL draft, with 10. USC's 11 first round picks in the 1990s is tied for second (with Florida State) in the nation (behind Ohio State's 12). In the decade of the 1980s, Troy had more first round picks than any school (16). USC's 5 first round picks in the 1968 draft is an NFL record. Only Notre Dame (with 5) has had more players selected as the top pick of the NFL draft than USC's 4 (Ron Yary in 1968, O.J. Simpson in 1969, Ricky Bell in 1977 and Keyshawn Johnson in 1996). USC is the only school to have the No. 1 pick for 2 consecutive years (Yary and Simpson).

In a 1985 Sports Illustrated poll of NFL player personnel directors, USC was ranked first overall among all schools in preparing college players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for preparing running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

In a Dec. 1994 College Sports magazine ranking of the schools which have been the top sources over the years of football talent by position (on a combined college and NFL level), USC was listed first at running backs, offensive linemen and defensive backs, and third at linebackers.

TROJANS IN THE NFL DRAFT

Listing includes NFL drafts from 1936-1997 (which followed the 1935-1996 collegiate seasons). From 1960-1966, both the NFL and AFL had drafts and this listing includes both drafts because the AFL later merged with the NFL. (F) indicates "future selection," based on an old NFL rule prior to 1967 in which a player could be chosen if his class had graduated, even if he hadn't completed his eligibility (he could be drafted after his fourth year and his rights would remain with the team which selected him even if he didn't sign for a year). The AFL held a separate "redshirt" (or futures) draft in 1965-1966 and it is also included in this listing.

First round draft picks are listed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The "overall draft selection" figures were not available prior to 1967, however players are listed in correct order of selection in those years (except for the 1960 AFL draft, in which no round-by-round records were available). The positions listed are those projected by the pros at the time of selection.

List compiled with the assistance of Beau Riffenburgh, NFL Properties.

8	Ray George	T	Lions
12	Bob Hoffman	B	Redskins
16	Boyd Morgan	B	Redskins

(Note: Hoffman's selection was later declared void because he still had eligibility remaining. However, he was picked again by the Redskins in 1940.)

TROJAN TIDBITS

TROJAN TRIVIA

AFTER TIES--USC is 36-14-4 in games immediately following a tie. The Trojans have won the last 13 contests they have played after a tie, dating to 1968.

ARTIFICIAL TURF--USC is 9-1-1 in its last 11 games on artificial turf (the loss was to Penn State in the 1996 Kickoff Classic).

BIG TEN COMPETITION--USC has won 22 of its last 30 games (and 29 of its last 38) against Big Ten opponents. USC has twice played 3 consecutive games against Big Ten teams: Northwestern in the 1996 Rose Bowl, then Penn State and Illinois in 1996, and Indiana in the 1968 Rose Bowl, then Minnesota and Northwestern in 1968. There have been 5 times (1962-68-72-76-89) when USC has faced 3 Big Ten teams during a single season, although not consecutively.

DIAMONDS--During 1992 and 1993, USC played 4 games in a stadium with a baseball field (Troy opened 1992 in Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego, then played in Anaheim Stadium in the 1992 Freedom Bowl, 1993 Disneyland Pigskin Classic and 1993 Freedom Bowl). Before then, the last time USC played on a baseball field was in 1961, when the Coliseum was home to the Los Angeles Dodgers.

DOMES--USC is 3-0 inside domed stadiums, beating Washington State in Seattle's Kingdome in 1976, Texas A&M in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston's Astrodome, and Houston in the Astrodome in 1996.

EARLY BIRDS--USC's Aug. 25 opener in 1996 marked the earliest that Troy's season has opened in the modern era. (The earliest that USC's season has ended was Nov. 13, 1909.) USC's latest season opener was Dec. 7, 1901 and its latest home opener was Dec. 14, 1918 (USC didn't play any home games in 1900 or 1901).

GOLDEN GRIDDERS--Two football lettermen have won Olympic gold medals: Fred Kelly (1914,15,16) in the high hurdles in the 1912 Games (he is USC's first gold medalist) and Ken Carpenter (1934,37) in the discus in the 1936 Games. Although 2-time gold medalist Quincy Watts (400 meters and 1600 meter relay in the 1992 Olympics) never lettered in football, he was a receiver on the 1990 Trojans (he didn't get into a game).

GOOD BYES--USC is 71-39-4 in all regular season games it has played following byes. Since 1955, the Trojans are 32-10-1 following byes (5 of those losses and the tie were to UCLA). USC had 3 regular-season byes in 1996, the first time that had happened since 1935.

GRID/HOOPS--USC is 11-7-1 against schools that won the NCAA men's basketball title the previous year.

HOLLYWOOD TROJANS--Among the Trojan footballers who gained fame on the silver screen are: John Wayne (he played tackle in 1925-26 under his real name, Marion Morrison), Ward Bond (a 1928-30 letterman best known for his role in "Wagon Train"), Mike Henry (a tackle from 1956-58 who played Tarzan), Tim Rossovich (a 1967 All-American defensive end who has been a supporting actor in various movies), O.J. Simpson (the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner has starred in many TV and motion picture films), Anthony Davis (the 1974 All-American tailback was in various movies), Patrick Muldoon (a walk-on tight end in the mid-1980s who stars in soaps, including "Melrose Place'), Brian Turk (a lineman in the late 1980s who has appeared in various TV sitcoms and commercials), Shane Foley (the quarterback who lettered in 1989-90 has been in various TV commericals) and Nick Pappas (the ex-USC player, assistant coach and assistant athletic director doubled for Pat O'Brien as Knute Rockne in the football scenes of "Knute Rockne--All-American"). Also, Irvine "Cotton" Warburton (an All-American back in 1933) won an Oscar for film editing on "Mary Poppins," while Aaron Rosenberg (a 2-time All-American guard in 1932-33) was a well-known TV and movie producer and Jess Hibbs (a 2-time All-American tackle in 1927-28) was a prominent film and TV director. Producers Hilton Green (a team manager) and Barney Rosenzweig (a Yell Leader) also were associated with the Trojan football program .

HOMECOMING--USC has a 47-22-4 record in its Homecoming games, dating back to the first such event in 1924.

IMPROVEMENT--USC's best one-season improvement of its record was +6, as the 1962 national champion Trojans went from 4-5-1 in 1961 to 11-0.

IN FLORIDA--USC has never won a football game in Florida, going 0-3 there.

IRISH REBOUNDS--USC is 6-10-1 versus Notre Dame when Troy was coming off a loss to UCLA. The wins were in 1950-55-70-80-82-96, the losses were in 1946-51-53-54-57-59-66-84-86-92, and the tie was in 1994.

ND COACHES--USC is 4-3 in games when a Notre Dame coach was coaching the final regular-season game in his Irish career, with the Trojan wins coming in the past 4 such occasions (1996 with Lou Holtz, 1980 with Dan Devine, 1974 with Ara Parseghian and 1962 with Joe Kuharich).

NIGHT TIME--USC's first night game was on Oct. 14, 1944 against St. Mary's Pre-Flight in Fresno. The first USC night game in the Coliseum was Oct. 23, 1944 versus Washington.

NO. 1--The last time USC was ranked No. 1 in the polls (AP and UPI) was Oct. 7, 1981.

NOS. 35 AND 55--In recent years, the No. 35 jersey has been handed down to a "stereotypical" inside linebacker. The chain of succession: Riki Gray (Ellison), Rex Moore, Scott Ross, Jeff Kopp and Taso Papadakis. The No. 55 has gone to the prototype outside or inside linebacker (Junior Seau, Willie McGinest, Israel Ifeanyi, Chris Claiborne).

OFFENSIVE LINE--There have been 26 first team All-American offensive linemen from USC since 1964 and 19 Trojan offensive linemen have been first round NFL draft picks since 1968.

ONE GAME TURNAROUND--USC once had an 87-point turnaround from one game to the next. In 1985, the Trojans lost to Arizona State, 24-0, then came back the following game to defeat Oregon State, 63-0.

OPENERS--USC's record in all season openers is 74-22-8

(.750), with 35 shutout victories. In season openers at home, the Trojans are 54-15-7 (.757), while their record in season openers on the road is 20-7-1 (.732).

In conference openers, USC is 59-11-5 (.820) and Troy has won 21 of its last 26 (and 34 of its last 40). In conference openers at home, the Trojans are 35-6-3 (.830). Their mark in conference openers on the road is 24-5-2 (.806) and they've won 19 of their last 22.

The earliest USC has opened conference play since joining a league in 1922 was Sept. 3, 1994 against Washington.

USC's record for home openers is 78-17-7 (.799). In road openers, USC is 67-25-8 (.710).

Incidentally, in games immediately following USC's 29 non-winning openers, Troy is 20-6-4, including wins the past 13 times (dating to 1960).

PAC-10 WINS--In 1988, USC became the first Pac-10 team to win 8 conference games in a season.

POLYNESIANS--Among the Polynesians who have played at USC: George Achica, Pat Ah-Hing, Al Aliipule, Michael Alo, Charley Ane, Paul Green, Harold Han, Arthur Hemingway, Chris Limahelu, John Kamana, Gaylord Kuamoo, Faaesea Mailo, Junior Moi, Johnny Naumu, Sol Naumu, Kennedy Pola, Junior Seau, Mosi Tatupu, Titus Tuiasosopo, Brian Tuliau, and Junior Utu.

PRESIDENTIAL PRECEDENT--Since 1929, USC has played in the Rose Bowl during the term of every U.S. President.

PRO BASEBALL/FOOTBALL--Two Trojans have played both major league baseball and professional football. Morris "Red" Badgro played baseball with the Browns (1929-30) and football with the New York Yankess (1927), New York Giants (1930-35) and Brooklyn (1936). Rex Johnston was with Pittsburgh's baseball Pirates (1964) and football Steelers (1960).

RAIN--USC has an 18-20-2 record in games in which it rained during a major portion of the contest. USC's last such rain game was at Notre Dame in 1995 (USC lost, 38-10).

RAIN OUT--The final 2:36 of USC's 1990 win (35-26) at Ohio State was suspended by game officials when a heavy rainstorm with thunder and lightning hit.

SAME STADIUM--USC's 1992 season finale and its 1993 opener, both in Anaheim Stadium, marked the first time that Troy played 2 straight games in the same stadium (besides the Coliseum) since 1935, when it played Kamehamaha High's Alumni and the University of Hawaii in the same Honolulu location.

SEASON ENDERS--USC is 57-37-10 in all season finales.

SELLOUT--USC's last home sellout was the 1996 Notre Dame game.

SNOW--The last time USC played in snow was on Nov. 30, 1957 at Notre Dame (the Irish won, 40-12). The temperature was 20 degrees. The 1965 USC-Notre Dame game in South Bend was played in sleet and rain (the Irish won that one, too, 28-7).

STREAK BUSTERS--USC has twice "busted" an opponent's 20-plus game winning streak: beating Tennessee in the 1940 Rose Bowl to end the Volunteers' 23-game streak and tying Notre Dame in 1948 to end the Irish's 21-game streak. Conversely, USC's school-record 25-game winning streak was stopped by Oregon State in 1933.

SWC COMPETITION--USC won 10 of its last 11 games (and 18 of its last 20) against foes from the now-defunct Southwest Conference.

SUNDAY--USC has played only 2 games on a Sunday, going 0-2: the 1993 opener versus North Carolina in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic (USC lost, 31-9) and the 1996 opener against Penn State in the Kickoff Classic (USC lost, 24-7)..

3 FOR THE ROAD--1992 was the first time that USC started a season with 3 road games in a row (in 1918 Troy began with 2 on the road and 1 at a neutral site, while in 1900 USC opened with 2 at a neutral site and 1 road game).

1,000-YARD RUNNERS--USC is second behind North Carolina for most 1,000-yard runners in a season, 24-20. Troy's last rusher to break the 1,000-yard barrier was running back Delon Washington in 1995, with 1,109 yards.

TOUGH STARTS--USC's last 6 head coaches--Don Clark, John McKay, John Robinson (twice), Ted Tollner and Larry Smith--all failed to win their debut.

TRAVELOGUE--USC has played football in 31 of this country's 50 states, as well as in Japan. In order of appearance, USC has played in California, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Hawaii, Ohio, Louisiana, Maryland, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma, Florida, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, Japan, Massachusetts, and New Jersey.

TRICK OR TREAT--USC's record is 5-5 in games played on Halloween.

TURNAROUNDS--In 104 seasons of USC football, the Trojans have lost 4 or more games 30 times. But following 8 of those 4-plus loss seasons, USC "turned it around" to win the Rose Bowl the next year (1938-43-62-67-72-76-78-84).

VERSUS NO. 1--USC is 7-11 all-time versus teams ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

— L.A. MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is one of the greatest --and largest--stadiums in America. It combines the traditional and the modern into a premier athletic environment.

USC has played football in the Coliseum ever since the grand stadium was built in 1923. In fact, the Trojans played in the first football game ever held there (beating Pomona College, 23-7, on Oct. 6, 1923).

Construction on the Coliseum took less than 2 years, with ground breaking ceremonies held on Dec. 21, 1921, and work completed on May 1, 1923. Initial construction costs were $800,000.

The Coliseum was the site of the 1932 Olympic Games and hosted the opening and closing ceremonies and track events of the 1984 Olympics. Over the years, the Coliseum has been home to many sports teams besides the Trojans, including UCLA football, Los Angeles Rams and Raiders football, and Los Angeles Dodgers baseball. The Coliseum has hosted various other events, from concerts and speeches to track meets and motorcycle races.

There have been only 5 seasons--1923-24-25-95-96--that USC was the stadium's sole football tenant.

Prior to the 1993 football season, the Coliseum underwent a $15 million renovation. The Coliseum's floor was lowered 11 feet and the running track was removed to create a more intimate stadium. Fourteen new rows of seats (approximately 8,000 seats) were added down low, bringing fans closer to the playing field (the first rows of seats between the goalposts are a maximum of 54 feet from the sideline, instead of the previous 120 feet). During this renovation, the lockerrooms and public restrooms were also upgraded.

Southern California's damaging January, 1994 earthquake hit the Coliseum hard, requiring some $93 million of repairs. And, in the summer of 1995, a new $6 million press box was constructed.

The Coliseum has a present full-capacity of 92,000 seats (almost all are chair-back seats). However, for most USC games, a retractable fabric covers many seats, bringing the Coliseum's capacity to about 68,000. There are approximately 25,000 seats from goal line to goal line, including both the north and south sides.

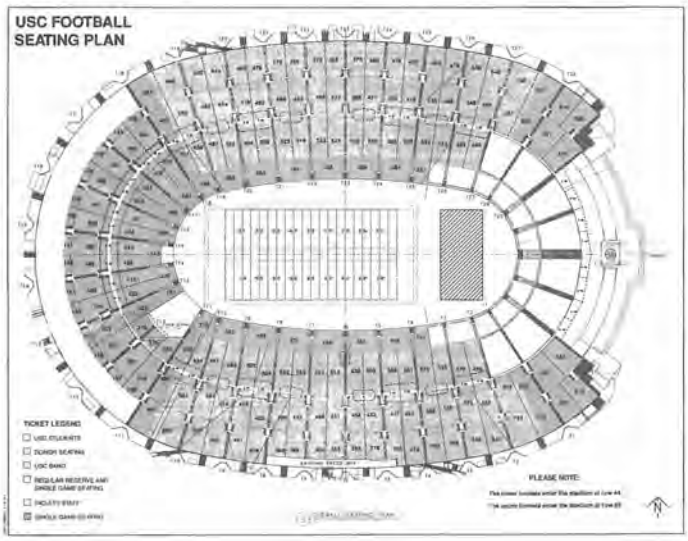
The Coliseum is located on 17 acres in Exposition Park, which also houses museums, gardens and the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

The Coliseum's general offices are located at the south side of the peristyle end and are open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on game day. The USC Game Management Office on game day only is at the north side of the peristyle end. The will call booth is located outside the fence at Gate 4. Identification is required to claim tickets left under a specific name. The booth opens three hours prior to kickoff and closes at the end of the first quarter.

The first aid station is located on the concourse opposite Stairway 6. A Goodhew ambulance is available at the Coliseum to transport cases requiring further treatment. Paramedics are stationed at Tunnels 6, 14, 29 and Stairway 23. Doctors expecting an emergency call must register their seat location at the Coliseum office. A messenger will be sent to notify doctors of emergency calls; doctors will not be paged over the public address system.

The police substation is located at Tunnel 14 and is manned by LAPD officers from the Southwest Division. There are also roaming officers and T-shirted security personnel working in and around the Coliseum.

Items that are found should be taken to the Administrative Office at the peristyle end or to the police substation at Tunnel 14. People who have lost something should check back at the Administrative Office a couple of days after the event to see if it has been found.



HERITAGE HALL

Heritage Hall, which sits in the middle of the University of Southern California campus, houses the University's athletic department and celebrates the glorious Trojan athletic heritage. USC has produced more Olympic athletes, is second in the country in national team championships, and developed the third most NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipients of any university.

Originally 48,000 square feet and built at a cost of $2.8 million, the 3-level brick and concrete colonnaded building opened in 1971. Heritage Hall was designed by Grillias, Savage and Alves of Santa Ana, Calif. Myers Brothers Construction Company, Inc., of Los Angeles was the general contractor. Initial construction began in Feb. 5, 1970. It has been expanded twice: once in 1984 (a 6,000-square foot addition to the weight room) and in 1992 (a 13,500-square foot expansion that houses the Academic Resource Center). Heritage Hall is located close to USC's various athletic practice and competition on-campus facilities.

Between the north and south wings on the building's ground level are some of USC's numerous athletic trophies, including various NCAA team championships, 4 Heisman Trophies and the jerseys of Troy's winners (Mike Garrett, O.J. Simpson, Charles White, Marcus Allen), swimmer John Naber's Sullivan Award, and a display honoring 1992 Olympic gold medalist 400-meter runner Quincy Watts. There are also busts of USC athletic directors Willis O. Hunter and Jess Hill, football coaches Howard Jones and John McKay, and track coach Dean Cromwell, as well as one of actor John Wayne (who played football at USC in the 1920s under his real name, Marion Morrison). A video display highlights USC's football history. Wall plaques acknowledge special financial contributors to the USC athletic program. The north wing houses a 200-seat auditorium and a formal lounge, while some coaches and administrators have offices in the south wing. A patio area extends outside to the west (placed in the patio floor are plaques commemorating the members of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame).

Heritage Hall's upper level is the home to many administrative and coaches' offices (located on the south "Jess Hill Wing" and north "John McKay Wing," respectively). The Honors Rail, which encircles the open-air foyer above the first floor lobby, has bronze medallions saluting every Trojan who won an Olympic gold medal, captured an NCAA individual championship, or was named a first team All-American in an NCAA sport in which there are no individual champions (i.e. football, basketball, baseball, volleyball, water polo). Also on the second floor are busts of USC football running backs Morley Drury ("The Noblest Trojan of Them All") and Ricky Bell. Like on the ground floor, tucked in alcoves on both ends of this floor are other athletic trophies and team displays.

The underground lower level of Heritage Hall houses various locker rooms, plus the equipment room, medical training room, weight room, and the Academic Resource Center (which features tutoring, counseling, study and computer rooms for USC's student-athletes).

Because of space limitations, USC's golf, swimming, water polo and women's soccer coaches are located in the nearby Kennedy Aquatics Building, while the baseball staff has offices at Dedeaux Field.

HERITAGE HALL

—TRAVELER, USC'S MASCOT—

Traveler, the beautiful white horse that appears at all USC home football games with a regal Trojan warrior astride, is one of the most famous college mascots.

Ardeshir Radpour is the current rider of Traveler, having taken over that job in 1996. Tom Nolan and Rick Oas, both USC alums, shared riding duties in 1991 and Nolan took over full-time in 1992 through 1995 (Nolan actually was a substitute rider as early as 1977, while Oas started riding occasionally in 1989). In the 1987 and 1988 seasons, Cass Dabbs, a USC student, shared the riding duties with the late Richard Saukko, Traveler's long-time rider. Saukko, who passed away in March of 1992, rode Traveler from 1961 through 1988 (he missed the 1979 season while recuperating from a back injury).

Saukko was spotted riding in the 1961 Rose Parade by Bob Jani, then USC's director of special events. Jani persuaded Saukko to ride his white horse around the Coliseum during USC games, serving as a mascot. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum.

Saukko started off with Traveler I, half-Arabian, half-Tennessee Walker, and rode him until the end of the 1966 season. Traveler I, who appeared in movies with the late actor Leo Carillo and whose brother was the Lone Ranger's Silver, died in 1975 at 33 years of age. Traveler II, a Tennessee Walker (now deceased), took over until retiring in the mid-1970s with a leg injury. Traveler III (also now deceased), a 1,000-pound, 15 1/2 hand-high Arabian who was a professional show horse, was the next horse used. The current Trojan mascot is Traveler IV, Traveler III's 17-year-old Arabian son who was used frequently in 1988 before taking over fulltime in 1989 (the mother of Traveler IV and the daughter of Traveler III are also used on occasion).

Saukko first appeared on Traveler in the outfit that actor Charlton Heston wore in "Ben Hur." That proved to be too cumbersome, so Saukko crafted his own leather costume in 1962, modeled after the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus. But he still sometimes wore Heston's helmet. Interestingly, Saukko was once employed by Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Legend has it that Heisman Trophy tailback O.J. Simpson decided to come to USC after seeing Traveler on a televised football game. And Trojan faithful swear the horse has an effect on the outcome of games.

"(Former USC coach) John McKay didn't want to admit that the horse had anything to do with his success," said Saukko, "but he'd always give me a wink when he saw me waiting in the Coliseum tunnel."

Added former USC All-American defensive back and assistant coach Nate Shaw: "The horse is one of the greatest inspirational devices USC has. It definitely got the adrenaline going when I was playing and I think it still has an effect on the players. When I was coaching against USC (at Oregon State), we hated to see that horse come down the tunnel because it got USC a little more pumped up."

Traveler not only appears at Trojan home football games (and even at some away games, including the 1995 Cotton Bowl in Dallas, the farthest Traveler has traveled), but also at other Trojan events, as well as at grade schools, charity functions and parades (including the past 36 Rose Parades). Traveler has also appeared on screen (including "The Battle of the Gunfighter" and "Snowfire"), on stage (including in the Long Beach Ballet's "Nutcracker Ballet"), and in commercials.

Incidentally, Traveler I was not the first equine mascot for Troy. The first appearance of a white horse at a Trojan football game occurred as early as 1927, when Louis Shields began a four-year stint aboard a horse owned by a local banker. In 1948, band director Tommy Walker once had USC colors carried by a Trojan on a palomino. Then, before kickoff of the 1954 USC-Pittsburgh game, Arthur J. Gontier III, then a member of the Trojan Knights spirit group, rode a rented gray/white horse while donning a costume once worn by actor Jeff Chandler. Bob Caswell and his white horse, Rockazar, took over the following game and performed until retiring in the late 1950s. Another rider took over until Saukko began in 1961.

Besides these horses, USC once even had a canine mascot. A mutt named George Tirebiter I (famous for chasing cars through the USC campus) first appeared at football games in 1940. He survived a publicized dognapping by UCLA in 1947, but succumbed under the tires of an automobile in 1950. He was succeeded by George II for 3 years, then George III for 5 years and finally George IV.

TROJAN TRADITIONS

TOMMY TROJAN

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert. "Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

ORIGIN OF USC'S NICKNAME--TROJANS

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

COLORS: CARDINAL AND GOLD

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC's official colors.

SUPER FAN!

Giles Pellerin missed USC's 12-0 win over St. Mary's at the conclusion of the 1925 football season. That was the last Trojan game that he has missed.

There are devoted college sports fans and then there is Pellerin.

Known as USC's "Super Fan," the 90-year-old retired phone company executive from Pasadena, Calif., is not only the Trojans' most loyal football fan, but he might be the most rabid college football fan ever!

At the end of the 1996 season, Pellerin has viewed in person 775 consecutive USC football games, home and away. In all, he has traveled by plane, train and automobile more than 650,000 miles and spent upwards of $85,000 doing so.

"I never played the game, but I love it," he said. "There's just a certain spirit about college football. I've always said that going to USC games is the thing that has kept me alive, young and happy. It keeps me alive looking forward to the next season.

"I don't think I'm a nut. It's all been fun. I could've spent a lot more money on other hobbies. A guy can spend as much money playing golf or poker. Some people think I'm crazy for spending as much money as I have traveling to see these games. They don't understand that I do more than just watch a game when I visit these cities. I've met a lot of nice and interesting people on these trips."

His streak began at the start of the 1926 season, his sophomore year at USC. Coach Howard Jones' Trojans won that opener, 74-0 over Whittier, and since then, USC has compiled a 493-205-39 record. Pellerin has seen every USC-Notre Dame game (68 in all) and USC-UCLA game (all 66) ever played. He has watched Troy play in nearly 75 different stadiums and been to more than 50 cities (even Tokyo) doing so. He has viewed all eight of USC's national championship squads and all 120 of USC's first team All-Americans (including the four Heisman Trophy winners), plus he has seen 10 Trojan coaching regimes. His streak began before USC's famous white horse mascot, Traveler, first appeared at Trojan games (in 1927) and before the on-campus Tommy Trojan statue was built (in 1930).

"The players all greet me as the No. 1 Trojan," he said. "We (he and his late wife, Jessie) had no children of our own, so I think of all the USC players as our family."

Interestingly, the first USC football game Pellerin ever saw pre-dated the start of his streak. It was the 1923 Rose Bowl when, while he was a student at Huntington Park (Calif.) High, USC beat Penn State, 14-3. That means he also has seen all 28 Trojan Rose Bowls (and nine of Troy's 10 other bowl appearances, missing only the 1924 Christmas Festival).

So dedicated is Pellerin that he pushed back his honeymoon eight months so that he could celebrate it at a 1935 USC game in Hawaii. And his love for USC is so strong that he has donated $1.3 million to endow three football scholarships and a swimming scholarship.

"I've had so much pleasure following the Trojans all this time that that's the least I can do to help repay them," he said. "My whole life has been USC football and I've loved every minute of it."

Giles has come close to missing a game or two, including in 1993. But Trojan fate stepped in. Pellerin was about to leave his hotel the day after the 1993 Penn State road game when he suffered a ruptured aortic abdominal aneurysm. He was hospitalized in a Harrisburg (Pa.) hospital for 12 days, but fortunately USC had a bye that following week and after signing a waiver releasing hospital officials from any liability he was released in time for USC's next game, at home against Washington State. His streak was intact, with two days to spare!

"God must be a Trojan," Pellerin said. "I've been lucky."

Another near miss came in 1949 when he was hospitalized five days before a home contest for an emergency operation to remove his appendix. On game day, he told the nurses he was going out for a walk on the hospital grounds. Instead, he went to the Coliseum and returned to his bed several hours after USC dumped Oregon, 40-13. The nurses were none the wiser!

He also has survived a blown water pump outside Oklahoma City 36 hours before kickoff while driving to South Bend for a Notre Dame game and several instances of lost tickets. He also defied doctors orders to stay bedridden for six weeks following stomach tumor surgery a couple of weeks before USC's 1969 opener.

Football isn't Pellerin's only cardinal-and-gold passion. He attends many home games of USC's other 19 sports, including almost every home men's basketball game.

Pellerin's next goal is to hit 800 football games in a row, which should occur early in the 1999 season.

"Sure, I could sit in my rocking chair and grow old," he said. "But I don't intend to do that. You've got to have something to look forward to."

In 1996, he won the first annual Sears DieHard Fan Award as "America's NCAA Division I DieHard College Sports Fan." In 1994, Pellerin was inducted into the USC Athletic Hall of Fame. And in 1988, he was named a finalist in the Fisher Nut "America's Nuttiest Sports Nuts" Contest (he was flown to New York City for the festivities).

He is constantly interviewed by sportswriters (recent stories about his exploits have appeared in USA Today and Sports Illustrated) and featured on USC's nationally-televised game broadcasts. He speaks to various service groups, like Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, about his streak.

Giles isn't alone in his pursuit. Brother Oliver, 86, of Palm Springs, Calif., hasn't missed a USC game since 1945. That's 578 in a row. Another brother, Max, 84, also of Palm Springs, Calif., had a 300-plus string interrupted when he was sent overseas to work.

RIVALRY TROPHIES

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game, perhaps America's greatest crosstown rivalry, is given year-long possession of the Victory Bell.

The 295-pound bell originally clanged from atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For 2 seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of UCLA's 1941 football season, 6 members of USC's Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity infiltrated the UCLA rooting section. After the game, they helped Bruin students load the bell onto a waiting truck bound for Westwood. But then, one Trojan quietly removed the key to the truck, and while the Bruins went to get a replacement, the Trojans drove off with the bell.

The bell remained hidden for more than a year, first in the fraternity's basement, then in the Hollywood Hills, Santa Ana and other locations. At one point, it was even concealed beneath a haystack. Bruin students tried to locate the bell, but to no avail.

The controversy died down for a while, until a picture of the bell was printed in "The Wampus," a USC magazine. This reignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue at USC and then Trojan students burned USC initials on UCLA lawns. Police had to be called several times. The conflict got so out of hand that Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, then USC's president, threatened to cancel the USC-UCLA game if any further disorders occurred.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both schools--USC's Bill McKay and UCLA's Bill Farrer--signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the Trojan-Bruin gridiron clash would keep the bell for the following year. In the case of a tie, the bell would be retained by the school that won the previous year's game. The USC Alumni Association later repaid the UCLA Alumni Association for half the cost of the bell.

At the time, the arrangement might have seemed like a bad deal for the Bruins, since they had yet to defeat USC. But that first year, 1942, UCLA beat USC, 14-7.

Since the bell became a trophy, its carriage has been painted cardinal 29 times while in USC's possession and blue 25 times while in UCLA's hold (there have been 4 ties).

Although the Victory Bell is one of college football's most famous trophies, it is probably the least seen. For all but 2 days of the year, the bell sits in a warehouse or a vault. The universities only display the bell during the first 3 quarters of the USC-UCLA game and on the Monday following the game, when it is delivered to the winning school's campus. Then the Victory Bell, which gained its reputation from being hidden, goes back into hiding.

SHILLELAGH

A jeweled shillelagh is passed between the annual winner of the USC-Notre Dame game, perhaps the finest intersectional rivalry in college football.

A shillelagh (pronounced "shuh-LAY-lee") is a Gaelic war club made of oak or blackthorn saplings from Ireland. Those are the only woods used because, it is said, they are the only ones tougher than an Irish skull.

The foot-long shillelagh has ruby-adorned Trojan heads with the year and game score representing USC victories, while emerald-studded shamrocks stand for Notre Dame wins. For tie games, a combined Trojan head/shamrock medallion is used. On the end of the club is engraved, "From the Emerald Isle." The victor of the Trojan-Irish game gains year-long possession of the trophy.

Upon its initial presentation in 1952 by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, it was said that "this shillelagh will serve to symbolize in part the high tradition, the keen rivalry and above all the sincere respect which these two great universities have for each other."

The original shillelagh was flown from Ireland by Howard Hughes' pilot, according to legend. It was devised by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, based on a suggestion by Vern Rickard. John Groen designed it. Although the shillelagh was introduced in 1952, the medallions go back to the start of the series in 1926.

When the original shillelagh ran out of space for the Trojan heads and shamrocks after the 1989 game, it was retired and is permanently displayed at Notre Dame.

A new shillelagh--slightly longer than the original--was commissioned by Jim Gillis, a former baseball player at both USC and Notre Dame and a one-time president of the Notre Dame Club of Los Angeles, and handcrafted in 1997 in County Leitrum, Ireland. It contains medallions beginning with the 1990 game.

There are now 39 shamrocks, 24 Trojan heads and 5 combined medallions on the shillelaghs.

SHILLELAGH II

TROJAN MARCHING BAND

The Trojan Marching Band--known as "The Spirit of Troy" --is perhaps the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of the most visible public relations tools of the University.

Established in 1880, the band has played for 10 Presidents (including Ronald Reagan, just prior to his 1984 inauguration), and has appeared in 5 movies (including "Hello Dolly"), plus numerous commercials and television shows (including the 1978 Academy Awards). The band even recorded the title track of the rock group Fleetwood Mac's popular 1979 album, "Tusk," and has produced several records of its own music (featuring the well-known "Conquest" and "Fight On").

Among the many famous musicians who have played in the band was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (he was in the cornet section). And among the various guest artists who have appeared with the band were Henry Mancini, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, John Wayne, and Bozo the Clown (Larry Harmon).

The band marches upwards of 80 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting almost every USC athletic team. A typical football halftime show by the band (with precision drills, special musical charts and dance routines) takes more than 4,000 work hours to prepare. The band also frequently appears at many professional sporting events throughout Southern California. Approximately 11 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance.

Now 270-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1969 (he is assisted by arranger Tony Fox). A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary "drive-it" style of marching.

Nationally-renowned, Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (125 bandsmen were from USC) which played in the opening and closing ceremonies at the Games. Interestingly, it was the second time a Trojan musical group was involved with the Olympics, as the USC band formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games.

Bartner was also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directs the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. In the summer of 1986, he and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In the spring of 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country's bicentennial and at World Expo 88.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags), plus the famous USC Song Leaders and Yell Leaders.

TOMMY WALKER

The trumpet "Charge," heard often at athletic contests, was composed by a post-World War II USC student named Tommy Walker. As a member of the Trojan Marching Band, he was known as "Tommy Trojan," and as a USC football player, he would shed his band uniform, come down from the stands, and kick extra points (he lettered in 1947). Upon graduation in 1948, he was hired as the band's director. He later was the first entertainment director at Disneyland and then went into business as one of the world's leading creators of show business spectacles (including Super Bowl halftimes and Olympic opening and closing ceremonies). He died in 1986.

SCHOOL SONGS

"FIGHT ON"

Fight On for ol' SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear, looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol' SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

The music for USC's fight song, "Fight On, " was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, "Fight On" blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

"ALL HAIL"

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy's longtime sports information director (1928-1942). He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show.

"CONQUEST"

USC's other famous song is the regal processional march, "Conquest," by Alfred Newman.

USC'S ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC has a proud athletic heritage--and with good reason. Consider:

--Trojan teams have won more national championships, 76 men's (including a national-best 68 NCAA titles) and 14 women's, than any other university but UCLA;

--the Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85);

--USC has won the National College All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times since its inception in 1971;

--Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (275) than those from any other school in the nation (the Women of Troy have brought home another 22 individual NCAA crowns);

--Troy has also established a stellar reputation and a long tradition of nurturing Olympic athletes. Since 1904, 302 Trojan athletes (more than any other university) have competed in the Games, taking home 95 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics since 1912), 56 silver and 48 bronze.

--3 Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O'Brien (1959) and swimmer John Naber (1977).

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 47 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, third among all schools. In addition, USC has had 26 first team Academic All-Americans and 3 athletes who were Rhodes Scholars.

Here's a closer look at the history of each of the 19 sports which USC offers on the intercollegiate level:

FOOTBALL--Since starting football in 1888, USC has amassed an impressive all-time won-loss record of 653-265-54 (a .700 winning percentage).

USC's record against Pac-10 opponents is a stellar 334-130-29 (.712). Since 1959, the Trojans have won the conference championship 14 times and tied for the title on 5 other occasions.

USC has the nation's fourth best bowl winning percentage among the 51 schools which have made at least 10 bowl appearances (.658) and its 28 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy's overall bowl mark is 25-13, including 20-8 in the Pasadena New Year's Day Classic. The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC's tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, immediately comes to mind. Four Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player: Mike Garrett in 1965, O.J. Simpson in 1968, Charles White in 1979 and Marcus Allen in 1981. Other standout tailbacks have included Clarence Davis, Anthony Davis and Ricky Bell.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the Outland Trophy in 1967, offensive guard Brad Budde won the Lombardi Award in 1979, and safety Mark Carrier won the Thorpe Award in 1989. USC players have been named first team All-American 120 times, with 39 of those consensus selections and 21 unanimous choices.

Many of those players have led USC to 8 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 3 of those titles (1928-31-32). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured 1 title (1978) in his first tenure, returned to Troy in 1993 and has led USC to 3 bowl wins.

Scores of Trojans have gone on to successful NFL careers (there have been 60 first round picks, with 4 No. 1 selections), including such greats as Frank Gifford, Willie Wood, Pete Beathard, Rod Sherman, Lynn Swann, Anthony Munoz, Ronnie Lott and Junior Seau.

BASEBALL--No school in the country can match the long tradition USC has in baseball. With 11 national championships in the sport, Troy is far and away the leader in that category (no other school has more than 5).

Since starting baseball in 1924, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,958-927-15 (.678) against college opponents, and have captured outright or tied for 36 conference championships.

The incomparable Rod Dedeaux coached USC from 1942-86, leading the school to each of its NCAA crowns, including 5 straight from 1970-74 (no other school has strung together more than two in a row).

Trojans have been named first team All-American 36 times, with Jay Roundy, Pat Harrison and Bill Bordley being 2-time selections.

USC boasts many successful past and present major leaguers such as Ron Fairly, Don Buford, Tom Seaver, Dave Kingman, Fred Lynn, Roy Smalley, Steve Kemp, Mark McGwire, Randy Johnson and Bret Boone. In all, more than 70 Trojans have gone on to play in the major leagues and scores more in the minors.

Dedeaux compiled a 45-year record of 1,332-571-11 (.699) versus college foes, making him the then-winningest coach in collegiate baseball history. He resigned after the 1986 season to become USC's director of baseball and was replaced by Mike Gillespie, whose 1995 squad was the runnerup at the College World Series (his 1988, 1989, 1990, 1991, 1993, 1994, 1996 and 1997 teams were NCAA regional participants).

MEN'S BASKETBALL-- Only about 4 dozen schools have more than 1,000 victories in college basketball, and USC is one of those schools. Since starting basketball in 1907, the Trojans have compiled a record of 1,245-886 (.584), winning 14 conference championships along the way.

Bill Sharman, John Rudometkin, John Block, Paul Westphal, Gus Williams and Harold Miner are a few of USC's All-American selections. Overall, Trojans have earned All-American honors 21 times. Three Trojans, Sharman, Jack Gardner and coach Sam Barry, are in the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

Barry (1930-41, 1945-50) has the winningest record among USC basketball coaches, 260-138 (.653). Following him are Forrest Twogood (1951-66) at 255-180 (.586) and Bob Boyd (1967-79) at 216-131 (.622). George Raveling, an assistant coach for the 1984 and 1988 U.S. Olympic teams, took over the coaching helm in 1986-87 and led Troy into the post-season playoffs 4 times. Henry Bibby was named head coach midway through the 1996 season and led the Trojans into the NCAA tourney in 1997.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL-- After improving steadily, USC first reached the pinnacle of success in women's basketball in 1983 and the Trojans have been at or near the top almost ever since, winning 2 national championships and playing in 4 Final Fours.

USC's team became established when Linda Sharp took over as coach in 1977. By 1981, Troy had reached the Final Four. In 1983, Cheryl Miller joined Pam and Paula McGee to give the Trojans a formidable front line that led the squad to its first national championship. The next year, the team won the national title again. USC advanced to the NCAA title game in 1986.

Miller finished her career in 1986 as the Trojans' all-time leading scorer and rebounder. She also won her third straight Naismith Award as the outstanding player in college basketball. She returned as coach of her alma mater in 1994 and led USC to a Pac-10 title and 2 NCAA playoff appearances. She was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1995. Chris Gobrecht, a former USC player and a 2-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year while at Washington, took over as coach for the 1997-98 season.

The Women of Troy made the NCAA tourney 6 of the past 7 years, including advancing to the regionals 3 of the last 6 seasons. Lisa Leslie, who became an Olympic and pro star, won the Naismith Award in 1994.

MEN'S GOLF--USC has one of the most successful golf programs in the nation, having produced 3 NCAA individual champions (Scott Simpson in 1976 and 1977, and Ron Commans in 1981) and numerous players who have gone on to successful professional careers, including $1 million winners like Al "Mr. 59" Geiberger, Dave Stockton, Craig Stadler and Scott Simpson. Troy has also been dominant in the Pac-10, winning 15 of the 38 conference championships to date.

Legendary coach Stan Wood (1955-79) compiled a career record of 462-37 (.926) and won 14 conference championships. He also guided the Trojans to an NCAA record 51 consecutive dual match wins from 1956-59. His teams finished third in the NCAA tourney 6 times.

Under coach Randy Lein (1984-92), USC continued its success, winning the conference championship in 1986. The 1991 Trojans finished seventh at the NCAAs. Sam Randolph, who finished as low amateur at the prestigious Masters golf tournament in 1985 and 1986, was a first team All-American for the third straight year in 1986 and was named college golf's Player of the Year.

Former team captain Jim Empey took over the coaching duties in 1993. Kurt Schuette became head coach in 1995 and guided the Trojans to an impressive fifth place finish at the NCAA tourney, Troy's best placing in 18 years, and then ninth in 1996 and 14th in 1997.

WOMEN'S GOLF--The USC women's golf team is one of college's finest, as witnessed by their second, third, fourth, fifth and ninth place finishes at the NCAA Championships in the past 12 years. The Women of Troy won the Pac-10 tourney in 1989. Former Trojan player Renee (Mack) Baumgartner returned as head coach in 1994 and led USC to second place at the NCAAs in her first year. Andrea Gaston took over for 1997 (with men's coach Kurt Schuette serving as Director of Golf).

Top individuals have included current professionals Marta Figueras-Dotti, Denise Strebig and Jill McGill.

WOMEN'S ROWING--The women's crew team, under head coach George Jenkins, has varsity and novice eight teams that train all year long for regattas such as San Pedro's Head of the Harbor race and the Pacific Coast Rowing Championships.

WOMEN'S SOCCER--The women's soccer team began competing in 1993. Karen Stanley coached the team for the first 3 seasons. Jim Millinder took over in 1996 and guided the squad to a 15-5 mark.

MEN'S SWIMMING--The type of dominance USC has had in this sport was best exemplified by Troy's performance in the 1976 Olympic Games, when Trojan swimmers won more golds and more total medals than any country except the United States.

Over the years, USC swimmers have made Olympic teams 100 times, winning 33 gold, 19 silver and 15 bronze medals. Gold medal winners have included John Naber, Bruce Furniss and Murray Rose.

Since beginning swimming in 1929, the Trojans have captured 9 NCAA championships, all under coach Peter Daland, who retired in 1992 after 35 years at Troy. USC swimmers and divers have won 99 NCAA meet individual and relay titles and have earned All-American honors an amazing 495 times. Under Daland, USC won 17 Pac-10 championships and amassed an impressive dual meet record of 318-31-1 (.917). Three of his last 6 squads had runner-up finishes at the NCAA meet.

Four-time U.S. Olympic coach Mark Schubert, winner of 2 NCAA titles with the Texas women, succeeded Daland. He also serves as the head coach of the Women of Troy. His men's teams have placed sixth (twice), seventh and 10th at the NCAAs.

WOMEN'S SWIMMING--USC has likewise built a successful swimming program on the women's side. In fact, the Women of Troy have finished in the top 10 nationally 16 of the last 21 years--including winning the NCAA title in 1997--and have produced 169 All-Americans in that span. They have won conference championships in 1979, 1980, 1982 and 1985.

Among USC's more famous women's swimmers are Michelle Ford, Sue Habernigg, Cynthia Woodhead, Sue Hinderaker, Debbie Rudd, Kristine Quance (she won 3 events at the 1994 NCAA meet as the Women of Troy placed sixth, 3 more to be the high point scorer at the 1996 meet as USC finished fifthand 2 at the 1997 meet), and current star Lindsay Benko (who won 2 events in 1996 and 2 more in 1997).

MEN'S TENNIS--USC's men's tennis legacy has produced numerous national titlists, including 15 team champions (tied for most in the country), 13 singles champions (second most in the country), and 20 doubles champs (more than any other school). Cecil Mamiit won the 1996 NCAA singles crown as a freshman.

George Toley (1954-80) guided the Trojan netters for 26 years before resigning during the 1980 season. His career record was 430-92-4 (.821) with 10 NCAA titles. Dick Leach succeeded Toley and has posted a 468-97 (.828) mark in 18 years. His 1991, 1993 and 1994 teams won the NCAA tourney and 8 of his other teams have finished fourth or better.

Overall, USC players have been named to All-American teams 124 times, with a number of those players also enjoying successful pro careers, including Stan Smith, Bob Lutz, Raul Ramirez and Dennis Ralston.

WOMEN'S TENNIS-- The most successful women's program at USC, in terms of national titles, is the tennis team. The Women of Troy have won 7 national championships.

Those national crowns all came under Dave Borelli, who coached USC from 1974 to 1988. In duals, Borelli's record was phenomenal: his teams went 300-43 (.875).

Five times Trojans have won national singles titles, along with 1 doubles champ and 60 All-Americans. Prominent USC stars have included Barbara Hallquist, Leslie Allen, Sheila McInerney, Stacy Margolin, Trey Lewis, the Fernandez sisters, Kelly Henry, Beth Herr, Caroline Kuhlman and Trisha Laux.

Cheryl Woods, a former Trojan player, took over for Borelli in 1989. Richard Gallien, a successful player and coach at Pepperdine, became head coach in 1996.

MEN'S TRACK--The Trojans have won an unprecedented 26 NCAA titles (including 9 straight, 1935-43) in the 76-year history of NCAA outdoor track, plus 2 indoor NCAA titles and 31 Pacific Coast or Pac-10 crowns, including a string of 15 straight (1936-55). They have had 38 unbeaten and untied seasons, including a string of 16 in a row (1946-61). Since starting track and field in 1900, USC has compiled a dual-meet record of 388-106-4 (.783).

Outstanding coaches include Dean Cromwell (1909-48), who won a record 12 NCAA titles and had a dual meet mark of 109-48-1; Jess Mortensen, who never lost a dual meet (64-0) in 11 years and won 7 NCAA titles; and Vern Wolfe, who retired after the 1984 season with 7 national titles and a dual meet record of 106-17-1 (.859). Jim Bush, who won 5 NCAA titles while at crosstown rival UCLA, became USC's head coach in 1991. His 1992 Trojans finished third at the NCAAs with only a 6-man team.

Ron Allice, who won 11 state titles at Long Beach City College, took over the combined men's and women's programs in 1995 (the men were fourth at the 1995 NCAA meet, 10th in 1996 and third in 1997 while winning the Pac-10 title).

Fifty-nine USC tracksters have won 85 places on U.S. Olympic teams over the years. Trojans have won 25 individual Olympic titles and shared in 8 relay wins. Gold medal winners include long jumper Randy Williams, pole vaulter Bob Seagren, sprinter Charles Paddock and quartermiler Quincy Watts.

Since 1912, 61 USC trackmen have equalled or bettered world records, and there have been 104 NCAA individual or relay winners from Troy (including 1993, 1994, 1995 and 1996 NCAA champion Balazs Kiss in the hammer throw, only the fifth collegian to win 4 consecutive NCAA titles, and 1997 hammer throw champ Bengt Johansson).

The Trojans also have had a long history of successful distance running, including 9 Olympians and NCAA champions Julio Marin and Ole Oleson.

WOMEN'S TRACK, CROSS COUNTRY--The women's track program at USC has developed into one of the nation's finest. The Trojans have placed in the Top 10 of the NCAA Championships 5 times, including third in 1987. The 1996 squad won the Pac-10 title and placed seventh at the NCAAs.

The women's track and field heritage begins with Sherry Calvert, the former head coach. Calvert, a 4-time All-American javelin thrower at USC who participated in the 1972 and 1976 Olympics, started the program as an undergraduate and coached through 1983. Fred LaPlante succeeded her from 1984 through 1988. Barbara Edmondson was coach in 1992 through 1994. In 1995, Ron Allice took over as the combined men's and women's coach.

Troy has had many other successful track and field athletes. Patty Van Wolvelaere won a pair of national titles in the 100-meter hurdles. Kerry Bell was an All-American heptathlete for 3 years. 1988 NCAA heptathlon champion Wendy Brown and Yvette Bates set world bests in the triple jump during their USC careers. Ashley Selman won the 1990 NCAA javelin title.

The Women of Troy also compete in cross country in the fall under coach Tom Walsh.

MEN'S VOLLEYBALL--Final Four appearances have become commonplace for the USC men's volleyball team, which has made 11 trips there since scholarships were first awarded by Troy in the sport in 1977. The Trojans have won 4 NCAA titles (1977, 1980, 1988 and 1990) and have finished second on 6 other occasions (1979-81-85-86-87-91).

Ernie Hix, who retired as head coach after the 1981 season, turned USC into one of the top volleyball powers in the nation. Hix's 8-year record was an impressive 146-47 (.756) with 2 national crowns.

Twenty Trojans have played on the U.S. National team and 25 times USC volleyballers have been named first team All-Americans. In the 1984 Olympics, Steve Timmons, Dusty Dvorak and Pat Powers all helped lead the United States to its first gold medal ever in the sport, while Timmons repeated with the 1988 U.S. squad. Timmons, Bryan Ivie, Nick Becker and Dan Greenbaum won bronze medals with the U.S. in 1992. Tim Hovland, Celso Kalache, Adam Johnson and former coach Bob Yoder (a 3-time All-American who led Troy to an NCAA title in 1988) also are key figures in USC's volleyball heritage. Jim McLaughlin took over for Yoder in 1990 and led Troy to an NCAA title in his initial year. Powers became head coach for 1997.

WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL--USC has won 4 national crowns in women's volleyball, all under coach Chuck Erbe. Erbe, who dominated the sport during his 12-year USC coaching tenure which began in 1976, posted a career record of 310-121-3 (.718). He coached the 1976, 1977 and 1980 AIAW champions and the 1981 NCAA titlists. His 1976 team registered the first perfect season (38-0) in women's volleyball history.

Lisa Love, who coached at Texas-Arlington for 7 years, took over for Erbe in 1989 and has guided USC into the NCAAs in 7 of her 8 seasons.

In 1978, Debbie Green won the prestigious Broderick Award in volleyball. Some 30 Trojans have been named All-American and 11 have been members of the U.S. National team (including Green, Sue Woodstra, Paula Weishoff, Carolyn Becker, Kim Ruddins and Megan McCallister).

MEN'S WATER POLO--Since starting water polo in 1922, the Trojans have compiled a 788-448-7 (.637) record, winning 11 conference championships along the way.

Current coach John Williams has led the Trojans to national prominence since taking over the program in 1973. Seventeen of his last 20 teams have finished the season in the top 7 nationally, including the 1987, 1993, 1994 and 1996squads which placed second in the NCAA tourney.

Sixteen Trojan poloists have participated in the Olympics and 100 have made various All-American teams. Some of the more prominent names in USC water polo history are Ron Severa, Wally Wolf, Greg Fults, Zach Stimson, Craig Furniss, Charles Harris, Robert Lynn, Drew Netherton, Hrvoje Cizmic and Marko Zagar.

WOMEN'S WATER POLO--USC's newest sport, the women's water polo team began play in 1995 under head coach Jovan Vavic. The Women of Troy were third in the 1995 Division II tourney and seventh in the 1997 national championship.

USC'S NATIONAL TITLES

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 68-- more than any other university. And the football team has been voted national champions 8 times.

USC has won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship--an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs--6 times (1971-72-74-75-77-80) since its inception in 1971.

USC's women are also a force, with 14 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77).

TROJANS STAR IN CLASSROOM

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only are second in the nation in the number of national team championships (76 by the men and 14 by the women), but rank third (behind Air Force and Nebraska) in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (47, including 20 football players).

Also, USC athletics has had 3 Rhodes Scholars (quarterback Pat Haden, swimmer Desmond Koh and trackster James O'Toole), 26 first team Academic All-Americans (including 22 footballers, tops among Pac-10 schools and tied for fourth best in the nation), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top Six scholar award, 11 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 4 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell), a NCAA Women's Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Laura Servis), and a USC co-valedictorian (water poloist Craig Furniss). In 1987, Haden was inducted into the charter 6-member class of the GTE Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1990 and volleyballer Katie Haller won the women's award in 1994). Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990, and Jeremy Hogue and Matt Keneley were a 1996 and 1997 NACDA Preseason Games Scholar-Athletes, respectively (Keneley also received a NACDA Foundation Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1997).

The Nov. 1994 issue of The Sporting News examined the relative academic strength of the nation's top 25 football teams and found USC's players ranked second in high school GPA, sixth in SAT scores and third in ACT scores.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR MIKE GARRETT

Michael L. Garrett, so much a part of USC's unparalleled athletic tradition, was named the school's sixth-ever athletic director in January of 1993.

Garrett, Troy's 1965 Heisman Trophy-winning tailback who has a background in business, law, government, athletic administration, and community affairs, oversees the 19 men's and women's teams and the accompanying $23 million budget that make up the nation's most successful athletic program.

During his tenure, USC has won 3 NCAA titles (in men's tennis in 1993 and 1994 and in women's swimming in 1997).

Garrett, 53, succeeded Mike McGee, who became the athletic director at South Carolina after 9 years at USC.

Garrett became the seventh African-American athletic director at a major Division I-A institution.

Garrett had served as USC's associate athletic director since December of 1990. In that role, he was responsible for the athletic department's budget, personnel, contract compliance and corporate sponsorships. He also handled day-to-day supervision of 5 men's sports--volleyball, golf, tennis, swimming and water polo.

Prior to joining the USC staff, he was director of business development for the Great Western Forum (1988-90), including its highly-successful boxing program.

Earlier in his career, he worked for the San Diego district attorney's office and as a youth counselor, held management positions in the retail, construction and real estate industries, did color commentary on USC football telecasts, and ran for Congress (1982) and San Diego City Council (1983).

Garrett has been involved in community affairs since his days at USC. While in college, he helped found the Cool-Head Program, an organization that met with youth groups to try to offset racial tensions in Los Angeles, and volunteered at the MacLaren Children's Center, a home for abused children. Later, he founded San Diego's Harambee House, a community-based institution for juvenile delinquents.

He helped establish the East Los Angeles Youth Activities Foundation in 1989, a community-based group that ran boxing/educational clubs as a gang-intervention program. The program (now called the Mike Garrett Foundation), funded in part by a grant from the Amateur Athletic Foundation, continues to grow with additional sports and services, and now serves the entire Boyle Heights and Lincoln Heights areas of East Los Angeles.

In 1996, he received the Boys and Girls Clubs of Pasadena's "Youth Partnership Award."

Born April 12, 1944 in East Los Angeles, Garrett was a prep All-American at that neighborhood's Roosevelt High.

As a student at USC, Garrett set the standard for the modern-era "I" formation Trojan tailbacks. He was a 2-time All-American (1964-65) who set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his 3-year career, including a then-NCAA career rushing mark of 3,221 yards and a then-USC season mark of 1,440 yards in 1965. He was the first Trojan since 1927 to run for 1,000 yards in a season.

A versatile athlete, he also started at cornerback for the Trojans and was an All-League outfielder for USC's baseball team (he hit .309 in 1965 and was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates and Los Angeles Dodgers).

Garrett played 8 seasons (1966-73) in the NFL with the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers, becoming the first player to rush for 1,000 yards for 2 teams. An All-Pro, he played in Super Bowls I and IV.

Garrett was inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame in 1985 and won the NCAA's prestigious Silver Anniversary Award in 1990. He was a charter member of USC's Athletic Hall of Fame, which he founded in 1994.

Garrett graduated from USC in 1967 with a bachelor's degree in sociology and earned a law degree from Western State University College of Law in Fullerton, Calif., in 1986.

Laura Moore serves as Garrett's executive assistant.

John McKay	1972-75

Note: Records are unclear prior to Hunter's tenure. One reference source listed William Clay as "athletic manager" in 1909 and cited him as USC's first A.D. Another source listed Elmer Henderson as football coach and athletic director from 1919 to 1924. Still another source said "graduate managers" were akin to athletic directors and listed Warren Bovard, Henry Bruce, Gwynn Wilson (1921-30) and Arnold Eddy (1930 and on) in that role (that source also claimed Eddy was athletic director in 1941-44).

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT STEVEN B. SAMPLE

Steven B. Sample, who became the 10th president of the University of Southern California on March 31, 1991, is a professor of electrical engineering at USC and regularly teaches undergraduate courses, the most recent being "The Art and Adventure of Leadership," an undergraduate seminar he co-taught with Distinguished Professor Warren Bennis.

He began his academic career as an assistant professor in the School of Electrical Engineering at Purdue University in 1966, following his graduation with a Ph.D. in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1965 and a year as senior scientist at Melpar Inc., a research and development firm in Washington, D.C.

He was promoted to associate professor with tenure in 1970. During the 1970-71 academic year, he served as an American Council on Education administrative fellow in the Office of the President at Purdue. In 1971, he took a leave of absence from Purdue to accept an appointment as deputy director for academic affairs with the Illinois Board of Higher Education, which is responsible for master planning, program approval and budget recommendations for the Illinois system of higher education.

In 1974, Sample was named executive vice president for academic affairs and dean of the Graduate College at the University of Nebraska, where he was also appointed professor of electrical engineering.

His paper on electronic motor starting systems received the Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers' Outstanding Paper Award at the 1976 Appliance Technical Conference held at Purdue University. His patents in the field of digital appliance controls have been licensed to practically every major manufacturer of appliance controls and microwave ovens in the world; as a result, nearly 100 million home appliances have been built using his inventions. In 1980, Sample was given the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the department of electrical engineering at the University of Illinois.

In 1982, he was named president of the State University of New York at Buffalo, the flagship campus of the SUNY system. Sample held this post he held until accepting the USC presidency in 1991. He was also professor of electrical and computer engineering at Buffalo and, as he has done consistently throughout his career, continued to maintain both his teaching and research.

During his tenure at Buffalo, the university was invited to join the Association of American Universities, a highly selective organization of leading research universities whose 60 members constitute fewer than 2% of all the colleges and universities in the United States and Canada. This 1989 invitation marked the first time that a public university in New York or New England had been asked to join the AAU.

In 1994, Sample was appointed chair of the AAU's committee on postdoctoral education.

Sample currently serves on the boards of directors of First Interstate Bancorp, Los Angeles; the Presley Companies Inc., Newport Beach, Calif.; Western Atlas, Beverly Hills, Calif.; Galaxy International, Los Angeles; The Los Angeles Metropolitan Project (LAMP); and Rebuild L.A. (RLA). He is a trustee of the Los Angeles Educational Alliance for Restructuring Now (LEARN), the Los Angeles World Affairs Council, and the Regenstrief Medical Foundation, Indianapolis. He is a member of Project California and the Coalition of 100 of Los Angeles.

Sample earned B.S. and M.S. degrees in electrical engineering at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1962 and 1963, respectively, prior to receiving his Ph.D. at the same university in 1965. He has received honorary degrees from Canisius College in Buffalo, the University of Sheffield in England, Purdue University, Hebrew Union College and the University of Nebraska.

Sample received an Alumni Achievement Award from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1994 and the University of Illinois College of Engineering's Alumni Honor Award in 1985. He was chosen to receive Purdue University's prestigious Outstanding Electrical Engineer Award in 1993. The award, given yearly by the faculty of the university's School of Electrical Engineering, recognizes contributions made by alumni and faculty to the field of electrical engineering and related industries.

He is the author or co-author of numerous journal articles and published papers, both in science and engineering and in the field of higher education.

Sample married the former Kathryn Brunkow of Park Ridge, Ill., in 1961. They have two daughters, Michelle Sample Smith and Melissa Ann Sample. Mrs. Sample is a certified surgical technologist.

USC NORRIS COMPREHENSIVE CANCER CENTER ON THE HEALTH SCIENCES CAMPUS

PACIFIC-10 CONFERENCE

With an unprecedented 14 NCAA team championships in 1996-97, plus 30 NCAA individual titles, the Pacific-10 Conference--which combines 10 of the finest academic institutions in the nation--once again demonstrated it is the "Conference of Champions," thus continuing to live up to its billing as having the strongest overall intercollegiate athletic league in the country.

Pac-10 members have now won 225 NCAA men's team championships, far and away more than any other conference (the Big Ten is next with 148), and 57 women's crowns, also more than any league (the Southeastern Conference is next with 38). The combined 282 men's and women's NCAA titles is most of any league (the Big Ten is next with 159).

Pac-10 men's teams have won at least 4 NCAA team titles 22 of the last 27 years, a feat unprecedented in intercollegiate athletics. The NCAA men's team championships have come at a phenomenal rate--15 basketball titles, more than any other conference; 16 of the last 31 baseball titles; 18 of the last 38, and an incredible 44 titles overall, in track and field; 18 of the last 34 in swimming and diving; 35 of the last 38 in tennis; 24 of the last 38 in water polo; and 21 of the last 28 in volleyball. Pac-10 men have also claimed an incredible 968 NCAA individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 16 years ago, Pac-10 members have claimed 4 titles in a single season on 10 occasions. Included in this are 11 of 16 tennis crowns, 12 of 16 softball championships, 5 of the last 7 volleyball titles, and 7 of the last 9 swimming and diving trophies, and 7 of the last 8 golf titles. Plus, the 276 NCAA individual titles lead all leagues.

The roots of the Pacific-10 Conference go back 80 years. On Dec. 2, 1915, the Pacific Coast Conference was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Oregon. Original membership consisted of 4 schools--University of California, University of Washington, University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All are still charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916. One year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the PCC, and Stanford University joined in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to 8 teams with the admission of the University of Southern California and the University of Idaho. Montana joined the conference in 1924 and in 1928 the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-team league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-1945 when World War II somewhat curtailed intercollegiate competition. In 1950, Montana resigned from the conference to join the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a 9-team conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and a new conference was formed called the Athletic Association of Western Universities. Original AAWU membership consisted of California, Stanford, USC, UCLA, and Washington. Washington State became a member in 1962, with Oregon and Oregon State joining in 1964. In 1968, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the Pacific-10 Conference took on a new look, expanding to included 10 women's teams.

Currently, the Pac-10 sponsors 10 men's and 11 women's sports, while Conference members are part of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in 5 additional men's sports and 2 other women's sports.

Edwin N. Atherton was named the Conference's first Commissioner in 1940. He was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt (1944), Thomas J. Hamilton (1959), Wiles Hallock (1971) and current Commissioner Thomas C. Hansen in 1983.

The Pac-10 offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.

MEDIA INFORMATION

USC SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE--The Sports Information Office (director Tim Tessalone, associate Nancy Mazmanian, and assistants John Tamanaha, Paul Goldberg and Roger Horne) is located in the southeast corner of the first floor of Heritage Hall. It houses files containing USC athletic history, player and coach biographies, statistics and photographs. The office phone number is (213) 740-8480. The fax number is (213) 740-7584. Nearby on-campus parking is available by calling the office in advance.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS--Please arrange all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office, at least a day in advance.

TROJAN HOTLINE--Dial (213) 743-2989 for a 90-second taped interview with USC coach John Robinson. The tape changes each Sunday afternoon during the football season.

JOHN ROBINSON MEDIA LUNCH--Coach Robinson hosts a weekly media-only lunch in the lounge of Heritage Hall at 11:30 a.m. each Tuesday during the season. Transcribed notes from each session are available from the Sports Information Office.

USC PRACTICES--Most Trojan practices on Howard Jones Field are open to the media, however please call in advance to confirm the schedule.

GAME CREDENTIALS--Because of space limitations, only members of the media who cover USC on a regular basis (plus media accompanying the visiting team) can be credentialled to Trojan home games. Freelancers cannot be accommodated. Credentials and parking passes are issued on a game-by-game basis. Requests for game credentials should be sent on company letterhead as early as possible to: Tim Tessalone, USC Sports Information Office, HER 103, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-0601. Credentials can be mailed up to 7 days before the game; after that time, credentials can either be picked up during the week of the game at the Sports Information Office or beginning 2 hours before kickoff on game day at press will call outside Tunnel 4 on the south side of the Coliseum. Three types of credentials are issued: working press (press box seat during game, field access during last 5 minutes of game), TV and photo (field and press box roof access, limited press box access with no seat). All credentials provide post-game locker room access. Television cameramen and still photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines in the area of the team benches.

PRESS BOX--Located on the south (Martin Luther King Blvd.) side of the Coliseum, the press box is for the use of the working media and guests of USC's athletic department only. Access is via the elevator near Tunnel 6. The upper level has seats for the written press, while the lower level houses radio and television broadcasting booths. The roof is available for cameramen and photographers. Members of USC's Sports Information Office are located in the lower level (seats 219-225) during games. To get from the press box to the field at the end of the game (and to enable continued viewing of the game action), most media exit through either side door on the lower level and walk through the stands.

PRESS BOX SERVICES--A complimentary meal is served in the press box. Game programs, speed cards and game notes are distributed before kickoff (these are also available on the field to photographers). Quarterly play-by-plays, plus halftime and final statistics, are distributed, as are transcribed post-game locker room quotes from Coach Robinson and the visiting coach. Game action is shown on indoor TV monitors posted throughout the press box and a detailed play-by-play and Coach Robinson's post-game press conference are announced over the press box public address system. Several charge-a-call phones are located in the visiting press section on the lower level and available on a first-come basis. To order a telephone, contact Nick Geas at UT&T at (714) 840-1478. Tell UT&T that the phone installer can obtain your seat location from Tim Tessalone. To call the press box on game day for score updates, dial either (213) 741-1341 or (213) 747-7111 (ask for the press box extension). USC provides complimentary fax service in the press box. Fax and computer terminal service for a fee also is available by contacting either Bassler Communications (Dick Bassler), 6706 Noble Ave., Van Nuys, CA 91405, (310) 451-5805, or Amfax (Rick Laubert), 1445 Park Ave., Long Beach, Calif. 90804, (310) 494-8757.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS--The USC and visiting team locker rooms are located inside the tunnel at the west end of the Coliseum. After a 10-minute "cooling off" period, the USC locker room will open to the media. Coach Robinson will conduct a post-game press session and afterwards several key Trojan players will be brought to the session.

VIDEO SERVICES--The USC Sports Information Office makes video highlights of key Trojans available to the media. The Pac-10 Office has a weekly video satellite feed featuring highlights and interviews from all league schools (call 510-932-4411 for information). To contract specific video services, contact Rich Zielinski of Zielinski Productions at (714) 842-5050, Dennis Kirkpatrick of Bayview Productions at (310) 543-1835, or Fox Sports West at (310) 286-3800.

FAXBACK--Call the Pacific-10 Office (510-932-4411) or the USC Sports Information Office (213-740-8480) to obtain the media-only phone number for the Pac-10 FaxBack, a fax-on-demand system that provides access to press releases from the Pac-10 Office and all Pac-10 schools on a 24-hour-a-day basis.

USC ATHLETICS ON THE WEB--The USC athletic department has an official "home page" on the World Wide Web, featuring current and historical information about Trojan sports. For access, type http://www.usctrojans.com.

Trojans in the Pros

PLAYERS

Seventeen of the last 21 years, USC has had the most players on National Football League rosters. This year alone, 41 Trojans grace the rosters of 20 of the NFL's 30 teams.

DRAFT

Nearly 400 Trojans have been drafted into the NFL, with many more making rosters as free agents. Since the first USC player was drafted in 1940, 60 Trojans have been 1st round selections -- an average of one a year.

PRO BOWL

Trojan alums are among the brightest stars in the NFL. The annual showcase of the league's top talent, the NFC-AFC Pro Bowl, has had 173 Trojan participants.

SUPER BOWL

Seventy-six Trojans have played in the Super Bowl. USC has been represented by a player in all but one of the 31 games. In Super Bowl XI alone, 9 Trojans played in the game. Two Trojans -- Lynn Swann in Super Bowl X and Marcus Allen in XVIII -- were named the game's MVP.

COACHES

USC provides the NFL with some of its best coaches. Among the former Trojans coaching in the NFL are Green Bay's Mike Holmgren, Chicago's Dave Wannstedt, Houston's Jeff Fisher, Washington's Norv Turner, and New York's Jim Fassel. About two dozen Trojans were on NFL coaching staffs last year.

HALL OF FAME

Eight Trojans have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Among the recent inductees are O.J. Simpson, Willie Wood and Al Davis.
